

EDMUND G. BROWN
GOVERNOR
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA

July 17, 1966

Mrs. Jane Tolmach

Oxnard, California

Dear Jane:

This November California is facing one of the most crucial elections in the history of our state.

At stake are all of the progressive achievements of seven years of responsible, good government. I am convinced that the Goldwater wing of the Republican Party is determined this year to seize control of the legislature and the statewide offices. They must be defeated. And they will be defeated.

To help achieve victory in November, I am forming a broadly-based Executive Committee of leaders from every phase of California life--labor, business, minority groups and others. I would like you to serve on this important group to help us in our campaign to preserve good government in California.

I am asking you to meet with me to discuss all phases of the job ahead on Wednesday, July 20, at 5:00 p.m., in the Venetian Room of the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles. Your attendance will further indicate the fact that our party intends with all its strength to keep California moving ahead.

Sincerely

EDMUND G. BROWN, Governor

P.S. If you are unable to attend this meeting, please let me know if you are willing to serve so that we may notify you of future meetings.
