Dear Michelle,

Congratulations on the release of your new book, Scandalosa! I loved the story in The Star about your experiences riding horses - and the picture of you beside the fiberglass horse! I'm back at school so unfortunately I won't be able to make it to your book signing on the 20th - but if you're ever down in L.A., or next summer when I'm back home in Ventura, I hope you'll let me buy you a cup of coffee and we can finally meet up!

Keep up the great work - you are an amazing inspiration & role model!

Best always,

Your fan,

Dallas ☺
