

fil
New York American

May 25, 1921.

Miss Julia Morgan, Architect,
Merchants Exchange Building,
San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Miss Morgan:-

I enclose a list of the articles contained in the tenth carload shipment. You will note that among these items there are two crates from French & Company containing together eighty-one parts of the Spanish ceiling, about which Mr. Hearst has already communicated with you. Some of the parts of this ceiling were in the ninth carload.

Sincerely,

Spencer