"You want to see a vision
of the future,
imagine a boot
stepping on a
human face,
forever."
- George
Orwell

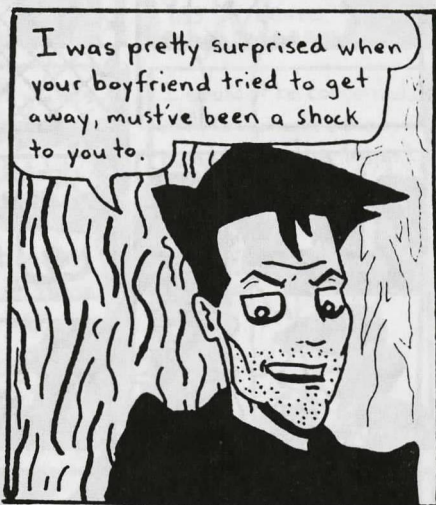

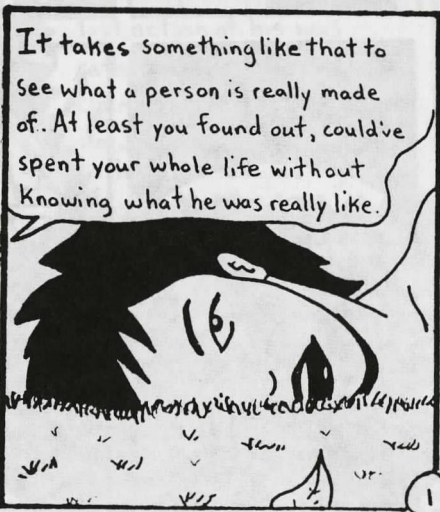

You know something, the city doesn't look so bad from here.

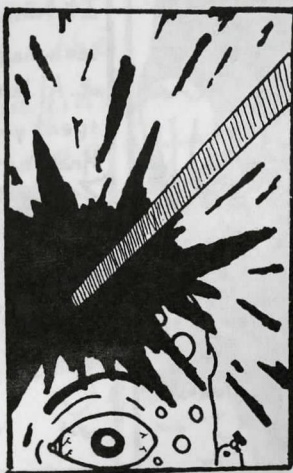

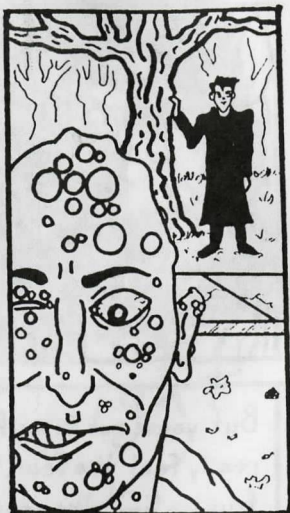

But you've got to walk thru it to really feel the fear, the total frustration, then you know it for what it is.

I was pretty surprised when your boyfriend tried to get away, must've been a shock to you to.

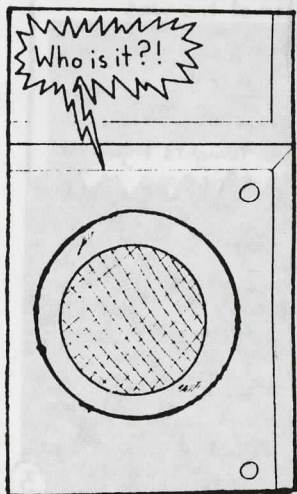

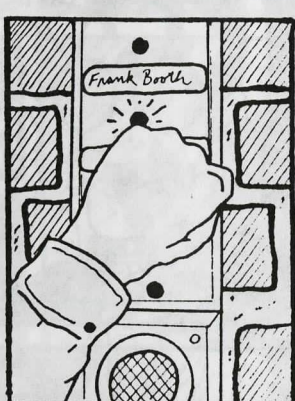

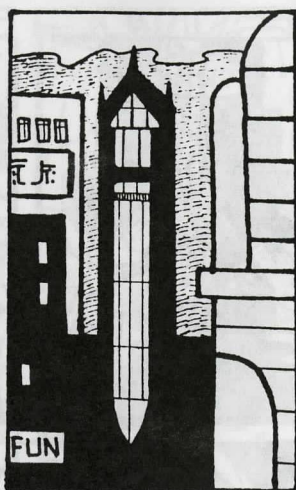

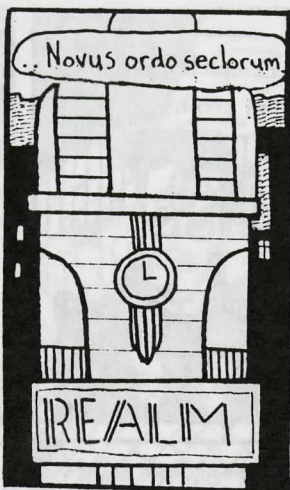

It takes something like that to see what a person is really made of. At least you found out, couldn't have spent your whole life without knowing what he was really like.

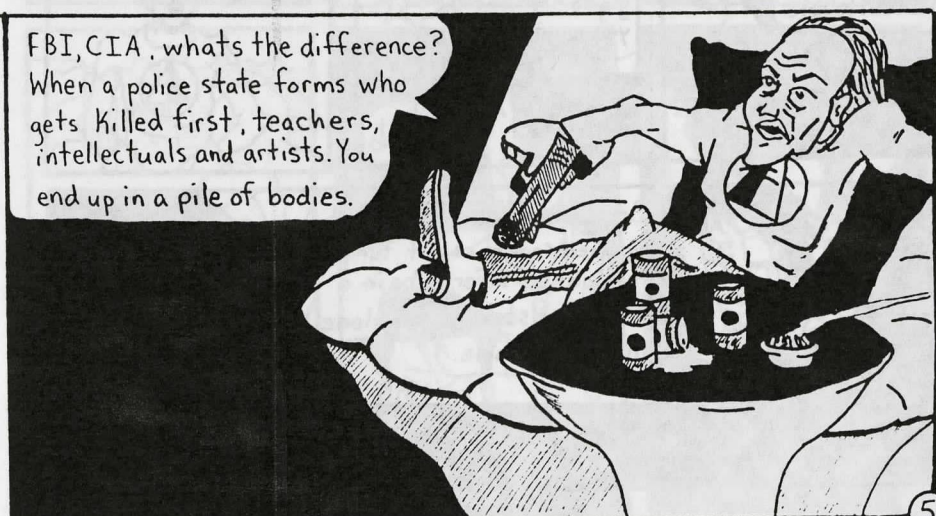

Shit Sid, you're so full of yourself, thinkin' you're that important. Me, I was in this for two reasons, free booze and broads. It's like being a rock star, for awhile anyway. But hey, they found us out.

What are you talking about?

Sid, we're not artists, we're glory seekers.

Speak for yourself.

You really are scared.

Fuck you.

Someone's calling your bluff, pay up times 'a comin'

Richard, I don't want to seem rude, but could you get the hell out've here.

Suit yourself, by the way Tasha's got a gig tonight you coming?

Why bother?

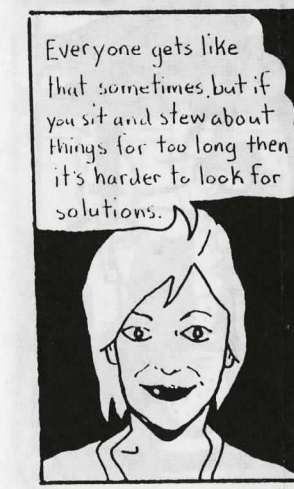

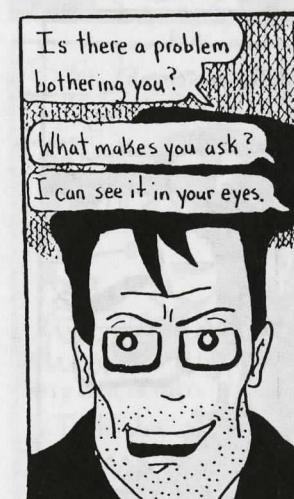

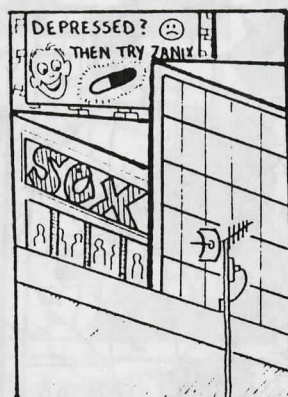

Because, if you're really that worried someone's out for you it might be safer to be in a crowd, instead of all alone in this shithole.

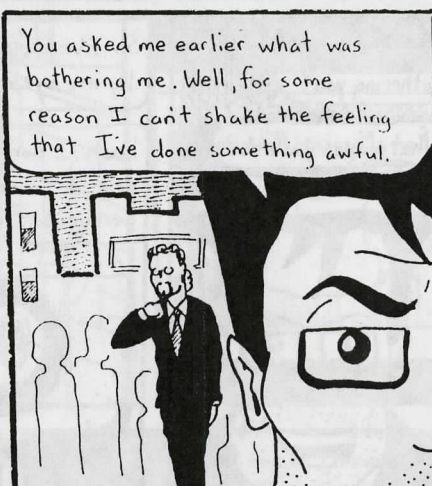

Thanks for walking me home John.

My pleasure, it was nice to see you again. Um, Alyce ...

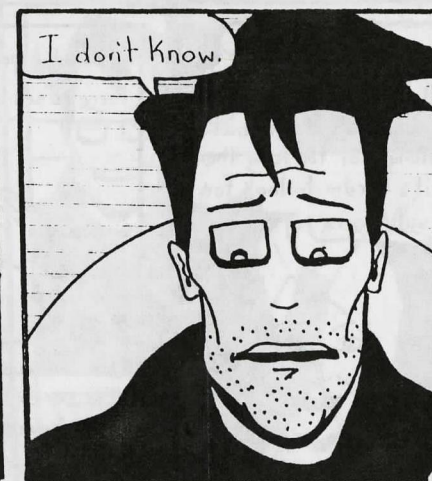

What is it?

You asked me earlier what was bothering me. Well, for some reason I can't shake the feeling that I've done something awful.

What exactly?

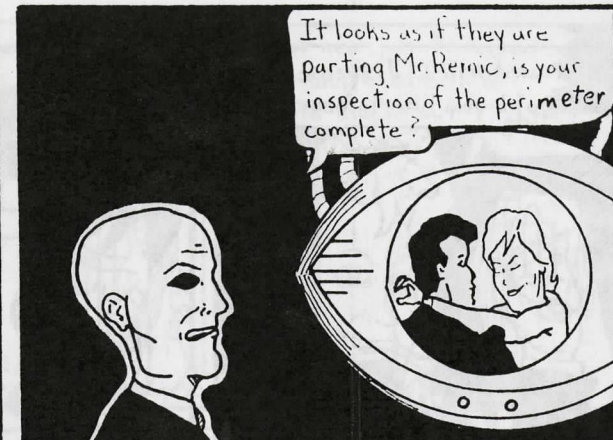

I don't know.

10

Take care John, call me if you want to talk more.

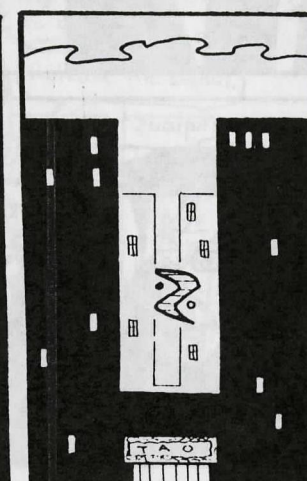

It looks as if they are parting Mr. Remic, is your inspection of the perimeter complete?

Yes sir.

Very well, return to The Realm.

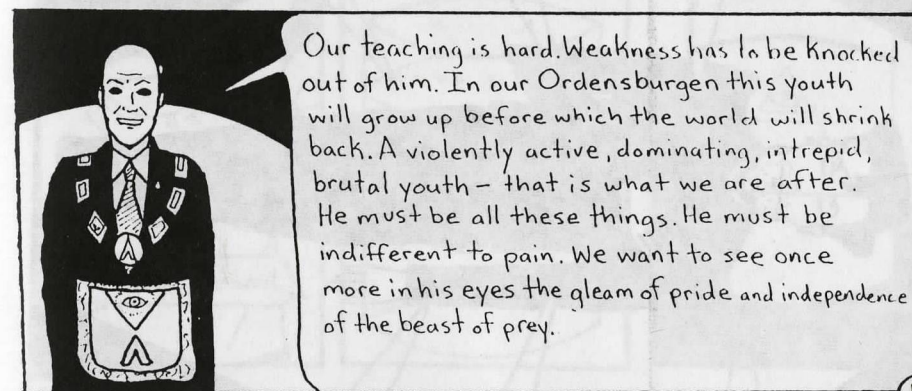

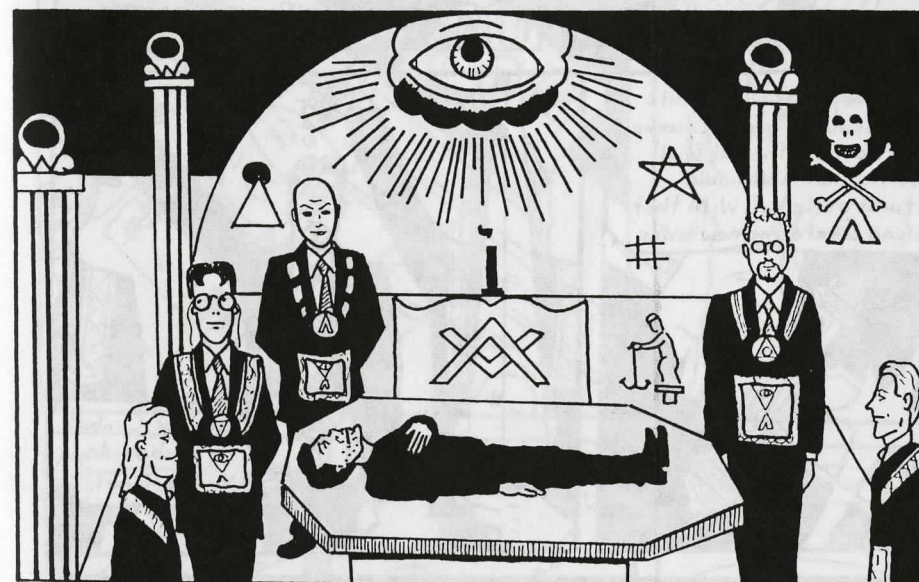

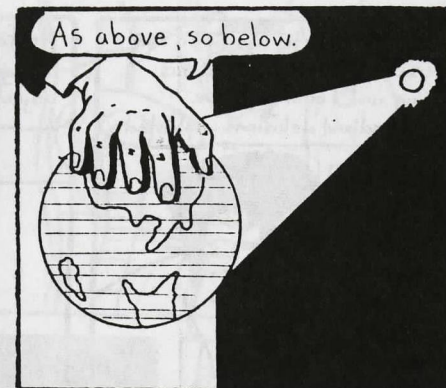

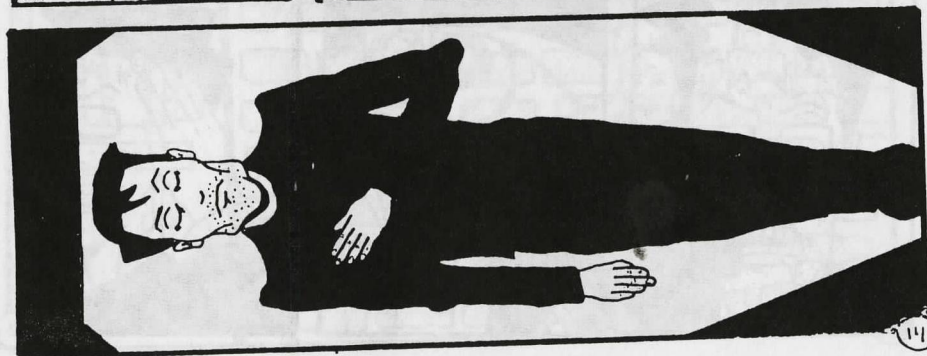

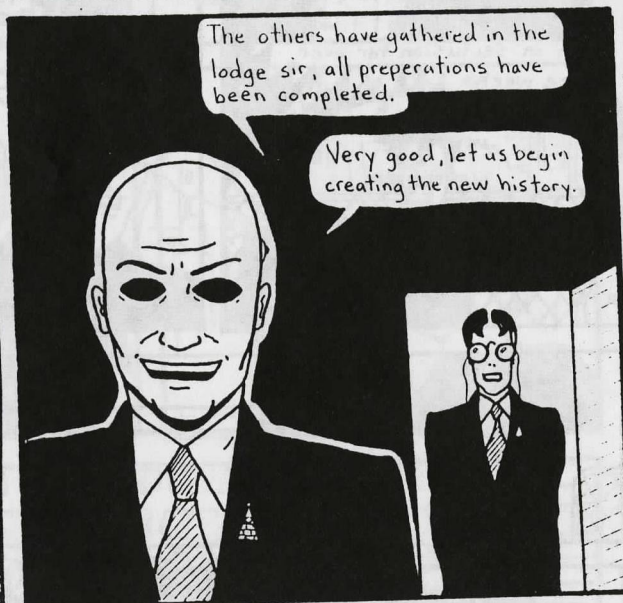

Behold.

Behold the power of the crimson eye.

Once the proselyte has been broken down and sensitized, his thinking and feelings can be manipulated and delusions implanted.

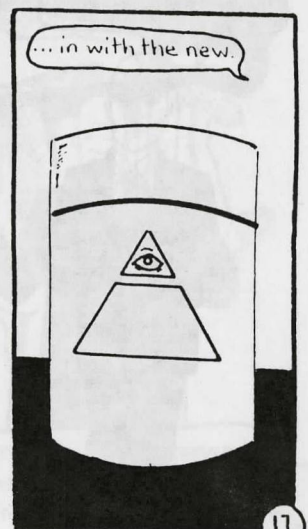

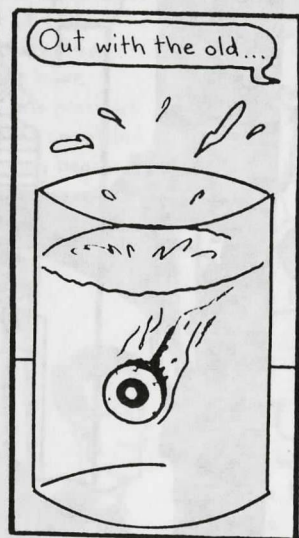

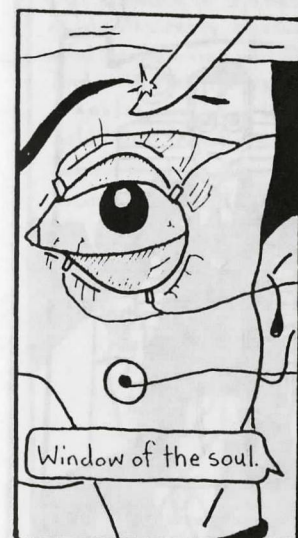

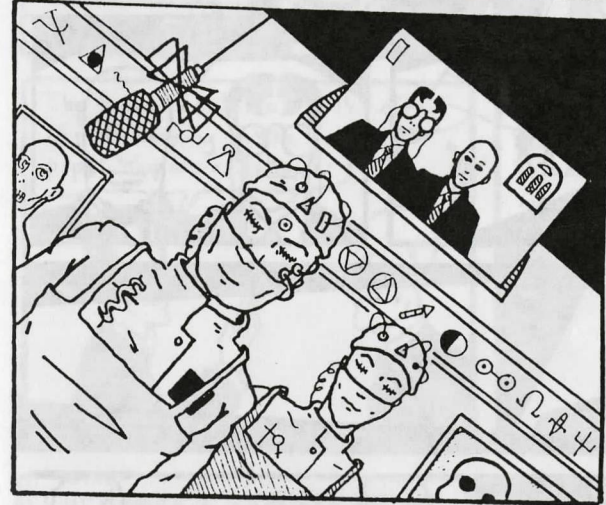

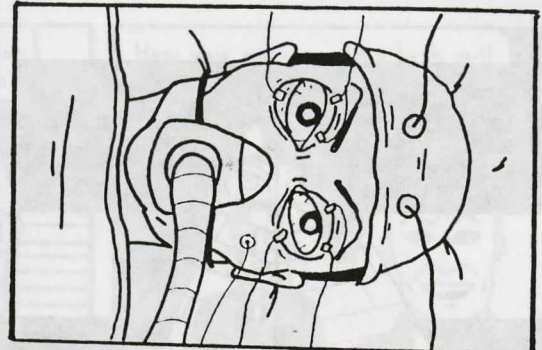

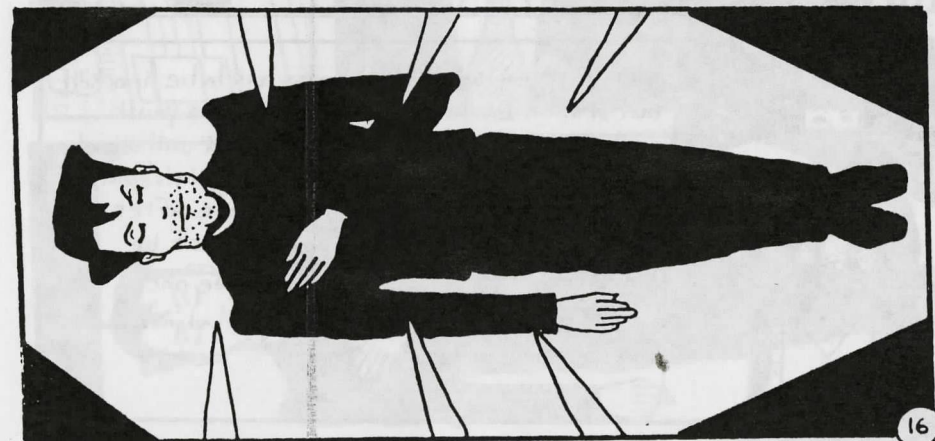

He falls under the suggestive power of the group and accepts its distortions as objective truth.

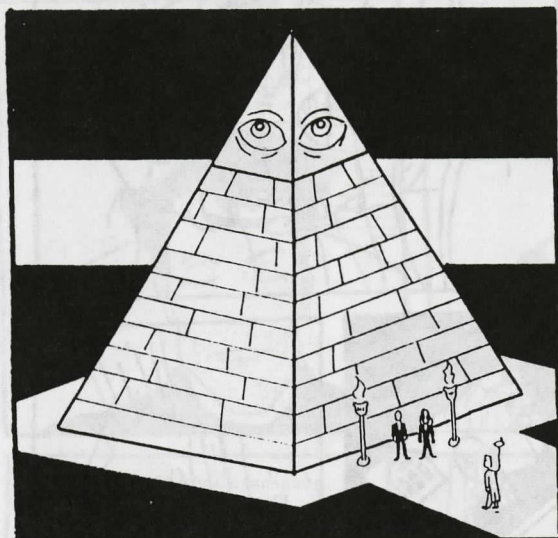

In this way we shall eradicate the thousands of years of human domestication. Then we shall have the pure and noble natural material. With that we can create the new order.

Ecigitor, Cirabato, Bessiabato, Argon, Vigaro, Tanet.

Mr. Anderson has been installed in the observation chamber.

Thank you doctor.

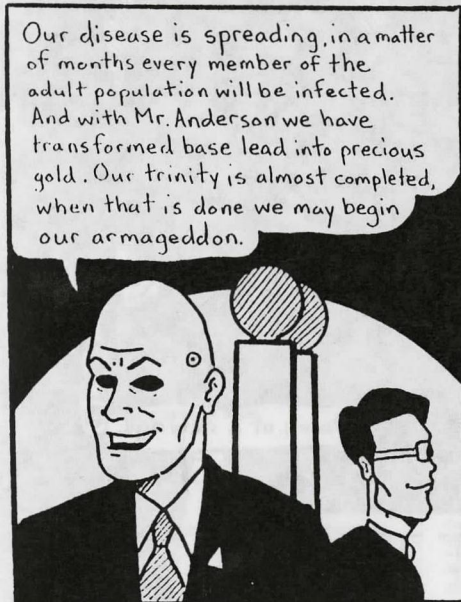

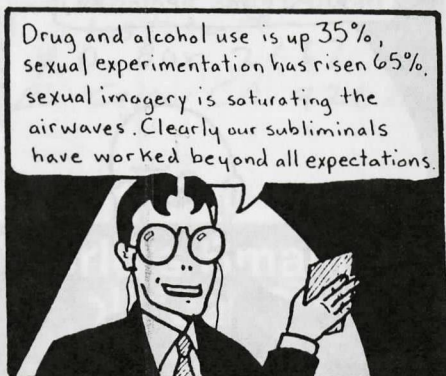

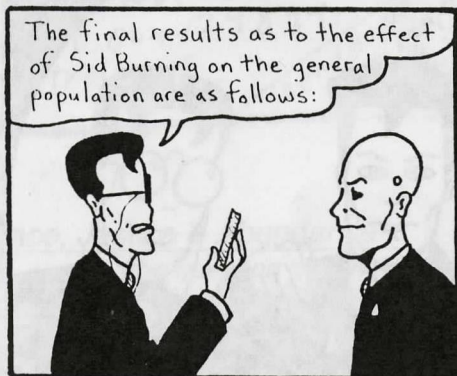

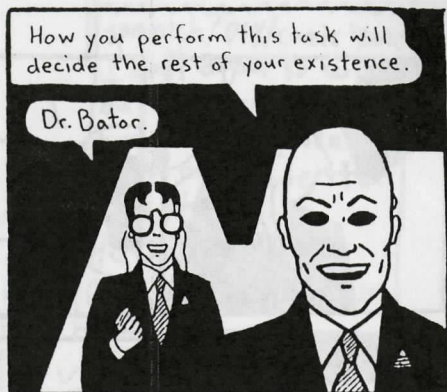

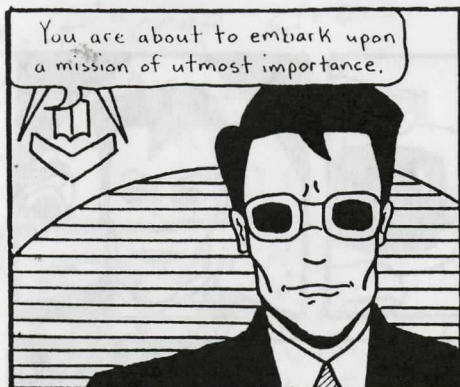

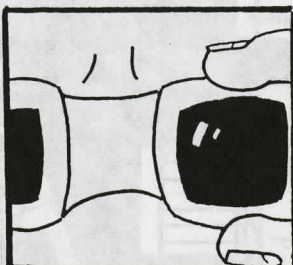

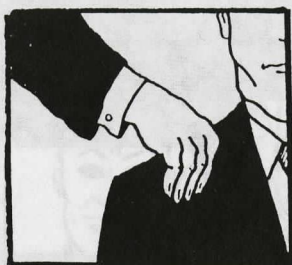

Well Mr. Anderson.

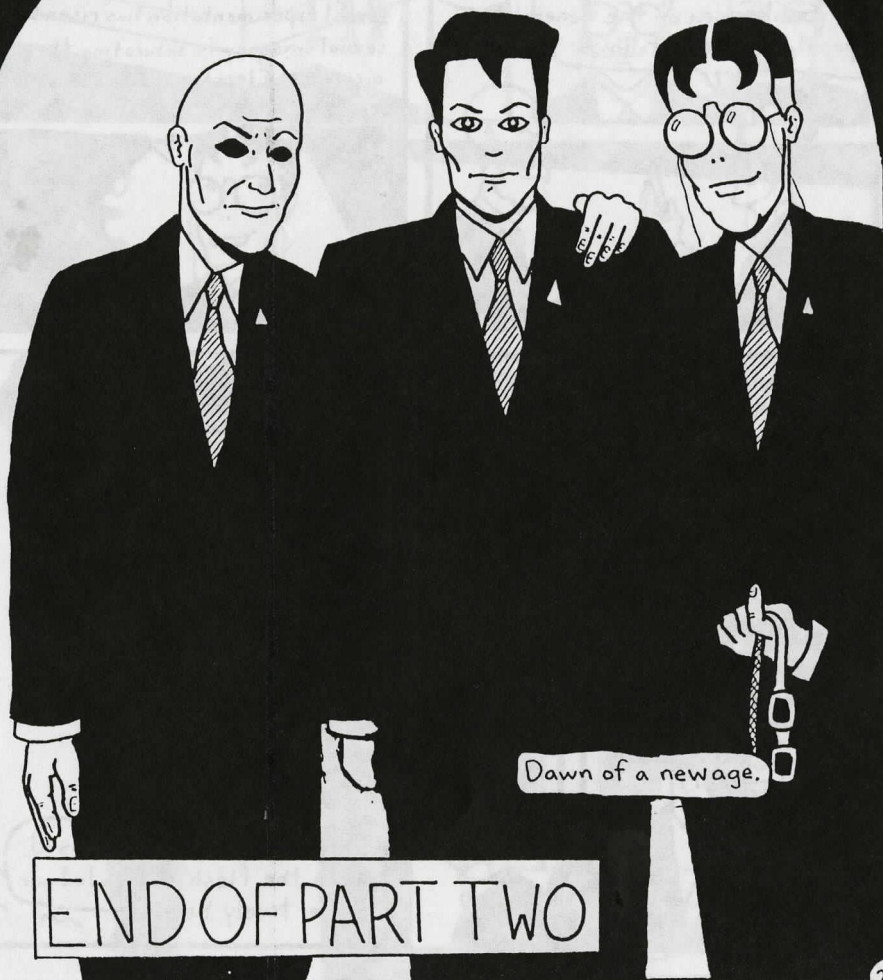

You're looking more presentable
since your procedure.

Novus Ordo Seclorum.

Dawn of a new age.

Peace, Justice & Abundance

...the question is "how?"

How do we reduce the risk of war? Unemployment? Drug abuse? How can we eliminate racial hatred? Can we reduce poverty? Stop AIDS? End sexual discrimination?

- Some call for more political government. But all systems of "OTHERS-government" seem to cause injustice, strife and poverty. That's why there is no immigration rush to socialist or fascist countries.
- Libertarians call for more "SELF-government." Societies with high self-government stimulate innovations that help feed, shelter and cure people. With more self-government, people produce enough for themselves and a surplus to help others.

What is self-government? Tolerance combined with personal responsibility. From tolerance comes justice. And peace. From responsible behavior comes abundance.

The compass measures self-government. Liberals value freedom of expression. Conservatives value free enterprise. Libertarians value both. Authoritarians are against both.
