

11

Once we reach the Relocation Center we have a responsibility to fulfill to our people and to the country of our birth, by demonstrating our loyalty to America by founding a community based on the ideals and principles indelibly written into the pages of our constitution by the blood and tears of the men and women and the founding fathers of their nation"

"Editorial (part) Hoopvine Aug 26, 1942)

"The exigencies of the times created great difficulties for all"

"After all True Americanism consists not in ostentations of shallow display and pomposity, but rather in a living of the highest principles on which this country was founded; of unflinching courage in the face of difficulties; and in a sense of loyalty and justice". <sup>and</sup> ~~part~~ quote

"Hoopvine editorial Isosuke Hawaii"

Quote from August's Hoopvine Editorial
"Cultural Cultivation vital to Physical Health"