Drought forces wily coyotes into Village

By Susan Amerikaner

Leisure Village is bordered by a beautiful wilderness area. As the drought continues, coyotes are leaving this natural habitat and roaming the Village in search of food and water. Many residents have reported seeing the "German Shepherd-like" wild dogs strolling down their streets and pacing near patios and front doors. Such behaviors are signs that the coyotes are not only becoming more numerous, but also more aggressive.

We learned this disturbing fact on Oct. 13 when representatives from California's Department of Fish and Wildlife addressed the Pet Club. Warden Dennis Rosenberg, Environmental

As California's drought worsens, wildlife is encroaching on man's territory. Here, a coyote roams Leisure Village.

Scientist Christine Thompson, and Scientific Aide Colbi Ogata gave a comprehensive presentation on the increasing danger of coyotes and what we can do about it.

Usually coyotes avoid and fear humans. But this fear is abating as the thirsty, hungry coyotes deplete their usual food sources of bunnies, rats, squirrels, possums and birds.

Although they usually appear at dawn and dusk, coyotes are now seen at all times of the day or night.

Sadly, they can jump our fences. One resident has lost her cat. Coyotes will prey on cats and small dogs, as well as larger dogs that are older and slower.

The first thing we must do is to cut off their supply of food and water. Wildlife experts gave specific tips on how to do so — and made it clear that all residents, even those without pets, must do their part.

- Keep trash cans tightly covered.

- Keep your garage door closed.

- Don't leave pet food in the garage or any place where a coyote can smell it. Even an empty food dish will attract coyotes.

Veterans Day is Tuesday, Nov. 11. The poem on Page 5 is to honor our veterans who fought to preserve what the message states.

Thanksgiving is Thursday, Nov. 27. The Village invites everyone to a traditional turkey dinner in the AR. For more information, see Page 3.

Also for Thanksgiving, the Village is once again holding an Interfaith Program. This event is Tuesday, Nov. 25, and will feature talks by a deacon from a local Catholic church, a pastor and a rabbi. For more information, see Page 4.

There's a lot going on in Leisure Village, and in case you haven't noticed, we're pointing it out for you. Construction equipment? See Page 16. The non-potable water sign? See Page 16. The new security cameras on the Village's gate houses? See Page 17. And the prototype of new directional signs? See Page 17, and be sure to send in your opinion.

LV resident's adventurous spirit is alive and well

Tom Mailheu and his wife, Renee, enjoy a hobby that keeps the adventurous spirit thriving: riding Harleys.

By Patty Ecker

It's a familiar question in a Villager's social moment: "Where did you live before you came here?"

For many of us, the answer is simple — from the Valley or Back East or Northern California, etc. Now ask Villager Tom Mailheu, a soft-spoken, even-tempered 65-year-old who still works full-time in Oxnard and tends a bountiful garden with his wife Renee. His answer: "Everywhere!" And he's telling the truth!

Tom sailed the world aboard his 47-foot sloop for 10 years. He surfed alone off undiscovered beaches in Fiji. He built a catamaran in Australia, followed by a stint sailing in the Caribbean. He came to California as a boat captain and moved into Leisure Village in 2004.

Tom's childhood on a cattle ranch in Monterey was unconventional.

"I was a cowboy, I surfed a lot, I was self-sufficient, I learned to fly and became a crop duster," he recalls.

As he turned 20, he bought a plane — an open cockpit biplane. His business boomed. It was dangerous work.

"Besides the chemicals, I had crashes and engine

Interfaith program is Nov. 25

By Carol Cannell

Our own Interfaith Thanksgiving Program will be Tuesday night, Nov. 25, starting at 7 p.m. in the Assembly Room here in Leisure Village.

If you have never attended this program, please ask around. So many Villagers have said how impressed they were with the gathering.

This year we will hear from Deacon Bob Fargo of Padre Serra Parish. We will also hear from a pastor and from a rabbi. Each year we invite different choral or musical groups to perform for us.

There will be good speakers and wonderful music, and we always sing a patriotic song and the song "Let There Be Peace on Earth." This year, as never before, we need to be thankful for the peace and freedom we enjoy here in America.

On another note, we always enjoy homemade cookies at the conclusion of the program. We are looking for volunteer bakers. If you can bake a dozen for us, please call Carol Cannell at 805-987-7570.

Bible Study is every Tuesday at Emeritus

By Carol Cannell

There is an ongoing Bible Study for Leisure Village residents that meets each Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. at Emeritus, just outside the Village, on the third floor.

We get to hear from four different local pastors on a rotating basis. There is no homework. If you have a Bible, please bring it; if not, feel free to come and just listen.

There are about 20 of us Villagers who attend. We will meet every Tuesday in November and then take a winter break for the month of December. In December we are planning a holiday party.

Please come and try us out. For more information please call Carol Cannell at 805-987-7570.

Our American Lady of Liberty

By Earl David "Duke" Breitbarth, V. 42

She stands as a beacon of hope to the lost, rejected souls of the earth.
She guides them to a free country under God's protective light.
She gives comfort and direction to people's war-torn lives to rebirth.
She defends their right to be different and free to the point of a fight.

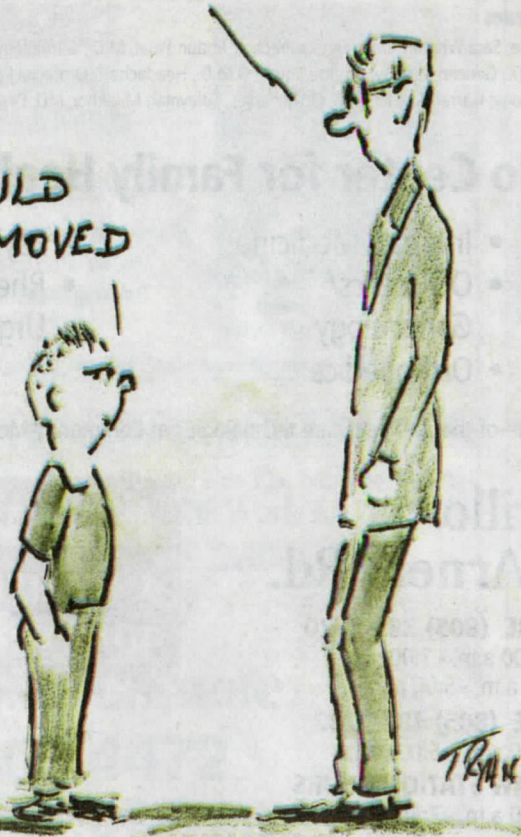

She loves the unloved and praises the downtrodden to self-esteem.
She molds their fondest dreams into a life-giving reality.
She answers their needs caused by famine, earthquakes, and political schemes.
She supports their battles against greed, power and tyranny.

She inspires the weak to strength, the strong to the benevolent use of power.
She responds to the mournful cry with arms of warmth and compassion.
She listens to the joy that freedom brings from high atop her tower.
She cares until it helps the persecuted with faces so ashen.

She alone carries on a solitary watch over the rights and plights of man.
She represents his brotherhood, faith and pursuit of happiness.
She was given to this mighty nation by a neighbor in a distant land.
She has given of herself for 200 years to people in distress.

REALTORS CORNER

What's escrow all about?

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate Inc.

What happens in escrow?

An escrow holder is a neutral, third party for both the buyer and seller who works closely with the Realtors and lender to fit all the "jigsaw pieces" of the transaction, assuring that the instructions are complied with in the time period called for.

The escrow officer will order a title report to assure that the property can be conveyed with clear title (no liens) and will prepare the deeds and documents related to the transfer.

The escrow officer also orders the payoff information from the current lender and homeowner association documents.

Included too are the delivery and signing of buyer's loan documents, ordering of insurance and receipt of buyer's down payment. Once the buyer's loan documents are signed and sent back to the lender, escrow will request that loan funds be released.

When closing funds are received, escrow does a final audit of the file to make sure all is in order and then instructs the title company to set up the recording.

Finally, closing statements are issued with distribution of funds. The seller receives the funds, and the buyer has ownership of the house!

never run away, as this could trigger a natural “chase” instinct.

When you see a coyote, here is a list of actions that will help reestablish their natural fear of humans and let them know they are not welcome here.

- Shout, wave your arms and stamp your feet.
- Make eye contact.
- Make a racket with your voice, whistles, air horns, bells, pots, pan lids, or shaker cans (soda cans filled with pennies wrapped with aluminum foil.)
- Turn a garden hose on the coyote.

Coyotes are growing bolder in Leisure Village, their new home.

- Shake a stick, cane — or even a walker!

Can coyotes be trapped or “eradicated” from the Village? Rosenberg cautioned that this extreme and costly measure will not completely solve the problem. Inevitably the coyotes will return, perhaps with even more assertive behavior.

This problem really does take a Village.

failures, but I was never hurt badly," he smiles. "And I was loaded, making $1,000 a night in my late 20s."

So Tom Mailheu bought a boat, and that changed everything. The sloop docked in Ventura Harbor was his hobby at first. Until one summer he said to his (then) wife, "It would be cool to sail to Hawaii."

So they did and had a great time.

"I was 29, we had no debt. We said 'Why not keep sailing?'"

That was 1979.

For the next 10 years, Tom and his wife sailed wherever they wanted with no communication devices, just a sextant for direction. Their sloop, the Mirage, was fast (they could average 200 miles a day), wet (water splashed up all the time) and stable.

"Everywhere we went was the best place I've ever been," Tom laughs: across the Pacific, Samoa, Australia, the Indian Ocean.

When he docked for supplies, they bought anything with preservatives. Cheerios and canned fruit were particularly welcome.

"I was the master of my domain; we could see from horizon to horizon," he adds.

Of course, there were storms, but only once in the entire decade did the weather surprise him.

In 1989, his sister asked him to build a boat for her. So Tom pulled into Brisbane, Australia, rented an apartment, and, over 18 months, constructed a 55-foot luxury catamaran. He sold the Mirage and delivered the new boat to Antigua in the Caribbean.

Life had changed. He went to Florida, worked as a dive master and a professional skipper, and got divorced. Eventually, he came back to California for a stint as a crew boat captain servicing oil rigs in Santa Barbara Channel.

In 2000, the world traveler was learning the computer in Carpinteria. He clicked on a high school classmates site, and there was his senior year prom date, Renee Allie. It didn't take long for them to reunite. Renee's parents lived in Leisure Village, which helped the couple choose a place to settle down.

"Of course I miss the adventure. But I'm probably not going to go around the world again," Tom says. "And I like Leisure Village: the security, the amenities, the quiet."

Before you imagine Tom Mailheu in a recliner, consider this: On weekends, he and Renee ride hundreds of miles — on their Harley-Davidson motorcycles.

Villagers can continue to use the pool for months, but after completion of the Fitness Center, it will be remodeled, requiring closure for about a month.

... construction equipment?

Finally! The skip loaders, the dump trucks, the pedestrian barriers, the mountains of dirt — all of it points to the goal. LV's Fitness Center is on its way. Arrival time: February 2015 (approximately).

The heavy equipment began rumbling around the swimming pool in the first week of October. Down came the west wall adjacent to the pool, and digging began — the first step toward the new exercise center.

"The crew built a base of compacted dirt that is more than three feet higher than the ground level we were used to in that area," explains General Manager Bob Scheaffer. "That should satisfy the federal government's concern by moving the building out of the flood plain."

More than 300 cubic yards of soil was trucked in to build the elevation.

The next step is a familiar one: waiting. Waiting for LOMAR — a Letter of Map Revision — which indicates that the building will be out of the flood plain. That is expected to take about six weeks, clearing the way for an approved Camarillo building permit.

"As soon as we have a building permit, construction will begin, including work on remodeling the men's and women's locker rooms and bathrooms," says Scheaffer. "The men's side will be done first."

The completed Fitness Center will be 2,000 square feet. That is about the size of the Santa Rosa Room in the Clubhouse.

A small mountain of dirt has been trucked into place to ensure that the new Fitness Center can be built out of the flood plain.

... the Village's water message to everyone who passes by?

Have you noticed the Village's water message to Camarillo?

Three large banners now hang prominently outside each entrance to Leisure Village. They read, "Leisure Village irrigates with non-potable water." It's a message to our Camarillo neighbors: We neither waste water nor break the rules in this time of drought. Villagers already know that.

The announcement resulted from a drive-by mistake. A man traveling down Santa Rosa Road saw sprinklers running outside LV's main gate during the day. He was familiar with Three large banners explain the Village's water usage to those who pass by.

Camarillo community water rules:

landscape sprinkling only in the early morning or late evening and then only two days a week. The observant driver also is a member of the board of a neighboring water district. So he complained to our water authority, the Camrosa Water District, which set the record straight for him and all those who pass by Leisure Village

Water usage and water waste is a crucial issue for the entire community. Camrosa and Leisure Village wanted to make our position clear. The water district paid for the banners; the Village posted them proudly.

Gate Attendant Rudy Ramos has a clear view of incoming and outgoing traffic at the East Gate because of the new security camera system.

... the new security cameras on the Village's gate houses?

The tipping point occurred because a resident on her daily bike ride from gate to gate in the Village had a close call. She approached the East Gate house, saw that the incoming gate was down, and began to make a U-turn. Suddenly, the entrance gate went up; a car moved forward. There was no collision, but it was clear that it was a close call. The guard inside could not see the cyclist behind the building and thought the road was clear. That got the security ball rolling.

Now cameras have been installed at all four corners of LV's East and West gate houses; the Main Gate will get them shortly. They transmit a 360-degree view of incoming and outgoing traffic — auto, truck, bike and foot traffic — on a screen inside the gate houses to those on duty. License plates are also projected inside.

Gate officers report they appreciate this new level of observation. It's like eyes in the backs of their heads.

... the new signs? What's your opinion?

Residents and visitors may soon be directed by new signs throughout our Village. After decades of the green street and information signs positioned along the streets and at the entrances, a different look may be on the way.

The initiative for change began in the Safety and Security Committee. Residents expressed concerns about existing signage: They can't be seen easily at night; they are too high; they look old-fashioned; and one member called them ugly.

Those complaints got action.

The first candidate for a new look has been posted (excuse the pun) at the corner of Village 13.

Eventually all the signs in the Village will be updated. The sample at Village 13 has a plastic post, which is more durable than the current wooden ones. The numbers on the No. 13 sample are two inches taller than the existing signs, a component that LV Security officers have endorsed.

When the Safety and Security Committee saw the sample sign, the reaction was mixed. It was described as "very pretty" in the daylight, but too dark at night and too short.

What's your opinion?

"We are looking for input from residents," says General Manager Bob Scheaffer. "Write to the Association Office and tell us what you think. We want to come up with a style that will be contemporary, attractive and highly visible."

Send your suggestions to New Street Signs, Leisure Village Association, 200 Leisure Village Drive, Camarillo, CA 93012.

You can also send your suggestions via email to office@leisurevillage.org; put "New Street Signs" in the subject line.

Bowling League

By Bob Cohen

We are well into the first half of the 2014-2015 season, and the spread between the top teams and the rest of the pack is growing. But, we have another nine sessions before the first-half title is secured. A lot can happen. For example, 24 200-plus scratch games were rolled in the last four weeks. And only one of those players is on the first-place team, which in turn means the competition is not yielding gracefully!

This month, 10 bowlers racked up the high scores, led by Danny Coleman with six games (203, 207, 212, 213, 214 and 224) and followed closely by Dave Houghton with five games (204, 204, 208, 211 and 216), Bob McQuivey with four (201, 205, 208 and 219) and Dennis Durand with three games (203, 205 and the high score of the month, 233).

Six players scored the magic number once each: Tash Guzman (203), Bill Kirkpatrick (201), Meriam Laird (201), Art Matter (216), Stan Reshes (201) and Alan Singer (200).

Sidepot winners for the fourth week were Vi Guzman and Gail Singer (tie), Fran Cohen and Laura Schweers for the ladies and Tash Guzman, Stan Reshes and Bob McQuivey for the men.

Sidepot winners for the fifth week were Nora Potter, Wilma Hutson and Phyllis Jacobson for the ladies and Dave Houghton, Art Matter and Bob Cohen for the men.

Sidepot winners for the sixth week were Sybil Moore, Vivian Hurst and Susan Kusak and Leslie Fox (tie) for the ladies, and Danny Coleman, Bob McQuivey and Irv Cohen for the men.

Sidepot winners for the seventh week were Barbara Leigh, Sybil Moore and Vivian Hurst for the ladies and John Albany, Gerry Rosen and Dennis Durand for the men.

Our first half ladder tournament will be under way by the ILV publication date. Watch for the results in the December issue.

Those of you who are former members of SAS will remember the great parties we used to have. More about this will follow next month.

Writer's Club

By Harvey S. Brosler

The Writers Club meets every Monday at 1 p.m. in the MPR. The purpose of the club is to bring together residents to present stories or poems on any topic, real or fictitious, including thought-provoking topics. Suggested topics are furnished. "Stories of the Month" are located on the wall just inside the entrance to the Library and include this month's feature presentations relating to the desire to be a politician.

A library copy of prior "Stories of the Month" for 2013-2014 is located in a folder on the magazine rack.

The suggested topic for Nov. 10 is "My Favorite Hollywood Actor."

RV Club

By Linda Gordon

The next meeting of the RV Club will be Nov. 18. The board meeting is at 6 p.m., followed by the regular meeting at 6:30. We will be discussing our Christmas party. We also will be looking into new T-shirts and sweatshirts with our logo.

November is also election month, so please try to attend; your vote does mean something.

There is a camp-out being planned for February; information will be available at the meeting.

Racquetball Club

By Leslie Fox

At October's annual pot luck meeting, officers were chosen. Remaining in their positions are Diane Carroll, president; Sue Stein, vice president; Claire Scott, secretary; and replacing our beloved Lane Petersen as treasurer, Arlene Bergman. All are truly appreciated for their service.

John Peterson announced the winners of the Paddle Club tournament held Sept. 28. The winners of the four divisions were Gary Carroll, Marsha Richardson, Buster Hayslett, and Twila Alexander.

With the time change occurring Nov. 2, there will also be a time change on the court, with the round robin returning to its 3 p.m. start time on Monday and Wednesday. Friday nights will be open play at 3 p.m. with an end to the Pupus. The rest of the times for scheduled play remain the same: Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, 8 to 9 a.m. for easy play. Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday from 9 to 11 a.m. is open to all who bring their paddle, and the advanced players will keep their late afternoon play on Tuesday, Saturday and Sunday.

Pickle ball has regularly schedule times on Monday and Wednesday from 9 to 11 a.m. This leaves all of us with a lot of open hours for both pickle ball and paddle tennis, so if you are so inclined call your fellow players and have at it.

Ping Pong's regularly schedule times: Ladies play Monday, Wednesday and Friday 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. Men play Monday through Saturday 9:30 to 10:45 a.m., and open play is on Monday from 3 to 4:30 p.m.

Our next scheduled meeting will be in December, and the exact date will be given via the phone tree and published in next month's paper. Any new players interested in paddle tennis should call Diane Carroll at 419-4325 for information; for pickle ball or ping pong call John Peterson at 388-1230.

The Racquetball Club would like to wish all a "Happy Giving Thanks Day"!

Men's Golf Club

By Rob Sollett

For golfers, there is nothing more exciting than making your first hole-in-one, especially when it is witnessed by fellow golfers and of course, a repair person. I'll explain.

Leslie Rawlings, a first-year member of our sister group, the LVWGA, was participating in the annual dual club Harvest Tournament. She took her stance on the 16th tee box wielding a pitching wedge and, in her own words, "I didn't hit a good shot. It was just crummy, it just rolled and rolled along the ground. I turned my back..."

Bob Zaas, an LVMGA member and fellow tournament player, watched the rolling ball with great expectation and yelled: "Look, look, look!"

Leslie turned. "It was a miracle," she beamed. "It rolled into the hole!"

Leslie Rawlings, who has been playing for some 22 years, scored her first hole-in-one! Celebratory cheers erupted from Bob Amantia and Tom Appleford, who completed the tournament foursome.

In the distance, to the right, the sound of clapping hands joined the cheerful celebration. The group looked up to see a roofer on top of a residence stand and applaud her incredible achievement. Now that is special. Well done, Leslie!

Another major achievement during this tournament was that of Kathleen Craig, who hit her lowest score. "Eighty six, best round I've ever played," she said jubilantly.

Amid the rejoicing, walking aimlessly pushing a three-wheeled golf cart, one male participant simply asked: "Where's lunch?"

If you haven't done so already, check out our awards case in the Atrium. Ray Craig has done a marvelous job updating it. Way to go, Ray!

The LVMGA Championship Tournament will be under way during the first two Tuesdays during November. Good luck to all participants.

The Annual Multi-Club Holiday Party will be held Nov. 21. LVMGA, LVWGA and the Billiards Club will again join together for this not-to-be-missed event. Contact John Wirtz for tickets and further information.

Lastly, don't forget the LVMGA 40th Anniversary golf tournament on Monday, Feb. 16, 2015. Be part of the club's historic event.

The LVMGA would like to extend our wishes for a safe and healthy Thanksgiving.

The Amateur Radio Club

By Jonathan Fox

At next month's meeting on Dec. 4 at 2 p.m. in the MPR, we will have our holiday gathering, complete with gifts to be given away. We will then move to the ham radio shack to explore more of the recent additions to our system.

If you are curious about becoming a member of the club, please join us at one of our meetings. You do not have to be a licensed amateur radio operator to join. We will provide help in getting your license, and it's now easier than ever since Morse code is no longer required. Meetings are held the first Thursday of the month in the MPR at 2 p.m. For more information contact Jonathan Fox at 805-377-3697 or KT6LA@yahoo.com.

Women's Club

By Chi Chun

This year has been an outstanding one for The Women's Club, with dedicated officers who are nearly impossible to replace. It's not too late to volunteer to be a board member for the coming year!

Donations given to projects within Leisure Village for Phase II were $3,860 for a Sawtop table saw for Woodshop and for new radios for the Emergency Preparedness Organization (EPO). An additional $1,700 was given to charities outside of the Village. Combining these donations with those from Phase I of $3,750 brings the grand total for 2014 to $9,330.

Dear Christine

Concerned Grandma

By Christine Sztukowski

Dear Christine,
My husband and I want to leave our assets to our children and our grandchild. What should we consider?

Concerned Grandma.

Dear Grandma,
One very important consideration is taxes. An inheritance is generally worth only what your heirs get to keep after taxes are paid. So when it comes to leaving a legacy, not all property is created equal - at least as far as federal income tax is concerned.

Appreciated capital assets:

When you leave property to your heirs, they generally receive an initial income tax basis in the property equal to the property's fair market value on the date of your death.

Life Insurance and cash:

Life insurance proceeds received by your heirs will generally be received income tax free.

Taxed deferred retirement accounts:

Distributions from these accounts will be subject to income tax at ordinary income tax rates when distributed to your heirs.

Note: It is recommended to seek advice from a CPA, Investment advisor, and an Estate Planning Attorney when creating your legacy.

This popular sale is a great time to buy a variety of wonderful homemade goodies to serve at home or take to potlucks and parties. Finally, the upbeat music of Justin Ramos and Friends will entertain us with their holiday show.

NOVEMBER: A Time of Gratitude!

A time of personal reflection on all our many blessings.

Veteran's Day—Tuesday, November 11th

We are SO grateful for all of our Veterans. Thank you for your service. Thank you for making it possible for us to live and work in this great country. It is an honor for us to fly our flag in honor of our great Military.

Thanksgiving Day — Thursday, November 27th

Our hearts are filled with gratitude for our many blessings. Family, Freedom, Friends and good health are at the top of the list. During this Economic crisis of our country we have been blessed by great advocates. We work hard to serve all our clients and in turn we are blessed by great referrals. Thank you for all your good words.
