Dear Michelle Serros,

I really liked what you read to us from your book "Chicana falsa." These stories are really interesting and really sound like and relate to chicano life.

The story I really liked was "Dead pig's revenge". It was or at least somewhat thought up. I know it is really hard to write about ourselves and about personal experiences because for me it is.

I thank you on behalf of the students of ASAMS for coming and reading to us. Your pictures of Lella Delboza were really

 Sincerely,
