Subject: Irene & Jorge Garcia Chicano Studies Collection Dedication Ceremony

Your are invited to the dedication ceremony for the Irene and Jorge Garcia Chicano Studies Collection at California State University Channel Islands (CI). The event is sponsored by the John Spoor Broome Library and the Chicana/o Studies Program. The event will take place on Tuesday, February 16th from 5-7pm at the Library's Exhibition Hall. Food and Refreshments will be provided.

California State University Northridge Professor Mary Pardo, author of Mexican American Women Activists, will be speaking about the significance of this collection to Chicana/o Studies, History, Spanish and many other disciplines and to the larger community in Ventura County.

CI is proud to introduce the collection encompassing over 3,500 books, pamphlets, videos, and music CDs. Some examples include books on Pre-Columbian Indigenous Groups, Chicano and Chicana Studies, Latin American Literature and Culture, Bilingual Children's Books, Art and Music, Religious Studies, California History and Ventura County History.

For more information please contact: Jose Alamillo, Chicana/o Studies Program at 805-437-2685 or jose.alamillo@csuci.edu
