President John D. Welty

A CAREER OF DISTINCTION

New website pays tribute to President Welty

Did you know that the marching band's annual holiday performance at University House is one of President Welty's favorite Fresno State memories? Or that during his presidency, $425 million in new facilities were constructed on campus?

These are among the many facts and features included in a new Web microsite paying tribute to President Welty and his 22 years at Fresno State. Created by the University Communications Web team, the site is now available at www.FresnoState.edu/Welty.

The site includes President Welty's biography, top achievements, favorite moments at Fresno State, photos and videos. There also is a page where individuals can offer their retirement wishes for Dr. Welty, who concludes his tenure at Fresno State on July 31.
