Instruction's for Precinct Phoners

Please telephone those households which are underlined on the attached list. Say something like:

I am _____ a volunteer working to elect Jane Tolmach to the Assembly. Would you like to help elect Jane?

Please mark by number on the left margin of the precinct list whether they are:

1. For Jane
2. Tending toward Jane
3. Undecided or indifferent
4. Opposed to Jane

Ask those willing to help how they want to help and keep a record on a separate sheet of paper:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| Phone a precinct — have numbers on lists | |
| walk their precinct | 50-75 calls phone on election day |
| distribute literature | help with mailing end of next week |
| yard sign, car top sign, bumper sticker | work in headquarters |
| buy tickets to Brown Reception | contribute money |

Please record name, address, and phone number of those willing to help and send this sheet to 656 Douglas as soon as you have completed your phoning.

We will contact those willing to help.
If you can phone Jane's supporters, the "1's" on your list, to remind them to vote on election day, please keep your precinct list and return it to 656 Douglas immediately after the election. If you cannot phone on election day please return your list as soon as you complete your polling.

~~Thank you for your help in electing Jane~~
