

I have a couple of things to show you first time its convenient but no rush. An insurance policy and a letter or two.

Dearest Patricia:

March 20, 1966
(The Newsweek Teen age article is super! Highly interesting and gain to all concerned.)

It was sweet of you to call me this morning & say hello. There's no music I like better than the music of your voice, and I was more pleased than I can say, but this I think you know.

Incidentally (my word again) before I give away too many tickets to the mandolin concert next Saturday afternoon (the 26th)

I'm presuming that Herb still plans to go along. If he does I give away only two tickets, if not then I give away three; but I'm counting on his going.
Let me know for sure as I'll hunt up the African boys in the next two days to invite them. They haven't been coming to the general foreign students meetings these past two weeks, so I'll have to go to their rooming house. The only one I've been able to invite thus far, as I think I told you already had an engagement for the 26th.

If you can drop by for breakfast some time this week, please do just call & say you're coming by I'll be prepared. And it does me a world of good to see you or hear from you some time in between on weekly Wednesday dinner parties.

I had dinner and a most enjoyable visit afterward this evening with Betty Walker and her family (Bob, her husband and 3 children, Lynette, Barbara & Wayne - about 10, 8, & 7) Betty, of course, already knows and likes you from your period of secretaryship in Natural Science. Also she remembers & was impressed by your family at my retirement dinner last spring.
I took the pictures from the dinner to show to Betty & Bob. Her reaction to your family picture was like that of everyone else - that it is a fine picture of a good looking & gratifying looking group. (I took an hour and a quarter's sunning on the deck over the garage here today. The sun was nice & warm but the breeze was just chilly.) Of its convenient call me tomorrow about the tickets for next Sat. so I can begin to hunt up the extra tickets. The time is 7:30.
Love Carl.
