CALIFORNIA ROSTER

of FEDERAL, STATE,
COUNTY and CITY OFFICIALS

Compiled by the Secretary of State
Frank M. Jordan

This publication has been compiled from a wide range of sources, with cooperation of Federal, State, County and City agencies, Chambers of Commerce and others.

Because of constant changes, some information in the Roster will not be current during the entire span between publication one year and the next, but trust that the Roster will continue to serve as a valuable reference.

FRANK M. JORDAN
Secretary of State

The Roster is published in August or September annually.

(5) AIR RESOURCES BOARD

Office: 417 S. Hill St., Room 1085, Los Angeles 90013
Laboratory: 434 S. San Pedro St., Los Angeles 90013

The Air Resources Board is responsible for the quality of air which the citizens of California must breathe. Its duties are divided between vehicular and stationary sources of pollution. For the control of vehicle-created pollution, the Board establishes requirements, and tests and certifies systems to be applied to automobiles, trucks and buses. The Board is also responsible for the control of diesel smoke and odor and for the control of noxious pollutants from in-plant vehicles. Its duties for the control of stationary pollution sources are to divide the state into air basins and to adopt standards of ambient air quality for each basin. It also inventories sources of air pollution within the basins. The Board conducts studies and evaluates the effects of air pollution upon human, plant and animal life, and the factors responsible for air pollution. It encourages a cooperative state effort in combating air pollution.

(9) CALIFORNIA ARTS COMMISSION

Office: 111 Capitol Mall, No. 219, Sacramento 95814

Objectives: The California Arts Commission was created by Chapter 1742, Statutes of 1963, to insure that the role of the arts in the life of our community will continue to grow and to play a more significant part in the welfare and educational experience of our citizens, and establish the paramount position of this state in the nation and in the world as a cultural center.

Program and Performance: The Commission is composed of 15 members appointed by the Governor, broadly representing all fields of the performing and visual arts, plus 2 Assemblymen and 2 Senators, appointed by their respective bodies.

The commission and its staff is currently engaged in assisting local communities in developing their own cultural programs. This program is being accomplished by providing technical consultative support when requested by the local communities.

The commission is currently working with Regional Conferences and workshops to stimulate interest in, and implement the commission's technical assistance program to local arts councils and cultural organizations.

The commission will continue to support a modest touring arts program in an effort to further stimulate cultural and artistic programs in California communities.

The Commission is initiating and developing three program areas titled California Business and the Arts, State Government and the Arts, and California Arts Outside of the State. All three programs have the intent of stimulating interest by the California business, industry and State Government in supporting California Arts Commission's policies, programs and activities. The intent of the California Arts Outside of the State is to develop awareness of California Arts throughout the United States.

Seven positions, four professional and three clerical, provide staff assistance to the Commission.

Included in this budget is a projected $50,000 federal grant from the National Endowment of the Arts program.

 Tuesday next succeeding first Monday in November in even-numbered years, General Election Day
 Every day appointed by the President of the United States or by the Governor of this state for a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday
 December 25, Christmas Day
 Every Saturday in the public offices of the state
 Whenever a holiday falls on a Sunday, the following Monday is a legal holiday

GENERAL ELECTION

There shall be held throughout the state, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, in every even-numbered year, an election, to be known as the general election. (Sec. 2500 Elections Code.)

DIRECT PRIMARY

For the nomination of all candidates to be voted for at the general election, a direct primary shall be held at the legally designated polling places in each precinct on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the immediately preceding June. (Sec. 2501 Elections Code.)

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

The presidential primary shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June of each year when delegations to national party conventions are to be chosen. (Sec. 2503 Elections Code.)

STATE OFFICES

Unless otherwise provided by law, all offices of every state agency shall be kept open for the transaction of business from 8 o'clock a.m. until 5 o'clock p.m. of each day from Monday to Friday both inclusive, other than legal holidays, but the Office of Treasurer shall close one hour earlier; provided, however, any state agency or division, branch or office thereof may be kept open for the transaction of business on other hours and on other days than those specified herein. (Sec. 11020 Government Code.)

SCHOOLS

Except as otherwise provided the public schools shall continue in session or close on holidays as follows:

(a) The public schools shall close on Saturday, Sunday, January 1st, February 12th, February 22d, May 30th, July 4th, September 9th, November 11th and December 25th.

(b) The Governor in appointing any other day for a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday may provide whether the public schools shall close on the day. If the Governor does not provide whether the public schools shall close, they shall continue in session on all special or limited holidays appointed by the Governor, but shall close on all other days appointed by the Governor for a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday.

(c) The public schools shall close on every day appointed by the President as a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday, unless it is a special or limited holiday.

(d) The public schools shall continue in session on all legal holidays other than those designated by or pursuant to this section and shall hold proper exercises commemorating the day.

(e) When any of the holidays on which the schools would be closed fall on Sunday, the public schools shall close on the Monday following. (Sec. 8151 Education Code.)

Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the governing board of any school district may declare a holiday in the public schools under its jurisdiction when good reason exists. (Sec. 5202 Education Code.)

OPTIONAL BANK HOLIDAYS

Every negotiable instrument is payable at the time fixed therein without grace. When the day of maturity falls upon Sunday, Saturday or a holiday, the instrument is payable on the next succeeding business day which is not a Saturday; provided, however, that where the day of maturity of the instrument falls on an optional bank holiday or the instrument would except for the foregoing provision be payable on an optional bank holiday and it is payable by or at a banking house or any branch or office thereof and the particular banking house or branch or office thereof by or at which the instrument is payable is open for the transaction of business on such optional bank holiday, the holder of the instrument may at his option present the same for payment at said banking house or branch or office thereof by or at which the same is payable on such optional bank holiday or on the next succeeding business day which is not a Saturday. An instrument payable on demand is not to be presented for payment on Sunday, Saturday, or a holiday but is to be presented for payment on the next succeeding business day which is not a Saturday, except that where such instrument is payable by or at a banking house or any branch office thereof and the particular banking house or branch or office thereof by or at which such instrument is payable is open for the transaction of business on an optional bank holiday, the holder of such instrument may at his option present the same for payment at said banking house or branch or office thereof by or at which the same is payable on such optional bank holiday or on the next succeeding business day which is not a Saturday. For the purpose of this section an optional bank holiday is every holiday referred to in Sections 6700 and 6701 of the Government Code of this State, except the following: January 1st, May 30th, July 4th, September 9th, known as "Admission Day," and December 25th, any Monday following any Sunday on which any such day falls, the first Monday in September, Good Friday from 12 noon until 3 p.m., the Thursday in November appointed as Thanksgiving Day, and every Sunday. (Sec. 3166 Civil Code.)

The legislative body of any city or district may, by ordinance or resolution, provide that every Saturday is a holiday as respects the transaction of business in the public offices of such cities or districts except that provision shall be made for the continuance of essential public services such as police and fire protection. The office of the clerk of a municipal court established under the provisions of the Municipal Court Act of 1925 is excluded from the provisions of this section.

A special or limited holiday is a holiday applying only to a special class or classes of business, or a special class or classes of persons, and not appointed to be generally observed throughout the State by all classes of business and all classes of persons.

On any special or limited holiday appointed by the President or Governor, all courts and public offices of the State, any political subdivision, or any city, shall be open and function in their normal and usual manner. All other public functions shall be performed as on days which are not holidays, and all contracts shall be performed and business transacted as usual, except only as to or by the particular class of business or persons expressly limited or restricted by the provisions of the proclamation appointing or declaring such special or limited holiday.

Whenever any act of a secular nature, other than a work of necessity or mercy, is appointed by law or contract to be performed upon a particular day which falls upon a holiday, such act may be performed upon the next business day with the same effect as if it had been performed upon the day appointed. (Sects. 6704-5-6 Govt. Code.)

Office: 1405 Federal Bldg., 450 Golden Gate Ave., San Francisco
Gene Burke, Agent in Charge

Office: 1004 Federal Office Bldg., 300 N. Los Angeles St., Los Angeles

These offices transact business only with American citizens.

To obtain an American passport, application must be made in person to the county clerk of the county in which the applicant resides. In Sacramento, the application should be made to the Clerk of the United States District Court in that city. In San Francisco and Los Angeles, the application should be made to the Passport Agencies in those cities.

These officials have the necessary forms and will make the proper arrangements for native-born or naturalized American citizens to obtain promptly an American passport.
