

internship program who complete requirements for a credential.

Business, Industrial, and Governmental Placement

Participation in this program is open to all graduating seniors and alumni who desire full-time positions in agriculture, business, industry, governmental agencies and other related fields. Seniors are urged to complete and file a personal data sheet with the Placement Center early during the year in which they expect to graduate. Close cooperation is maintained with the various schools and departments in the placement of candidates in these fields.

Student Placement

Participation in this program is open to any enrolled student. Many students earn part of their college expenses. Entering freshmen, however, should be prepared to finance their first semester of college without working; all students should keep their outside employment to a minimum in order to avoid endangering either health or academic achievement.

Various types of employment are available including a number of hourly jobs in various work areas on campus for candidates with specific abilities. Other positions of a temporary nature are also available. Active immunization against tetanus (available through the Student Health Service) is required for any student employed on the College Farm. Off-campus positions range from short-term positions to those with scheduled hours for the full year. Students desiring work on or off campus should consult the Student Placement Center. Employed students are expected to reflect credit on the college. (See also Work-Study Program and Graduate Assistantships.)

STUDENT LIFE

University students are expected to assume the responsibilities for personal conduct appropriate to their age and maturity. Wide freedom is therefore granted by the administration to the students as individuals and as organized groups. This responsibility has been accepted in an admirable way by the students of the college, and an unusual degree of self-government has been established. A student court has authority to deal with cases involving interpretation of student regulations or their violation. A committee on student life composed of faculty and students evaluates the student life program and makes recommendations on policy and procedure. Regulations as to satisfactory scholarship, disqualification for unsatisfactory work and related questions bearing upon academic requirements are administered in accordance with university policies.

FRESNO STATE COLLEGE ASSOCIATION, INC.

All students enrolled at Fresno State are members of the Fresno State College Association, Inc., a nonprofit corporation chartered by the State of California to operate campus auxiliary services and other association-financed activities. The membership fee, paid at the time of registration, is $10 for students carrying at least eight units and $5 for students carrying seven units or fewer. A nontransferable membership card is issued which permits participation in association activities and admission to all association programs either without charge or at a reduced fee. Faculty members are also eligible for membership. Association fees support athletic activities; publications; music, drama, and cultural programs; and student government activities. The Board of Directors, composed of faculty members and students, exerts budgetary control and determines management policy for all association operations, including the bookstore, the cafeteria, the college union program, and other activities involving expenditure of association funds.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Membership in the Fresno State College Association, Inc., entitles the holder to copies of the three major student publications. The Daily Collegian is the official news publication. A directory, appearing soon after the fall semester opens, contains an address list of Fresno State students. The college literary magazine, Backwash, is published once each semester and is available to students at a nominal charge. These publications are under the general control of a nine-member board of publications composed of faculty and students.
