University community reminded that campus is 'Smoke-Free'

Fresno State's Office of Environmental Health & Safety and Risk Management issued a reminder to the university community that Fresno State is a smoke-free campus. Smoking is only permitted in designated areas. In addition, use of smokeless tobacco products is prohibited indoors and strongly discouraged outdoors. These policies apply to all university facilities regardless of location and apply to all students, faculty, staff, administrators and members of the general public when visiting. For a list of designated smoking areas and to read the entire policy. INFO: Lisa Kao, director of Environmental Health & Safety, 559.278.7422.
