

opportunities exist for participation in student affairs through election to student body and class offices, appointment to student committees, and attendance at meetings of the Student Senate. Students are also offered an opportunity to serve on many faculty-student committees and boards of the Fresno State College Association, Inc. These groups play an active part in recommending college policies and in conducting the affairs of the Association.

STUDENT CONDUCT

Students are expected to observe college regulations and are held responsible for their personal behavior. Disciplinary action involving expulsion, suspension, probation or lesser sanction will be assessed only after the student involved has been given a formal hearing before a disciplinary board. The following have been identified as unacceptable conduct:

- Cheating, plagiarism, or falsification of records;
- Disorderly, unethical, vicious, or immoral conduct (California Administrative Code, Title 5, Education);
- Misuse, abuse, theft, or destruction of state property (California Administrative Code, Title 5, Education);
- Acts of a criminal nature involving the breaking of a civil law;
- Acts which disrupt the academic function of the college community;
- Possession of alcohol or illegal drugs on the campus;

College, Trustee, and State regulations governing student conduct and college due process policy and procedure are outlined in the Manual of Student Rights and Responsibilities. The CSC Board of Trustees will on May 28, 1969, or soon thereafter, adopt a uniform code of student conduct. This code will be published in the Manual of Student Rights and Responsibilities.

FRESNO STATE COLLEGE ASSOCIATION, INC.

All students enrolled at Fresno State College are members of the Fresno State College Association, Inc., a nonprofit corporation chartered by the State of California to operate campus auxiliary services and other association-financed activities. Upon payment at registration of a $10 fee for each student carrying seven units or more or a $5 fee for each student carrying six units or fewer an association membership card is issued permitting him to participate in all of the activities of the association and admitting him to association activities either without charge or at a reduced admission fee determined by the Board of Directors of the Association. Membership cards are nontransferable. Faculty members are also entitled to association membership. The principal activities supported by the association fee are athletics, publications, music, drama, cultural programs, and the activities of the student government. The Board of Directors, composed of faculty members and students, is responsible for the budgetary control and management policy for all association operations which include the bookstore, the cafeteria, the college union program, and other association activities involving expenditures of association funds.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Membership in the Fresno State College Association, Inc., entitles the holder to copies of the five major student publications. The Collegian, published daily, is the official news publication. A handbook and a directory, appearing soon after the fall semester opens, contain general information about the college and an address list of faculty and students. The college annual, the Campus, appears during the final month of the college year. (To obtain a copy of the Campus, a reservation fee must be paid at the opening of the fall semester and membership in the association must be held both semesters or one semester plus a charge of $2.50.) The college literary magazine, Backwash, is published once each semester and is available to students at a nominal charge. These publications are under the general control of a nine-member board of publications composed of faculty and students.
