SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS

40

About 550 scholarships and grants totaling approximately $250,000 will be available for this academic year. About half of these scholarships, ranging from $50 to $1,000, are open to new students. The average scholarship is for $450. Scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis, consideration being given to scholastic attainment, academic potential, financial need, and character; some are available on the basis of outstanding accomplishment in specialized fields. Scholarship applications must be submitted by March 1.

Scholarship awards are announced in May or June of each year. Students, both entering and enrolled, must file applications with the Director of Financial Aids prior to March 1st. One application is sufficient for all available scholarships.

WAIVERS OF NONRESIDENT FEES

Upon written waiver by the Dean of Student Affairs or the Director of Admissions and Records, children or spouses of California State University full-time employees, who are not yet legal residents of California, may be exempted from the nonresident fee.

With verification by the Dean of the School of Education, certificated California school district employees who are not yet legal residents of California, may be exempted from the nonresident fee if they are provisionally credentialed and working toward regular credentials, completing postponed requirements, or completing the fifth year required under the Teacher Preparation and Licensing Law of 1970 (Ryan Act).

UNIVERSITY ASSOCIATION AND FOUNDATION LOAN FUNDS

The University operates an Emergency Loan Fund to assist students who need up to $100 for emergency expenses that are educationally related. These loans have to be repaid within 60 days or at the end of the semester, whichever comes first. Loans are granted on the basis of the students' need, educational program, and ability to repay. There are also available limited funds for loans up to $500 repayable after graduation. These funds, however, are restricted to "worthy upper division and graduate students majoring in
