Go yellow! Hang 'OK' sign Sept. 21 for drill

By Marc Stone
Assistant EPO Chair

The fall disaster preparedness exercise (DPX) is usually conducted in November. The exercise has been moved to the third Wednesday of this month, Sept. 21, so that Leisure Village can be part of a bigger picture by joining with the City of Ojai and other communities in Ventura County participating in an "OK" count.

The Village "OK" sign count will begin at 9 a.m. Leisure Village will communicate our count tally by ham radio in the evening of Sept. 21 as an additional event. Please mark your calendars now as a reminder to display your "OK" sign in a window most visible from the street on that day.

If you don't have a sign, please contact your village coordinator. The Village Voice lists the current coordinators and their telephone numbers. You may also call Marc Stone at 987-2609 to receive an "OK" sign.

Your coordinators thank you for your support. Go yellow!

For a few humorous thoughts on the issue of censorship here in the Village, check out Page 7.

For the record: In last month's issue of Inside Leisure Village, Rita Linsey was identified as the photographer for the photos of the Village Arts Potluck Picnic in the Park. Rita wrote the article; however, Jerry Spector was the photographer.

Wonder why so much roadwork is suddenly taking place in the Village? See Page 3.

As part of our continuing profiles of clubs in the Village, Inside Leisure Village tells the story of the Woodshop. See Page 17.

Worried that you're not getting enough exercise as you get older? A new program is starting up in the Village to give you some ideas on how to get up, get moving and get going. See Page 4.

And finally, several golfers got a special treat recently when a golf pro offered tips. See Page 8.

Village resident rescued on Wildwood Park hike

By Judy Spector

On Sunday, Aug. 14, four residents of Leisure Village were hiking in Wildwood Park with a destination of the lovely Paradise Falls.

Arline Miller of Village 44, an avid hiker with 25 years of leading hikes in Wildwood Park, was in the process of crossing the last wooden bridge when she felt immense pain in her right hip and was unable to walk. She had a first aid kit that she takes on all hikes, but nothing for her hip.

Judy Spector of Village 34 and Margaret Faulkner and Bill Givens, both of Village

24, realized there was no way they could get her back to the car. They were too far into the canyon, between the Oakgrove picnic area and almost to the falls.

Margaret tried calling 911 on her cell phone but kept getting cut off due to poor reception in the canyon. Bill tried to call on his cell phone and also was cut off.

After many attempts, apparently the call center understood enough to send a fire truck from Engine Co. 34. The cell phone has a longitude and a latitude, which also

2 LV residents in Oxnard spotlight

Two well-known Leisure Village residents will be featured in Oxnard's Elite Theatre Co. production of "As it is in Heaven."

Helene Benjamin (Cohen), who has appeared in numerous community theater plays, including "On Golden Pond" opposite former LV resident Don Perlman, as well as the lead in "Driving Miss Daisy," will alternate with Karla

Holland, who most recently appeared in the Players Guild production of Neil Simon's "Rumors."

The play, which includes Shaker hymns and dance, is a powerful and compelling re-creation of one of the most curious religious communities in America, the Shakers. A Protestant monastic community, the Shakers rebelled against the formality of the Slurry-sealing of several roads in the Village is part of a long-postponed maintenance project now under way.

Long-postponed maintenance of Village roads under way

By Bob McQuivey

In response to a comment recently overheard that the current roadwork in our community is a huge waste of money because the “roads look fine,” it is important to note that regularly scheduled facility maintenance represents an ongoing and critical part of the Association’s responsibility to protect community values.

A review of the records further documents that failure to maintain our infrastructure often ends up costing homeowners more in the long term than might be expected — pennywise and pound foolish.

For example, some years back, several previous boards initially received accolades for keeping the Association fees low by deferring maintenance on roads and other permanent infrastructure facilities. When the roads began to crumble and potholes outnumbered smooth surface areas, and over $1 million in additional dollars were needed to simply rebuild the base that resulted from the deterioration, an outcry associated with the increased dues was heard far and wide.

Largely because of the referenced events, two things happened to insure that the Village remained on solid financial ground:

- A 20-year street plan was adopted to insure that an adequate repair and maintenance program was in place.
- Streets were incorporated into the reserve account, simply meaning that sufficient funds are collected and banked in a reasonable manner up front in an effort to offset the potential for large increases in assessment fees in the future.

The work being completed under contract this year, then — and in

Beginning Hebrew classes start

By Bonnie London, V. 25

Would you like to learn to read and speak Hebrew? Perhaps you are planning a trip to Israel or want to read the Old Testament in the original language, or just want to keep up with your grandkids. A class of talmudim (students) will begin learning elementary Hebrew, beginning with the aleph bet, in mid-September.

The new group will meet on Tuesdays at 12:30 p.m. in the Sun Room. An intermediate class with an emphasis on conversational Hebrew, for those who already know how to read, will follow at 1:30 p.m.

Call Ben Racowsky at 445-8284 for additional information.

Inactive seniors can get help with program starting Sept. 8

A nationally renowned program designed to help inactive seniors improve their overall health and lifestyle is being offered to Leisure Village residents thanks to the combined efforts of the Village and SCAN Senior Resource Center.

The award-winning program, called Active Living Every Day (ALED), teaches seniors the skills needed to bring physical activity into their daily lives.

This session begins on Thursday, Sept. 8, at 10:30 a.m. at Leisure Village, in the Village Room in the Annex. The class will meet once a week for six weeks and is now forming.

Leisure Village residents interested in participating should call the SCAN Senior Resource Center at 658-0365 for more information and to see if you qualify. Participants should be 55 or older and not regularly physically active.

The cost of this workshop is underwritten by SCAN Senior Resource Center, so there is no cost to the first 25 participants. Participants are required to commit to all six sessions and confirm their eligibility by completing the sedentary lifestyle requirements questionnaire. Participants will receive a textbook and basic exercise materials.

"Physical activity does not need to be strenuous or time-consuming," said Bob McCullagh, an ALED certified instructor and senior advocate with the SCAN Senior Resource Center. "The Active Living Every Day program helps people discover simple ways to make activity part of their day and help them reap the health rewards of being more active."

The Wry Eye

By Joseph Benti

I was harassed the other day, while walking by the pool.

A woman in a bikini almost made me stop and drool.

I could have looked the other way, or even closed my eyes —

But we didn't move here to be taken by surprise.

Come on Board Members, G.M., and our fancy lawyer too,

Make her wear a bathrobe or a wetsuit — you know what to do.

While you're at it, burn some library books or put them in a drawer,

We're too old for dirty words or thoughts we've never had before.

Some additional thoughts on nudity

I was driving with my three young children one warm summer evening when a woman in a convertible ahead of us stood up and waved. She was stark naked! As I was reeling from the shock, I heard my 5-year old shout from the back seat, "Mom, that lady isn't wearing a seat belt!"

A little boy got lost at the YMCA and found himself in the women's locker room. When he was spotted, the room burst into shrieks, with ladies grabbing towels and running for cover. The little boy watched in amazement and then asked, "What's the matter, haven't you ever seen a little boy before?"

VILLAGE HAPPENINGS

LV resident's son, a golf pro, helps Village duffers

By Joseph Benti

Golf pro Jerry Martin says coming to visit his mother Loretta, who lives in Village 20 and whose patio gives him a clear shot of our golfers navigating the 16th tee, inspired him to donate a couple of hours of free instruction to about 20 men and women Village golfers early one August Sunday morning.

Martin, whose career spans nearly 40 years, offered half a dozen or more insights into chipping and putting that put the accent on "keeping it basic but simple."

Martin, developer of a system called "The Natural Game," reminded this would-be duffer of the importance of learning one of life's eternal lessons: KISS — Keep It Simple, Stupid.

REALTOR'S CORNER

Why I love living in Leisure Village

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate Inc.

I recently came back from a vacation to my home here in Leisure Village. I was struck by how much I appreciate living here. The weather is so comfortable — the green trees, grass and quiet give me an immediate sense of serenity as soon as I drive through the security gate.

Thinking of our security and how much they do for us, I'd like to mention that a Leisure Village resident just told me that her daughter had a serious health emergency, and she talked of her appreciation for our security guards who immediately showed up and assisted. She said that she had occasionally thought of moving, but she is now convinced that this is where she wants to be,

I recently attended a memorial service here in the Village. I think we all felt the love and warmth in the room. One of the attendees said to me, "This is what Leisure Village is about: people caring in time of need and enjoying the friendship, safety and amenities."

With so much to do and wonderful people, I hope we can all enjoy Leisure Village for a long time!

Arline was put in a halter and airlifted to an ambulance that was waiting on Avenida de los Arboles and then taken to Los Robles Hospital. Fortunately, she did not have any broken bones but a pulled muscle, and she expected to recover fully.

addition to replacement of deteriorating curbs, gutters and sidewalks — includes the slurry sealing of several individual villages, such top-coating that is designed to protect the road base and keep small

As noted by several prominent engineers, if you wait for the complaints from residents before fixing the problem, you've probably waited too long. Our hats, therefore, go off to the current board and management personnel for simply adhering to the plan and maintaining the roads as needed.

Camera Club

By Marion Green

On Thursday, Aug. 4, Rita Linsey and I set out to purposely view the Camera Club's entries and hopefully winners at this year's Ventura County Fair. The Photography Building is not far from the entrance, and with notepad and Rita's iphone camera, we entered the building. There were over 1,900 entries!

We carefully looked at each entry for our members' names and for any winning ribbons. We found it interesting or perhaps curious that while not attaching a title to the photographs, they did note the photographer's age. Did they want to be assured that we were over 18?

We got very excited when the first winning entry we saw belonged to our very own Rita Linsey. (I am not printing her age.) About halfway through, we took a break and went to lunch.

When we returned, we finished our task, and unless we missed seeing a winning entry, this is the unofficial list we compiled.

The award-winning Camera Club members were: Al Sarnelle, Verna Cryder, Jack Caldwell, Jerry Spector, Judy Spector, Rita Linsey and Jerry Cohen. There were a total of 12 ribbons, as several winners won more than one.

We rewarded ourselves for a job well done by stopping at the Herzog Wine Pavilion. Over a glass of wine we both shared our pride in being members of the Leisure Village Camera Club.

Leisure Village Camera Club members took home a total of 12 ribbons, with several winning more than one. This month the circus is coming to Leisure Village. That's right! On Sept. 15 at 7:30 p.m., after a short meeting, Players Guild will present "Cathy and Joyce's Circus."

This is going to be an extravagant event. It will have all the great experiences of a fun-filled evening

As always there will be refreshments afterwards. Membership for 2011 is still only $7.

LV Bowling

By Marty Simons

The 36th season of the Leisure Village Bowling League begins Sept. 9 at Harley's Camarillo Bowl. It looks like there will be a minimum of 16 teams. Team rosters are on display in the Atrium.

We're always looking for subs, so it's never too late to join in the fun. Don't think you can bowl well enough? Come on down and watch. You'll see that having fun takes precedence over scores.

For more information on how to join, call Marty Simons at 987-9295 or email me at martys36@roadrunner.com.

The Stoners

By Fil Barton

We continue to meet every Tuesday in the Sun Room from 3 to 5:30 p.m. Every week someone brings new ideas into our group, with instructions for unique jewelry designs.. Our group continues to grow, with several new members joining us each month.

Jewelry repairs have been one of the highlights of our group. Those Villagers who have had their jewelry repaired have been very pleased. Several of these women have been so impressed with our work, they decided to become members.

I hope that everyone had an opportunity to see the display in the atrium window during the month of August. This display showed how much our group has accomplished in the short time of our existence of one year.

Although no one from Lapidary or The Stoners entered any of their handcrafted treasures in the Gem and Mineral competition in the fair this year, we did have two winners from The Stoners who entered in other categories. Pinky Paladino won a first-place ribbon for her entry in geneology, and Fil Barton won a first-place ribbon for her Howdy Doody collection and a second-place ribbon for her Disney collection.

Next year there will also be entries from The Stoners, as well as Lapidary.

Come join us and spend a couple of hours of great fun with a very friendly, outgoing group. We also go out to lunch every month to celebrate our members' birthdays.

Village Arts

By Rita Linsey and Aurelie Zachary

You could call it "the walk of beauty," combining nature and art. On Aug. 13, the Village Arts Club presented their annual Art Walk in the Gazebo Gardens of Leisure Village. Twenty-four talented members displayed their various artwork.

One of the paintings that put a smile on faces was a painting of a smiling ostrich.

Participants this year were Barbara Baker, John Bravos, Virginia Carbajal, Marge Curry, Irene Davis, Ric Deeley, Joan Derrico, Fran De Muri, Marty Ettinger, Marilyn Gibbs, Marja Graab, Pat Griffith, Debbie Gross, Mary Kraus, Pat McGregor, Ed Maltz, Maxine Mennen, Olga Powell, Bonnie Sanders, Judy Spector, Lindy Stein, Sylvia Walker, Aurelie Zachary and Gwen Zimring.

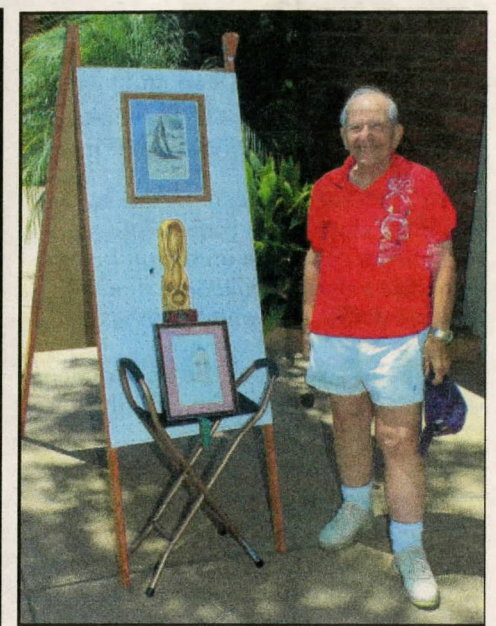

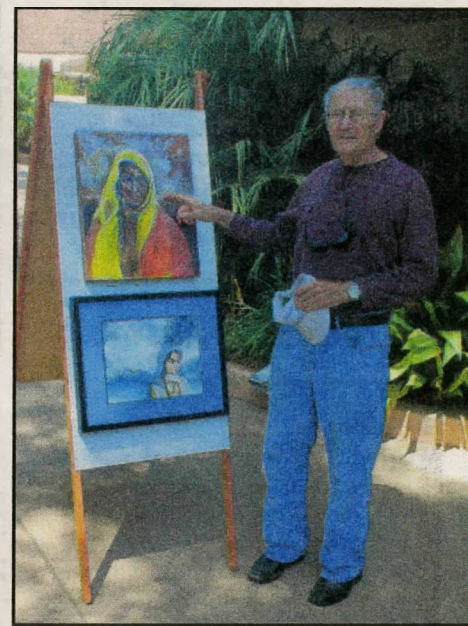

Village Arts member Aurelie Zachary took first place in the Over-80 Division at the Ventura County Fair for her ceramic, titled "Doll."

Coming up at the Sept. 7 meeting at 1 p.m. in the MPR is a demonstration from the Quilting Club. They'll be talking about the history of quilting and showing a variety of styles, such as patchwork, appliques and individually crated styles.

On Oct. 5 Phyllis Doyon, an artist with a studio here in Camarillo, will critique members' artwork. Phyllis has had over 40 solo shows, and her

The two were among 24 members of the club who displayed their various pieces of art during the Aug. 13 event. Annual potluck focal point of Camera Club's August meeting

By Marion Green

We once again welcomed George "Hutch" Hutchison, a recent multiple prize-winning Ventura County Fair photographer, as our judge for the August competition.

We invited him to share in our annual Camera Club Potluck prior to his judging our member entries.

The assigned category was Shadows and Reflections, and the winners were: first place, Don Treadwell; second place, Rita Linsey; and third place, Verna Cryder. Honorable Mentions were awarded to Jean Kohut and Jerry Spector.

In the Open category, Don Treadwell won first place again, Verna Cryder won second, and Margaret Petersen won third. Honorable Mentions were awarded to Jack Caldwell and Al Sarnell.

In the Creative category, Jerry Spector won the first place ribbon, Jerry Cohen the second place, and Marlene Votion won third.

The Assigned category for our September meeting is Photojournalism and Action.

We encourage all residents to join us for our meetings on the first and third Wednesday of each month in the MPR at 7 p.m.

Photography tip: Take some vertical pictures. All sorts of things look better in a vertical picture, from a lighthouse near a cliff to the Eiffel Tower to your 4-year-old grandchild jumping in a puddle. So next time out, make a conscious effort to turn your camera sideways and take some vertical pictures.

Taking first place in the Open category is Don Treadwell's "Grannie's Momentos."

Woodshop elves carve their place into Village's heart

By Bob McQuivey

According to an authorized review report recently completed by Merle Ruiz of the Finance Committee, Leisure Village is home to some 59 individual clubs and groups that sponsor activities ranging in scope from A to Z.

Although most of these groups are designed to encourage education, provide entertainment, promote good health and fulfill other individual needs, a few of these clubs also provide direct benefit to the community as a whole, one of which is the woodshop.

According to current records, the club has 80-plus key-holding members (including two women), has official status as a subcommittee of the Ed and Rec Standing Committee, and is generally recognized in the annual budget process with an appropriation for miscellaneous expenses — a meager sum of $1,516 last year.

Historical records compiled by Marilyn Holthouse, the Village historian, further show that a woodworking club had its beginning in 1974 — one year after the first residents moved into the community. Instructions associated with the hobby were provided by resident Walter Lucas.

Although known by different names throughout the past 37 years, at one time the group was referred to as the Sawdusters and boasted a membership of over 300 residents.

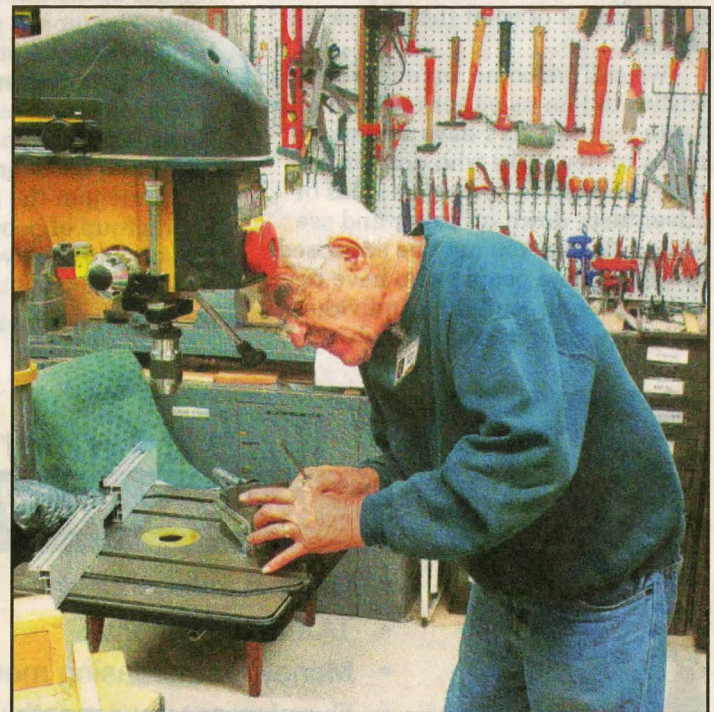

When Sid Alweiss (affectionately known as the Admiral) moved to the Village in 1997, he implemented two important programs that remain in place today:

- A focus on workplace safety, including the requirement for new members to be “checked-out” before using the potentially dangerous machinery.
- A program designed to provide free assistance (fix-it service) to residents. Over the course of the past 14 or so years, the woodshop elves have repaired an undetermined number of chairs, tables and other similar products. This service is currently provided on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings from 10 a.m. until noon at the Recreation Center.

Long-tenured members Ernie Ohmstedt and Chuck Russell recall projects completed over the years that have enhanced the community and saved the Association large sums of money. They include design and construction of the lights in the billiard room; assistance in the renovation of the Garden, Multi-purpose and Assembly Rooms; design and implementation of the dressing rooms adjacent to the stage; construction of the new paper holder in the AR lobby; and many other similar projects too numerous to mention.

Our heartfelt thanks from the staff at ILV are extended to these important volunteers.

Writers Club

By Lois Keeler

We are still working on our book of stories from some of our members. It will be available for your perusal as soon as it is published. We hope you will enjoy it and that it will give you a better idea of what the club is all about.

We still welcome anyone who wishes to join us either to listen or to begin writing. As I have said many times to new folks who don't think they are writers, put your ideas or adventures down on paper and see what falls out. You may be surprised. We have some people who have never written before, and their individual styles are what make our club interesting. It's amazing how different people approach the same subject, and their different approaches can make a dull subject interesting. You just might be surprised at the lives of some of our members, and they make us who we are. Hope to see ya!

The Boosters

By Lin Grant

Over the past few years, the Boosters have provided wonderful activities and fun for Village members while raising money for needed projects within our community. Very generous ladies and gentlemen have provided extraordinary time and abilities to our very successful past endeavors. But guess what?

With everyone's busy schedule, our ranks are getting thin, and we may not have enough volunteers to support our two planned events on the horizon, The Veterans Day Canteen and the "Leisure Village's Got Talent" entertainment production.

We need you to step up and support this club. Please attend our next meeting, Sept. 13 at 7 p.m. in the Garden Room. We also need ideas for

In August, the LV Pet Club co-sponsored the Pet Parade with the Mavericks and organized dog obedience classes by Dr. Deena Case-Pall. We want to thank everyone who helped make these events so successful.

Dr. Deena is a companion animal behavior consultant and taught 19 of our dogs the basic commands and behaviors that led to the AKC Canine Good Citizen Test. The test consists of 10 commands and skills needed by all well-mannered dogs. The four classes will be offered again in October and available to all dog owners in the Village. The series will cost $30 for Pet Club members and $40 for non-members. Call Barbara Krohta at 445-4809 for details.

Before we get started on September's programs, we would like to send kudos to the hard-working picnic committee that put on a successful Aug. 9 event: Anne Haas, Naomi Brill, Ruth Weiss, Michele Malkin, Muriel Rosenkranz, Dubby Carmona, Naomi Wieselmann, Allan Caldwell and our fearless leader, President Judy Siegel. The food was excellent, the prizes were outstanding, the music great (a la Allan's musical library) and the cute movie was delightful. Thanks to all.

The president of the Leisure Village Board of Directors, Jerry Rosen, has graciously accepted our invitation to speak at our next SAS meeting on Sept. 13 at 7 p.m. in the MPR. You must have many questions you've been dying to ask. Now is the time.

Bring your questions for Jerry to this meeting.

The Mavericks

By Margo Secia

It was wonderful seeing so many men and women at our first 18 Hole Best Ball Golf Tournament in August. The winners will be named in the October ILV issue.

We also hosted the Pet Parade in conjunction with the Pet Club the end of August. A big thank you to all those who came out and enjoyed that day with us. And a very big thank you to our four-legged friends who made the day really special.

We will be dark in September, but please mark your calendar for our Masquerade Dance on Friday, Oct. 28, at 7 p.m. in the AR. Costumes are optional, but prizes will be awarded for the best ones. Further details will be announced in next month's ILV.

The club is selling shirts with our new Mavericks' logo and they are on sale now. We have t-shirts on sale for $15 and polo shirts for $20. They are each available in navy, black, gray and white. The sizes are medium, large, X-large and XX-large. You may place your orders by calling Sharon Loney at 987-8292.

Membership dues for the year May 2011 to May 2012 of $5 per person are still being collected by Carole Miller, and you can contact her at 383-0715.

Shop Ahoy is a shopping and delivery service for homebound seniors and disabled adults. We also serve those people who no longer drive, have difficulty maneuvering through Vons or are unable to carry heavy items.

Shop Ahoy is a volunteer-based nonprofit organization servicing Ventura County. A volunteer will call the customer on Sunday or Monday of each week to take their grocery order. Another volunteer shops on Tuesdays at our local Vons, and the order is delivered and paid for, along with a small contribution to help the system stay in operation.
