1980? Leisure Village

VILLAGER LIFE DOES BEGIN AT 52

In a Village-wide survey, residents of our community were asked to share their impressions of the Leisure Village lifestyle. Their remarks were astonishing and we would like to share a few with you.

"Have in the past and still, after 6½ years, recommend Leisure Village to all our friends. Lifestyle is all one could ask for!"

Walt & Nancy Whitaker
Village 6

"On a scale from 1 to 10, it's a 10!"

Rudy & Rose Fleiner
Village 19

"Our impression of Leisure Village can be summed up in one word: FANTASTIC!"

Flo & Jerry Doctrow
Village 26

"The warm, friendly, free spirit of our Village community is a lifestyle second to none."

Blanche & Robert Cooper
Village 22

"I love it! I love it!"

Dru Dunn
Village 6

"Very impressed with the security—feel so safe when we walk out in the evening."

Hyman & Myra Dorshkind
Village 25

"We moved 3,000 miles across the country from Long Island, New York, and found our 'Shangri-La'. Weather and people are super!"

Charles & Ann Bellante
Village 24

"We can go on vacation for weeks at a time without worry."

George & Edna McCormick
Village 7

"As I take my early morning walk I see the many blessings of Leisure Village. The friendly rabbits munching and meditating; beautiful flowers and well kept lawns; the patios reflecting the owner's individual tastes. As I round the corner to my Village, I see the lovely hills, the fog creeping over them like cat paws. I see many people are just getting up after a good night's sleep, know our security guards are always near. I often wondered what it would be like when I retired. I thank God for the good people who directed us to Leisure Village with its beautiful weather, pleasant surroundings, its good security and nice people!"

Dick & Alma Kelsey
Village 22

"Leisure Village is ideal in oh, so many ways; climate is most important to me."

Viola Brault
Village 3

"Where else could I
—fulfill a lifetime dream of wearing a black cowboy hat?
—become Vice-President of the Organ Club when I don't even own or play an organ, but simply love music?
—enjoy beautiful nature year-round, not just on vacation?
—never have to shovel snow again or pay an 8 year old $10 to clear off my front stairs?
—invite a gang in for cocktails when I don't have any living room furniture?
—walk home from the Center alone at night and feel serene and safe?
—get an electric bill in January for less than it cost me for two weeks of oil alone in Mass.?
—chop off my hair and stop going weekly to the hairdresser?
—happily greet any person I meet, knowing they're as happy to be here as I am?
—never have to drive an expressway again?
—have no clock in my bedroom?
—drive to the store through lemon groves?
—be the only solo invited to a 12-couple cocktail party and be serenaded by five men?
—be invited to a block party when it's not even my block?
—see three rabbits hopping on my lawn when I go out to get the morning paper?
—have a ball in the Village Chorale being switched from alto to bass to tenor but singing out with gusto just the same?
—meet more new friends than I ever found in my first 60 years?
—P.S. I could offer a million more reasons why Leisure Village is so great. I absolutely love every minute and it gets even better everyday. The only draw back is that the days are not long enough."

Roie Beck
Village 20

"After living in Leisure Village for six and one half years, we know that this is the place for us. The housing, the recreation facilities, the freedom from fear, the opportunities for mind-searching...etc...etc...all make an ideal lifestyle for the 'young-old'."

Dr. & Mrs. Wales Smith
Village 8

"We are glad to be a part of a growing community of caring people."

Lloyd & Gerri Kikendall
Village 3

"Living here in Leisure Village is everything we thought it would be, and more!"

Jerry & Claire Sortomme
Village 3

"We don't have time for much 'leisure', but aren't we lucky?!"

Kennie & Jane Gifford

HI NEIGHBORS!

It's that beautiful time of the year again when our Village Greens are sprinkled with red and gold leaves bringing back nostalgic memories of "back home" raking chores and air perfumed by the pungent aftermath of burning leaves. Fall pops in with a bulging calendar of projected activities of clubs, workshops and performing groups. Just read the notices in the "Voice of the Village" or on the Atrium billboards. Take your pick of events and you are all set for an enjoyable social season! Here in Leisure Village the young-at-heart can really live it up!

For starters, the Bocce Club had an indoor picnic, a very sensible innovation with a yummy menu of goodies, greens and carrot cake followed by trophy awarding and dancing to Ed Abdelnour's tapes.

Tickets for September's cordial "Come One Come All" annual Yom Kippur Night Dance were snatched up fast, as usual. This is always a heart warming get-together of congenial folks.

HAPPY TALK — Someone's always passing the word about wedding bells that rang for Village brides and grooms or for children or grandchildren. Estelle Graff and David Mioreanu doubled up in Village 17 after their spring time marriage. Fern Boyd of Village 31 was a Spring bride, too. We wish her much joy to be shared with her new husband, Edgar Joy, her former college classmate. They expect to winter here and spend the balance of the year in the northern part of the midwest where they hail from.

Helen Ohmstead, Village 9 Pioneer, celebrated her granddaughter Sherrie's marriage at a lavish reception dinner in our Assembly Hall, hosted by the bride's parents, Ernest and Barbara, residents of Village 33.

Mario Di Biasi, founder and first President of the Bocce Club, and his wife Flora, long time Rhythmette, are announcing the October marriage of their son, Paul to Linda Popp of Pasadena.

Jack and Jessica (of the lovely voice) Crosby have a very thrilling event to look forward to—the coming marriage of their son, Joel, to Byria O'Hayon of Marbella, Spain, where the nuptials will be celebrated. The couple met when on a Club Mediterranean vacation — how romantic!

Hazel and Bob Fitch recently attended the marriage of their grandson, Rob, to Kathy Gorman. Hazel works her fingers to the bone for the Women's Club and Bob is a busy do-gooder all around town in addition to his involvement with various performing groups here in the Village.

Angie and Herb Newman have celebrated their 44th anniversary, and Helen and Richard Behrman celebrated their 34th. Congratulations to both couples and all you other anniversarians!

Marian Tavano, whose girlhood dream was to become a ballerina, is coming close to it now. She dances her way into every terpsichorean group available and her talent is obvious. She and her husband, Frank, another do-gooder around town, took off for Las Vegas to celebrate Marian's birthday. Although they have been married for 47 years, you'd think they were still honeymooners by their obvious affection for each other. All eyes center on them when they are on the dance floor. What a Peabody they do!

SMALL WORLD INCIDENT — Edith Ferrer and husband Joe while in Las Vegas ran into the Tavanos. Neither couple knew the other would be there! Edith, the Rhythmette Director, gave her group time off while she vacationed in Las Vegas.

BABY TALK — Did you hear the news about the Fencis? Dorothy and Ray recently became GREAT grandparents! Busy Dorothy is former Women's Club Prexy and currently Vice-President of the Bocce Club and Treasurer of the Rhythmettes.

Blanche and Bill Follen are on cloud nine since they received word from the Florida Keys that their son Jim and wife had presented them with an eight pound grandson, Jay Hunter Johnson.

Lucky Minnie Fierstein of Village 7 took a bus trip to a Channel 4 broadcast called "Password Plus" and won prizes valued at $200.00. She promised to share one of the prizes—a batch of the Colonel's Chicken.

NAMES IN THE NEWS — Joe Gaynes, well known around these parts for his dedicated involvement in Village and Camarillo affairs, got a big spread in the Camarillo Daily News as he is a representative for the Council on Aging. Joe, a former teacher and administrator, retired from the L.A. School District in 1974.

Phil La Porte, President of the Bocce Club (his second time around!) is now also President of the Camarillo Chapter of A.A.R.P. His wife, Maxine, is the Bocce Club's Secretary and incidently, a talented poetess, too!

Reg Dowsing of Village 11 enlivened a recent Golf Club 19th Hole Party with another of his clever, original movies, this one entitled "The Village Vice". Starring in the hilarious production were Villagers Bruno Torchia (Assistant Director), Bill Gawthrop, Jack East, Ed Haley, Nick De Simone, and Reg Dowsing. Scuttlebutt has it that some lady golfers, miffed that Dowsing's movies feature men only, finally managed to talk him into creating a film starring the "fair sex". Now that's a real "hole-in-one" for the ERA!

Edith and Bill Kaiser of Village 25 are retirees who have recently joined the RELAXEES of Leisure Village. During the three years of their residency here, the Kaisers, both government employees for over 19 years, travelled 120 miles a day to work and back. They're delighted that they won't have to be up at 5:30 A.M. anymore! Happy days, you two!

Just learned that Heidi Pommer of Village 38 directed "The Voice of the Turtle", a film presented in September by the Camarillo Community Theatre at the Airport Theatre.

ATRIUM CHITCHAT — Stop by and look at the displays in the Atrium showcases.

You'll be surprised and delighted at what you see. Lil Skellenger, ex-prexy of the Rhythmettes, exhibited some of her exquisite soapstone carvings. One large, well crafted sculpture resembled the legendary road to Shangri-La. Husband Bill, the Village lapidary instructor, filled a window with both his and Haig Ayanian's beautiful gemstone jewelry. What a stunning assortment! Thelma Nunn's paintings were well worth viewing, too!

Ladies, it was recently publicized that Dane Fashion has, for the second time this year, decreed that mink stoles are once again a la mode. The latest word is "wear them knotted in front or put them on backwards". So, take your cozy cover ups out of camphor, a them and wear them!

And, with that, it's Ciao for now!

IMPRESSIONS OF LEISURE VILLAGE LIFE

*I think that I shall never see
A thing as lovely as a tree
That blooms in our greenbelt fair
Without my giving it the slightest care.*

*It's 80 degrees in the shade
And a dip in the pool would be great
No problem at all, you can do it with pleasure
A large, heated pool is our very own treasure.*

*There once was a lady called Midge
Whose passion in life was for bridge
Since she came here to stay,
She can play everyday
She just loves it - what more can I say?*

*Four and twenty golfers went out to play the game
Ask them why they moved here and they all tell you the same:
"Our very own golf course, 18 hole, 3-par
No green fees, no freeways, no driving near or far.*

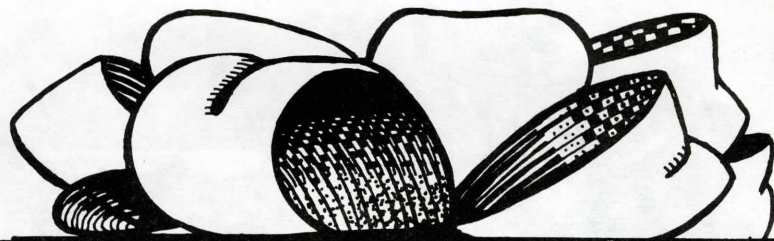

*You say it's tennis you adore?
Go ahead and play for evermore
Two paddle tennis and two tennis courts for you Should be lots of practice for tennis buffs to do.*

*Now let me see, what else did I miss?
There's shuffleboard, bocce and a library for your bliss;
Oxnard College classes will attempt to educate Yoga and ballroom dance help you meditate;*

*Every club you can imagine from A to Z
A Chess Club for you, Stamp and Coin Club for me;
You can tap dance in the mornings, or play bingo at night
Can you sing? Join the choir. Can you act? That's all right!*

*Now to sum it up quite briefly: Leisure Village is just great

LEISURE VILLAGE RESIDENTS CELEBRATE GRAND OPENING OF SECOND NINE HOLES

Blue skies and sunny fairways greeted some 100 resident golf buffs at the recent grand opening celebration of the second nine holes of the Leisure Village par-3 golf course.

On hand for the festivities were Leisure Village staffers, residents, and members of the golf and homeowner's associations. Several speeches and a warm dedication preceeded the 9:30 A.M. tee-off. Many prizes were dedicated by Leisure Technology Corp., the community's developer, for the day's competition.

The first speaker of the morning, Tom O'Brien, President of the Leisure Village Homeowner's Association, gave a brief dedication of the new golf course, and was followed by a short speech by Jim McBride, Sales Manager for Leisure Village.

"This day is the realization of a dream that so many of us have shared for a long time," stated McBride.

"Our second nine hole golf course represents what Leisure Village is all about; a more relaxed and active lifestyle. This is what we have tried to achieve, and we are pleased to see that you are all enjoying the many facilities here," McBride concluded.

Following Mr. McBride on the speaker's platform were Ginny Cordell, President of the Leisure Village Women's Golf Association, and Niels Pedersen, President of the Men's Golf Association.

A record 288 golfers signed up for tee-off competition, and more than 30 volunteer workers were needed to help mark winning putts on the course. Awards were given for closest to the pin at each hole, the longest putt on the 18th hole, and for tee shots.

Winners of the day were Vic Locke, who received the grand prize for being closest to the tenth hole, Harv Shirk, Dick Schafer, Bill Brandt, Dave Hurwitz, and Ned Volan. Not a single hole-in-one was recorded by the volunteers during the tournament.

The longest putt, 18 feet, eight and three-fourths inches, was scored by Angie Newman. Low gross score winners for the women was Dorothy Caster at 26, and for the men, Bill Kelly with a 27.

On hand for the opening ceremonies were Ginny Cordell, President of the Women's Golf Association; Niels Pedersen, President of the Men's Golf Association; and Tom O'Brien, President of the Leisure Village Homeowner's Association.

Village Swingers Square Dancers Still Stepping Lively

by Romaine Lambert

The Village Swingers Square Dance Club has had a busy summer in spite of many of its members traveling in and out of the country. It elected a new slate of officers: Al and Ruth Siegal, President; Kay and Betty Murray, Vice-President; Ernest and Maxine Bridgeman, Secretary; and Jack and Lenore Broude, Treasurer. These promising officers were installed at the annual pot-luck dinner in the Assembly Room, again proving that square dancers somehow always manage to be great cooks.

Many new committees were appointed and they have not been idle. The By-Laws Committee, Siegal, Broude and Vern Weetz, presented revisions to the original set of by-laws and these were adopted unanimously. The Dugans have continued to line up the "Last-Tuesday-of-the-Month" guest callers who will be Glen Mann, Ric Fischer and Don Stewart with Jon Hed doing the honors at the Halloween Dance.

It doesn't take much imagination to realize that our Activities Committee has a real talent. Coke, Gunningham and Gregerson keep our appetites for variety whetted. At the August "Happy Hat Jamboree", prizes were awarded to Kay Murray for his original stove-pipe "square" hat; to Romaine Lambert for her hat depicting the Club's history and publicity themes; to Lil Bein whose chapeau consisted of an upside-down, red, sissie pants "Square Dancing Goes To One's Head". Ernest Bridgemen copped a prize for coming capped as "Beer Can Ernie". Staley Carpenter lit up the scene with his lamp shade complete with light bulb and cord; and Dave Kenyon wowed the assembly wearing his strutting rooster garb.

Since then a baby picture contest has been in progress and prizes for that guessing game will be announced later. The third annual pot-luck picnic followed close on the heels of the Autumn Festival in October at Oak County Park and brought out the usual good-natured crowd.

What happens in between all of these events? Our faithful caller, Wyane Simpson, and his Mary Ann, never let us down and continue with workshops twice a month with regular dances on other Tuesdays. Wyane has been especially zealous in his instruction since he attended the recent Callerlab convention. For a real fun session, however, he had a complete "All Singing Call" dance in September, and he is just the singer who can do that successfully.

Another busy group has been our Membership Committee of Bob and Joan Guhl, Vern and Elsie Weetz and Irv and Millie Litrownik. They have approved quite a group of newcomers. Bill and Bernice Bryan of Village 26 completed beginner classes with the Ripsnorters and Square Knots in Camarillo and also two workshops in Plus 1 and Plus 2. They were also brave enough to attend Asilomar in Santa Maria and managed to dance 17 hours in one weekend. The Bryans come from Woodland Hills.

Sol and Rae Gimpel of Village 34 have danced some time with the Heels and Souls of West Hollywood, having been taught by Monte Wilson and Bill Kramer.

Leon and Lucille Goldin of Village 29 also graduated recently from the Rip-snorters and Barn Burners and also attended the same workshops as the Gimpels. They are now members of both those clubs as well as the Swingers. Would you believe that they quit work in New York City on June 29 and got on the plane the same day bound for Camarillo?

George and Esther Lompin have been dancing for about five years with Mike Sikorsy and Shelby Dawson at Elaines. They don't claim a particular club but are most enthusiastic about the Village Swingers since arriving here from West Los Angeles.

Ernie and Barbara Ohmstedt have been square dancing for about the same length of time with the Valley Trailers in Northridge. They moved to Village 33 from Chatsworth.

Sherman and Phyllis Schochet left Palos Verdes for Village 29 and have not been sorry. They, too, attended and graduated from the three aforementioned beginner classes and workshops and are thrilled to be able to dance right here in the Village.

Palos Verdes also gave us the Stotlands, Paul and Bea of Village 32. They have also graduated and completed workshops, and especially enjoyed Ray Godfrey's instruction.

So, in spite of many of our members taking off, (the Murrays for a whole month to the high Sierras and the Guhls trailering in parts north taking in Asilomar and other attractions, and the Ben Cohens jaunting around the world for three months, and others sojourning to Israel), the floor in the Assembly Room still echoes with many dancing feet every Tuesday.

Bocce Club

by Phil La Porte

A spirit of camaraderie prevailed on the Bocce courts during the Women's and Men's Singles Tournament in July. Frank Berg and Harry Simonini provided refreshments. Tournament directors were Hy Harris, Bruno Torchia, Frank Berg, Dorothy Fencel, Mildred Harris and Ruth Resnik.

Winners of the Women's Singles Tournament were: First Place — Ruth Resnik; Second Place — Dorothy Fencel; Third Place — Mildred Harris. The Men's Singles winners were: First Place — Joe Gelb; Second Place — David Corwin; Third Place — Herb Newman.

The August 28th picnic-party was held indoors in the Assembly Room. The catered supper was delicious. Our Entertainment Chairman, Dorothy Fencel, and her committee of eight women, served the food in a friendly and expeditious manner. Ed Abdelnour provided taped music for our dancing pleasure.

A mixed Doubles Tournament took place on October 14th and 15th with winners to be named in the next edition. The Bocce Club anniversary dinner dance will be held on November 8th in the Leisure Village Assembly Room. Save that date and treat yourself to a fun evening.

NEWSCLUB

Gem and Mineral Club

by Don Holmes

The Gem and Mineral Club of Leisure Village is interested in all phases of gems and minerals with scheduled field trips planned for the collection of specimens. The items collected are carved, cut and polished into finished gems or are kept as fossil and mineral specimens.

Recent activities included a month long display of member's work in the lobby of a Savings and Loan Association in Camarillo during the month of June. In July we took our first field trip up the Conejo Mountain behind the Village. There we ate our bag lunches and enjoyed the panoramic view of our area. The purpose of this trip was to locate sagenite, a form of agate, and several good specimens were found.

Our August activities included a display of our works in the Atrium showcase and a field trip to Point Mugu. At Point Mugu we found choquina rock, a limestone filled with shell and shell fragments. The most interesting pieces of our find were kept as specimens and others were made into ash trays, book-ends, and other such items.

At the Club meeting in August we had a film on the cave paintings of the Chumash Indians. The Chumash were a very intelligent tribe who inhabited this area at the time of the California Missions. Some of their paintings can still be seen in a cave above Santa Barbara and may be included in a future Club field trip.

The September field trip was to Wildwood Park in Thousand Oaks where we found various kinds of agates. In October we will be in Topanga Canyon in Woodland Hills searching for fossils.

Any Village resident interested in gems and minerals is welcome to join our group.

The Racquet Club

by Leo Gardarian

The Leisure Village Racquet Club has had an active summer of paddle tennis and tennis. The monthly tournaments were exciting for those who wanted stiff competition. The tournaments included singles, doubles, mixed doubles, regular doubles and fast doubles in paddle tennis. The results were all close with some ending in a tie.

The annual Racquet Club party is scheduled for Saturday, October 25th in the Assembly Room. Plans include a catered dinner, entertainment, door prizes and dancing. Committee members for the social event are Jerry Banchik, Zo Simmons, Maria Meyers, Della Gageby and Art Rosner. This party will be the highlight of the year!

Club member, Ben Miller, won the 45 and older category in the Ventura Tennis Tournament. He is without a doubt, a superior tennis player. Congratulations, Ben!

An educational, instructional and comical movie about Village paddle tennis and regular tennis is in production. The world preview is expected in a couple of months. Watch for the announcement.

The Happy Hoofers

The Happy Hoofers

by Rawza Kates

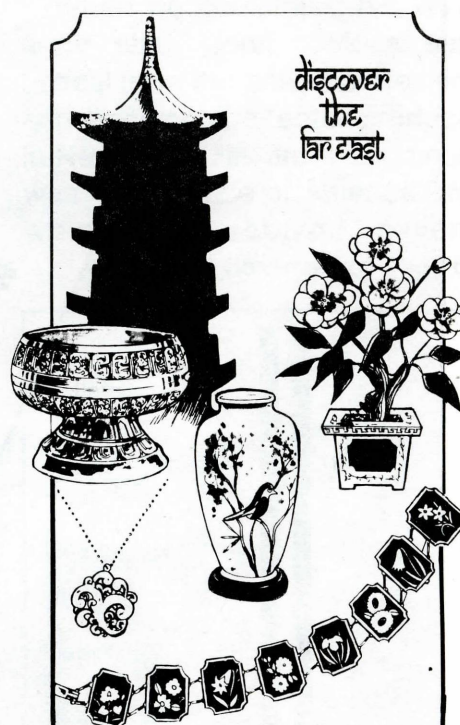

Tap, tap, tap is the sound you'll hear every Tuesday morning radiating from the Assembly Room as the Happy Hoofers master their routines. The fourteen Hoofers, dressed in eye-catching togs, work constantly to perfect their tapping prowess so as to better perform for you!!

One of the groups recent performances was a show on August 20th at the Heritage House in Camarillo. Selections included "Shoe Shine Boy" danced by Daisy Bien, Miriam Hasen, Shirley Heller, Mimi Kaufman, Trudy Orsan and Ginny Cordell. Two hilarious mimes were delivered by Joan Johnson, and Puppeteer, Rawza Kates, performed with her marionette, "Feberace" and his golden piano. The finale of this show was an upbeat jazz number by Helen Gold, Piff De Simone, Eldred Silva, Trudy Orsan and Rawza Kates.

On August 31st the Hoofers entertained at the Golf Association's 19th Hole Party and on September 7th they contributed to the Variety Guild's show at the Senior Citizen Center in Camarillo.

Recently the Happy Hoofers were recognized as a full-fledged Club by the Education and Recreation Committee. Appointed as officers of the Club were Dorothy Karlin, President; Miriam Hasen, Vice-President; Rawza Kates, Secretary; Joan Johnson, Treasurer; and Daisy Bien, (past Prexy) advisor. In addition to the tap dancers and officers, the group now boasts of two new members: Roie Beck, Mistress of Ceremonies, and Rowena Mettler, Sound and Stage Manager.

Women's Golf Association

by Mildred F. Pedersen

The new "second nine" was officially opened for play on May 30th. Participating in the opening ceremonies and ribbon cutting were Jim McBride of Leisure Technology; Tom O'Brien, President of Leisure Village Board of Directors; Ginny Cordell, President of the Women's Golf Association; and Niels Pedersen, President of the Men's Golf Association. 280 golfers played a round on the new nine holes. We ladies are proud of the fact that the best score on opening day was by Dorothy Caster.

The installation of new officers for the 1980-81 year was held at the Oxnard Hilton on June 26, 1980. The newly elected officers are: President, Shirley Johnston; First Vice-President, Marge Kelly; Second Vice-President, Gretchen Young; Third Vice-President, Martha Nunn; Recording Secretary, Vi Haley; Corresponding Secretary, Wini Moffitt; and Treasurer, Lil Heimowitz. The installation ceremony was conducted by Corky Milman. Ticket sales and hospitality were handled by Gladys Scane and her committee. Madonna Fischer and her able assistants created the beautiful flower arrangements and butterfly decor for the tables while Lil Heimowitz and her committee coordinated the trophies and awards. A lovely luncheon was served and the trophies and other awards for our four major tournaments during the 1979-80 season were distributed.

New lady golfers were welcomed at the August Tea and Orientation conducted by the Women's Golf Association. Insights into the game of golf were shared among the golfers at the meeting.

Mixed couples golf tournaments followed by picnics were held in July and September with members of both the Women's and Men's Golf Associations taking part.

The October month end tournament, headed by Marge Kelly, will be a Halloween costume event and is sure to be a fun affair.

The continuing sale of new homes has increased our membership to over 240 people. All women golfers of Leisure Village are cordially invited to join our Golf Association.

While some clubs slowed down during the warm weather, we added to our schedule by bringing in a special teacher for beginning and advanced classes. Ms. Diane Dunn, who is well known in the Thousand Oaks area, was our "guiding light" for the summer sessions and we were all pleased with our improvement.

Something new has been added to our weekly Wednesday afternoon workshop — live models! Our first was Sarah Stephens, the beautiful ten year old granddaughter of the Friedmans of Village 20. A watercolor by Ethelwyn Dills turned out so well that she gave it to Sarah who was thrilled. We were especially fortunate to have one of your own artists volunteer to pose. Vicki Stevens, who was a professional model in New York, was wonderful to sketch. Her beautiful figure and regal bone structure was a real challenge.

VILLAGE PAINTERS

One reason for all the summer activity was our upcoming Art Show on October 5th in the Assembly Room. We sponsor two shows a year to which we invite all resident artists to exhibit. The average is about 40 to 50 artists and almost 200 art items.

Our most important function as a club is to promote interest in painting here in the Village. We enjoy meeting other artists and sharing our common interest. Future social activities include our regular monthly "First Wednesday" meetings; a brown bag lunch which is followed by our regular Wednesday workshop in the multi-purpose room. Another item that was met with enthusiasm was our stimulating and inspiring visit to the Norton Simon Art Museum in Pasadena on September 25th.

So you see, we did not move to Leisure Village to leisurely retire but instead to be inspired with renewed energy to "do our own thing".

Leisure Village Chorale Annual Spring Concert

by Millie Silberman

Our Assembly Room was filled with both people and music on the day of our Annual Spring Concert. The rafters fairly rung with a variety of songs from spirituals to Broadway musicals. The applause were enthusiastic and appreciative as the Leisure Village Chorale sang out with verve and technical skill emparted by Bob Riggs, the charming, dynamic director.

Decked out in their new gowns, The Chorale looked splendiferous and matched sound for appearance. Vocal solo performances by Millie Silberman, Bob Riggs and Lucille Matson, added to the background of choral music, and a duet by Jim Williams and George Goldfarb was a delight. A duet of "Sunrise, Sunset" by Ruth Hart and Murray Hertzberg, proved that old favorites do endure.

Ailsa Muldoon charmed the audience with her Irish harp and

songs, and in her gorgeous, medieval costume of deep green velvet, she was the epitomy of an Irish damsel.

Ruth Hart offered a medley of "smile" songs, while George Goldfarb sang Tevya's lament from "Fiddler on the Roof", "If I Were A Rich Man". George really threw himself into the part and captivated the audience with voice, movements and spirit.

Joan Woodenschek's rendition of "One Fine Day" from Puccini's "Madame Butterfly" brought down the house as her magnificent voice rang through the halls.

Both Joan and Ruth were ably accompanied with piano by Bea Fallick, one of the members of the Chorale. Is there no end to this lady's talent?

The entire Chorale was accompanied by the lovely, young lady from Pepperdine University, Fides Orpilla.

No performance would be a success without a fine production staff behind it and this one was no exception. Special kudos to Max Lustig, director of lighting, ticket chairperson Amy Puro, Lotti Bausch, Art Director and Ethel Goldfarb, Publicity and Program Chairman. Our appreciation is also extended to our costume coordinators, Piff De Simone, Margaret Wilson, Lucille Matson, Eva Sugg, and the many ticket sellers who worked so hard to make this Spring Concert a special performance.

We are very proud of our Chorale and hope to work hard in the future to bring you more songs and chorale music for your entertainment and enjoyment. Do watch for our Fall season of songs, and join us when you can for a "really big shew"—(apologies to Ed Sullivan).

The Leisure Village Players

by Millicent Hofmann

The Broadway smash hit, "A Majority of One", has been scheduled by the Players for presentation in November. The original production starred the fabulous Gertrude Berg (alias Molly Goldberg) on stage, and Rosalind Russell and Alec Guinness in the movie. The plot is delightful, timely, humorous and touching.

A panel of judges consisting of Executive Director, John Zoller, Executive Producer, Blanche Follen, and Villagers Bill Quinn and Glenn Langan, selected the following double casts which are already deeply involved in rehearsals.

Mrs. Jacoby: Eve Freeman and Ruth Smith

Mrs. Asano: Minoru (Tom) Endo and Phil Aaronson

Mrs. Rubin: Sylvia Altes and Dorothy Karlin

Alice: Grace Back and Esther Robbins

Jerry: Irwin Steinhart and Herman Taylor

Eddie: Bob Price

Nuki: Daisy Bien

Mrs. Ayako Asano: Fumiko (Helen) Endo

Captain Norcross: Isadore Abrams and Charles Kent

Japanese Maidens: Piff De Simone, Ailsa Muldoon, Sylvia Beber and Isabelle Hamerman

Entr'Acte: Billie Pachter and Dring Needham

The Players were very fortunate to have the professional savoir-faire of Zoller, Quinn and Langan to rely on for the touchy assignment of awarding roles. All three have long been involved in various facets of the entertainment media.

If you are an "Archie Bunker's Place" aficionado, you've seen

Bill Quinn playing blind man, Mr. Van Rensselaer; a part which seems to be expanding with each successive segment — obviously, because Bill is so good! On radio, Bill was in "Gang Busters", "Mr. District Attorney", "Front Page", just to mention a few. And on stage, Bill's last role was in Maxwell Anderson's "Winterset" with Burgess Meredith and Richard Bennett.

Glenn Langan appeared in popular films like "Forever Amber" with Linda Darnell, "Chiselm" with John Wayne, and "Margie" with Jeanne Crain. His wife is also a well-known movie star — her stage name, Adele Jergens. You'll be hearing more about the Langans in a coming profile!

As for John Zoller, he started out choosing the medical profession as a career. However, during pre-med at the University of Cincinnati, he discovered the Drama Department and found that dissecting a part in a play was more exciting than dissecting a frog.

After performing in Shakespearean roles, John got a part in a Broadway play. This was followed by many network programs emanating from New York. Then it was on to Hollywood, then back to New York; a typical pattern for an itinerant actor.

When he completed his WWII army stint, John took a sabbatical from the acting profession and became a director-producer in New York. His first assignment was "Calvalcade of America", for which he received several awards. During this period, he directed many motion picture stars with whom he had a warm personal, as well as professional, relationship.

His credits include such popular TV shows as "One Day At A Time", "Starsky and Hutch", "The Waltons", "All In The Family", "Bionic Woman", and TV commercials. This year marks his 52nd year in show business!

Now, a little about our "Japanese connection"! Villager Minoru (Tom) Endo, a former mechanical engineer, will be playing a major role in "Majority of One" and he will also serve as consultant-instructor of Japanese language, customs and mannerisms. You will see his wife, Fumiko, as Mr. Asano's daughter-in-law.

The Endos were both born in California but have managed to retain enough of the Japanese aura to lend native charm and authenticity to this production. The popular couple, parents of two daughters, came to Leisure Village in October 1979 and quickly found a place for themselves in our community. They enjoy participation in spectator sports and are also devotees of our Wednesday night Bingo.

Now, to clue you in on our performance dates: "Majority of One" will be shown on November 14th, 15th, 16th and 21st. Ticket price will be $2.00 (including refreshments). Watch for the Players' interesting Atrium displays during the last part of October.

High Twelve Club

by Ken Mac Kaig

The summer months have been busy ones for the High Twelve Club. Don Pruner, owner of the ambulance service in most communities in Ventura County, was our speaker in July. Leisure Villagers are the main financial support for the Paramedics for Camarillo and Don surprised his audience when he said we were a healthy lot! We all knew that already, but we didn't think he did. The number of emergency calls to the Village is far below the per capita count in any other portion of Camarillo. How about that! The High Twelve Club is one of the main supporters of the paramedic service and has raised $1,000 this year.

In August we heard Oras Rasicot, Manager of Southern California Edison Co., speak about a program shown on the television program, "60 Minutes". We won't go into details, but it was incredible the way the information was distorted. Oras showed us the actual tapes with Harry Reasoner and then the actual "60 Minute" portion.

In September we had Mayor Mary Gayle, first lady Mayor of Camarillo, as our speaker on Ladies Day. This annual event brought a capacity crowd who enjoyed listening to Her Honor. The Question and Answer session was spirited and informative. Few people know that while Mary was serving us as Councilwoman and later Mayor, she was also attending law school. She took the bar exam and will be chewing her fingernails until November when she will learn the results of the test.

On September 29th our Club held it's annual Installation Dinner at which time the new slate of officers and directors were installed. Space does not permit the long list but it was a most impressive affair. The featured speaker was the reknown Dr. Kenneth Carlson, former pastor of the Glendale Methodist Church. He was furnished by Glendale Federal Savings and Loan Association, for which he lectures throughout the State. Kenny has been a speaker at the Village many times and we always expect a capacity crowd when he appears. Unfortunately, because of the sit-down dinner, the Club could only accomodate 200 people. Brit Miller, as State Vice-President of the High Twelve Clubs, officiated.

The "America The Beautiful" program was repeated for the Villagers in September. It was previously presented at a dinner and there were so many people who were disappointed about not seeing it that the Club decided to offer it again with auditorium seating. It was a sell-out and all proceeds from the ticket sales were turned over that evening to Tony Manzella, Coordinator for the Paramedic Fund. Ruth Coburn played the organ preludes on the Hammond organ, Joan Woodenschek, accompanied by Bea Fallick, sang "America the Beautiful" and then Emma and Neil Jensen of Ventura, presented an awesome series of slides depicting our 50 States. After a moving Benediction by Dr. Norman Mace, we all joined hands and sang "God Bless America" with Joan and Bea. The ladies who participated were presented with boxes of stationery as a token of appreciation, and Sam Aldays was surprised to receive a special High Twelve award as he sold over 100 tickets to the event! I am sure that all who attended will agree that it was an unforgettable evening!

You won't see the by-line of Ken MacKaig in future issues because this will be my sign-off after two years as a contributor. Sue and I are going to Hawaii for two months to soak up a little sunshine, pineapple and poi. Several of our Village friends will be passing through Hawaii and we plan to meet them as we will surely miss our Village. We get the same reaction from all the travelers . . . they can hardly wait to get back home to Leisure Village. Aloha and Mahalo.

Men's Golf Association

by Al Podewils

The Village's Seventh Anniversary, which we celebrated this September, reminded us of the many people who laid the ground work for the Men's Golf Association which has just elected it's sixth set of officers.

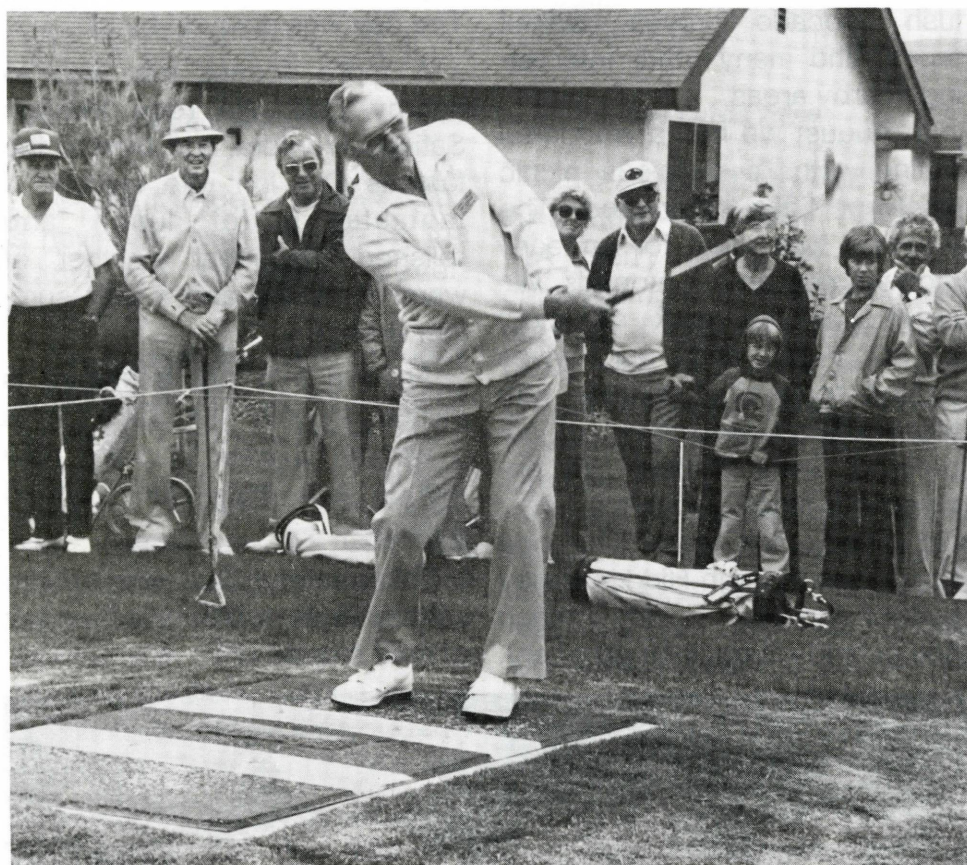

In 1974 we started with Al Ruinello as President. In order, he has been succeeded by George Holfrerich, still active as Parliamentarian; Harvey Shirk, who now has the job of interpreting the Constitution and By-Laws; Dan Gutterman; Walt Smuske, who is still running some of the tournaments and other events; Niels Pedersen, who just finished his term of office; and the new Prexy, Art Wilson.

As President, Art will need some help because our membership has reached a total of 440 golfers. Art will be aided by Bob Cordell as Vice-President; Ken Gifford, Secretary; Bob Anderson, Treasurer; Al Norvig, Membership Chairman; Don Dance, Handicap Chairman; and John Rice; Tournament Chairman. Charlie Bellante will take care of the Long Golf scheduling as successor to Walt Whitaker who left the job after a mere six years of service! And, just in time to give Art a little confidence for his upcoming role as President, he shot a hole in one! It was the 102nd scored on our course since the opening of the first nine holes in 1974.

An all day tournament was held on May 31st in celebration of the opening of the second nine holes. So many prizes were awarded that space does not allow mentioning all of them. The second nine is shorter but no great records have been set yet. Most events now are 18 hole competitions.

The Installation Luncheon was held in June at the Oxnard Hilton, and the out-going officers closed their terms with a big 19th Hole Party on June 29th with a mariachi band and a lot more.

At the July 19th Hole Party, Reg Dowsing showed his latest film, "The Village Vice", a stirring epic based on the trials and tribulations of a group of Leisure Village golfers. It is not a tragedy but the characters involved have some sad times.

The first big tournament scheduled is the Match Play Championship which is now played in flights running through September and into October. The large entry list showed the vast popularity of match play.

A last note: this year the Men's Golf Association and the Women's Golf Association will combine once again for a Year End Party to be held at the Lobster Trap Restaurant in Oxnard in December. That will surely be a biggy!

Organ Club

by Harold Wickham

The Leisure Village Organ Club meets on the fourth Friday of each month from 1:30 to 3:30 in the Assembly Room.

Officers for the current year are: Florence Krueger, President; Piff DeSimone, First Vice-President; Harold Wickham, Second Vice-President; Evelyn Garbe, Secretary; and Marge Ward, Treasurer.

Recent exhibitions of our talented members included the music for the "Talents and Tea" on April 30th, and Ethel Belanger played appropriate tunes for the "Vote" skit in the Rhythmette show, "Hoopla".

At our June meeting, Terry Freeman of Slater's Music Co., gave an interesting demonstration of various techniques to obtain the best musical results on our Gulbransen organ. After an intermission for refreshments, Bill Marvel at the organ and Larry Killeen on the electric guitar entertained us with some fancy duets.

At the July meeting, we had as our guest an artist-author, Nancy Zupan, who has written a book for the adult learning to play the organ.

On July 31st the Club had a special outing to the Hollywood Bowl to hear a concert by world famous Virgil Fox. Unfortunately, Mr. Fox became ill suddenly and another prominent organist played his program. Prior to the concert, we all enjoyed a delightful box dinner in the Bowl.

On Sunday, August 3rd in the Assembly Room, Roy Aprill of Piano and Organ World, demonstrated the wide range of sounds on the Yamaha organ. His presentation was interesting and enjoyable.

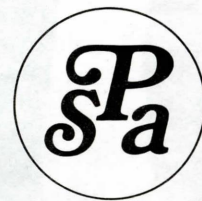

At the High Twelve Club presentation of "America the Beautiful" on August 22nd, Ruth Coburn started the evening program with an Organ Prelude. Florence Krueger provided music for the 19th Hole Party of the Golf Associations, and other members will continue to do so in the future.

Membership in the Club is growing. Annual dues are only $2 per person. As Longfellow aptly put it, "Music is the universal language of mankind", and, as the Bible says, "rejoice at the sound of the organ". So, come to our meetings to play or just to listen. You are welcome!

Shuffleboard Club

by Betty Sullivan

Warm sunny days do not discourage the Shuffleboard players. Even the Thursday evening games have been most rewarding. We are grateful to have those lights over each and every court and can be justly proud of them as the Club stood the entire cost of this project. Club members attendance at our social activities such as the dances, picnics and luncheons, made it possible to enjoy the late evening sport. Thanks to all our members and friends for making the venture successful.

On July 1st, our Club installed the new officers for 1980-81, namely Tom Moore, President; Karl Marshall, Vice-President; Helen Bell, Treasurer; Betty Sullivan, Secretary; and Bertha Kunz, Membership Chairman.

It is difficult to find the words to express our appreciation to our outgoing President, Orpha Hughes. Despite her handicap for many months with an injured hip, she did a terrific job in all the Club's activities and attended every monthly meeting and social funtion. An orchid to you, Orpha.

Our August 7th picnic found all eating heartily under our typical, delightful weather conditions that are found here at Leisure Village. So much and such good food is hard to find at any comparable function and we again must say thanks to our members for their participation in serving approximately 250 people in attendance. The many cakes were furnished by our members and special gratitude to Dorothy Fuller for baking all those beans!

The Tuesday evening instructions for beginner Shuffleboard players, initiated by President, Tom Moore, has been met with great success. Regular play is also held at this time, and how heartening it is to see the courts bustling with action.

Instructions are available Monday mornings at 9:00 A.M. and Tuesday evenings at 7:00 P.M. Regular play is Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at 9:15 A.M. and Thursday evenings at 7:00 P.M. When weather becomes too cool in the evenings, play is changed from Thursday P.M. to Thursday afternoon at 2:00 P.M. Yearly dues are only $2.50 a person. Where can you get more entertainment and good fellowship for such a bargain?

The Moped Club

by Earl Mettler

Members of the Moped Club meet in the Women's Club Room on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month from 9AM to 10AM. The meetings are usually followed by local jaunts which are not only fun but a wonderful way to get acquainted with the beautiful countryside surrounding Leisure Village.

Moped Club trips have included a journey to the picturesque Stagecoach Inn at Newbury Park, lovely Sycamore Canyon by the Pacific Ocean, lush avocado groves, walnut farms, and many other interesting nearby areas.

In August we had a wonderful outing with a delicious picnic lunch at Lake Sherwood. The weather was ideal for an early morning ride on our mopeds. We arrived at the park at about 10:30 A.M. and our wives arrived soon after bringing with them a large assortment of appetizing, tasty dishes. We enjoyed our lunch under the large, old, shady oak trees. Our ride home was through Hidden Valley surrounded by lovely ranch homes and rolling, lush greenery.

The day was enjoyed by all!

A more recent trip was to nearby Ojai. We rode through Saticoy, Ventura, and then to the famous Ojai Inn. We enjoyed a fantastic buffet lunch and relished the ideal weather of warm sunshine and a soft summer breeze.

Anyone that has a moped is invited to join our Club. It is a wonderful way to make new friends and enjoy the planned outings.

Think safety! See you on the second and fourth Wednesday of next month.

Women's Club

by Lucille Matson

Leisure Village Women's Club is having a busy year under the leadership of Ethel Beyer, President.

The budget for 1980 includes donations to the Senior Citizens Survival Fund, Development Center for Handicapped Children, Camarillo State Hospital (Geriatrics & Children), Assistance League for Child Development, Ventura School of Correction, Pleasant Valley Hospital Auxiliary, Visiting Nurses Association of Ventura County (Medical Association), and Hospice, Inc.

On April 30th the Women's Club, in cooperation with the Garden Club, presented "Display of Talents Tea". Guests viewed thirteen place settings ranging in theme from "Summer Picnic" to "The Engagement Party". Talented residents displayed seventeen different crafts such as beaded flowers, African Violets, mosaics, and the fine art of bonsai culture. Music by the Organ Club added to the enjoyment of the afternoon. A donation of $175.00 was made to the Paramedics from this Talent Tea.

"Picnic in the Park" was the theme to honor our men on June 14th. The singing of familiar songs was lead by Margaret Wilson. Square dancing followed by members of the Leisure Village Square Dance Club. Sandy Okum was presented with the "Man of the Year" award, an honor Sandy certainly deserved for the many helpful and healthful programs he has sponsored.

Members enjoyed a "Salad Tasting Luncheon" at their August meeting. Admission was a salad that would feed six, and what a variety there was! Marguerite Abdelnour entertained with twenty very enthusiastic members from the International Folk Dance Group which she instructs.

The Women's Club Workshop held each Tuesday morning had many items for the two day Women's Club Bazaar held in conjunction with Leisure Village's Seventh Anniversary on September 27th and 28th. To all who contributed their time and effort, we thank you!

PAGEANT OF THE MASTERS—LAGUNA BEACH

A merry group of Villagers departed right on time for our annual day in Laguna Beach. Many of us who had never seen this delightful coastal town, looked forward to it with great anticipation.

As for the Pageant itself, many American artists were featured in the program. One so honored was Norman Rockwell, whose works have been so popular for decades.

The subjects of the living art ranged from circus to marionettes; from biblical to contemporary; from urban scenes to the rural sublime; and from the dramatic to the mildly humorous.

Like the many previous productions, this pageant concluded with a living re-creation of Da Vinci's "The Last Supper".

Live narration and appropriate music heightened the enjoyment and dramatic impact of the pageant. Both of these ingredients combined to blend into the program so as to maintain an uplifting mood throughout the performance.

After the show a weary but contented group climbed into the bus for a relaxing and uneventful ride home to Leisure Village. For all, it was a day well spent!

Until we meet again, keep traveling, you-all!

World Travelers Of Leisure Village

by Herman Mogill

In the Spring of 1979, the World Travelers of Leisure Village became a reality. This group was determined to make available to the residents of our Village the best possible tours and cruises at a substantial savings. Almost immediately, the Club grew to a membership of over 400 people.

In addition to providing cost benefits for its travelers, the Club also intended to offer the opportunity of Leisure Village friends and neighbors to travel with one another.

Over the year, Club trips have included a journey to Mazatlan, Mexico, which, due to the fact that it was sold out, necessitated a second trip. Mazatlan was followed by a delightful, ten day Caribbean cruise. The third so-journ on our agenda was the 14-Day, 4 Island tour of Hawaii.

On April 28th a group of 36 residents departed on a 21-Day tour/cruise of Israel and the Greek Islands. This proved to be one of our most rewarding journeys.

More recently, our members enjoyed a 13-Day tour of the Canadian Rockies. And, if you hurry, you still will have time to join us for the 14-Day, 4 Island tour of Hawaii which is priced at an unbelievably low price of $799. This tour will depart on November 5th.

The World Travelers of Leisure Village meet on the second Thursday of each month in the Assembly Room at 7:30 p.m. All residents are welcome to join us. Our next meeting on Thursday, November 13th is sure to be interesting as a travelogue has been scheduled.

Camera Club

by Marvin Gordon

The Leisure Village Camera Club maintained its varied activity program throughout the summer, beginning with its installation dinner at the Hilton in May.

Sam Shapiro, outgoing President, introduced the new slate of officers. Those named were Marvin Gordon, President; Eugene Spalinger, Vice-President; Dorothy Levy, Secretary; and William Stabler, Treasurer.

Club field trips have included a visit to the Getty Museum in May and two trips in July to Rancho Rosita and St. John's Seminary. Professional judges were invited to meetings to rate the quality of member's slides taken on the field trips. Categories selected for judgment included travel, nature, color and photo journalism.

Future outings are planned for San Sylmar, the Huntington Gardens and the Norton Simon Museum.

Guests are welcome to attend our meetings on the first and third Wednesday of each month.

The Saturday Night Ballroom Dance

by Vi Kasner

The fourth anniversary of the Saturday Night Ballroom Dance Group, hosted by the Executive Committee, was a huge success! The Assembly Room was beautifully decorated and housed an overflowing crowd. As an indication of the growth of our group during the years, a call by the photographer for the people who attended the first anniversary, brought 40 people to the fore.

We had just enough time to catch a breath and then it was time for our Hawaiian Night where the dancers themselves were the decorations. It appeared that everyone was in the island spirit with lovely Hawaiian dresses complimented by their escorts bedecked in colorful floral shirts. Swaying island melodies set the tropical mood.

The Ballroom Dance committees continue the constant search for music which is especially geared to our dancer's needs. We look for a variety of music which is well played by an orchestra, has a good beat and is not too long. Our library of dance music consists of thirty three tapes, all of which we created. New tapes are always in the working, requiring many hours of work and critical judging by the committee.

Our committees are very happy to give of their time working for your enjoyment and hope that you will continue to have fun and keep dancing! Our hosts and hostesses will be waiting to greet you at the next Saturday Night Ballroom Dance.

Lovely Rhythmette, Shirley Heller captivates the audience with a sultry tune.

Rhythmettes

After our successful show in May the Rhythmettes went right into rehearsals for the 4th of July program which so many of the residents of the Village look forward to. Under the capable leadership of our director, Edith Ferrer, we played all the nostalgic songs of our youth with everyone joining in for a heart warming sing-a-long.

On July 8th we had our Installation Luncheon at Mercury Savings and Loan at which time Virginia Schafer was installed President; Bea Price, Vice-President; Lillian Anderson, Secretary; and Margaret Grayson, Treasurer. Proceeds from the festivities were donated to the Boys Club of Camarillo.

The rest of the summer was dedicated to vacation and relaxation. On September 9th our Club enjoyed a pot luck lunch to kick off the Fall Season and welcome our seven new members.

meeting every month on the third Monday in the Women's Club Room from 10:00 to 11:30 A.M.

Reviews are usually presented by members of the group and occasionally by a guest such as Mrs. Nancy Cole of the Camarillo Public Library. Along with old favorites, current bestsellers have been under consideration. Recent critiques have included Chesapeake, Palo Verde, My Enemy-The Queen, The Far Pavillions, Shadow of the Moon, The Devil's Alternative; and many biographies such as Will and Ariel Durant, Josh, Noel Coward, and others. The group has also studied books of general interest such as Politics of Energy, Anatomy of an Illness, The Challenge of Change, and poetry readings by one of our resident poets.

Upcoming programs will be equally as diversified and we hope many of our new Villagers will join our monthly meetings.

Current Issues Forum

by Herbert Swartz

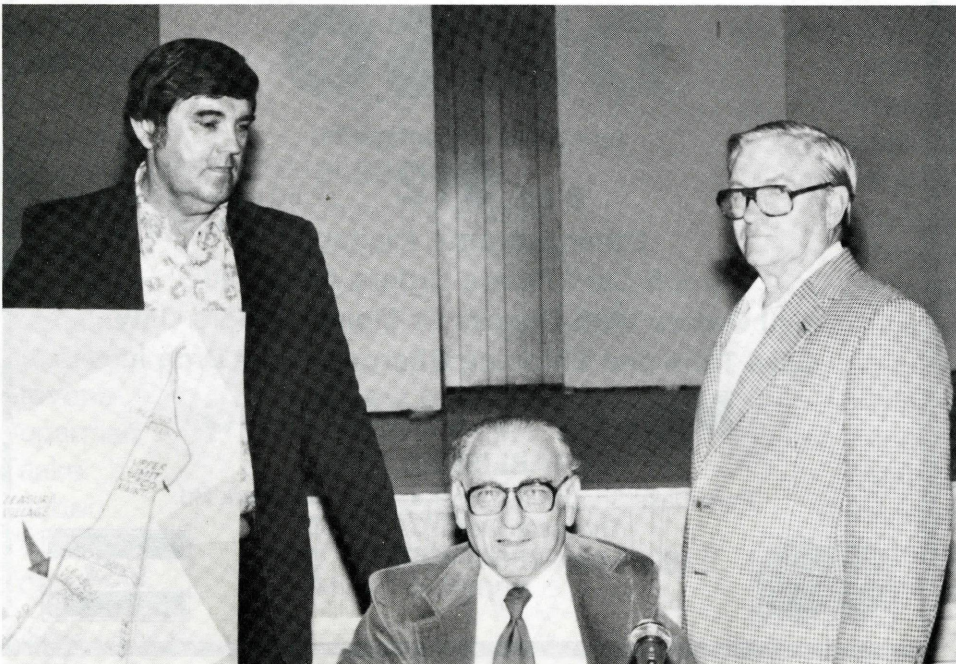

By the large numbers attending the monthly meetings of the Current Issues Forum, it is obvious that Villagers have alert minds and great interest in both local and world issues.

During the summer months Villagers came to hear Dean Hinnen, Editor of the Camarillo Daily present a two part program depicting slides of Brazil, which he had recently visited, and a discussion of the role of the Camarillo Daily News and his position on editorial policy and freedom of the press.

In August, Jerry Nowak, the Ventura County Deputy Public Works Director for Flood Control and Water Resources, discussed a topic of consuming interest to Villagers: "What is Being Done About Flood Control". He made a strong case for supporting the Benefit Assessment measure on the November ballot which will help counteract the loss of needed funds caused by the passage of Prop. 13. The ballot measure, if approved, will cost $8.61 a year for each Leisure Village unit.

"Problems of Economic Development in South Africa" was the subject for the September meeting. Professor James Esmay, Chairman of the Department of Economics of California Lutheran College, delivered the lecture and answered questions. The program also included slides of South Africa.

The Current Issues Forum is under the able direction of Harry Becker, President.

Leisure Village Bowling League

by Al Podewils

The sixth year of the Leisure Village Bowling League started on Friday, September 5th at the Wagon Wheel Lanes in Oxnard with a record number of teams. Thirty teams, six more than last year, and only two short of a houseful, began the new season.

Al Sparkman is the new President of the Club. Fortunately, Ernie Nika and Marge Grayson agreed to retain their jobs as Secretary and Treasurer, respectively, and that will make Al's job a bit easier as they contribute so much.

Records for last season were announced at the June luncheon at the Hilton when the season's loot was also divided. Mike Kazarian had Men's High for both single games and three game with 265 and 625. Gen Wesley with 212 and Paula Lawless with 547 led the ladies. Hal Adams was the most improved male bowler and Mildred Harris, the most improved female bowler. First place for the men in the closing day sweeps with handicap went to Jack Guernsey with 639 and to Vee Flowers with 599 for the women.

Ernie set up the teams as evenly as possible and the race will no doubt be close. With twenty four more bowlers and another year of experience for those who needed it, the coming year should show considerably higher scores and an even tougher battle for season honors.

Variety Guild

by Dorothy Karlin

The Variety Guild has spent a busy summer spending, performing and preparing.

We took a great deal of pleasure in using some of the profits from our successful presentation of "80 Spool" on needed improvements here in our Village. We purchased a Vivitar 283 electronic flash and a film changing bag so that the "Inside Leisure Village" photographers can capture pictures of people and events in the Village. We also donated the needed amount for two handsome display cases at the Recreation Center.

In keeping with our avowed purpose of providing fine entertainment, we presented a concert in May featuring Evelyn and Dr. Gert Muser, soprano and baritone, Byron Williams, violin, and Gwendolyn Lund, piano. How fortunate we are to claim these talents as neighbors!

The selections of the performance included Mozart, Schubert, Puccini, Rossini, Gershwin, Stephen Foster, Jerome Kern, and two selections for violin and piano composed by our own Byron Williams.

Evelyn Muser has starred in musicals such as "Pirates of Penzance", "The King and I" and "My Fair Lady". Gert Muser has appeared in over 2400 professional performances and is at present the head of the Voice and Opera Department at California Lutheran College.

Byron Williams has received high praises for his exceptional style and musicianship and has been compared to Fritz Kreisler. Mr. Kreisler himself wrote a testimony declaring Williams to be a unique violinist.

Gwendolyn Lund, our Leisure Village pianist, has played in concert halls in many States. She has been heard at the Hollywood Bowl and was a soloist with the L.A. Symphony. She taught piano in Sherman Oaks for years before moving to the Village. We look forward to hearing from her often in the future.

"A Gift of Music" was indeed a lovely and highly appreciated gift. Miriam Schwarz, First Vice-President of the Variety Guild, presented the artists with commemorative plaques in honor of the occasion.

We are now in the throes of preparing our second annual variety performance entitled, "80 Scandals", for the entertainment of the Villagers. We do cordially invite all who would like to join us to attend our next meeting.

Remember, if variety is the spice of life, then the Variety Guild offers more than its share of spice!

This 'N That

by Esther Robbins

To all of my readers who await my words of wisdom and my devastating sense of humor with such loyalty, and who have bestowed upon me the title of "The Erma Bombeck of Leisure Village", my deepest gratitude. I love sharing my "more meaningful" experiences with all of you.

Sometimes it isn't easy to be funny. Things have a way of crowding in on you, but when that happens, I start talking to myself, (which you may have noticed). "Esther," I say to myself, "you're not looking, there must be something funny about this thing. It's just that you're not looking hard enough to see it." And that kind of straightens me out. Because really, there is a bit of humor in almost everything if you only take the trouble to look for it. Take a woman's purse, for instance. You wouldn't think such an innocuous object could be the subject of a good story or at least, good for a few laughs, but any man who has stood for half an hour with his arms loaded with groceries fuming while his wife unsuccessfully searches for her keys, will attest to the possibility.

A woman's purse is a receptacle for everything; a veritable "shoulderstrap" file cabinet, medicine chest, short-order lunch counter, and a miniature Atlas and Directory.

I went to the doctor's office with Jerry the other day and the doctor gave Jerry a prescription which, as usual, he promptly handed to me, along with his next appointment card. I put them both in my purse, together with his sun glasses, his reading glasses, three letters he had to mail, my grocery list, four new coupons that I had cut out of the morning paper, and three striped peppermint candies. I had also dropped into its cavernous recesses a small bottle of aspirins (for the bursitis in my shoulder due to carrying my purse). That same evening, as I lay in bed reading, Jerry came in asking where I had put the prescription which we had both forgotten to fill. The book was hilariously funny and I was reluctant to put it down. "It's in my purse," I said, "get it." "In your purse," he answered, "are you kidding?" I kept on reading while he rummaged, muttering to himself all the while. "Where the devil is it?", he yelled. "It's in the compartment where I keep my checkbook." "It's not there! I looked there and I can't find it." "You can't find anything without a road map! It is there! Look for it!" "You look for it," he roared, "I never saw such a mess in my life! What the hell have you got in here?" "What would you like," I snapped. "Ham on rye? There's a Sanka packet, Towellettes, and Sweet-N-Low in my make-up kit. Sorry, I'm fresh out of toothpicks!"

By that time he had worked himself into a lather and dumped the entire contents onto the bed . . . wallet, credit cards, house keys, two sets of car keys, about eighteen pictures of the grandchildren from birth up to the present, a pill box, mah jong cards, make-up kit, swatches of all my pants needing matching tops, two hair rollers, four bandaids, one pair of miss-matched knee hose, sun glasses, several scraps of paper with phone numbers and names of people I couldn't, for the life of me, connect with faces, an unpaid electric bill I had been tracking for almost two weeks, and finally the prescription. It didn't look too bad, really, considering all that it had been through. He didn't have to make such a fuss over it. It would look as good as new after I ironed it. As for the peppermint candy that had somehow come undone and had affixed itself somewhat permanently over the doctor's signature, well, that too was not such a calamity. As a matter of fact, I thought, it was an improvement; it added a patriotic accent (with its red and white stripes) to an otherwise ordinary document, besides, who can read a doctor's signature anyway? At any rate, I didn't see why he was making such a big deal out of it. As it will, one word led to another and we both went to bed angry.

There is absolutely no conceivable connection between the purse incident and the crazy dream I had that night except somewhere I had read that people should never go to bed angry at each other as they might never get up. Anyway, I dreamt that we both died and went to Heaven, which, incidentally, was located directly above Leisure Village which we could plainly see from "up there". In my hand I carried a brown bag from Von's containing all of our lifelong savings, which, after scrimping most of my life, I was determined to take it with me.

As we approached the Pearly Gates we were accosted by a big, burly, and most unangelic angel standing at the entrance. He looked us over coldly and barked "Name, Address, and Serial Number." There was something vaguely familiar about him but I couldn't put my finger on it. I turned on a smile that would put Jimmy Carter to shame. "I'm Esther Robbins," I said, "and this is my husband, Jerry. We're from Leisure Village. You can see it down there. Maybe you've heard of me, I write a humorous column in "The Pleasant Valley Villager" called "This-N-That". He didn't bat an eye. "I'm not interested in your background," he snapped, "what's your serial number?" I tried to be funny . . . "P-R-O-D-U-C-T 1-9," I quipped, "by Kellogg . . . we have it every morning." It didn't work. "Lady," he said, "how would you like to be cited for contempt?" I was startled! I had heard that before . . . but where?

"What do you have in the bag?" I clutched it fiercely to my side. He wasn't going to intimidate me. I had met his kind before. "Money," I said very firmly. "You can't take it with you. We don't have money in Heaven. We only have Manna. That sneer . . . Suddenly it hit me! I tried to picture him without the halo. It was the same man; the officer that had given me a ticket for a minor traffic violation in April! With that I really lost my temper. Angel or no angel, I wasn't going to let him push me around again like he did then. "What do you mean I can't take it with me? What do you think I saved it for? All my life I did without things I wanted . . . bought winter clothes in summer and summer clothes in winter when they were marked down. I even washed my own windows! Would you believe I never had a manicure. Why I can remember when the boys were growing up I sewed up the "fly" in their pajamas and wore them myself so they shouldn't be a total loss. I never even ate what I wanted in a restaurant . . . it was always the "Daily Special" . . . in fact, I never even read the entrees . . . I ordered from the prices! And now you tell me I can't take it with me?" He stood there staring fixedly, his face expressionless. "Sorry, Lady, a rule is a rule. You can't take it with you."

It was no use arguing with him. I had tried it before. I looked at Jerry in alarm. What to do? We couldn't go back to Leisure Village because we were dead and the only other choice was not for me, it wasn't air-conditioned and I can't stand heat. What to do with the money? Of course I could just let the bag drop down to where our kids were waiting so patiently but I couldn't let go. After all, I thought, they never even worked for it. It wasn't fair! I started to tell him, "They'll just go out and use it all up enjoying all the things we never did". He cut me short and said I should have thought of that before. He said to make up my mind . . . he didn't have much time . . . the line behind me was growing longer by the minute. In my mind's eye I saw my kids on a Caribbean cruise! In fact, I never went anywhere and left my kids! I was such a good mother, and this is how I was getting paid . . . and in Heaven, yet! I was literally torn between the devil and the deep. I started to cry and feel sorry for myself. Just my luck, I thought, Wrong Way Robbins. My whole life was there before my eyes. The tears spilled down my cheeks. My nose started to run. I didn't even have a kleenex. I never dreamed it would end like this!

Thank God, it didn't, because just then the alarm went off. I pushed the button and sat up. "Jerry," I said, "it's time to get up. In fact, it's time to do a lot of things! Go down to the Recreation Center and make reservations for that trip to Alaska! As far as I'm concerned, Heaven can wait!!"

Leisure Fair

From the Sales Manager

by Jim McBride

Hello again! To bring you up to date, Leisure Fair is actively working in Village 41-B for November move-in's and gearing up for Village 40.

I find it very interesting that there are several people planning for their second and even third house in Leisure Village. When I see their familiar faces, we laugh and say, "well, here go we again!"

Why do people move once they are settled? There are several reasons. Some decide they want a larger house. In some cases, the house they wanted was not available at the time they purchased. One woman was accused of moving every time her house got dirty, (this is her third home!). What is also interesting is that people generally change their color schemes. That sounds strange, but not really, because the manufacturers are constantly coming out with new colors, better fibers, etc.

Speaking of fibers, Leisure Fair is an exclusive dealer of "Ultron" nylon carpeting. This is backed by Monsanto with a Five Year Wear Warranty. That certainly makes for a wise investment, and that's what good carpeting is — an investment. For anyone buying a "Resale" and is interested in changing the carpet, come in and see the new Fall line of "Ultron" carpeting.

Another new item at Leisure Fair is a revolutionary, new, real brick flooring. It can be used outside on the patio, inside on floors or walls, etc. We also have a new selection of wallpaper books. All wallpaper is sold at a discount.

Come in and take a look.

Over the years, we have attempted to keep you apprised of the growth of this community and informed of the current real estate trends that might affect your decision to purchase a home in Leisure Village. For those who already reside in the Village, this column has provided information regarding our development progress, as well as suggestions and guides should you decide to resell your home.

Along these lines, you will be pleased to know that the resale market is as strong now as it has been in the past. Within the last three months alone, we have handled fifteen resale transactions in this office. This doesn't indicate a mass exodus from Leisure Village, but rather serves to prove our position that should it be necessary for you to move, the lifestyle offered here enhances the value of what is already a very desirable property.

You'll also be interested to know that there are only two more Village groupings available before Leisure Village at Camarillo is completed. To those of you who are considering a move here, or those of you who have friends who might be contemplating a purchase, this of course means that the time is fast approaching when the selection of a particular model will be limited, and in fact, may be totally unavailable.

A purchase of a home at today's price, for delivery next year, provides you with not only a hedge against inflation, but also guarantees you a future filled with the rewards of living in an active, secure, adult community.

Don't be disappointed. Don't delay. Make a commitment today for your future happiness!

From Your Homeowners' Association

by Stan Berman

What makes Leisure Village such a fine community to live in? Without a doubt it is the high caliber of homeowners who reside here. We are very fortunate to have amongst our over 3200 residents so many cooperative and understanding people.

The majority of homeowners abide by the Rules and Regulations as set forth by the Board of Directors. We do appreciate those who comply with:

1. Driving their vehicles at 25 miles per hour on the main streets and 15 miles per hour in the interiors of each Village;
2. Cleaning up after the pets while on a walk;
3. Walking against traffic in the bicycle lanes and wearing white clothing when out at night;
4. Keeping their garage doors closed when not in use;
5. Respecting the privacy of their fellow homeowners by not raising their voices when walking early in the morning and late at night.

It is this type of thoughtfulness that enhances the lifestyle of Leisure Village.

This continual observance of Rules and Regulations and consideration of fellow homeowners will make Leisure Village the kind of community we all desire.

Recreation Center

by Larry Pfeifer

The summer season has come and gone all too fast!

The Recreation Center bustled with activity during the summer months with picnics by the Golf Associations and the Shuffleboard Club. Tournaments kept things rolling in the Tennis, Golf, Shuffleboard and Bocce courts. The new nine hole golf course was completed in May and both Paddle Tennis courts were resurfaced and look better than ever.

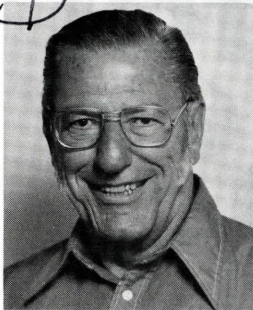

July was met with our annual 4th of July Picnic, complete with a bountiful menu, and a patriotic performance by the Rhythmettes and folk dancing group.

The month of August was enhanced by our Hawaiian luau, graced with perfect "island" weather conditions, delicious Polynesian hors d'oeuvres, a stupendous performance by the "Pele Maidens", and the good company of friendly neighbors.

Our Seventh Anniversary, celebrated in conjunction with the Annual Bazaar sponsored by the Women's Club, was a huge success. Club participation in the weekend festivities included the plant sale by the Garden Club, a lapidary exhibition and sale by the Gem and Mineral Club, and an excellent display by the Stamp and Coin Club. Stage performances included the Village Players, the Variety Guild, the Village Chorale, and the Happy Hoofers. Thanks to all Clubs for making our anniversary a special one!

Our annual Las Vegas Night was met with such enthusiasm that we sponsored the event on two consecutive evenings to accommodate all who wanted to attend.

The upcoming winter months will be full of our usual Holiday festivities such as the Thanksgiving Day Dinner, The Ecumenical Thanksgiving Day Service, the Christmas Tree and Hanukkah decorating party, the Christmas-Hanukkah Program, and the New Year's Eve celebration. All promise to be exciting meaningful celebrations!

Sports Stuff

by Al Podewils

It is difficult to think of Leisure Village as a retirement community when you survey the various facilities available for activities that definitely dispell the "rocking chair" syndrome. Years ago, retirement meant sitting on the porch and watching for the mailman. His arrival was the high point of the day whether he brought anything or not. It was the event. But not anymore. Not at Leisure Village anyway!

Seven years of growth have caused a continuous increase in what early residents thought was a crowded schedule of things to do. People just entering into life here seem to be almost immediately drawn into the activities and soon become as involved as the rest of us. They appear to especially enjoy participating in the outdoor games and sports activities.

Golf probably draws the foremost attention. Many who never before played or had been unable to do so for years, avidly take up the game. With 18 holes now available, it is not unusual to find a foursome on every hole, although actual crowding is rare. Afternoons always allow a leisurely round on an open course with just enough company to make it fun.

The four tennis courts are often fully occupied in the morning with an amazing group of expert players, with play tapering off later in the day allowing plenty of time for beginners to practice and improve their game.

Shuffleboard and bocce courts are always busy at club times but have periods used for practice to make perfect. Some of our already skillful residents gladly take the time to instruct newcomers not familiar with either game.

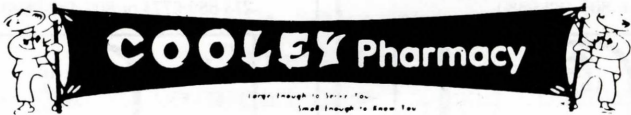

While all this activity is taking place on the courses and courts, the walkers, the joggers, and the bicycle riders are doing their thing on the sidewalks and streets of the Village. Few places are as safe for those exercises. That goes for night or day. Take a walk at midnight and the only danger you face is meeting another resident who gets you to accompany him for an extra mile while you get acquainted.

Outdoor exercise is supposed to make you healthy. If so, the residents of Leisure Village have an enviable future. In addition to the enviable present, that is.
