

Probation. Undergraduate students are placed on academic probation, a type of academic warning, if their:

1. Grade point average (GPA) based on total units attempted at all colleges is 1.99 or below (C average) or
2. GPA based on all units attempted at California State University, Fresno is 1.99 or below average.

Students remain on academic probation until both overall and California State University, Fresno grade point averages are 2.0 or better, or until they are disqualified under one of the provisions of the disqualification regulations.

These regulations also apply to all postbaccalaureate students except those enrolled in master's programs. The latter are expected to maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 in all units attempted subsequent to admission to the master's program. Master's students who fall below the required GPA are placed on probation.

Students enrolled in master's programs are required to maintain a minimum 3.0 postbaccalaureate cumulative grade point average (GPA) prior to advancement to candidacy. Search Graduate Studies.

A graduate student may be placed on administrative-academic probation for withdrawal from a substantial portion of a program in two successive terms or in any three terms; for repeated failure to progress toward a degree; or for failure to comply with an academic requirement or regulation that is routine for all students or for a defined group of students.

Disqualification. After being placed on academic probation, if a student's campus or cumulative GPA remains at 1.99 or below they may be academically disqualified based on the criteria below.

- As a freshman (fewer than 30 semester hours of college work completed) the student falls below a grade point average of 1.49 in all units attempted or in all units attempted at the campus where enrolled
- As a sophomore (30 through 59 semester hours of college work completed) the student falls below a grade point average of 1.69 in all units attempted or in all units attempted at the campus where enrolled
- As a junior (60 through 89 semester hours of college work completed) the student falls below a grade point average of 1.84 in all units attempted or in all units attempted at the campus where enrolled
- As a senior/postbaccalaureate (90 or more semester hours of college work completed) the student falls below a grade point average of 1.95 in all units attempted or in all units attempted at the campus where enrolled

Graduate (master's) students are disqualified if their cumulative California State University, Fresno grade point average falls below 2.0.

Note: A continuing student on academic Probation or Probation: Disqualification Range can "Stop Out" for one semester and still maintain registration eligibility without the need to reapply to the University for admission or to request an educational leave of absence. To be eligible to "Stop Out" during the term a student is placed on academic Probation or Probation: Disqualification Range, students must not be enrolled past the 10th day of instruction. Students on Readmitted on Probation may not use a "Stop Out" until they are on academic Probation standing.

Students receiving veterans' educational benefits will be ruled ineligible for continued benefits if, after one semester of unsatisfactory achievement (probation or disqualification), they do not return to academic Good Standing at the completion of the next semester.

A graduate students placed on administrative-academic probation may be disqualified for the following reasons:

1. If they fail to meet the conditions for removal of probation,
2. Become subject to academic probation while on administrative-academic probation, or
3. Again become subject to administrative-academic probation for the same or similar reasons.
