

N-C 11 Jan 1960

Vallejo Yesterdays

20 YEARS AGO FROM THE CHRONICLE FILES

---

The Weather 20 Years Ago Today: Cloudy and unsettled tonight and tomorrow; occasional rain tonight.

---

Dan Foley today was re-elected president of the Mechanics and Merchants National Bank at a board of directors meeting. Other officers named were Charles Bessac, vice-president and cashier; H. L. Freudenberg, vice-president; Harry F. Buss, assistant cashier; and Harry J. Martin, assistant cashier.

---

Grant Teicheira was elected president of the Vallejo High School student body for the new semester when elections were held this morning at a student assembly. He will succeed Russ Pearson, and will have as boys and girls vice-president Norman Lee and Joy Forman.

---

The name of the California Nautical School which may soon be located in Vallejo has been changed to the California Maritime Academy as a result of recent legislation, it was learned today.

---

Albert McDevitt will be installed as Consul Commander of Vallejo Camp No. 516, Woodmen of the World, tonight.

---

From the 20 Years Ago Column (40 Years Ago Today): "Authorization to proceed with the construction of a magazine building to cost $35,000 and a shell house to cost $45,000 at the Ammunition Depot on Mare Island, has been received from the Navy Department."