

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Dear Fellow Democrat:

Congratulations on your designation as a Delegate to the 1968 Democratic National Convention. I know you realize what an honor and responsibility it is to have the opportunity of helping select our Party's candidate for President and Vice-President in the 1968 Presidential campaign.

At the request of my dear friend, Margaret Price, Vice Chairman and Director of Women's Activities, I have agreed to volunteer and serve as Special Assistant to Chairman John M. Bailey from now until the close of the convention.

We, at the National Committee, are working to give you a stimulating, informative Women's Activities' program during the National Convention which we hope will be useful to you in the campaign. The role of women will be more important than ever this year since we who are eligible to vote outnumber men eligible to vote by more than six million.

So that we may publicize your important work for the Democratic Party, please complete the enclosed biographical questionnaire and return it to me as soon as possible.

I shall look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

Sincerely,

India Edwards
