

One hundred and ten thousand Americans of Japanese ancestry were evacuated - Aliens - citizens, male & female, children and adults (the reason was ancestry) of 127,000 112,000 were concentrated in 3 western coastal states

At that time they were often regarded as unfair competitors - and of questionable allegiance to the United States

Japanese were considered more docile and acceptable than the Chinese that migrated to the country years before the Japanese.

1906 San Francisco school law ordered the first school segregation of oriental students

1913 California Alien Land Law prohibited aliens ineligible for citizenship from owning land followed by passage of similar statutes in Oregon, Washington and other states