LV streets, sidewalks getting attention

By Bob Cohen

Virtually everything in our world needs maintenance — our cars, our lawns, even our marriages. That is why approximately 15 percent of our homeowners' dues are put into a reserve fund each month. When the maintenance is required, the money is there.

The time has come for maintenance of our streets and sidewalks in 11 of our villages. A contract in excess of $221,000 has been awarded to General Pavement Management (GPM). Work has begun and is scheduled to be completed by the time you read this.

The work to be performed is somewhat varied. For example, GPM will lay down 66,000 square yards of road slurry and perform 1,480 square feet of concrete repairs, 1,650 square feet of new or repaired asphalt and 178 linear feet of new or repaired curbing and gutters. In addition to moving a sewer manhole, the contractor will restripe the affected streets.

In short, it's a lot of work, but it's work that's necessary to maintain our Village.

So the next time you pay your HOA dues, understand that you are getting a lot more for the money than just having the lawns mowed.

Happy Thanksgiving from the ILV staff!

The holiday season is coming up, and kicking things off is the annual Interfaith Gathering, set for Nov. 20 this year. Read all about it on Page 6.

Also coming up is the Second Annual Winter Classic. It's planned for Nov. 4 in the AR. Details are also on Page 6.

Ever wonder why the Village is so busy on Wednesday nights? It's bingo night! An average of 120 people show up for that first 6 p.m. game. Read all about this Village tradition on Pages 16 and 17.

Developer wants homes, businesses on 740 acres

Camarillo Planning Commission holds public hearing next month

By Patty Ecker

The next time you begin the drive down the Conejo Grade on the 101 Freeway, take a look at what Camarillo residents call "the gateway view to the sea." That welcoming — often stirring — vista of rolling farmland may become the Conejo Creek Development. The usually green swath of agriculture that signals we are almost home in Leisure Village could become home to 2,500 residential units, stores, businesses and two man-made lakes.

In December, the Camarillo Planning Commission will hear public comments on the Conejo Creek Development

This is part of the 740-acre agricultural parcel being proposed for the Conejo Creek Development — 2,500 residential units, stores, businesses and two man-made lakes — which goes before the Camarillo Planning Commission next month.

Plan. The proposal would turn 740 acres of agricultural land into a residential-industrial-commercial development.

The land belongs to five farm families who first proposed the development in 2007.

Bounded by the 101 Freeway, Pleasant Valley Road and Calleguas and Conejo Creeks, the proposal includes:

- 304 acres of housing units.
- 218 acres of recreation and open space.

- 100 acres for industrial use.
- 54 acres for office/commercial use.

The proposal describes "a new community that integrates multiple land uses in an outdoor setting." The land is still farmed and must be rezoned before the plan can proceed. The Conejo Creek Specific Plan is working its way slowly through the review process, next by the city's Planning Commission, followed by several different votes by the Camarillo City Council.

An independent Environmental Impact Report (EIR) was released in July and is a roadmap for decision-making by city leaders as well as citizens. The 218-page draft document examines in detail how the landowners

On Sunday, Oct. 12, our daughter Penny and her husband Mike left to return to Silver Lakes after spending all weekend painting the inside of our home as a birthday present for Bette's 75th birthday.

When they were loading Mike's truck with tools and equipment, Mike did one of those dumb things: He laid Penny's Kindle Fire on the railing around the truck bed and forgot about it. Halfway home Penny discovered it wasn't in the cab. They stopped to check the bed. No Kindle.

Penny frantically called us to check the nearby streets, but it was not found.

Later we received a call from Officer Kenny Paulin, No. 6, asking for Penny, who was gone.

"I picked up her Kindle Fire in the middle of the street," he said. "It seems undamaged."

The officer told us he would have it delivered to our house.

A loaded Kindle Fire is worth a considerable chunk of money, so we wish to compliment Officer Paulin for his help, his diligence and his honesty. He is one of those wonderful reasons for living in and loving Leisure Village.

VILLAGE HAPPENINGS

Clubs will display work at Nov. 11 Festival of the Arts

By Lois Keeler

Everyone in the Village is invited to attend the Festival of the Arts Show on Nov. 11 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the AR.

This picture from last year's show tells it all. A great crowd and many art exhibits will again be on view. All works are from the efforts of the members of our Village clubs, including Village Arts, China Painting, Camera Club, Quilters, Woodworking, Origami, Lapidary, Stoners, Ceramics Plus and Ceramic Molds. Jewelry, quilts, miniatures, photos and ceramics are just some of the items that will be on view.

Also in the Garden Room and the Gazebo Gardens, the Stoners jewelry club and the Ceramic Plus Club will be selling their items. Local artist Judy Klemet will give a demonstration on pastel painting.

Wine and appetizers will be served, and music will be supplied by Irene Olson and Joyce Schifanelli. Donations may be given at the function for the Tree Fund.

Hope to have a great crowd enjoying this great event.

Interfaith event set for Nov. 20

By Carol Cannell

Each year we celebrate Thanksgiving in a special way here in Leisure Village. Everyone is invited to attend the Interfaith Gathering on Tuesday evening, Nov. 20.

The program will begin at 7 p.m. and conclude at 8:15 p.m. with a yummy assortment of home-baked cookies. Punch and coffee will be served. Clergy from Protestant, Jewish and Catholic faiths will speak.

We are excited that our main speaker this year will be Jim Johnson, pastor of Good Shepherd Church on Arneill Road. Jim graduated from the University of Minnesota and the Free Lutheran Seminary. He has a wonderful Minnesotan accent that is easy on your ears. He and his wife Linda have been in Camarillo for more than six years. They are raising nine children (yes, nine) and Jim has a daily radio Bible teaching program that airs on KDAR, 98.3 FM, at 12:30 p.m. each afternoon and 10:30 p.m. each night.

I encourage you to come share the warm, welcoming atmosphere. Each year we like to end the program with everyone singing the song, "Let there be Peace on Earth."

That's one lucky dog

By Patty Ecker

When Marla Stempler looked out her window in Village 7, she saw neighbors Alan and Gail Singer, a security officer and a cute little white dog in a huddle.

The pup, it seems, had been wandering around the Village alone — no leash, no ID tag. Marla, a pet owner herself, went out to investigate on that warm Wednesday evening.

"The dog looked so familiar," she recalls.

But when she got closer, she realized she didn't know whom he belonged to. So the curly white canine went off to the Main Gate with the officer, and neighbors fanned out across the street, looking for an owner.

No luck.

So Marla and another Village 7 pet lover, Joan Levy, went up to the Main Gate. Marla volunteered to take the dog — on a leash — around Village 7 in the hopes that he'd recognize his home. She walked and walked (Village 7 is a big place). Others took laps around the neighborhood, too. More than a half dozen Villagers searched for the poodle's home.

No luck.

Buddy makes friends in Leisure Village

"He had a great old time," Marla remembers with a smile.

But after 90 minutes of exploring with his new pals, the pup was not giving up his address. So back to the Guard Gate he went to hunker down with Officer Christi Moore.

"He spent about three hours with me, and people kept coming up to see if they could identify him and get him home," Christi says.

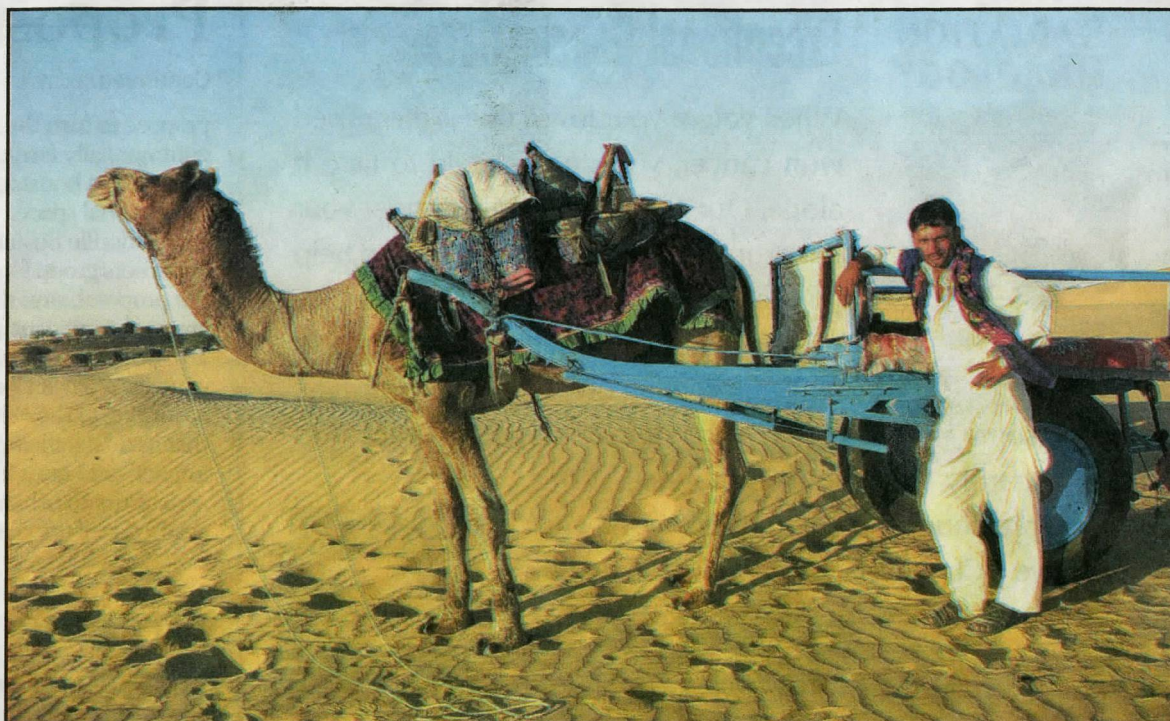

Wednesday night is Bingo. So Officer Moore's colleague, Tabitha Pugh, took the dog over as the game was ending. Maybe his owner had been inside and didn't know the pooch had gotten out. So Tabitha, with the dog, stood in the parking lot and asked anyone within earshot if they knew this little lost guy.

No luck.

A Good Samaritan volunteered to take him home for the night. And she took him to the vet in the morning. Voila! The dog had a chip in his ear. "Buddy" lives in Village 5, a newcomer adopted by Betty Peck in July. One look at the chip and Buddy was home before you could say, "It took a lot of Villagers to create this happy ending for the curly poodle and his owner."

Lucky dog!

Hemu Kalle took first place in the October Camera Club competition in the Assigned category of Transportation for this photograph, titled "A Desert Cadillac." More Camera Club winners appear elsewhere in this edition.

Exceptional Cancer Care

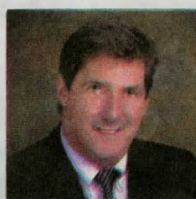

When you or your loved one is diagnosed with cancer, you do not need to face it alone. Our caring team will answer your questions, explain your options, and help you make the best choice. Our goal for over 30 years has been to eliminate cancer while preserving quality of life. However, the personal attention we give to our patients and their families is what truly makes the difference. Why spend precious time commuting, when you can have UCLA-level treatment close to home.

No cancer is routine—for you or for us. Let's face cancer together.

"The Centers' staff is exceptional. In all of our interactions, I found them to be courteous, efficient, and skillful" propose to turn the acreage that has been commercially farmed for more than 50 years into a housing-working-shopping-recreational space.

Camarillo Sustainable Growth, a grassroots group formed in opposition to the proposal, says the EIR points to several areas of significant concern. Traffic on the 101 would increase by more than 40,000 car trips a day if Conejo Creek is built, according to the EIR, which describes that as a "significant and unavoidable impact" and rates it an "F." Losing prime agriculture to urban use and losing the aesthetics of the western view from the Conejo Grade were also noted as negative impacts. Closer to home is the projection that gridlock on the 101 could lead to congestion on Santa Road as thousands of drivers look for alternate routes.

A decision by Camarillo is not expected in the near future. Public input is ongoing. At an open hearing in September, several hundred citizens overflowed City Hall to speak to the Planning Commission. In more than two hours of comments, none was offered in favor of the plan.

The next public hearing before the Planning Commission is scheduled for Dec. 4. To read the complete Environmental Impact Report, link to www.ci.camarillo.ca.us.

Showtyme

By Phil Kamens

Grey Romande and Kalinda Grey will headline Showtyme's Friday, Nov. 9, show at 7:30 p.m. in the AR. Singing jazz, Broadway, pop and classical, Romande has worked with many stars and had a command performance at the White House. He has been featured in "Man of La Mancha," "Phantom of the Opera," "Jesus Christ, Superstar" and "Les Miserables" at the Lincoln Center.

Kalinda has performed with Bernadette Peters, toured with "South Pacific" and worked on "The Producers," "Reefer Madness," "The Hobbit" and the Los Angeles run of "Cabaret." Individually they are great. Together they are sensational.

Sharon Hahn, membership chairperson, and her helpers will be signing up new and existing members for 2013. Please bring a check and sign up at the Nov. 9 show. You will be a member from November 2012 through December 2013. That's 11 free shows for $7.00 And don't forget, members buy tickets to the big shows three times a year for $10.00 while non-members pay $13.00. And that includes the free coffee and goodies after each of the monthly shows.

The Mavericks

By Margo Secia

Our Masquerade Dance in October was a huge success. A big thank you to all of you who came to dance and listened to the music. Everyone seems to love Halloween, and all the costumes were very inventive and fun. The costume contest was awesome, and a big round of applause to all the lucky winners.

We will be dark in November and December due to the holidays. The board is already busy making plans for our annual Winter Ball Dinner Dance on Friday, Jan. 25 in the AR, and details will be forthcoming in the next several ILV issues and e-News.

If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to contact President Sharon Loney at 987-8292. Happy holidays!

Wii Bowling

By Carole Warren

The Wii Bowling Club is proud to announce our Mixed Team Tournament on Saturday, Nov. 17, at 1 p.m. in the AR.

We will have four teams of four bowlers each, competing in these categories of bowling averages: 176-300, 156-175, 136-155, 0-135. The averages are based on a minimum of 12 games from Sept. 4 to Nov. 1. Bowlers from the highest category will be captains and will draw teammates' names from a hat, then draw cards for playing position. Two teams will bowl at a time on two big-screen TVs. Each team will bowl two games; total pins by each team will determine first, second, third and fourth place. A third game will be bowled in the event of a tie. Please come and see for yourself what a great time we have!

The Wii Bowling Club was started this year and has grown to more than 150 bowlers who participate Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday during the day and Tuesday and Thursday nights. Sessions last about an hour and a half, and no bowling equipment is necessary. This is electronic bowling and requires no athletic ability.

If you are interested in joining, please call Carole Miller at 383-6715 or Paul at 419-4124.

specially choreographed for our age group in Leisure Village. Our members come in all ages and sizes. We encourage you to come out and try this fabulous way to exercise and stay young and healthy. We are a friendly, welcoming group. You will be so glad you came. Bring a friend if you like and wear comfy clothes, rubber-soled shoes and a bottle of water.

Personally, I have found Jazzercise extremely helpful to my overall health. Having fibromyalgia and chronic fatigue syndrome, I came with a lot of pain and just barely got through my first class. However, I kept coming because Jazzercise is such a mood lifter. Our teacher, Renee, who has been in the Village teaching Jazzercise 10 years now, provides fun "feet-moving" music that just makes you want to dance. Besides that, Renee has a wonderful sense of humor that keeps us laughing. I can now get through a class two or three times a week, and my aches and pains are much better. I love it.

Each one of our class members has a story as to why they love Jazzercise. Come and hear our stories. Try it. You will love it, too.

Friday Night Country Western Dance Club

By Sue-Ellen Colp

The next dance will be on Nov. 2 at 7:30 p.m. Dance lessons will begin at 8:15. Judy will be teaching 5-1-5-0.

Thanks again to everyone who came to the last dance. It was another fun evening of dancing and learning new dances. Thank you to Jerry for teaching for me since I had some eye surgery and was not supposed to be jumping around. It was hard not to dance all night, but I did it. I don't want to do that again.

So now everyone knows the Monster Mash — an easy, fun dance for Halloween.

Come on down and bring a snack to share. Punch, coffee and water will be provided. BYOB and buy raffle tickets for the 50/50 and wine. Special thanks to Marion Green for donating an Avon gift for a raffle.

See you on Nov. 2 at 7:30 p.m.

Woodshop

By Chuck Russell

The LV Woodshop committee members volunteer their expertise and time to offer repair service of wood items for residents. Leisure Village residents are welcome to bring items to the Woodshop in the Recreation Center Tuesday and Wednesday mornings between 10 a.m. and noon. There is no guarantee that all damaged items can be fixed, only that we will try to restore them to the best of our ability. There is no charge for this service. Donations are accepted for materials and supplies.

For more information, contact Sid Alweiss at 482-5341 or Chuck Russell at 383-3043.

The Woodshop is available to residents with woodworking experience, provided they can demonstrate the ability to operate power equipment safely. Residents interested in having key access to the shop should contact a Woodshop Committee member for an appointment to be checked out on the equipment.

Chuck Donnel, above left, calls the first half of bingo, while Dick Olson, above right, does the honors for the second half. Bingo is every Wednesday.

With an $80,000 payout last year, Village bingo is big

By Bob McQuivey

No senior community is complete without a game or two of bingo, since it represents an activity that psychologists suggest we should play to maintain good mental health — and that our kids expect us to play because we're too old to do anything else.

However, if you think bingo is a slow-moving game where old folks sit around with a pencil in hand while mostly staring at the wall and trying to mark five numbers in a straight line, you'd be wrong.

The event in our community uses the latest in equipment and technology that was originally purchased in 2000, last upgraded in 2010, and utilizes frequent changes in patterns to alleviate boredom.

For those of you old enough to remember, Marion Tavano, a past resident, ran the sessions for many years.

The current games, as coordinated and monitored by volunteer Chuck Donnel since about 2000, with help from his able-bodied assistant Dick Olson for the past eight years, represents one of the few activities in our community that is almost totally self-supporting, meaning that the equipment, most costs of operation and other associated financial needs are paid for by user fees.

Records kept by the Bingo Subcommittee, a branch of the all-encompassing Ed and Rec Committee, show that an average of about 120 people, but occasionally up to 150 or more, participate each Wednesday evening beginning sharply at 6 p.m. The minimum buy-in is $7, and almost $80,000 was paid out in prize money — ranging from $30 to $250 for individual games — during the past year.

The only potential glitch associated with the license requirements — and it is important for residents to understand this — is that state law requires all bingo games in any venue throughout the state be open to the public. As a result, this represents the only situation for Leisure Village where we allow outside visitors through the gate without an invitation from a current resident. Written records show that approximately 20 percent of the participants are invited guests or others. All are closely monitored by security, and, most important, no records are available that would suggest that these visitors cause any problems. Our only options in the matter are to discontinue the games or allow the public access, and the board has consistently opted to continue with the activity.

So, if you are bored on a Wednesday evening, want to meet some of your neighbors, feel a streak of luck coming on or just want to socialize, stop by the Assembly Room on any given Wednesday before 6 p.m. and join in the fun.

An average of 120 people play bingo every Wednesday at 6 p.m.

The keys to success: markers, bingo cards and cash

Farmers Club

By John & Sunshine Peterson

The Garden Patch News is congratulating the Oct. 9 work crew. Mary Lucid and Al Pinto organized a wonderful afternoon of weed eradication in all walkways and in individual patches to get ready for fall and winter plantings. Great pizza was served to all after the hour and a half cleanup to keep our garden weeds under control. Individual work is still required to some patches so your weeds do not spread to neighboring patches.

Kudos to Mary, Al, Florence, Len, Trish, Mark, Yatzko, Bob, Tony, Evelyn, Bob, Donna, Max, Ivan, Berta, Joan, Sunshine and all on the work crew. Please contact Al Pinto 832-9571 for information about the Farmers Club.

Our recipe for a winter planting this edition is beets: This candy-sweet vegetable gets most of its color from a cancer-fighting pigment called betacyanin. The edible root is replete with fiber, potassium and manganese. Toss roasted beet chunks with toasted walnuts and orange segments, or grate raw beets into salads.

Saturday Nite Dance

By Andrea Moran

The holidays will be upon us soon, along with eating all the wonderful food that makes them so special. Let's start dancing so the clothes will fit. What better way than to come to our dance and have a good time enjoying the music and great neighbors who attend.

The following is the schedule: Nov. 3, Rhythm Kings; Nov. 10, Jerry Dokken; Nov. 17, The Groovin' Easy Dance Band; Nov. 24, no dance. The dance is from 7:30 to 10 p.m. in the Assembly Room, and admission is $7. Coffee, punch and popcorn are provided. Have a great month — gobble, gobble — and keep your feet beating to the music.

SAS Dinner Out

So now it's November 2012. We promised to meet on the second Tuesday, and that's coming up quite quickly. Nov. 13 is the date. Everyone is still OK with the food and service at Ottavio's Italian Restaurant. All you need to do is make your reservation by calling Lee Edwards at 484-3289. The only change will be to meet at 5 p.m., a half hour earlier because it gets dark earlier now.

It's been a year since SAS had its last holiday party, so come to this dinner with a few ideas to mark the occasion. Remember, Nov. 13 at 5 p.m. at Ottavio's. Lee is waiting for your call.

I urge those who want to go to call Kathy Caldwell at 482-0282 and purchase your tickets soon. The next meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 6:30 p.m. will be the last day to get tickets. Remember also that we need to purchase a $10 toy gift for a boy or girl and wrap and label it for a boy or girl and the appropriate age. This is the fun part, buying the gift! Happy Thanksgiving to all!

The October meeting of the Pet Club included a question and answer session with Dr. Deena Case Pall on dog behavior. She will be giving another set of four sessions to qualify dogs for the AKC Canine Good Citizen certificate. These sessions include "sit," "down" and "stay" on command, walking on a leash, how to accept a stranger, meeting another dog calmly, coming when called and not overreacting to distractions. The classes run four consecutive Fridays at 10 a.m. The cost is $30 for Pet Club members and $40 for non-members. Call Barbara Krohta at 445-4809 for more information and to sign up.

The Pet Club had a "Goodbye Konner" party for Susan Maddox and her Guide Dog puppy, Konner. He will be going to Guide Dog College in Simi for advanced training. Then he will be placed with a blind recipient. We are very proud of Konner, our first Village Guide Dog puppy. Susan will be getting another puppy soon. This is a major commitment on her part to train and care for the puppy until it is mature and ready for placement. Watch for the new pup and say "Hi" to Susan.

Everyone is invited to our Nov. 12 meeting at 7 p.m. in the MPR. Our

Big Band

By Anne Wolfson

The Big Band will be playing in the AR from 7 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 27. This is a group of 17 professional musicians who come to entertain our Villagers. All Villagers are invited, at no charge, to come listen or dance to beautiful music. So, come and bring friends and neighbors for a delightful evening.

LV Musicians

By Anne Wolfson

The LV Musicians are residents of Leisure Village who enjoy performing for other residents. Those who performed in October were Jo Aaronson on clarinet, Richard Weiss on piano, Don Stevens on trombone, Dick Guttman on organ, Stan Vansant on piano and woodwinds and Sam Arouesty on saxophone and harmonica. Stan Vansant and Dick Guttman were frequent accompanists.

A music quiz was given for the audience by Stan, Dick and Sam, which was a lot of fun!

The next meeting of the LV Musicians will be on Thursday, Nov. 8, in the AR from 7 to 9 p.m.

Time to mark the calendar for upcoming events.

Wednesday, Nov. 14, is the Racquet Club Potluck Dinner. Dinner will be at 5:30 p.m. in the MPR. Signup sheets are now on the paddle court bulletin board. After dinner we will have a short business meeting followed by some entertaining activities guaranteed to make you laugh and chuckle.

Wednesday evening, Dec. 13, is the holiday wine and cheese party in the MPR. For this event you just show up in good spirits and partake of other types of good spirits. Watch for more details in the December edition of Inside Leisure Village, but for now please save the date.

Last month, because of space limitations, our editors had to omit a topic from the Racquet Club news. Below is the omitted information discussing the pros and cons of the padel, a paddle tennis racquet that is solid and made from light composite materials.

Padels usually improve our game, give more power per hit, and might help with arm and shoulder problems. However, before you invest in one of these $120 to $200 racquets, do your research as an informed consumer. The new technology racquets are not as sturdy as the old metal rim paddles, and thus the padels will wear out sooner than the older racquets. I expect to have my racquet about three years. After a few months of regular play, the Wilson racquet face can develop fine line surface cracks and chips. Mine has, but it's improved my game so much that I'm willing to live with it. DropShot paddles also have cracking issues, but current users seem to like the racquets in spite of that.

Since there are many padels being used at our courts today, ask owners for their opinions before you buy. A possible question is, "Weighing the pros and cons, would you buy your padel again?" A tip if you do decide to buy one: Protect your padel racquet with edge tape. Ask the rep to put on the edge tape when you purchase your racquet. Also, avoid scraping the edge of the racquet along the ground when going for half volleys. Edges of padels are less sturdy than edges of metal rim rackets.

Whether you use a padel or a metal-rimmed racket, paddle tennis is good exercise. Thus, the main thing is to come to courts to play and have fun.

Few golfers can stand as tall as he. Howard Koehn has been a member of the LV Men's Golf Association for eight years and has quickly grown into one of the club's honored volunteers. His dedicated service is deeper than the roots of the tallest tree in the Village.

"Golf began some 40 years ago with yearly rounds with my father-in-law, Guy. He was a good golfer, hit the ball right down the middle," says Koehn.

Executive Courses in Van Nuys. She loved golf."

When Howard and Helen moved to Leisure Village more than eight years ago, they joined the two golf clubs. Helen volunteered as a starter with the LVWGA.

"With my background in running bowling league tournaments, I got involved with the golf club tournaments for many years," Howard said — and it's a position he still holds since the passing of his loving wife.

Howard has since given up on the game, due to problems with his knees. In spite of this, you can still see him sitting near the golf shack hawking those tickets to the latest tournament.

He's never far from the game he loves.

"Great tournament!" said Jan Gerk of the LVWGA, who won the Low Gross award for the 18ers at the men and women's Annual Harvest Golf Tournament and Luncheon. "Next time," she added, "let's do a Best Ball Tourney. It would be fun. We do it all the time in the Women's Club."

Event organizer Howard Koehn feels the event went well. "No unexpected surprises," he remarked.

John Hisler, luncheon coordinator, joked, "We have a lot of onions left over."

Having fed about 140 guests and players it all went well with hamburgers, hot dogs and all the trimmings. "It was great to see a large number of volunteers," he concluded.

The 2012 LVMGA Club Championship will be under way by press time. If you are taking part in this tournament, may the golf gawds look favorably upon you.

Jack Kirkland wants to remind all scorekeepers to write clearly, check your scores, math, and most importantly sign the cards before submission.

"Far too many groups are being disqualified for poor scorekeeping," he states. Hey, if ya' wanna win the bucks, ya' gotta do it right.

Alton Brown's Roast Turkey

For the brine: 1 cup kosher salt, 1/2 cup light brown sugar, 1 gallon vegetable stock, 1 tablespoon black peppercorns, 1 1/2 teaspoons allspice berries, 1 gallon iced water

For the aromatics: 1 red apple-sliced, 1/2 onion-sliced, 1 cinnamon stick, 1 cup water 4 sprigs rosemary, 6 leaves sage, Canola oil

Directions | 2 to 3 days before: Begin thawing a 14-16lb turkey in the refrigerator or in a cooler kept at 38 degrees. Combine the first 5 ingredients in a large stockpot over medium-high heat and bring to a boil. Then remove the brine from the heat, cool to room temperature, and refrigerate. Night before Thanksgiving: Combine the brine, water and ice in a brining bag. Place the thawed turkey (with innards removed) fully submerged in the brine. Cover, and refrigerate for 8-16 hours. Thanksgiving: Preheat the oven to 500 degrees. Remove the bird from brine and rinse with cold water. Discard the brine. Place the bird on roasting rack & pan and pat dry with paper towels. Combine the apple, onion, cinnamon stick, and water. Microwave on high for 5 minutes. Add steeped aromatics to the turkey's cavity along with the rosemary and sage. Tuck the wings underneath the bird and coat the skin with oil. Roast the turkey on lowest level of the oven at 500 degrees for 30 minutes. Insert a probe thermometer into thickest part of the breast and reduce the temperature to 350 degrees. Set the thermometer alarm (if available) to 161 degrees. A 14-16lb bird should require a total of 2 to 2 1/2 hours of roasting. Let the turkey rest, loosely covered with foil or a large mixing bowl for 15 minutes before carving. Eat!

"It was on the same hole, the tenth, just two years apart," he said jubilantly. "The first was during a Tee Timer's competition," he added.

Congratulations, Ross.

The LVMGA would like to extend a hearty thank you to all those who donated golfing articles to the recent Fall Sale held at the Pavilion. Week 5 and Bob McQuivey was back with a 216 and Bigg Al Schuster had a 204. Side Pot Winners were Bert Stone, Jerry Rosen and a tie between Bob McQuivey and Walter Maich for the men, and Billie Stimac, Sharon Hahn and Nora Potter for the ladies.

Week 6 and Dennis Durand stayed hot with a 221. Side Pot Winners were Stan Reshes, Dennis Durand and Art Titen for the men, and Cathy Friedman, Leslie Fox and Lucy Fiore for the ladies.

Week 7 and the temperature wasn't the only thing to cool down; there were no 200 games. Side Pot Winners were Walter Maich, Bert Stone and Bigg Al Schuster for the men, and a tie between Betty Herrmman and Cathy Friedman, Vi Guzman and Lucy Fiore for the ladies.

What surprises lay in store? Only the Bowling Gods know.

Shuffleboard Club

By Diane Hawrylo

Shuffleboard players are excited about the First Annual Shuffleboard Tournament starting on Wednesday, Nov. 7 at 9:30 a.m. Awards will be for first, second, third and fourth places. I am pleased to report that new California scoreboards will be installed before the tournament.

On 10-17-12, Milt Krapes had a high score of 125. Come every Wednesday at 9:30 and join the fun. Villagers are invited to practice at any time. Currently, equipment is stored in a sports equipment room located near the barbecue pit. A shuffleboard shed is in the budget for the near future.

Players Guild

By Joyce Belcher

On Nov. 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the AR, Players Guild will hold its monthly meeting. Afterwards we will present "Take Me Out To The Ballgame," produced and directed by Cathy Friedman and Joyce Belcher. That's right! We are back with one of our fun and outrageous workshops. If you have seen our past workshops you know you don't want to miss this one. Refreshments will follow.

We will also have tickets for our Holiday Dinner Dance to be held on Dec. 20. Tickets are $23 for members and $26 for non-members. Tables of 11 are available as well as single tickets, so get yours while they last. For ticket information call Barbara Stone at 388-8867.
