Merchants Exchange Bldg.,
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Miss Morgan:

I hope the various rooms that we have been working on are reaching the point of completion.

I would like to know that the Celestial suite, including the bathroom, are finished and ready for occupancy.

I hope the duplex can also be hurried through to completion.

The time that we will need these extra rooms is this summer, when we return to the ranch, and the earlier we have them the better.

If we could stop work on something else and concentrate on finishing all these rooms, it would be a highly desirable thing to do.

I do not know that I can do much beyond these rooms this summer. I certainly will not undertake any concrete construction. Possibly we will proceed with the music room and continue on the indoor pool, but expenses will have to be rigidly limited, as times are not good.

From August 1st on I would like to cut expenses to the irreducible minimum.

Sincerely,

W. P. Hearst
