Before Al left for the weekend he said he didn't want to have intercourse because of the fear of physical results developing. He has returned. He was wonderful running to his arms, sleeping T.V.
Night fell. Not one career.

He started to sleep. I is missed him so. I just finished masturbation.
He makes not one advance.

I, being women, do not want to lead. He should take the lead, but not one instance of inner weakness.
I do not understand. An hour ago, total happiness; - Now I feel lonely.

I'm mad at myself for letting this develop. If one does not like the situation, the circumstances why does one linger? I know not why?
Is it I am confused? If I believe my thoughts, then why not amend that which is tattered? I shall try!
