"Stacey! What's Your Name?"

San Jose, California

Señor Daniel Saldaña:

Escribo a Ud. estas mal forjadas líneas carentes de expresión, pero llevan un afectuoso saludo de parte de quien ha leído dos de sus artículos; usted no me conoce, ni yo he tenido el gusto de conocerle personalmente; pero por lo poco que de Ud. he leído me he dado cuenta que es una persona digna de estímulo, uno de los pocos mexicanos con gran interés en fomentar la cultura entre nuestra raza (que buena falta nos hace). Hace un año radicamos mi esposo y mis hijos en esta Ciudad, nunca había conseguido ninguna revista que tuviera algo en español, alguien me dijo que solo EL EX-CENTRICO y vi con gran desilusión que solo lo que Ud. escribe; pues yo pense que toda la revista se publicaba en nuestra lengua como no entiendo nada de Ingles, no pude menos que leer y releer sus escritos que francamente me parecieran muy interesantes ojala que todos los lectores les concedieran la debida importancia, segura estoy que nos haria gran bien; porque hemos de reconocer cuanta ignorancia hay entre los mexicanos y mexico-americanos (con excepciones).

Yo en particular hago votos porque su labor de optimos resultados y nos siga brindando sus artículos; comprendo cual es su finalidad y su proposito; estoy segura que Ud. podria hacer una revista toda en español, variada e interesante; piense y vera que si puede.

Cuantas cosas quisiera sugerirle pero soy torpe, no se expresarme. A sus ordenes Sr. Saldaña.

Ana Maria L. Casares

Sra. Ana Maria L. Casares
311 Dala Drive
San Jose, California

Sra. de toda mi consideracion y respeto:

Su atenta de fecha 10 del presente, en la que me informa de la buena impresion que le causaron mis artículos, me hace suponer que palpita en su alma un sentimiento patriótico.

Es altamente satisfactorio para me (aunque inmerecido) recibir cartas de personas con un interes cultural que demuestra nuestra nacionalidad fuera de las fronteras de la patria. Por desgracia, no contamos con elementos apropiados para dicha demostracion, es debido a eso que se tiene una impresion equivocada del mexicano.

Desde hace años he colaborado en todas las publicaciones que han aparecido en San Jose y algunas de San Francisco, pero todas ellas, con excepcion de EL EX-CENTRICO han desaparecido. Mis articulos en todas ellas han tenido como mira principal la dignificacion del mexicano; pugnando siempre por la comprension que merece, como parte integrante de la sociedad en que vive.

Si en alguna forma (aunque sea modesta) mis articulos ayudan a conseguir esa meta, me sentire feliz de haber puesto mi grano de arena, que es insignificante.

Agradeciendole todo lo que vale su amable carta, quedo de Ud. su Atto. y S.S.

MARCE MORA

Well, here I am again. It seems I'm getting just as bad as my good friend Trudy Jimenez. By that I mean that I forget my responsibilities of writing my column, but thanks to Mr. Garcia for he has patience. Please bear with me. Actually, I don't mean to forget it's just that sometimes business matters take our time.

Our congratulations from all the girls from Club Zanzaree go to our cute 1964 Queen Stella Maldonado who exchanged vows two weeks ago. It was a quiet wedding, but they looked so happy together. Stella represented us in the American GI Forum Ladies Auxiliary in which she came in as runnerup. Best wishes to both of them.

Seems that Mr. Cupid is shooting arrows these days, commented my good friend Joel Reyes. We were discussing how everybody is going steady. He remarked that you just don't see the good old crowd around. Seems like Candy is one of the few still seen around.

Seems like Mr. Cupid is shooting arrows at Trudy Jimenez, hmmm. Also, with a very happy glow is cute Maida Herrera. And even her sister Frances Herrera and Pat and Irene Maldonado aren't doing bad either. Dora Herrera, a good friend of mine and Pat Herrera also have that certain glow.

Candy and Velia, well we're still waiting for that big day.

Without that certain glow is Stella, Connie, Oralia, Rudy Belluomini, Sara Campista. Don't get me wrong, they have a glow, but not the romantic one. Oh well, that's the way it goes, one thing for sure we can never return to those good younger days, right gang??

So now you know what's happening to all the crowd. Some have gotten married, some moved away on jobs, some boys are in service, etc.

Sorry to see Andy Diaz leave the column. I really admire him and didn't he have guts towards the end??? We really enjoyed your columns and will miss them. Hope all your ambitions come true. Best of luck.

Announcements

My good friend, Frank Starr, informs me that the San Jose American GI Forum is having a Stag Barbeque on June 19th, which falls on Saturday. From 2 PM-2 AM (Wow!) Dinner -- 7 to 8 PM. The cost is $2.25.

Music will be enjoyed by El Trio Silvestre. Let's all get ready and attend, men. I'm sure everyone will have a good time.

It seems that the Mary Ann Gardens is getting better every Sunday. For a good time attend the tardeadas. Mariachis from 1:30-3:00. Very good singers, also music for dancing is furnished by my good, good friend Larry Hernandez and his orchestra. Man, they play terrific. Bailamos??

Sylvia is directly responsible for the selling of over $2000 worth of advertising for the convention brochure of the 1965 State Convention to be held this summer at Palo Alto. Singlehandedly, she has virtually assured the success of the convention. The members of the San Jose GI Forum proudly tip our hats to her. We are proud to have her in our state and our region.

A Voice

MARIA
REYES

READY! AIM! FIRE!

And with that a life is gone. Gone from us, yet few people ask who the man was. Who he was is of no concern to society, or rather to us. It is what he was that matters. He was a criminal.

The fact that we kill, or murder man in many different ways, some more humane than others, does not seem to bother us. We do not even stop to ask ourselves whether the verdict was just. And if we do ask ourselves, we end up consoling ourselves with the fact that 'we are only human.' Those who suffer for the tag of humanity in both judges and juries, are the poor.

There are those who believe that some men are born criminals. Yet I am sure that these same people do not believe that there are born saints. Criminals are made. They come from all the classes in society. Yet most of those that are in jail, (I specify jail because there are many who manage to stay out), as well as most of those that are executed are and were poor.

There is no secret that the rich get the best lawyers. They are more educated, and somehow their crime does not appear too sinister to middle class morality. This helps the jury make up their minds about the offense against society.

A good lawyer who has a well prepared case, has a better chance than the harrassed, overworked public defender who has neither the money nor the time to be well prepared.

What the jury sees when the case goes to court is usually a man that does not appear too contrite for his crime. His more educated counterpart, assuming they committed the same crime, since he knows what is expected of him, has managed to give a better acting performance. He does act contrite. Or better still he pleads insanity.

If he doesn't win, the rich man will not get the death penalty.

Why do the poor turn to crime? First of all there are three types of poverty: economic, spiritual and educational.

If one individual is poor in all three of them, chances are he will turn to crime. First of all he will do it, if for nothing else, for kicks. Besides he has nothing to lose, not even his self respect.

Society seems to forget that criminals have their own morality. Their morality is not as intricate as ours. This is so because the rules are not changeable, they are not like ours, where we take into consideration the circumstances.

The poor do not just lose out on justice, on education, he loses out on life. Not only in their struggle for survival, but in their constant search for happiness, for human decency, and for dignity. Many give up the search as hopeless--worse still they do not recognize that search in anyone else. Sometimes this search is denied to their children.

This way an endless circle begins; only this time there is no hope to begin with.

IT'S DANCE TIME AGAIN!

Don't forget the annual fund raising dance the UCC League gives every year. This year's dance will be another fine one. It will be a Baile Ranchero and will be held at the IES Hall on East Santa Clara Street. There you will dance to the music of "LOS NORTEÑOS" and listen to the Duetto Espinoza. There will be refreshments and lots of dancing from 8 to 1 A.M. and all for the permittance of $1.00 donation.

The UCC League consists of 7 social and recreation clubs here in San Jose. Right now they are having softball games at Columbus Park. There are three games a day and the public is invited.

RIVIERA WHIPS SAN FELIPE 5-2!

On May 23rd Club Riviera defeated Club San Felipe by the score of 5-2. The entire team played terrifically behind the pitching of Joe Padilla. Joe pitched a 5 hit game and struck out 6 batters. Paul Ramirez contributed to the cause with a home run and a single. Be there on Sundays to see a good competitive game.

FINE JOB AT MILPITAS FRONTIER DAYS

Club Riviera has just completed its job in the Milpitas Frontier Days Celebration. It consisted of having a carnival, parade, a public barbeque, and topped off with a whiskerino contest. It was quite an experience. Almost like being in a western science fiction movie.

* * * * *

GOOD LUCK, RONNIE!

I'd like to say that Club Riviera is glad to see Ron Trillo out of the hospital and is doing very well. Ron was hospitalized for a few days but is expected to be back to work at Troy Laundry in a few weeks. Good luck, Ronnie!

On May 22nd a tiny tot by name of Sandra Espinoza was baptized. The event took place at the Holy Family Church on River Street. Her god parents were Anthony Trillo and Madeline Rangel.

I would like to thank the following merchants for gifts awarded at Riviera's dance:

In closing may I remind you about the UCC League dance again. Get tickets from any members of Club Riviera or of the remaining clubs in the UCC League. Tickets are also sold at the door. Get your tickets early because it's going to be a good one. Bailamos?

Bye for now and remember, don't drink and drive. You might spill some of that good stuff.

SPORTS COMMISSION

CITY OF SAN JOSE

Excentrico columnist and assistant editor Dave Sierra is one of many San Jose area residents applying for appointment to the soon-to-be formed City of San Jose Sports Commission.

Dave's interest in sports and civic affairs is well known to readers of this magazine. We hope that the city fathers will give his application a good, long look.

We believe that he would bring fresh insight and ideas to the Commission.

TIJUANA VACATION

Tony Carvajal has just arrived in town and is leaving just as fast. Joel Reyes is also going with him. They are going on a week's vacation in T. J.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!

Happy birthday to Carmen Molina - May 22; Oscar Vazquez - May 23; and Sandy Vallejos - June 5.

The Mexican American Lions did a wonderful thing in presenting the Dinner-Dance at the Hawaiian Gardens with all the proceeds going to the blind. The models and the outfits they modeled were just great.

That was all. The food was lousy & the music worse, the P.A. system is not audible. One thing for sure, next year's orchestra and food will be better. It couldn't possibly be worse.

Many thanks to Maria from Maria's House of Beauty for her fine cooperation.

Luis Melchor has his hands full this summer. He is booked solid. If not with the tape recorder, then the P.A. system. He knows his business with finesse.

DESPERTAR

Sacudiendo la modorra y despabilándose, el Mexico Americano toma posiciones para conquistar sus derechos como ciudadano.

Hasta hace poco era difícil encontrar nombres de M-A en los puestos que se encargan de llevar la administración pública, a la fecha ya se pueden mencionar algunos nombres de M-A que desempeñan empleos de cierta categoría en las oficinas gubernamentales; no son muchos, pero aun siendo pocos (considerando el número que alcanza la población Mexico-Americana en esta área) ya se hace acto de presencia en el manejo de los asuntos que atañen a toda la comunidad.

La idea general que se tenía del M-A y del mexicano era que su utilidad se limitaba solamente a los trabajos del campo y algunas otras ocupaciones ordinarias; en estas actividades siempre ha sido considerado como buen trabajador, pero para ocupaciones de mayor responsabilidad, se había arraigado la creencia de que estaba incapacitado o que su indolencia a sus obligaciones cívicas, lo hacían inapto para desempeñar cargos públicos de consideración y responsabilidad; considerando la palabra mexicano como sinónimo de bracero.

De poco tiempo a esta parte, las cosas han sido diferentes y se ha hecho patente que el M-A si está capacitado y que además tiene interés en aunar su contingente, para ayudar a dirigir el buen gobierno que debe regir los destinos en toda sociedad organizada. El interés que tiene el M-A de intervenir en el manejo del gobierno, no obedece más que al sentido del deber que todo ciudadano consiente de sus derechos y obligaciones ha de desempeñar en beneficio de la comunidad, de la cual es parte integrante.

Como unidad de esa comunidad, tiene obligaciones ineludibles que cumplir; pero a la vez que cumple con esas obligaciones, adquiere el derecho de tomar parte en el gobierno de la comunidad con la categoría que su capacidad le permita. Ciertamente es que en las nóminas de empleados públicos, siempre ha habido nombres de M-A pero los empleos que desempeñan, son dentro del personal de servicio, más que de el personal de administración.

Afortunadamente esta situación va cambiando y ya hay buen número de personas de ascendencia mexicana que desempeñan cargos administrativos de importancia y responsabilidad, en los que demuestran capacidad, interés, preparación conocimientos y todo lo que es necesario para el satisfactorio desempeño de su cargo.

Ya se ha despertado de esa indiferencia al cumplimiento de nuestros deberes cívicos; el camino a seguir es largo y escabroso, pero ya se ha empezado la marcha, unos cuantos han dado el primer paso, nuestra obligación es animarlos, ayudarlos y seguirlos. Ellos son los que representan al M-A en el gobierno y nosotros sabemos que sin decir una sola palabra, están demostrando que no todos los nuestros son braceros.

El Hombre Mas Querido

por E. Dave Sierra

Estas palabras son respectivamente dedicadas en este Memorial Day al amigo Simon Villa, nuestro colaborador en Union City, California y al director de Excentrico, don Humberto Garcia.

Al 21 de Noviembre de '63
Tristemente lo recuerdo yo
Porque el Presidente Kennedy en Dallas, Texas murio.

Caminaba por la calle
En compania de su esposa
Cuando sucedio la tragedia
La cosa mas espantosa.

Se oyeron tres balazos
Como a la una de la tarde
Al cuerpo del Presidente
Los enviaba un cobarde.

Todo mundo esperaba
Por palabra del doctor
Hacia condicion del hombre
Que merecio nuestro honor.

Al fin dijo el doctor
Avisenle a la gente
Se fue al cielo otro hombre
Ha muerto el Presidente.

Lo llevaron desde Dallas
a Ciudad de Washington
Para que alli lo velara
La gente de su nacion.

Miles y miles vinieron
Toda la noche pasaban
Con lagrimas en los ojos
A un amigo lamentaban.

El dia que sepultaron
Al hombre mas providencio
Solo veinte y un cañonazos
Interrumpian el silencio.

De muchas patrias llegaron
Dando testigo de amor
Expresando su cariño
A este hombre cumplidor.

Amigo de Mexico y Francia
De Japon y Canada
Todos pagaron su tributo
Al amigo que se va.

El sol se volviera hielo
Los mares se secaran
Pero a ese gran hombre
Nunca lo olvidaran.

Ya con esta me despido
Mi tributo ya le di
A ese gran amigo nuestro
John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

This poem was originally written on November 25, 1963. It has lain undisturbed between the pages of that week's issue of Life Magazine ever since. We felt it appropriate to pay tribute to the veterans of all wars (Mr. Kennedy was one) by publishing it at this time.

THE REST OF IT:

Raymond Garcia, Jr. of 1633 Melody Lane, San Jose, recently was awarded a trophy for bowling proficiency at Ann Darling Bowl. His mother, Jane, won hers last year and his dad, Raymond, has started a collection of golf trophies. Ray just took up bowling. Man, just wait till he warms up!!!

Speaking of the Garcia clan, Mrs. Bob Garcia gave birth recently to a baby boy named Kenneth Paul. (Kenneth after Ken McMullen, third baseman of the Washington Senators and Paul after the Beatle of the same name. Socorro and K. P. are doing fine.
