

Monday, November 25, 1963

329th Day—36 days to follow

CLEAR
CLOUDY
RAIN
SNOW

Mrs. Kennedy, family, church officials, statesmen of 52 nations, the military and friends escorted Kennedy to his last rest. An eternal flame was lighted by Mrs. K. A 21 gun salute, the national anthem, a prayer and a rendering of the flag that covered the coffin to Mrs. K. and know a loving salute:

The statesmen of 52 countries are meeting in the White House. News before on earth have so many eminent people gathered in one room. The last rays of the sun shimmer over the grounds. The White House Gate closes. Mrs. K's last meeting in this life shall now take place.

One message be passed. You can I show my gratitude? By through discipline and devotion of my duties to present life.

Thank you Mrs. K. and farewell.
Patricia