Bob Burton

Fresno State, 1968
3rd year at CSF
32 - 28 .533

Mark down Jan. 27, 2005, as the turning point in Bob Burton's Cal State Fullerton coaching career. That's when the direction of a seemingly hexed program was altered 180 degrees.

Until that date, the basketball gods were treating Burton as harshly as they had during an inaugural year littered with misfortune. In 2003-04, eight players were lost to a variety of calamities and the count was climbing higher in his second campaign. Projected starting center Lloyd Walls had been ruled out for the year in pre-season drills due to multiple concussions. Inspirational reserve guard Drew Awad had suffered a reoccurrence of cancer. And senior forward Hardy Asprilla had gone down with a season-ending knee injury to mar a lopsided win over Long Beach State that had given the Titans a surprising 8-4 record.

Three consecutive defeats followed and more seemed inevitable as an already short -- in size and numbers -- roster tried to cope. Doubters wondered if the Titans would win another game.

Suddenly, almost miraculously, the sea of adversity parted.

On Jan. 27, a Cal Poly team suffering through an 8-game losing streak visited Titan Gym and Fullerton ventured down a new path. With Yaphett King joining Ralph Holmes as a pair of 6-foot-4 starting forwards to go with undersized center Jamaal Brown (6-foot-7), the Titans suddenly clicked. An eased up 92-69 victory over the Mustangs triggered what became arguably the second best season (21-11 overall, 12-6 for a third-place tie) in Titans' history.

When the dust had settled after a 13-4 run to the wire, climaxed by a 2-1 road effort in the post-season NIT, Burton got an extended and improved contract through 2009-10.

Changes? An entire generation had been conceived since the last upbeat post-season banquet. Expectations were elevated dramatically. Scheduling suddenly became tougher as potential opponents held the Titans in higher regard. Four-year transfers continued to come home by embracing Titan Gym.

The 2005-06 Titans will be an all-Burton affair with no ties to predecessor Donny Daniels, now a UCLA assistant coach. The heightened tempo of Titan basketball should only increase.

"These guys think they are playing fast," says Burton, who already has the second best winning percentage of any Titans' coach at .533 (32-28) and is the only one with a winning conference record. "But I want to run even more."

"Winning has been tremendous.

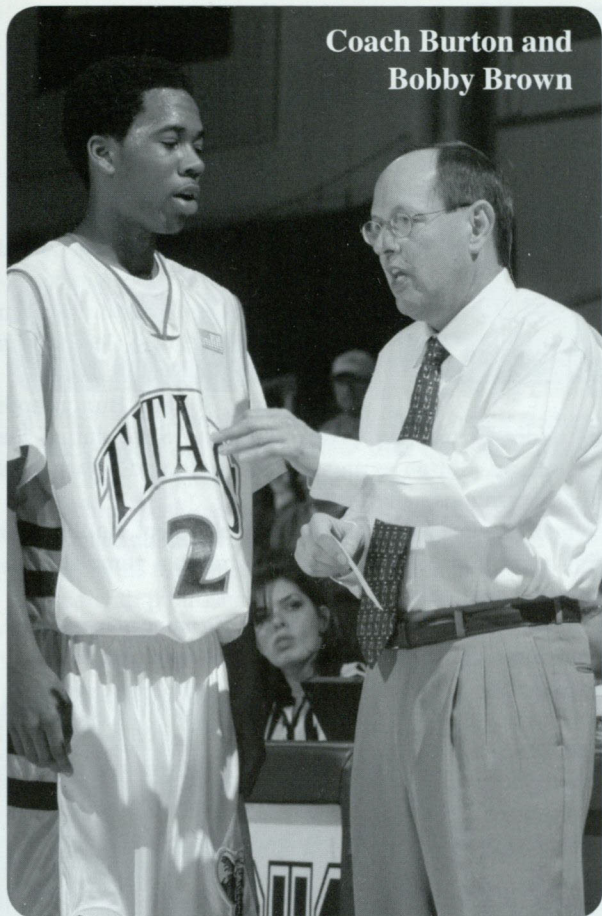

It feels great. But it doesn't mean anything if we can't be consistent."

Coach Bob Burton

Burton probably considered running back to West Valley soon after June 6, 2003, when he achieved his long-sought goal of being a Div. I head men's basketball coach. The veteran roster he thought he was inheriting at Cal State Fullerton for 2003-04 began to disintegrate as soon as he signed a four-year contract. A combination of academic problems, discipline, knee surgery, a broken window and a resignation eliminated five potential starters before the season began. And during the course of the campaign, the death of a player's relative, more academic problems and a mental meltdown took away three more regulars.

Through it all, Burton and his young staff remained upbeat and the result was modest improvement -- one more victory (11-17) and one higher rung (tied for fifth place) in the Big West Conference standings compared to the 2002-03 squad.

Coach Burton and Bobby Brown

With a little luck, it could have been major improvement. The Titans lost 13 games by 10 points or less and of those 13, they held second-half leads in 8 of them. They went 0-4 in overtime contests.

Last year was a different story. The Titans were 3-0 in overtime and 6-0 in games decided by one or two points. They started finding ways to win instead of pondering how they were going to lose.

Burton is counting on the support he received from the community college coaches during his hiring process to carry over to the recruiting process.

"If you guys want to see me succeed," he told the audience when he was inducted into the California Community College Men's Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in March, 2004, "then you better send me some players and fast."

Burton came to Fullerton after one year as an assistant coach at Fresno State. He also was an assistant to Lynn Archibald for one season (1986-87) at Utah. But where he made his many basketball connections was at West Valley Community College in Saratoga in Northern California, where he compiled a 488-158 record in 21 seasons, three times reaching the state championship game. He sent more than 80 players to Div. I programs and more than 100 to other four-year colleges.

"I can't tell you how thrilled I was to receive this opportunity," said Burton, 60. "I've never been one of those guys who's moved around a lot. I've always been happy wherever I've been. I'm looking forward to building a winning program at Cal State Fullerton."

Burton won eight conference championships at West Valley and was selected conference coach of the year nine times. He was selected California Community College Coach of the Year four times.

Burton left West Valley to help former Coach Ray Lopes clean up the Fresno State program. Lopes had played for Burton and been his assistant coach at West Valley. The 2002-03 Bulldogs went a surprising 20-8, won the Western Athletic Conference championship and saw their team grade-point average improve from 2.31 to 2.68.

In Burton's one season at Utah, the Utes went 19-10 to earn an NIT berth.

Burton graduated from Fresno State in 1968 with a degree in social sciences. He earned a masters degree a year later at Cal Poly SLO, where he began his coaching career as an assistant in 1968-69. He became a head coach in 1972 at Willow Glen High School in San Jose and compiled a 143-52 record.

Burton's wife, Toni, is a special education teacher at Brea-Olinda High School. They live in Fullerton.

Assistant Coach Andy Newman

3rd year,
Azusa Pacific, 1998

Andy Newman has advanced rapidly through the collegiate coaching ranks as he begins his third season as a full-time assistant to Head Coach Bob Burton at Cal State Fullerton.

Newman, 30, and Burton both worked under Coach Ray Lopes at Fresno State during the 2002-03 season, Burton as an assistant coach and Newman as basketball operations manager.

Newman handles individual skill development, on-the-floor coaching and offensive play calling, recruiting, game strategy and opponent preparation.

At Fresno State, Newman was involved in game management, film breakdown, housing coordination, fundraising, travel, financial aid, summer camps and was the team's academic advisor. He also organized team scheduling, assisted in recruiting and even taught a 3-unit theory class for the kinesiology department.

Newman previously assisted Burton for two years at West Valley College in Saratoga. There he was the recruiting coordinator, offensive coach and was in charge of perimeter skill development. He also worked one year at Vanguard University in Costa Mesa where he performed similar duties.

Newman graduated from Azusa Pacific in 1998 with a degree in business administration after playing one very successful season for the Cougars, who went 34-5 and advanced to the NAIA Final Four. Newman played previously at Southern Utah and West Valley.

At Southern Utah he led the team in minutes played at 36.1 per game. At West Valley his teams went 65-6 with a pair of conference championships and state championship game appearances. He was selected to the all-tournament team at the 1996 state championships.

Assistant Coach Jason Levy

6th year,
CSU Northridge, 1993

Jason Levy is in his sixth season as a Titan assistant coach, his third under the direction of Coach Bob Burton. He relied on his wealth and breadth of basketball experience to hold the team together between Donny Daniels' Apr.

18, 2003, resignation and the June 6, 2003, hiring of Burton.

The 37-year-old native of New York City has worked on the West Coast, in the Midwest and on the East Coast in a variety of coaching positions. In two of the past four summers he has represented adidas at clinics in Beijing, China, where he worked directly with the national and junior national teams. He also worked with professional coaches there on drills and coaching concepts.

Levy coordinates the recruiting efforts for the Titans, as well as working with the post players at practice, game preparation and coordinating the scheduling. For his efforts, he was recognized by Rivals100Hoops.com with a 2002 selection to the Top 20 of "Top Assistants Not at a High-Major Program." He was one of only two selected from west of the Rockies.

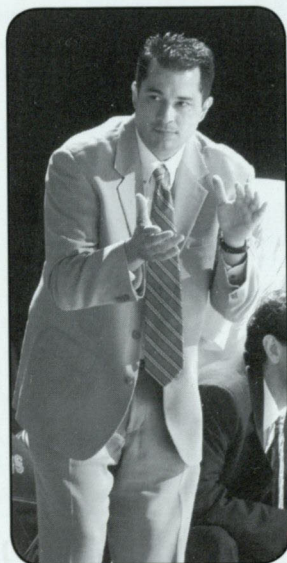

During Levy's tenure, the Titans have boasted back-to-back first-team All-Big West Conference selections in Ralph Holmes (2003) and Pape Sow (2004) and had their first freshman of the year (Bobby Brown) in two decades.

Prior to coming to Fullerton, Levy spent three seasons as an assistant at the University of Portland of the West Coast Conference. He had three prior years of experience in the Big West Conference with two seasons (1994-95 and 1995-96) at Long Beach State under Seth Greenberg and one (1996-97) at UC Irvine under Rod Baker. The 49ers went to the NCAA Tournament in 1994.

At Portland, Levy coordinated recruiting efforts for the Pilots while assisting in practice and game preparation. On the floor he worked primarily with post players and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

Levy played high school ball for La Salle Academy in Manhattan before venturing west and playing two seasons at Cuesta College in San Luis Obispo. He transferred to Cal State Northridge, where he graduated in 1993. He served one season (1993-94) as an assistant to Rudy Washington at Drake in Des Moines, Iowa, before moving to Long Beach State. He began his coaching career at the Double Pump Camp at Cal State Dominguez Hills in 1992-93.

Levy was married on Oct. 6, 2002, to the former Anna Frost. They have a son, Kyle, 2.

Assistant Coach Marlon Morton

1st year,
Springfield College, 2004

Marlon Morton, who was an assistant coach at highly successful Westchester High School for the past decade and a popular figure in Los Angeles youth basketball for even longer, begins his first season on the Cal State Fullerton coaching staff for 2005-06.

Morton, 44, was instrumental in Westchester winning five city championships, three state championships and one mythical national title in recent years. He also has been active in numerous camps and summer development leagues and has seen more than 50 of his former players move on to Div. I programs including Titans junior Bobby Brown and freshmen Jerard Moret and Jarrel Lake.

"I'm excited to come and coach at Cal State Fullerton," said Morton, who got his bachelor's degree last December in human services from Springfield College of Massachusetts, which has an Inglewood campus. "I've got ties with some players and I'm looking forward to bringing more good student-athletes here. I want to keep the Los Angeles-area kids playing locally."

Morton's impact has been quick and significant. Already, two former L.A. stars have returned "home" in 4-year transfers Scott Cutley (Westchester HS and Kent State) and Ray Reed (Inglewood HS and Georgetown), who must sit out this season.

Morton worked for American Airlines at Los Angeles International Airport for the past 16 years in ramp service. He began at Westchester in 1995 as the head freshman, sophomore and junior varsity coach and moved up to work with the varsity in 1999. He was featured along with Hassan Adams, of Westchester High and University of Arizona fame, in a 6-part documentary on ESPN called "L.A. Hoops." Among his basketball acquaintances are Byron Scott, James Worthy, Magic Johnson and Quentin Richardson. He also has worked for the Michael Jordan Camp in Santa Barbara.

A graduate of Washington High School in Los Angeles and Los Angeles Southwest College, Morton once tried out for the Harlem Globetrotters. For many years in youth leagues, he coached former Titan guard Rodney Anderson, a Washington High product who was shot and paralyzed in a random street shooting five years ago. He lives in Los Angeles.

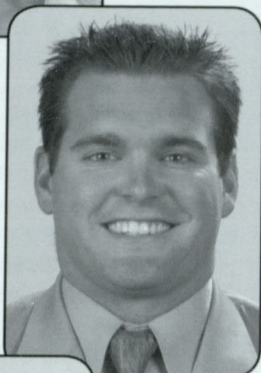

Morton replaced Tim Kelly, who came to Cal State Fullerton to serve as a volunteer director of basketball operations but ended up filling the third assistant's position for the 2004-05 season.

Titan Hoop Club

The Titan Hoop Club booster group was founded in 2000 by a group of fans and alumni in order to provide support for the Cal State Fullerton men's basketball program. The group also affords opportunities for pre-game social activities and business networking among members.

Titan Hoop Club members receive a yearly promotional item, such as a cap or T-shirt, as well as a subscription to their periodic newsletter, "Titan TipOff," invitations to social gatherings, "chalk talks" with the coaching staff, bus trips to selected road games, opportunities to meet the players and other exclusive members-only events.

Current members of the Board of Directors are Kirk San Roman, President; Paul Causey, Vice President; Dr. Bert Buzan, Paul Dunlap, Joe Felz, Whitfield Haydon, Adam Rank and Steve Reger.

The Titan Hoop Club is officially sanctioned by Cal State Fullerton and Head Men's Basketball Coach Bob Burton. The Titan Hoop Club provided funds for the recent team room improvements and the "Honored Player" banners in Titan Gym.

For more information, check their web site at TitanHoopClub.com or contact Kirk San Roman at (714) 932-7047 or by e-mail at TitanHoopClub@yahoo.com.

Honored Players

Through a joint effort of the Titan Hoop Club and The Herd booster groups, banners have been placed in Titan Gym to honor those men and women who have made significant contributions to the legacy of Cal State Fullerton basketball.

"With very guarded optimism" is how Cal State Fullerton men's basketball Coach Bob Burton is approaching the 2005-06 season. The Titans are coming off the second-most successful year in the school's 45-year basketball history and the pieces are in place to post back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in two decades.

"We have a lot of proven players but also a lot of new faces and it will take time to blend them in," said Burton, who in his second year guided the Titans to the best Div. I record in Southern California at 21-11, the Titans' first winning season since 1992-93. "Where the leadership will come from is the real question. We lost three tremendous seniors, not only on the court but off.

"I expect a lot to fall on Bobby Brown's shoulders. He's one of the best point guards in the West and how far we can go will probably be based more on his leadership than his playing ability.

"What has been shocking were the summer injuries. We had nine guys for the first day of practice on Oct. 14."

Gone are forwards Ralph Holmes, Yaphett King and Hardy Asprilla. The first two seemingly willed the team to win after Asprilla was lost for the year to a knee injury on Jan. 13 in game No. 12. Holmes led the Big West Conference in scoring and rebounding and King averaged 14.7 points in BWC play as both earned second-team all-conference honors. Asprilla, who was leading the BWC in rebounding when injured, remained a vocal presence on the bench as the Titans won 13 of their final 17 games including a pair of NIT victories at Oregon State and USF.

Point guard Brown (6-1, Los Angeles / Westchester HS), center/forward Jamaal Brown (6-7, Spartanburg, SC / Western Kentucky) and shooting guard Jermaine Harper (6-3, Gardena / Virginia) are the returning starters from a resilient team that didn't get a minute from its projected starting center, lost a reserve guard in December to a reoccurrence of cancer and had only eight players in uniform for the last game of a season full of accomplishments.

Bobby Brown is not your typical point guard. The junior packages a vast repertoire of offensive firepower with the normal playmaking role. He is a prolific 3-point shooter and also can attack the basket. In the Big West he was third in scoring (16.8 ppg), third in assists (4.66 apg), third in free-throw percentage (.827) and second in 3-point field goals made (2.66 pg). In only two seasons, he has CSF's second (85) and fifth-best (70) single-season totals of 3-point field goals made and his two-year total of 155 is only 36 shy of the career mark.

Senior Jamaal Brown joined the Titans after five games and became the inside force to complement the Titans' shot-happy perimeter game. He was third in the conference in rebounding (7.6 rpg) and seventh in field-goal percentage (.496) and made three game-winning shots while averaging 12.4 points. Both Browns earned all-conference honorable mention.

Senior Harper was the only starter not to average in double figures, coming up shy at 9.7 ppg. He was a classic streak shooter with four games of 20 or more points and nine of four points or less. Seventy percent of his shots came from behind the 3-point arc as he made 70 of 191 to match Bobby Brown for the fifth-best single-season total by a Titan. He also developed into a relentless defender.

Key reserves returning are senior point guard John Clemmons (6-0, Los Angeles / El Camino JC), junior forward Justin Burns (6-7, Las Vegas, NV / Cypress JC) and senior guard Vershan Cottrell (6-2, South Seattle, WA / Ohlone JC). They will be joined by four red-shirts, three community college transfers and two incoming freshmen from powerhouse Westchester High School.

The newcomers most likely to make an immediate impact include explosive guard Frank Robinson (6-4, Los Angeles, CA), power forward Gary Nunez (6-7, Bronx, NY) and wing player Jerard Moret (6-4, Los Angeles).

"Those three should be huge for us," said Burton. "Each should play a significant role."

Robinson sat out last season after transferring from East Carolina. He is an explosive leaper and penetrator who has been most impressive in his summer league play. He averaged 3.8 points and 1.8 rebounds in 26 games for the Pirates in 2003-04.

Nunez was the Western State Conference North Division Player of the Year in 2004-05 at Ventura College. He averaged 16.5 points and 8.3 rebounds. In the state quarterfinals against eventual state champion Fresno City College he made 15 of 19 shots in a 30-point, 13-rebound losing effort. For the season he shot .645 from the floor and for his career a school record .640. His team went 24-0 in two years of North conference play.

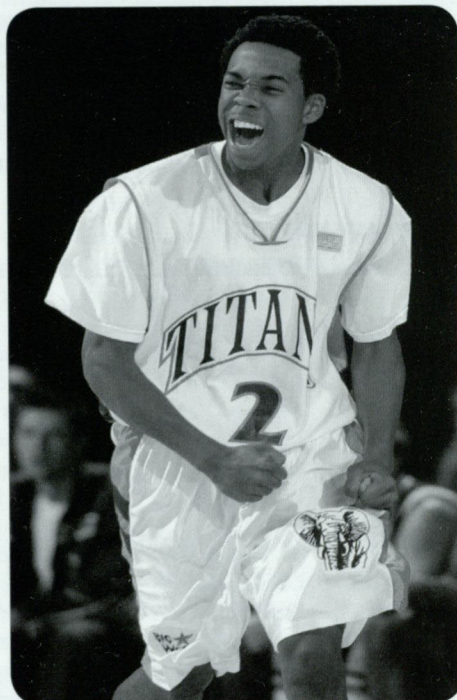

Moret is the more advanced of a pair of new Titans from Westchester High School's latest state championship team. He is a slasher who plays great defense. Further away from helping immediately is 6-8 wing player Jarrel Lake (Los Angeles).

There is plenty of size waiting to be developed into Div. I talent. Chris Minardo (Chino Hills) is a 6-10 forward with perimeter shooting skills and three years of eligibility after a season at Citrus College. Manny Montano (Temecula, CA) is a 6-foot-10 transfer from Palomar College. They will be competing daily with redshirt centers Adam Tancredi (6-9, Santa Ana), who has two years of eligibility remaining after transferring from Quinnipiac, and Curtis Battles (6-10, Los Angeles), the slimmed down 305-pound transfer from West Hills College. Guard Damien Massey (5-11, Long Beach), who redshirted last year after walking on from Jordan High, completes a roster that also includes 4-year transfers Scott Cutley from Kent State and Ray Reed from Georgetown, who must sit out this season.

Fullerton plays only two non-conference games at home before the end of the calendar year -- vs. Hope International on Nov. 20 and vs. Pepperdine on Nov. 23. They later host UC Davis and South Dakota State to balance out eight road dates that include a late November trip to South Dakota State and Kansas State and December tournaments in San Francisco and Miami.

Based on returning talent, the Big West Conference race appears wide open. The four teams that separated themselves from the pack last year in 18-0 league champion Pacific (lost eight seniors), 13-5 Utah State (moved to the Western Athletic Conference) 12-6 Cal State Northridge (lost three multi-year starters) and 12-6 Cal State Fullerton (lost three starting forwards) appear vulnerable. UC Irvine (8-10), injury-wracked UC Santa Barbara (7-11) and late-blossoming Long Beach State (7-11) are poised to move up.

Junior guard Bobby Brown is the most experienced Titan and is expected to assume a greater leadership role.

Bobby "L.B." Brown is the focal point of the revived Titan basketball program... As point guard, he's the quarterback running the offense... As a prolific 3-point-field-goal shooter, he's a scoring threat from almost any spot on the floor... He's a recruiter, helping lure other former Westchester High School products to his side... And as the only two-year letterman on the squad, by default he becomes the leader of a team seeking to replace the commanding presence of Hardy Asprilla, Ralph Holmes and Yaphett King... The limelight is his for the taking in 2005-06 after being overshadowed by more high profile talent at Westchester and sharing front stage with Pape Sow, Holmes and King at Fullerton... Selected the Freshman of the Year by the rival coaches in the Big West Conference in 2002-03, he earned honorable mention status last season... He's a unanimous pre-season All-Big West Conference selection for 2005-06 by four national publications... He also is getting attention from professional scouts... With 155 3-pointers in two seasons, he is only 36 shy of Chris Dade's school career record of 191 (1994-95 thru 1997-98)... His .837 career free-throw percentage is second-best in school history...

With 907 points, he needs only 93 to become just the 18th member of the Titans' 1,000-point club... Ranked by Lindy's the top playmaker and the top NBA prospect in the Big West Conference... Some project him to be drafted as early as 2006.

CSF IN 2004-05: Was the most productive offensive player in the Big West Conference when you combine scoring and assists averages... With four more points he would have surpassed teammate Ralph Holmes for the Big West scoring title, finishing third at 16.81 points per game behind Holmes (16.92) and Idaho's Dandrick Jones (16.83)... Brown also was third in assists at 4.66 per game behind UC Irvine's Aaron Fitzgerald (5.24) and Utah State's Spencer Nelson (4.75)... Brown was second in 3-point field goals made (2.66 per game to 2.72 by UCI's Ross Schraeder) and third in free-throw percentage (.827), seventh in assist-to-turnover ratio and eighth in steals... Averaged about 36 minutes per game and left the floor in post-season for only the final minute out of a possible 205 minutes... Played all 45 minutes in the dramatic overtime win at Oregon State in the NIT... His 85 3-point field goals (in 244 attempts, .348) were the second best total in a season by a Titan (Don Leary made 89 in 1992-93)... Matched his career single-game best with 7 (in 11 attempts) at San Diego State on Dec. 21... Had career-high 30 points in overtime win at Eastern Washington on Dec. 10... Had double figures in assists on three occasions topped by career-best 13 vs. Hope International on Nov. 27... Twice selected Big West Conference Player of the Week -- on Dec. 13 for his 30-point effort at Eastern Washington and on Feb. 21 after totaling 37 points, 8 rebounds and 10 assists in home wins over Idaho and Utah State... Failed to score in double figures only three times... His total of 538 points was the eighth-best season by a Titan... His .827 free-throw percentage was fifth best.

CSF IN 2003-04: Had the best freshman season by a Titan since Tony Neal in 1981-82, the last time a Fullerton player won freshman of the year honors... Brown averaged 13.2 points per game (Neal averaged only 10.9 ppg) to go with 3.5 assists and 2.0 rebounds... Was No. 10 scorer in the Big West Conference and No. 2 in 3-point field goals with 70 (in 173 attempts, .405), No. 4 in assists and No. 5 in assist-to-turnover ratio... Shot 85 percent from the foul line, making his final 19 free throw attempts over a 10-game span... His 70 treys tied for fourth best (then) in a Fullerton season... Signaled what kind of a true freshman he would be with 22 points at Pepperdine on Dec. 1 and then poured in a season-high 27 in an overtime loss at USC, hitting 10 of 18 shots including 5 of 9 3-pointers... Made 7 of 12 treys vs. UCSB on Feb. 26... Twice had 7 assists in a game, vs. Eastern Washington on Dec. 13 and vs. Long Beach State on Feb. 14... Was selected Big West Player of the Week (Dec. 8)...

WESTCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL: As a senior averaged 15 points and 7 assists for Coach Ed Azzam's Comets... Earned fourth-team all-state honors, second-team all-city selection by the Daily Breeze and second-team all-area status... In the playoffs he averaged 19 points and 8 assists... Two-year varsity letterman as Westchester won back-to-back Div. I state championships and a mythical national championship.

PERSONAL: Born on Sept. 24, 1984, in Los Angeles, California... Parents are Bobby Brown and Gina Jefferson of Los Angeles... Nickname "L.B." derives from "Little Bobby"... Has a sister, Janika, 16... Communications major whose ambition is to play professionally... Switched jersey number last season from "2" to "3"... Most memorable sports thrill was making the game-winning shot as a 10-year-old at the Los Angeles Memorial Sports Arena with the highlight airing later that night on KCOP Channel 13 News... Credits Coaches Azzam and George North for letting him showcase his talents.

Jamaal Brown

F

6-7 235 Sr. 1V Spartanburg, SC

Western Kentucky

Jamaal Brown was the extent of the Titans' inside presence in the second half of last season and he is looking forward to help from the number of tall newcomers on the roster... Suffered a summer knee injury that required arthroscopic surgery that has set him back this Fall by about a month but was expected to be ready by November... He had to overcome a lingering foot injury the previous summer... Strong, physical player with a soft shooting touch and range out to the 3-point line... Received Big West Conference honorable mention... Will have his third jersey number as a Titan this season... Originally requested No. 4 in honor of a former teammate but gave it up during the retirement ceremony for Rodney Anderson on ABC TV's "Extreme Makeover: Home Improvement" and wore No. 32 all of last season.

CSFIN 2004-05: Became eligible on Dec. 21 at San Diego State and had a forgettable debut, getting into early foul trouble and scoring only 8 points with 2 rebounds in 22 minutes... But bounced back the next game with a spectacular performance against a solid Denver team... Scored a career-high 29 points on 12-for-18 shooting embellished by 10 rebounds in a 102-92 home victory... Eventually posted eight double-doubles including three in a row in the post-season NIT at Oregon State, USF and Georgetown... Averaged 12.4 points and 7.6 rebounds, third best in the Big West Conference... Was seventh in field-goal percentage at .496... Made game-winning buckets three times: a pair of free throws with 4 seconds to go to seal a 3-point win over UCR on Jan. 6, a field goal and two free throws in the final 25 seconds for a 1-point win at UC Irvine and a tip-in at the buzzer vs. Cal State Northridge on Mar. 5.

CSF IN 2003-04: Sat out the second half of the season after playing in 5 games during the first semester at Western Kentucky.

WESTERN KENTUCKY: Played a prominent role on the Hilltoppers' 2003 NCAA Tournament team, which finished with a 24-9 record... Played in all 33 games, averaging 5.3 points and 2.9 rebounds in 13 minutes per contest... Shot 48 percent from the floor and 74 percent from the foul line... Had a strong Sun Belt Conference post-season tournament... In first round he had 10 points vs. Florida International... In second round he had 12 points and a career-high 9 rebounds in a win over New Mexico State... In the title game he had 9 points in a win over Middle Tennessee... Runnerup to conference freshman of the year... Had a WKU career-high 16 points vs. Tennessee Tech on Dec. 30, 2002... Also competed in track and field one season and won all-conference honors as the team won the outdoor championship in 2003.

22 John Clemmons PG

6-0 170 Sr. 1V Los Angeles, CA

El Camino CC

John Clemmons is a key member of the Titan basketball program although he doesn't have a lot of minutes to show for his contributions... Destined to back up Bobby Brown at point guard... Cannot provide the scoring that Brown does but there's little if any drop-off in the efficiency of the offense... Played in concert with Brown on several occasions last season... Gets the whole team involved in the offense... Suffered fractured metatarsal in his right foot the night before the post-season NIT game at Oregon State and missed the final three contests of the season... Surgery on foot included insertion of a pin and the rehabilitation idled him until the formal start of practice in mid-October... Another product of the "winning" program at Westchester High School.

CSF IN 2004-05: Averaged 1.9 points and 1.0 assists while playing about 8 minutes per contest... Played in every game until the foot injury... Shining moment came against UC Santa Barbara on Jan. 29 when he took over for an ineffective Bobby Brown (season-low 3 points on 1-for-8 shooting) and directed the Titans on a 15-0 second-half run and a subsequent 68-59 win that snapped the Gauchos' 7-game winning streak in Titan Gym... In 15 minutes he scored 4 points and had 4 rebounds... Had 4 points and 5 rebounds in 8 minutes vs. UC Riverside on Jan. 6... Played a major role in road win at Cal Poly on Feb. 26 with season-high 7 rebounds and a 3-pointer in 15 minutes of play.

EL CAMINO COLLEGE: Two-time first-team All-South Coast Conference selection for the Warriors... Averaged 15 points and 4 assists as a sophomore in the 2002-03 season and earned team most valuable player honors... Was team's freshman of the year in 2001-02... Recruited by Coach Bob Burton while he was an assistant coach for Fresno State but John had academic shortcomings and fell off the recruiting radar screen until Burton got the Fullerton job and renewed interest.

WESTCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL: Two-year letterman for the highly successful Comets and Coach Ed Azzam... Played with and behind several Div. I players.

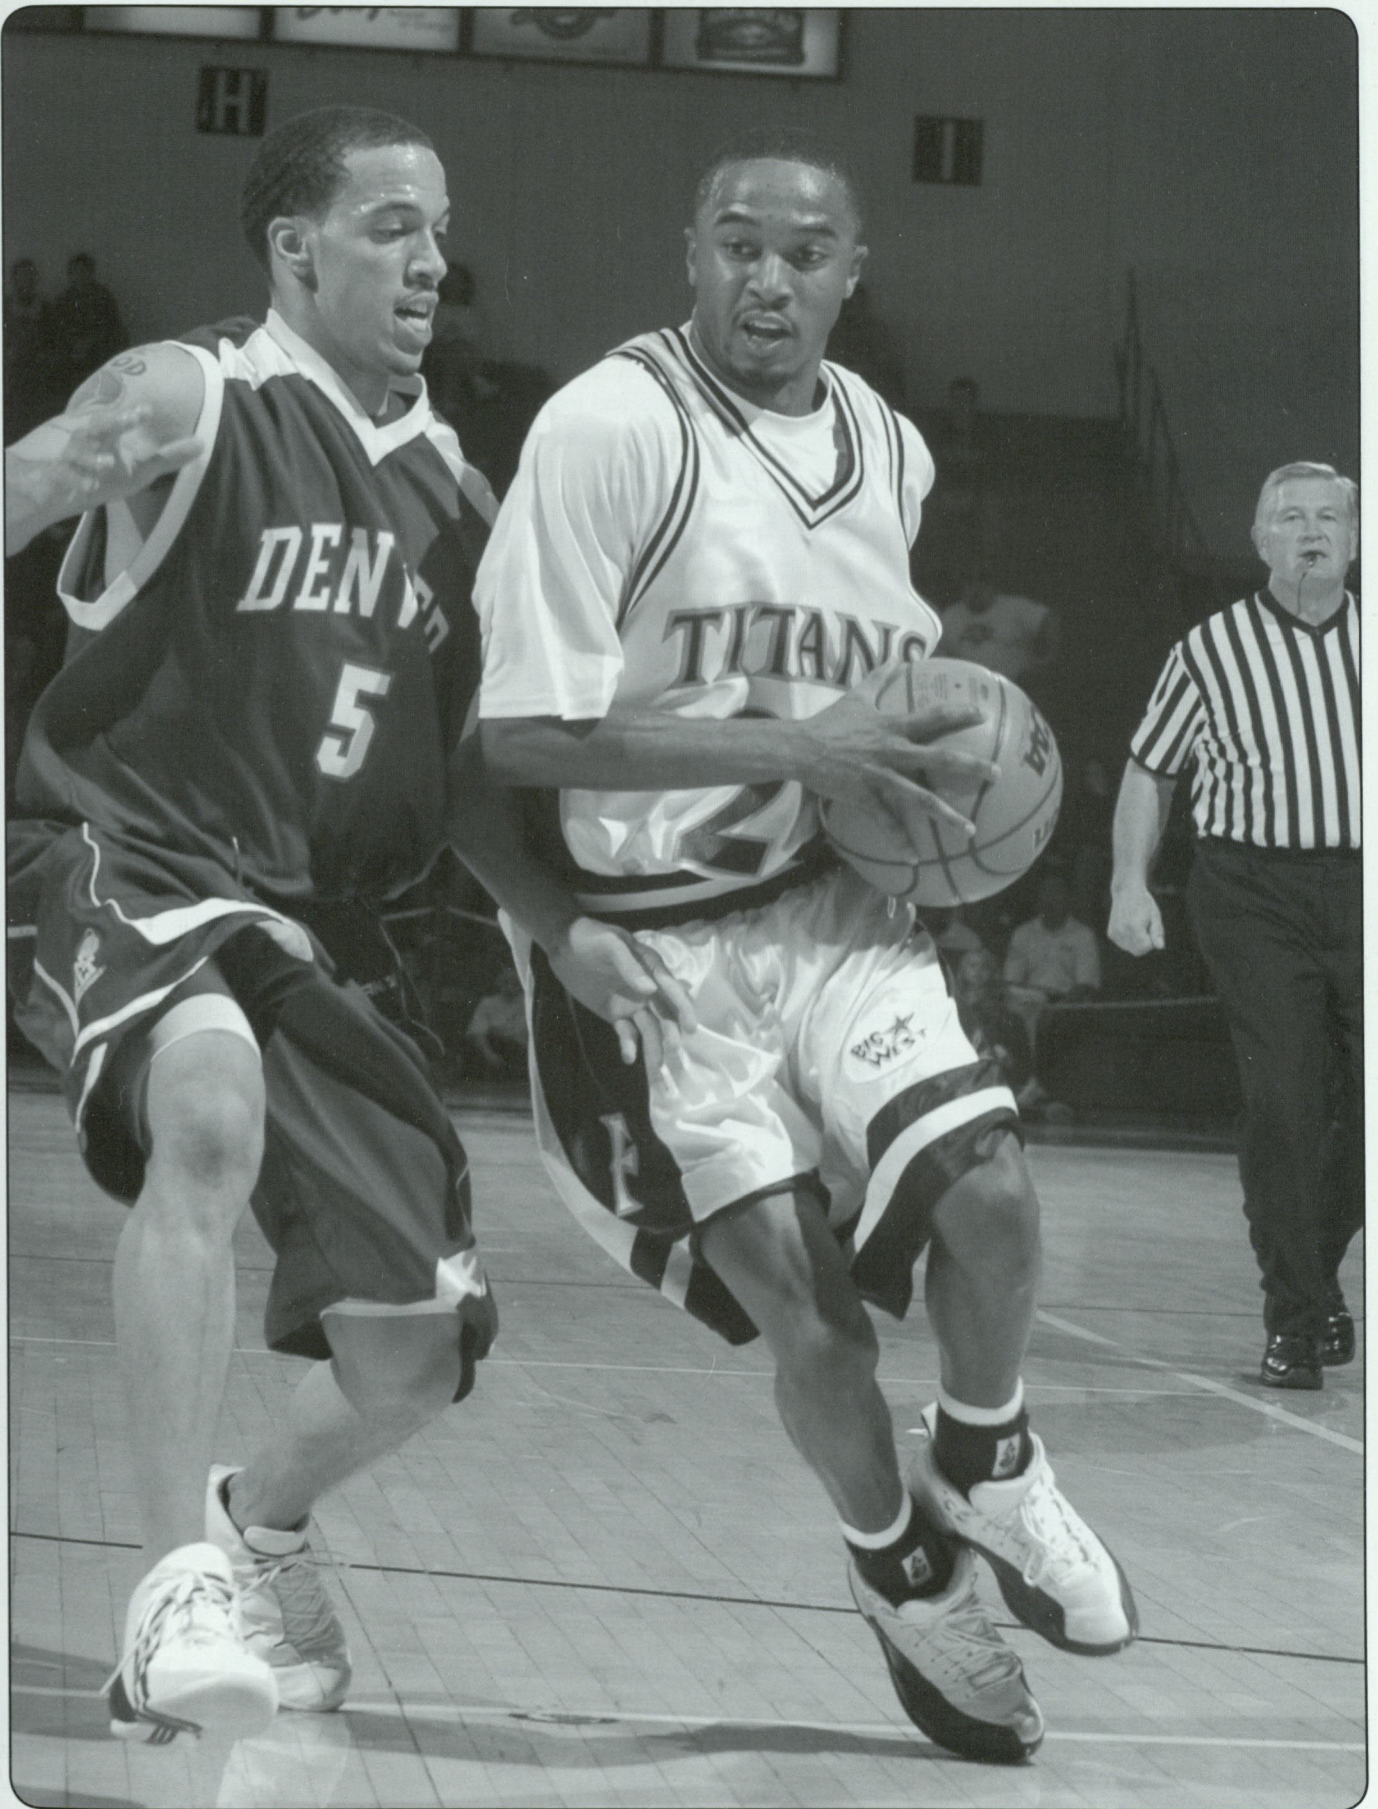

PERSONAL: Born on Feb. 28, 1983, in Los Angeles... Mother is Jimmye Clemmons of Los Angeles... Father (John) is deceased... Has three sisters -- Shay, Shaun and Lisa... Communications major... Goal is to play professional basketball and then become a sports agent... Most memorable sports thrill was playing against NBA stars Baron Davis and Paul Pierce in summer leagues... Won a summer game in 2004 with a 20-foot runner at the buzzer... Credits Coach Ed Azzam for most influence on his career: "I was not serious about basketball until I played for him."

23 Vershan Cottrell

G

6-2 195 Sr. 1V South Seattle, WA

Ohlone CC

Vershan Cottrell's statistics belie his value to the Titans' program... The transfer from Ohlone College provides a consistent effort at the off guard spot and when he's in the game, good things usually seem to happen to the Titans... A tough competitor who doesn't back down from any challenge.

CSF IN 2004-05: Appeared in 25 of the 32 games... Three games stand out in his season: Jan. 22 at Idaho when he tallied a season-high 6 points and made two of three 3-point field goals, Feb. 19 vs. Utah State when he made consecutive second-half baskets in less than a minute to help the Titans to a victory and Mar. 22 at Georgetown when he posted "half a triple-double" with 5 points, 5 rebounds and 5 assists in the NIT second-round game against the Hoyas while matching his season high with 23 minutes... Also had 5 points in only 6 minutes vs. Denver on Dec. 23... He had more than twice as many assists as turnovers and averaged about one steal every 16 minutes.

14 Jermaine Harper

G

6-3 170 Sr. 1V Gardena, CA

Univ. of Virginia

What you see is what you get with Jermaine Harper, and then some... He's a prolific perimeter scorer with a shooter's mentality that he will always hit his next shot... From NBA range... Not so obvious was the progress he made last year at the defensive end... Despite his slim build, he became a tenacious perimeter defender... He grew up in Southern California but moved to Virginia for his high school career, where he was one of the state's top players.

CSF IN 2004-05: Played in all 32 games, starting 27 of them including the last 19... Averaged 9.7 points, 3.3 rebounds and 2.3 assists... Had 72 assists vs. 52 turnovers... Beat Eastern Washington with a 3-pointer with 4 seconds to go in overtime... Four times he scored 20 or more points but he also had nine games of four points or less... His performances against Utah State were particularly dissimilar -- in Logan he hit 2 of 9 from 3-point range (8 points) as the Titans lost by 24 points... In Titan Gym he was 0-for-7 (0 points) as the Titans won by 4... In the Big West Tournament's second round, he made 7-of-11 (20 points) but the Titans lost by 7 points... His 70 3-point field goals made tie for fifth best in CSF single-season history.

Frank Robinson

G

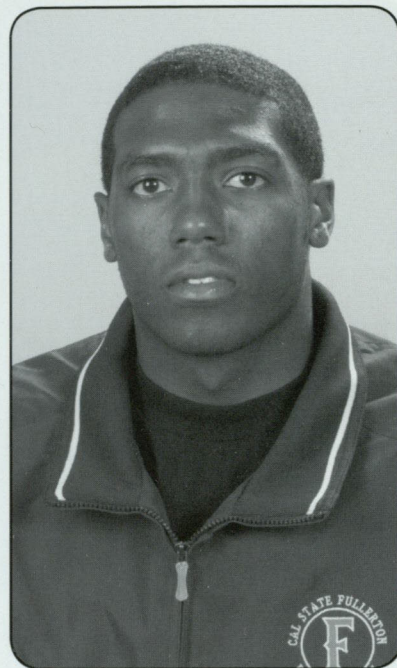

6-4 195 Soph. RS Los Angeles, CA East Carolina

Frank Robinson is a raw talent with a tremendous tools and "upside"... An extremely athletic basketball player who will likely be an impact player in 2005-06... Very physical and has an explosive style... At his best coming off screens, elevating and making a jump shot but can also penetrate and attack the rim... A scorer... Lefthander... Has toughness and desire to be a good rebounder from the wing... Has an outstanding attitude... Biggest obstacle will be dealing with comparisons to the departed Ralph Holmes... Can be hard on himself... Teamed with Bobby Brown, former Titan Lloyd Walls and Justin Burns on a team that got to the championship game in the college Pro-City League in Los Angeles in the Summer of 2004.

EAST CAROLINA: Averaged 3.8 points and 1.8 rebounds in 26 games in 2003-04 for the 13-14 Pirates... Had a 19-point outburst in 33 minutes of a nationally televised game at South Florida on Feb. 3, making 7 of 10 shots (3 of 4 treys) in a defensive-oriented 59-57 win, ECU's first Conference USA road victory... Tallied 12 points in a 63-50 win at Southern Mississippi on Mar. 6.

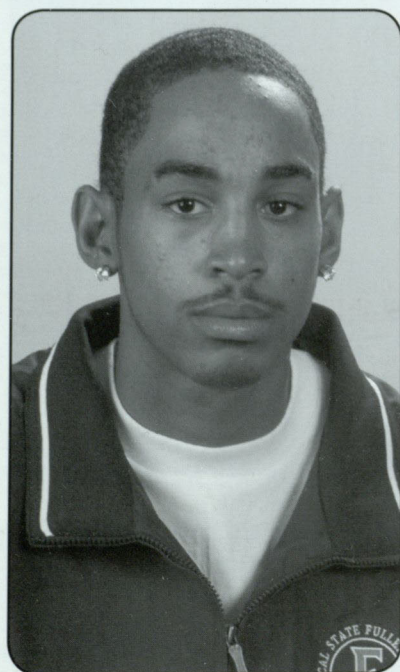

SYLMAR HIGH SCHOOL: Averaged 20.6 points, 11.6 rebounds and 4 assists for his career... As a senior for Coach Bort Escoto he averaged 27 points, 9 rebounds and 4 steals... First-team all-league selection in both basketball and football (wideout).

PERSONAL: Born on June 1, 1984, in Compton, California... Parents are Frank Robinson and Margurite Flanagan... Has two brothers -- Jason (18) and Angelo (15) -- and two sisters - Tasha (24) and Krystal (19)... Communications/broadcasting major... Goal is to play pro basketball and then become a journalist... Credits Coach George North "for never letting me give up, especially when times got rough off the court"... Related to Randy Moss of the Oakland Raiders and baseball's Ray Lankford.

PG

5-11 165 RFr. RS Long Beach, CA

Jordan HS

Damien Massey was a late Fall addition to the Titan roster who has shown excellent potential but he has two more experienced players in front of him at the point guard position... Red-shirted last season... Played for his father in high school and knows the game.

JORDAN HIGH SCHOOL: Four-year varsity letterman... As a senior was All-Moore League as well as team most valuable defensive player and captain... Averaged 10.8 points, 8.1 assists, 6.4 rebounds and 3.6 steals... Gained the principal's honor roll and good citizenship award... Co-captain as a junior.

PERSONAL: Born on Apr. 25, 1986, in Long Beach... Parents are Ron Massey and Shirley Crowe-Massey of Long Beach... Has two older brothers, Ron Jr. (31) and Anthony (22)... Business administration major... Most memorable sports thrills were summer camp encounters with Jason Kidd and Michael Jordan: "I played one-on-one against Jason when he was a senior in high school at the Nike camp and I played 'around the world' and 'horse' with Michael at his camp... Credits his father for most influence on his career: "he's coached me through life on the court and off and has always had confidence in me and has directed me in the right direction in life."

6-10 305 Jr. RS Los Angeles, CA West Hills CC

Curtis Battles is a physically imposing player who needs time to develop his skills and technique... Redshirted last year and his time could come as early as this season... He has worked very hard to lose weight, dropping more than 75 pounds since the Fall of 2004... Has good hands and decent offensive moves inside... Fills the lane in the middle of a zone defense... Could be utilized in specialized matchups against other big centers... Needs to run the floor faster and with more stamina.

WEST HILLS COMMUNITY COLLEGE: Member of the best Falcons team in 25 years... West Hills (Coalinga, California) went 16-10 overall and 9-5 in conference for Coach Mark Arce... Included in that record was a win over the state's No. 2-ranked team, College of the Sequoias, which fell to 21-2 after a 61-49 loss to the Falcons... Curtis was a two-year letterman... Selected most improved player after his freshman year.

DORSEY HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year varsity letterman at the Los Angeles school... Selected team's most improved player as a senior... Also played one season of varsity football as a tackle.

PERSONAL: Born on Mar. 26, 1984, in Long Beach... Parents are Curtis Battles and Michelle Johnson... Has one brother, Walter (8), and four sisters -- Lakiesha (20), Shanika (13), LaNetta (12) and Bridgette (9)... Kinesiology major... Chose Fullerton "to be part of an up and coming program"... Credits Dorsey Coach A. Kevin Gibson for the most influence on his career.

Adam Tancredi

6-9 250 Jr. RS Santa Ana, CA Quinnipiac

Adam Tancredi is a crafty big man who can score from several different areas of the floor including the perimeter out to the 3-point line... For his size is a capable dribbler... Very versatile... Needs to work on defensive skills... Redshirted last year after transfer from Quinnipiac... Slowed in early drills last season by a heavy class load and hampered this year by a summer hernia and more recent complications.

QUINNIPIAC: Two-year letterman at the Hamden, Connecticut, based school... Averaged 1.6 points and 1.8 rebounds in 24 games while averaging about 8 minutes in 2003-04... Started twice... Made 8 of 10 free throws... As a freshman in 2002-03 he played in 25 games off the bench, averaging 3.0 points and 1.4 rebounds... Shot 51 percent from the floor and 83 percent at the foul line... Career high was 10 points against both Maryland-Baltimore County and Wagner... Had high of 4 rebounds.

NEW HAMPTON PREPSCHOOL: Attended one year at the New Hampshire institution... Averaged 13 points, 6 rebounds and 3 assists to help New Hampton win the Class A New England Prep School title.

SANTA MARGARITA HIGH SCHOOL: Two-year letterman for the Eagles after one season at Mater Dei High... All-Orange County selection and nominated for the McDonald's All-American team.

PERSONAL: Born on Mar. 26, 1984... Parents are Harry and Susan Tancredi of Santa Ana... Also recruited by Oregon State, Central Florida, Bowling Green and Boston University... Communications major.

SG

6-2 182 Fr. HS Van Nuys, CA

Grant HS

Michael Danielian is an intriguing walk-on for the Titans' program with unusually gaudy credentials for a non-scholarship player... Led Los Angeles city players in scoring last season at 30 points per game... As good a shooter as there is on the team, but must work on all other aspects of his game to gain playing time at the Div. I level... Has remarkable shooting range.

GRANT HIGH SCHOOL: Two-year varsity letterman at Grant High School in Van Nuys... First-team all-league and second-team all-city and all-area selection as a senior when he led Southern California in scoring with a 30.3 points per game average... Scored 727 points in 24 games (team went 12-13)... Was third in the Sunset Six League with 91 3-point field goals made (3.8 per game)... As a junior was first-team all-area, second-team all-city and team and league Most Valuable Player when he led the city in 3-point field goals made.

PERSONAL: Born on Nov. 8, 1987, in the Ukraine... Parents are Samuel and Svetlana Danielian of Van Nuys... Has a younger brother, Avo... Business administration major... Played travel ball for the I-Can All-Stars... Credits Coach Howard Levine for the most influence on his career: "he influenced me to play hard and give a 100 percent effort every time I get on the court."

SF

6-8 230 Fr. HS Inglewood, CA Westchester HS

Jarrel Lake already has emerged as the most coachable of the Titans' newcomers... Probably the most improved player during pre-Fall drills... Very athletic and very versatile... Plays with a slashing style and gets to and above the rim... Has a prototypical wide-shouldered NBA body... Could see some time at either small or power forward if he continues his rate of improvement.

WESTCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year varsity letterman for powerful Westchester High School program under Coach Ed Azzam... Team won the state championship in 2003 and 2005... Averaged double figures in scoring and rebounding... Played in the Collision and Hoop Classic Summer All-Star Games... Played travel ball with the L.A. Stars... Rated among the top power forwards on the West Coast by ScoutHoops.com.

PERSONAL: Born on Dec. 30, 1986, in St. Martin... Mother is Audrey Lake of Inglewood... Has a young brother, Eric... Undeclared major whose goal is to play professional basketball... Chose Cal State Fullerton because of the "good players and good coaches"... Favorite NBA players are Kevin Garnett and Amarie Stoudamire... Biggest sports thrill was making a reverse "rock the cradle" dunk and getting fouled on the play in a summer league game... Credits Coach Azzam for the most influence on his career: "as of right now, he taught me a lot, but I know Coach Burton will help me become an even greater player."

Chris Minardo

F

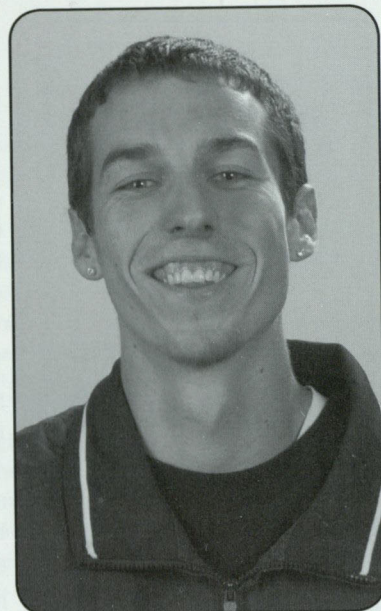

6-10

Soph. JC

Chino Hills, CA

Citrus CC

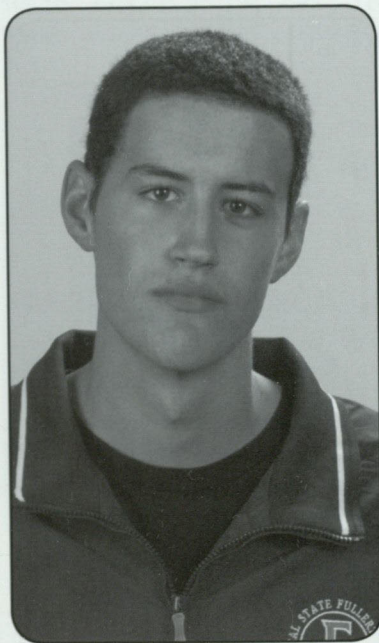

Chris Minardo is a very skilled, late-blooming athlete who has an intriguing future with the Titans... Has four years to play three seasons... Good shooter with perimeter skills yet aggressive at both ends of the floor... Plays with reckless abandon unusual for such a slim body... Looks to take the charge... Slowed by injury to left (non-shooting) wrist in the final game of his freshman season at Citrus and reinjured it this summer.

CITRUS COLLEGE: Grayshirted in 2003-04 and played only his true freshman 2004-05 season at Citrus College in Azusa for Coach Jim Hyneman... Averaged 18.2 points and 7.6 rebounds and earned honorable mention All-Western State Conference South Division honors... Made the Dean's List and was among the top 100 students in school.

AYALA HIGH SCHOOL: Played only one varsity season (2002-03) at Ayala High School in Chino for Coach Bill Erbst... Averaged 11 points and 8 rebounds at a small forward position... Made the Honor Roll... Played in the Inland Empire Basketball Program Summer All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Born on Apr. 16, 1985, in Fullerton... Parents are Michael and Shelley Minardo of Chino Hills... Has a younger sister, Kelli... Business major who hopes to become a stock broker... Chose Cal State Fullerton because of the coaching staff and campus location... Most memorable sports thrill was committing to CSF... Also considered Wichita State and Saint Mary's... Credits his father with biggest influence on his career "because he's the most dedicated and brought the best out of me and never gave up on me and my dream."

Manny Montano

6-10

Jr. JC

Temecula, CA

Palomar CC

Manny Montano is most often described in two words: "shot blocker"... Aggressive post player with great timing... Very athletic... Late bloomer who needs to work on upper body strength and post skills around the block.

PALOMAR COLLEGE: Two-year starter for Palomar College in Mira Costa... Played forward and center for the Comets and earned Pacific Coast Conference honorable mention as a sophomore... Averaged 8 points and 5 rebounds for a 9-15 squad that was 8-6 in conference... Shot .587 (74 of 126) from the floor to rank among conference leaders... Best game was 27 points and 13 rebounds in a Nov. 18 loss to L.A. Southwest at Fullerton College... Had a best of 5 blocked shots in a Jan. 26 win at Mira Costa... Averaged 8 rebounds as a freshman and led the league in blocked shots.

CHAPARRAL HIGH SCHOOL: Two-year letterman at Chaparral High School in Temecula for Coach Ed Coyle... Was the Pumas' most valuable player as a senior when he won second-team All-Southwestern League and honorable mention all-valley honors... Averaged 14 points, 7 rebounds and 6 blocked shots per game to lead the CIF Southern Section... As a junior was team's most improved player and earned honorable mention all-league attention... Played in three summer all-star games: the Inland Empire Basketball Program All-Star Game, the Palm Desert Classic and the Riverside County vs. San Bernardino County All-Star Game.... In the latter had 14 blocked shots.

PERSONAL: Born on June 21, 1984, in Hawaiian Gardens, California... Parents are Chris and Tania Montano of Temecula... Has a younger sister, Trina, and younger brother, Jonathan... Liberal studies major whose goal is to become a basketball coach... Chose Cal State Fullerton because of the "good coaches, nice campus and good players"... Most memorable sports thrill was blocking 14 shots in a game in his junior year in high school in a 2-point win over rival Temecula Valley HS... Credits Coach Ed Coyle for the most influence on his career: "because he gave me the opportunity to play basketball in high school after I thought it was too late."

Jerard Moret

OG

6-4

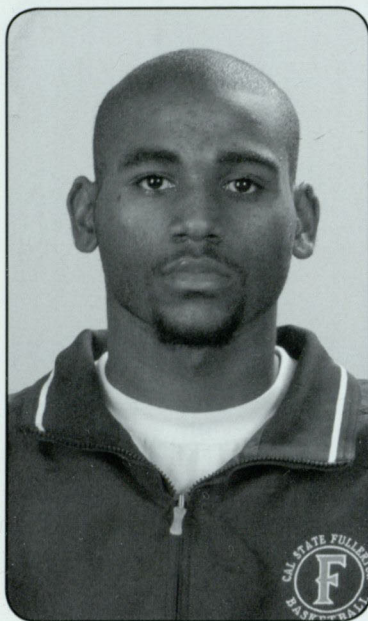

200

Fr.

HS

Los Angeles, CA

Westchester HS

Along with Gary Nunez, Jerard Moret should have the most impact among the newcomers to the Titans' 2005-06 basketball squad... Mature freshman in every sense of the word... Possesses many desirable intangibles -- coachable, winner and team player come to mind first... "Tough" is the one word that best describes his game... Has the mindset of an excellent defender... Good penetrator and finisher who can absorb contact... In early drills was shooting well... Can score from the perimeter.

WESTCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL: Four-year varsity letterman at a variety of positions for the powerful Westchester High School program of Coach Ed Azzam... Team won state championship in 2003 and 2005... Jerard was a consensus first-team All-Western League selection by the Los Angeles Times and Daily Breeze... As a senior the 25-3 Comets won the league (10-0), city and state championship with him at shooting guard... He averaged 17 points, 5 rebounds, 2 steals and 1 blocked shot... As a junior they won the league championship with him at small forward but were banned from the playoffs... As a sophomore they won the league, city and state championship with him at power forward... As a freshman he played center... Played in the Hoops Classic II and Magic Johnson's Summer All-Star Games.

PERSONAL: Born on June 20, 1987, in Harbor City, California... Mother is Lela Johnson of Los Angeles... Has an older sister, Machae Moret, and a younger sister, Dyniss Johnson... Undeclared major... Chose Cal State Fullerton because it's close to home... Played travel ball with the 4"D" Stars and the L.A. Stars... Credits his mother for the most influence on his career: "because I have seen how hard she has worked to get me where I am now, so I must find a way to repay her."

Gary Nunez

PF

6-7

245

JC

Bronx, NY

Ventura CC

Along with Jerard Moret, Gary Nunez should have the most impact among the newcomers to the 2005-06 Titans' basketball team... Classic low-post player who can be dominant on the block... Prolific scorer who has a feel for how to seal off defenders and create shooting angles for himself... Particularly good working over his left shoulder... Tough, physical presence inside... Likely starter at center... Conditioning will be an issue with the Titans' fast tempo.

VENTURA COLLEGE: Was the Most Valuable Player of the North division of the Western State Conference in 2004-05 for Coach Greg Winslow at Ventura College... First-team all-state selection... Averaged 16.5 points and 8.3 rebounds and shot a sizzling 64.5 percent from the floor... Set school record with 64 percent career field goal percentage... In two years his team went 24-0 in WSC North play... In his final game, he made 15 of 19 shots in a 30-point, 13-rebound performance that left the Pirates just short of the Fresno City team that went on to become the first undefeated state champion in more than 30 years... Hampered as a freshman by a broken hand... Averaged 8.2 points and 4.9 rebounds.

SEWARD PARK HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Seward Park High School in Manhattan... Averaged 16 points and 8 rebounds splitting time between center and power forward... Graduated in 1998.

PERSONAL: Born on Dec. 9, 1980, in the Dominican Republic... Parents are Menocil Rodriguez and Francisca Nunez of the Bronx, New York... Has a brother, Oscar, and four sisters -- Yaquelyn, Youanca, Yudy and Ghneloa... Liberal studies major who hopes to help develop video games as a career... Chose Cal State Fullerton because of the "good coaches and good players"... Most memorable sports thrills have been gaining the Final Eight at Ventura College and an AAU game where he scored 38 points with 12 rebounds and 10 blocked shots... Credits Coach Ruben Dario Martinez for the most influence on his career because "he taught me how to play the game"... Played travel ball for the Latino Pastoral Action Center... Goal is to play for Dominican Republic in the 2008 Olympics in Beijing... Also plays baseball and is an avid New York Yankees fan.

Scott Cutley

F

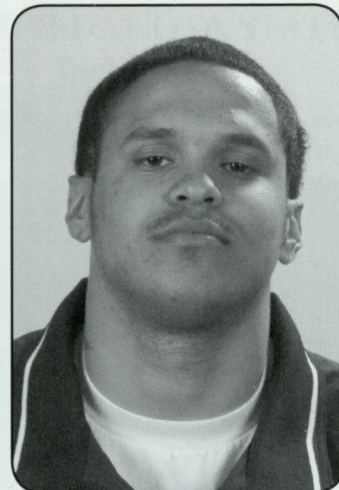

6-5 230 RS TR Torrance, CA Kent State

Scott Cutley should step right into the Titans' starting lineup in 2006-07... Talented, versatile forward from Kent State with winning background at Westchester High School.... Does all of the little things that lead to victories... Physical and not afraid of contact.

KENT STATE: Two-year letterman at Kent State in Ohio... Last season started all but one of the Golden Flashes' 33 games in a 20-13 season that took them to the post-season NIT... Averaged 7.9 points and 4.6 rebounds while shooting nearly 50 percent for the floor... Was selected freshman of the year after averaging 5.0 points and 3.9 rebounds in 31 games... Had career-high 22 points vs. Indiana-Purdue Fort Wayne on Jan. 17 and a career-best 10 rebounds the next game vs. Buffalo on Jan. 19.

WESTCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year varsity letterman at powerful Westchester High School for Coach Ed Azzam... As a senior in 2003, Scott was all-state and all-city as the Comets won the city, regional and state championships and a mythical national title... He made three all-tournament teams playing both small and power forward... As a junior he was third-team All-Western League and got honorable mention as a sophomore... As a freshman was most valuable player of the junior varsity squad.

PERSONAL: Born on June 6, 1985, in Inglewood... Parents are James Cutley and Teresa Morrissey of Torrance... Has an older brother, Sean, and an older sister, Yvonne... Communications major... Goal is to play professional basketball... Most memorable sports thrill was scoring 30 points against rival Fairfax High School... Credits Coch Azzam for the most influence on his career: "because he taught me the game so that I did not just rely on natural talent."

Ray Reed

G

6-1 175 RS TR Inglewood, CA Georgetown

Ray Reed's next-to-last game at Georgetown was against Cal State Fullerton in the second round of the 2005 post-season NIT... He had 3 points, 1 rebound and 2 assists in 16 minutes... Talented guard who should make Bobby Brown work even harder in practice this season.

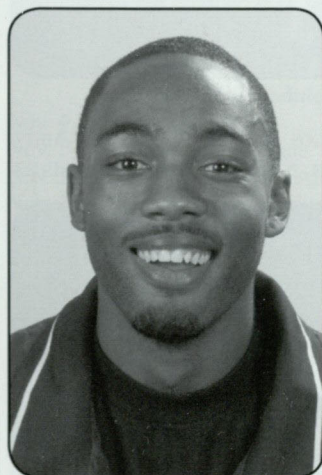

GEORGETOWN: Two-year letterman at Georgetown for Coaches Craig Esherick as a freshman and John Thompson, Jr., as a sophomore... Played in all but two of the Hoyas' games in his career, averaging 3.1 points, 1.7 rebounds and 1.3 assists while playing about 15 minutes per game off the bench... Last year's team was 20-13 and advanced to the third-round of the NIT before losing at South Carolina, the eventual champion... His best game was 10 points and 4 rebounds vs. San Jose State on Dec. 11... As a freshman he had a high of 14 points vs. Coastal Carolina in a 13-15 season... He had highs of 6 assists vs. Howard on Dec. 30, 2004, and 6 rebounds vs. St. John's on Jan. 20, 2004.

INGLEWOOD HIGH SCHOOL: Four-year varsity letterman at Inglewood High School... As a senior for Coach Pat Roy was CIF Southern Section and South Bay player of the year... Averaged 25 points, 6 assists, 4 rebounds and 3 steals... As a junior was league player of the year for the Sentinels, who were ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation by USA Today and advanced to the CIF Div. II-AA semifinals... As a sophomore he was co-player of the year.

PERSONAL: Born on Feb. 4, 1984, in Los Angeles... Mother is Rhonda Brown of Hawthorne... Father Nick Reed is deceased... Has a brother, Lemar Edwards, and a sister, Rahonda Edwards... Communications major... Most memorable sports thrill was playing in Madison Square Garden... Credits Coach Larry Mitchell for the most influence on his basketball career... Played travel ball for the SCA T.P.I.

Rodney Anderson

Rodney Anderson's freshman basketball season (1999-2000) at Cal State Fullerton was cut short by a random street shooting that left him paralyzed from the chest down. He was shot three times in the back and neck in the early evening on Mar. 2, 2000, near his Los Angeles home where he had gone for dinner and to counsel a troubled friend. A known gang member was charged with the crime in early October, 2000, convicted and incarcerated.

Rodney was hospitalized for a few months and continues physical therapy to this day. He returned to classes at Cal State Fullerton for the Spring, 2001, semester and has been a regular spectator at Titan games. He graduated in June with a bachelors degree in human services and now is pursuing a masters degree.

Rodney and his family were the deserving subjects of an Extreme Makeover: Home Edition by the popular ABC Television show. They were whisked off to the Bahamas for a week's vacation while two new homes were constructed to replace their 90-year-old home. Upon their return, a day later than normal due to weather and major technological improvements to the home, Rodney and his fiancée, Monique, were married in the front yard. In conjunction with the show, Rodney's jersey No. 4 was retired at a Dec. 8, 2004, ceremony in Titan Gym and is now displayed with the other notable jerseys and championship banners. As a result of the original January, 2005, telecast, Rodney has received numerous offers to tell his inspirational story of perseverance against long odds.

While at Fullerton, Rodney played in 24 games and started one (at Saint Mary's on Nov. 30, 1999). He averaged 3.4 points and 1.4 rebounds. He scored a high of 9 points vs. Patten on Dec. 21 and had a high of 3 rebounds on three occasions.

WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL: Two-year varsity letterman at George Washington Prep in Los Angeles for Coach Andy Davis... Played point guard, off guard and small forward during his prep career... Averaged 13 points, 5 rebounds and 4 assists as a senior... Also played two seasons of varsity baseball as a centerfielder.

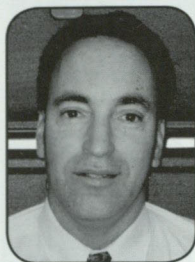

PERSONAL: Born on Sept. 9, 1981, in Los Angeles, California... Parents are Joseph and Martha Anderson... Has one older brother (Joseph) and three older sisters (Glenda, Thressa and Demetrius)... Most memorable sports thrill was making game-winning shot for a youth league championship.

EIGHT BIG WEST CONFERENCE SCHOOLS WILL PARTICIPATE IN THE FOURTH ANNUAL

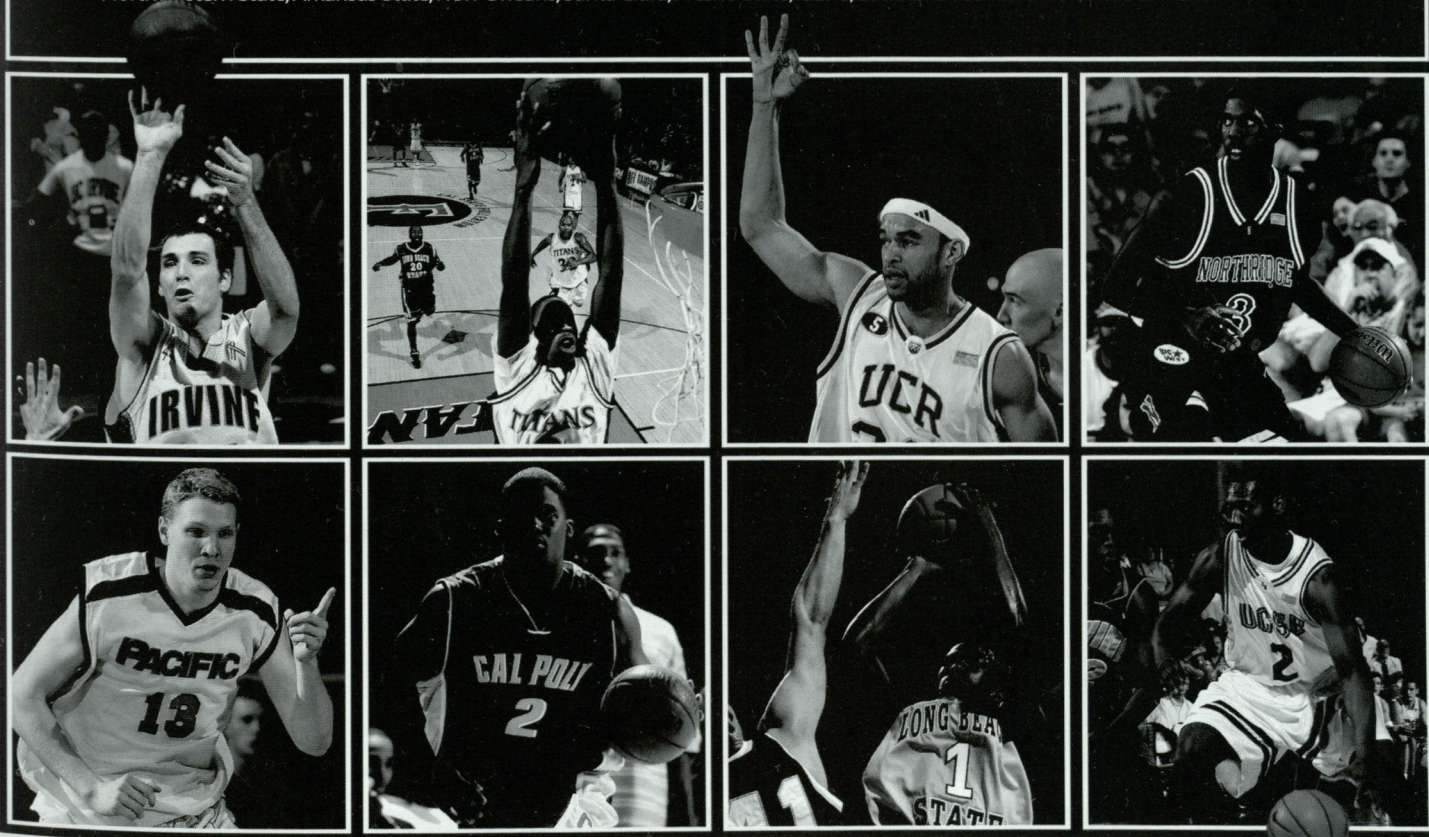

An event-record 100 teams -- representing 18 collegiate athletic conferences -- will compete to appear in the ESPN-created event, with the entire BRACKET BUSTER SERIES slate of matchups to be announced in late January. UC Irvine, Pacific, UC Riverside and Cal State Fullerton will serve as host schools, while Cal Poly, Long Beach State, Cal State Northridge and UC Santa Barbara will play on the road.

Of the 50 games, a total of 11 will be televised, with six contests on ESPN or ESPN2. An additional five games will be aired on ESPNU -- ESPN's collegiate sports network which launched on March 4, 2005. Please consult your local listings for start times.

Since the event's inception in 2003, the Big West Conference has posted a three-year record of 2-2, including wins by both of last year's representatives Pacific and Cal State Northridge. The Big West enjoyed great success in its first-ever appearance on an ESPN Bracket Buster-branded game (a contest aired on the TV package) when 19th-ranked Pacific defeated UTEP 73-66 in front of a sellout crowd at the Spanos Center. The Pacific-UTEP game was the featured matchup of the event, the only game broadcast on ESPN. Cal State Northridge also knocked off Fairfield in a non-televised road contest.

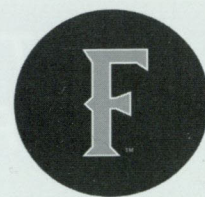

HOME TEAMS: UC Irvine, Pacific, UC Riverside, Cal State Fullerton, Bradley, Creighton, Evansville, UNI, Southern Illinois, Wichita State, Montana, Montana State, Winthrop, Drexel, Hofstra, Northeastern, Old Dominion, Virginia Commonwealth, Cleveland State, Detroit, UW-Green Bay, Canisius, Iona, Loyola (Ill.), Loyola (Md.), UW-Milwaukee, Manhattan, Saint Peter's, Ball State, Bowling Green, Central Michigan, Kent State, Miami, Ohio, Western Michigan, Valparaiso, Austin Peay, Eastern Illinois, Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State, Murray State, College of Charleston, Louisiana-Lafayette, Western Kentucky, St. Mary's (Cal.), Boise State, Hawai'i, Nevada, San Jose State and Utah State.

AWAY TEAMS: Cal Poly, Long Beach State, Cal State Northridge, UC Santa Barbara, Drake, Illinois State, Indiana State, Missouri State, Albany, Vermont, Northern Arizona, Eastern Washington, High Point, UNC Asheville, Delaware, George Mason, Georgia State, Butler, Illinois-Chicago, Wright State, Youngstown State, Fairfield, Marist, Niagara, Rider, Siena, Akron, Buffalo, Eastern Michigan, Northern Illinois, Toledo, Oral Roberts, Fairleigh Dickinson, Morehead State, Samford, Southeast Missouri State, Tennessee-Martin, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech, Bucknell, North Carolina-Greensboro, Stephen F. Austin, Northwestern State, Arkansas State, New Orleans, Santa Clara, Fresno State, Idaho, Louisiana Tech and New Mexico State.

BIG WEST CONFERENCE

In Its 37th Season - Established 1969

The 2005-06 season marks the 37th year the Big West Conference has sponsored the sport of men's basketball, and the 23rd year the conference has sponsored women's basketball. The annual conference tournament will be held at the Anaheim Convention Center Arena for the seventh consecutive year, beginning March 8.

The Big West gained much success in the postseason last year, with three men's programs and one women's program reaching the NCAA and NIT tournaments. On the men's side, both Pacific and Utah State competed in the NCAA tournament, while Cal State Fullerton played in the NIT. Pacific advanced to the second round for the second straight year, knocking out Pittsburgh. Cal State Fullerton made some noise in the NIT, advancing to the third round before eventually losing to Georgetown.

As for the women's side, UC Santa Barbara won its ninth straight Big West Women's Tournament crown and once again represented the conference in the NCAA.

The 2006 Men's and Women's Big West Basketball Tournament begins Wednesday, March 8th and runs through Saturday, March 11th, highlighted with exciting Big West festivities throughout the week in the Disneyland Resort. This year's events include the 4th annual ESPN Zone Mascot Mayhem and the 3rd annual Battle of the Bands in Disney's California Adventure. In addition, the Big West Fun Zone will be in the arena concourse throughout the tournament.

With all eight men's and women's teams making the Big West Tournament in March, this year promises to be an exciting season, as teams chase for the coveted title of Big West Champions.

The Big West Conference is in its 37th season of sponsoring men's basketball and it's back to an All-California lineup of eight institutions for the 2005-06 campaign. Founded in 1969-70 as the Pacific Coast Athletic Association when it consisted entirely of California schools, the league returns to its coastal roots after allegiances with numerous Rocky Mountain states and Texas. The membership will grow to nine California schools in 2007-08 when UC Davis is welcomed.

During the past 36 years, five of the current members -- Long Beach State, Cal State Fullerton, Pacific, UC Santa Barbara and UC Irvine -- have claimed or shared a regular season title. Four current members -- Long Beach State, Cal State Fullerton, Pacific and UC Santa Barbara -- have won the post-season tournament title and gained an automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament.

The post-season tournament will be staged for the sixth consecutive year and 11th overall at the Anaheim Convention Center from Mar. 8-11. It is held in conjunction with the women's tournament and for the second year will feature a weighted bracket favoring the higher seeds. The fifth through eighth seeds meet in the opening round for the opportunity to face the Nos. 3 and 4 seeds in the quarterfinals. The survivors tackle the top two seeds in the semifinals with the winners meeting in the championship game which again will be carried on ESPN.

The Big West has been home to one NCAA Champion (UNLV in 1990) and one NIT titlist (Fresno State in 1983). The conference also has had a team represented in the NCAA Tourney for each of its 36 years of existence. Nine times the conference has had multiple representatives including this past season in Pacific and Utah State.

Several Big West alumni have gone on to enjoy successful NBA careers. In 1998, the No. 1 pick in the NBA Draft came out of the Big West in Pacific center Michael Olowokandi, who was picked by the L.A. Clippers. Other NBA stars who launched their careers in the Big West include Larry Johnson, Bryon Russell, Brian Shaw, Lucious Harris, Cedric Ceballos and Bruce Bowen.

Short of a trip to the Final Four, there's no way for a Cal State Fullerton men's basketball team to surpass the success of the 1977-78 squad. In only their fourth year of Div. I play, those Titans turned a third-place regular-season finish into a Cinderella trip to the "Big Dance" by winning the Pacific Coast Athletic Association post-season tournament and then defeating nationally ranked New Mexico and San Francisco in the NCAA Tournament. In the Western Regional Finals they came up a basket short vs. Arkansas and no other Titan squad has approached that level of excitement.

Until the undersized and overachieving 2004-05 edition of Titan basketball.

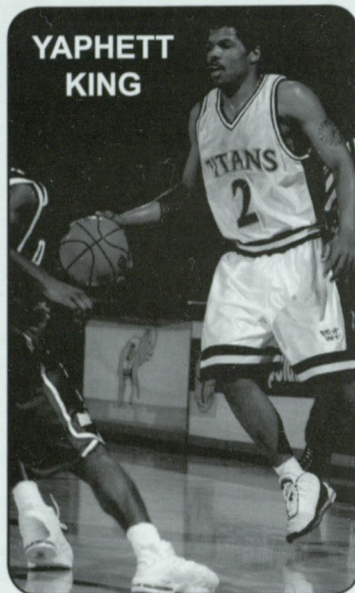

Displaying resiliency, flexibility and tenacity to go with equal parts heart and character, the most recent Titan squad overcame more than a decade of mediocrity to rekindle interest in the program by compiling a 21-11 record. The Titans led the Big West Conference in scoring by playing fast and free and entertaining basketball. The winning followed despite a series of potentially devastating obstacles.

The projected starting center (Lloyd Walls) never played a minute due to concussions. The team's leading rebounder (Hardy Asprilla) went down with a season-ending knee injury in the 12th game of the season. A reserve guard (Drew Awad) went home to battle a reoccurrence of cancer. And late in the season, during a remarkable three-game run into the post-season National Invitation Tournament, the backup point guard (John Clemmons) was lost to a broken foot and the conference's leading scorer and rebounder (Ralph Holmes) was lost to another knee injury. All season the Titans were minus one coaching position and they played only three non-conference home games vs. six on the road.

In some ways, the 2005 NIT accomplishments were more difficult than the 1978 NCAA run. The opponents were not nationally ranked as they were in 1978, but the games were played on hostile, not neutral, floors. Oregon State had lost only one of 13 home games (to an Elite Eight Arizona team) with victories over NCAA Tournament teams Washington, Stanford and UCLA. San Francisco beat five conference champions during the regular season including Pacific in Stockton and Gonzaga and it had not lost a non-conference home game. But the Titans won in both Corvallis and San Francisco around improvised itineraries that would eventually see them chalk up 7,000 miles, 3 hotels, 7 bus drivers and 8 airports in a 9-day span. The loss of Holmes and the accumulated effects of the travel finally caught up with them at Georgetown, which didn't need much help for its athletically gifted 18-12 squad that got to play in its campus gym before an ESPN national TV audience.

In compiling Cal State Fullerton's first winning season in 12 years, the 2004-05 Titans accomplished the following:

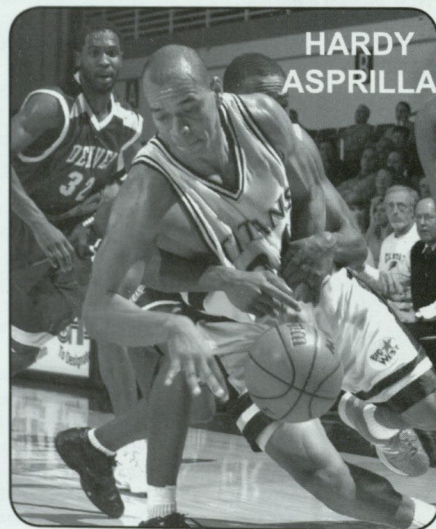

- won 21 games, a figure surpassed only by the 23-9 record in 1977-78
- won the school's first post-season games since 1978
- posted the best conference record (12-6) since the 12-4 1982-83 team
- posted the best home-court record (10-2) since the 13-0 1982-83 team

- claimed the highest finish in the standings (tie for third) since the 1984-85 team was third at 11-7
- posted the first winning conference road record (5-4) at the Div. I level (dates to 1974-75)
- posted the first winning overall road record at 11-9 (9-6 on hostile, 2-3 on neutral sites) since the 1988-89 team went 8-6
- won their first Big West Conference Tournament game since 1998 and only second since 1990
- posted only the third win over a Pac-10 opponent in 22 tries (21 of those 22 games have been played on the road)
- led the conference in scoring at 75.2 ppg and bettered school records with 253 3-point field goals and 716 3-point attempts and 2,408 points
- drew the two largest crowds in Titan Gym in 12 years with 2,076 vs. Idaho on Feb. 17 and then 3,576 vs. Pacific on Mar. 3
- posted the best record (21-11) among So. California Div. I schools

Individually, Ralph Holmes led the way. The 6-foot-4 senior, who was expelled from school for the 2003-04 year for an off-campus incident, had to establish campus residency in the first semester and missed the first five games. He finished up leading the conference in scoring at 16.9 ppg and rebounding at 8.8 rpg. He had 11 double-doubles in points and rebounds and even managed the school's first triple-double with 14 points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists in his final game in Titan Gym, a win over Cal State Northridge. He earned second-team all-conference honors to go with his first-team berth of 2002-03. He suffered a partial tear of the medial collateral ligament in his left knee at USF and did not make the trip to Georgetown for what became the season finale.

Splitting the vote and also making the all-conference second team was another 6-foot-4 senior forward in Yaphett King. He moved from small forward to power forward when Asprilla was injured and immediately created matchup problems for opponents with his ability to score from outside and inside while still hold his own on the backboards with bigger foes. He averaged 13.8 ppg, seventh-best in the conference, and grabbed 6.2 rpg. He ranked No. 9 in 3-point field goal percentage at .375 and No. 10 in overall field goal percentage at .442.

The unrelated Browns -- junior center Jamaal and sophomore point guard Bobby -- both received honorable mention all-conference. Jamaal was the inside force for the Titans and led the team with three game-winning shots. He was third in the conference to Holmes and Utah State's Spencer Nelson in rebounding at 7.6 rpg and seventh in field-goal percentage at .496. Bobby proved the ironman, averaging about 36 minutes per game. He was third in the conference in scoring (16.8 ppg), third in assists (4.66 apg), third in free-throw percentage (.827) and second in 3-point field goals made (2.66 pg). In only two seasons, he has CSF's second (85) and fifth-best (70) single-season totals of 3-pointers made and his career total of 155 is only 36 shy of the school record.

Junior guard Jermaine Harper just missed being the fifth starter in double-figure scoring at 9.7 ppg. He was a classic streak shooter with four games of 20 or more points and nine of four points or less. He made 7-of-11 3-pointers vs. Utah State in the Big West Tournament quarterfinals and 6-of-11 in the season opener vs. Samford. Seventy percent of his shots came from the 3-point arc as he made 70 (of 191) to match Bobby Brown for the fifth-best single-season total by a Titan.

Before he was injured in a Jan. 13 home win over Long Beach State that gave the Titans an 8-4 record, senior forward Asprilla was battling for the conference lead in rebounding. He ultimately edged Holmes, 8.83 to 8.77 per game, but didn't play the required 75 percent of his team's games. He also typically took on the opponent's top scoring threat on the front line.

The Titans' bench was left thin by the attrition. Reserves scored only 67 points over the final 15 games and didn't score in three of the final four. But Clemmons provided solid relief for Bobby Brown as well as an aggressive defensive presence on the perimeter. Justin Burns had his moments, leading the team in blocked shots and getting 6 points and 10 rebounds in 11 minutes of the first half at UC Irvine. Walk-on Vershan Cottrell was fearless and contributed 4 key points in the home win over Utah State and he finished the season with half of a triple-double at Georgetown with 5 points, 5 rebounds and 5 assists off the bench.

Second-year Coach Bob Burton would probably have been Big West Conference coach of the year had not Pacific's Bob Thomasson gone undefeated in the conference season and grabbed a national Top 20 ranking. Tim Kelly, who was going to be the volunteer director of basketball operations, instead served as the third assistant behind Andy Newman and Jason Levy when the hiring of a full-time coach bogged down. Allyson Alhadeff was easily the most talked about administrative assistant in the conference.

For their efforts, Coach Burton had his contract extended through the 2009-10 season and he and his staff each received pay raises.

RALPHY HOLMES

Other notable accomplishments in 2004-05:

- The Titans made only the third and fourth trips to the East Coast to represent Cal State Fullerton in men's basketball, opening the season at the Mohegan Sun Classic in Connecticut and closing it in the NIT in Washington, DC

- The Titans went 7-4 in games decided by the last shot

- Fullerton won three consecutive road games on Feb. 3 at UC Riverside, Feb. 7 at UC Davis and Feb. 10 at UC Irvine. Fullerton hadn't won TWO consecutive road games since 1996-97 and you had to go back to 1974-75 to find three other truly "road" wins in a row (with no home games interrupting the string), and those were not against Div. I foes

- Fullerton swept the season series from UC Santa Barbara for the first time since 1993-94 and made it 3-0 in the BWC Tourney

- Fullerton swept the season series from Cal Poly SLO for the first time since 1996-97, its first year in the Big West Conference

- Fullerton swept the season series from CSU Northridge for the first time since the Matadors joined the conference for 2001-02

- Fullerton swept the season series from UC Riverside for the first time since the Highlanders joined the conference for 2001-02

- Fullerton beat Utah State on Feb. 19 for only the third time in 24 meetings (but lost a rematch in the Big West Tournament)

- Fullerton appeared on national TV (ESPN vs. Georgetown) for the first time since a pair of overtime losses in 1990 -- Jan. 29 at UCSB and Feb. 19 vs. Long Beach State. No doubt the scheduling of ESPN2 into Titan Gym for a Feb. 9, 2006, game vs. Pacific was influenced by the success and entertaining style of the 2004-05 team.

- Earlier in the season, Fullerton basketball gained national TV exposure on the ABC shows "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition" and "How Did They Do That?" that aired on Jan. 16 and 17, respectively. Former Titan guard Rodney Anderson, who was the victim of a street shooting on Mar. 2, 2000, late in his freshman season, and his family received two new homes on the site of their crumbling 1911-built residence in South Central Los Angeles. A Dec. 8, 2004, taping of the retirement of his jersey No. 4 in Titan Gym was included in the show.

- The conference scoring championship came down to the NIT. By making his final shot at USF, a 3-pointer, Holmes stayed ahead of Idaho's Dandrick Jones by the margin of 16.92 to 16.83 points per game. Had Bobby Brown scored 4 more points vs. Georgetown, he would have passed both Holmes and Jones but he ended up third at 16.813 ppg. Ironically, Holmes lost the 2002-03 scoring title by the margin of one more basket by Cal Poly SLO's Varnie Dennis.

For the season opener, the Titans ventured to the East Coast for only the third time in the program's history to compete in the 7th Annual Mohegan Sun Classic hosted by Central Connecticut State. They drew Samford from the Ohio Valley Conference, a proponent of the ball-control, Princeton-style offense.

Fullerton did a decent job of defending the unusual attack, preventing back-door layups at the expense of allowing some good looks from 3-point range and the Bulldogs capitalized. Seven different players connected for treys as Samford shot 50 percent from range and outscored the Titans by 12 from that distance in what turned out to be a 12-point game.

Jermaine Harper was the only Titan to have a strong offensive game although Hardy Asprilla grabbed a career-high 13 rebounds.

Fullerton took an early 10-3 lead after consecutive 3-pointers by Harper and Bobby Brown. But Brown wouldn't score for the next 31 minutes and Samford took the lead for good at 20-19.

Harper went 6-for-11 from the 3-point line including 4-of-8 in the second half as the Titans tried to dig out from a deficit that grew as large as 14 points at 43-29. A 9-0 run got it close and Asprilla's layup at 7:41 made it a 1-point game at 47-46. But Randall Gulina and J. Robert Merritt hit back-to-back treys for Samford to make it 53-46 at 5:28 and the Titans never got closer even though Samford missed seven free throws in a row in a span of less than a minute.

After making only 2 of 11 shots in the opener, Bobby Brown bounced back to form almost immediately. He scored 12 of Fullerton's first 18 points as the Titans jumped out to an 18-11 lead over Colgate. By halftime he had 18 points on 6 of 8 shooting (4 of 6 treys) and the Titans enjoyed a 13-point lead over their Patriot League opponent.

Although Hardy Asprilla topped his career rebounding high of the night before by one, the Titans lost the battle of the backboards in the second half, 22-13, and the Raiders made an inevitable run.

With guard Jon Simon scoring 22 of his 24 points after intermission, Colgate methodically came back and got within 7 points at 62-55 with 6:55 to play.

Up stepped Yaphett King, who had scored only 8 points in the first three halves of the season. King's basket at 6:39 was the first Titan field goal in almost five minutes. After Simon countered with a 3-pointer, King made a deuce. When Simon made a jumper, King drilled a trey to make it a 9-point lead again at 69-60 with 3:54 to play.

When Colgate crept back to within five at 71-66, King got an offensive rebound and scored on a put back for a 73-66 lead that proved the back breaker with only 1:09 remaining to play.

Asprilla and Jermaine Harper made the all-tourney team and Samford beat the host Central Connecticut for the title.

After traveling across the country to open the season, the Titans needed to look only across Nutwood Avenue to find their home opener foe. Hope International University, which is housed primarily in buildings that used to include the Titan bookstore and which played its home games in Titan Gym until getting a new facility of its own last year, made the short walk.

The NAIA Royals were not intimidated by their only Div. I opponent of the season. They jumped out to an 8-3 lead that forced Coach Bob Burton to call a timeout. The Titans responded immediately with a 21-5 run for a 24-13 lead at 12:58 and they controlled the game the rest of the way.

The lead was as large as 20 points in the first half and grew to 37 points in the second half. Fullerton forced 26 turnovers and converted them into several fast-break layups.

Fullerton's field goal percentage of .652 was its best since a school-record equalling mark of .682 on Feb. 3, 1990, in a home win over Utah State. The 107 points were the most since Feb. 27, 1997, in a 110-98 home win over Cal Poly.

Point guard Bobby Brown had a career-high 13 assists to go with a game-high 21 points. All nine Titans got into the game and scored including senior forward Drew Awad, who would learn on Dec. 6 that he had a recurrence of his leukemia and would have to return home to Fresno to begin a 6-month treatment for the deadly disease.

The Titans' first road game of the year on an opponent's home court landed them in Colorado for the opener of a home-and-home series with the University of Denver. More of a factor than the hostile environment was the altitude in the mile-high city. After jumping out to a 5-2 lead, the Titans appeared to collectively hit the wall in the thin air and the Pioneers took advantage to roll to an easy win.

The Pioneers were playing in Magness Arena for the first time after their first two home games were moved to adjacent Hamilton Gymnasium because the ice hockey team had priority on the facility. They went on a 14-0 run over almost a five-minute span for a 16-5 lead and the Titans never got closer than 8 points again.

With 6-foot-10 center Yemi Nicholson doing the early damage, forward Antonio Porch raising havoc with 13 rebounds and guard Erik Benzel drilling home 5 of 8 3-point tries, the Pioneers had too many weapons for the Titans, who had only eight available players until Danny Lambert and his just-cleared knee got in for the final four minutes.

Shooting proved the Titans' biggest shortcoming. Leading scorer to date Jermaine Harper (17.0 ppg average) failed to score, missing all eight of his shots. Bobby Brown missed 16 of his 23 attempts and Yaphett King made only 6 of 17.

It was an obvious pre-game analysis: Fullerton's explosive perimeter attack vs. the strong inside game of Eastern Washington. And that's how it went.

Bobby Brown, Yaphett King and Jermaine Harper combined for all but 4 of Fullerton's 70 points to barely overcome the 43 points by the Eagles' front line of Matt Nelson, Jake Beitinger and Marc Axton for a coveted road win.

Harper's 3-pointer with 4 seconds to play in OT was the game winner.

It didn't appear it would be so close when the Titans scored on their first five possessions of the second half for a 12-0 run and a 44-27 lead. Brown's 3-pointer later made it an 18-point lead at 47-29 with 16:06 to play.

The Eagles came back as the Titans got into foul trouble. They cut the margin to 6 points with 8:13 to play but CSF still was up 62-56 and had the ball with 46 seconds to play. Axton twice converted 3 free throws -- the second time with 4 seconds in regulation.

With CSF's Hardy Asprilla and Derek Quinet fouled out, Ewu had all the momentum going into OT. Both teams showed fatigue as Ewu gained a 2-point lead with 40 seconds left. Vershan Cottrell missed a 3-point try but Matt Nelson missed two free throws. Cottrell made the first of two FTs with 10 seconds left and the Titans got the ball back when Ewu rebounded out of bounds. Brown penetrated and found Harper near the top of the key and he drilled a 22-footer with 6-foot-10 Paul Butorac running out at him.

The long-awaited appearances in game uniforms of Jamaal Brown and Ralph Holmes didn't have a story book result. Brown, who had sat out a calendar year since transferring from Western Kentucky, started but made only 3 of 13 shots and grabbed only 2 rebounds in 22 minutes. Holmes, idled since the end of his first-team All-Big West Conference 2002-03 season, came off the bench and missed all nine shots as he was clearly rushing things in an attempt to make good things happen. He did grab 8 rebounds in 16 minutes.

But thanks to poor foul shooting by host San Diego State and a late surge fueled by Bobby Brown's 3-point bombardment, the Titans had a chance to tie the game in the final seconds despite shooting only 29 percent from the floor. Jamaal Brown's 3-point try bounced off the rim and the Titans absorbed a 3-point loss. The win snapped the Aztecs' 4-game losing streak this season and a 4-game losing streak to Fullerton dating to the 1994-95 season.

The Aztecs led by 15 points with less than 7 minutes to play. Two free throws by Hardy Asprilla and back-to-back treys by Yaphett King and Bobby Brown made it close. Consecutive treys by Bobby Brown in a span of six seconds made it a 61-58 game with one minute to play.

The Aztecs turned the ball over and King's drive made it a 1-point game with 11 seconds left. Brandon Heath made two free throws at 0:07 to set the stage for Jamaal's last-second attempt.

It was difficult to determine which was a greater contrast -- this game compared to the Titans-Pioneers match in Denver on Dec. 4 or the Titans-Aztecs game of two nights earlier. Both comparisons by necessity focused on Ralph Holmes and Jamaal Brown.

Without them on the trip, the Titans got blown out in Denver on Dec. 4, 79-57. With them, the Titans extracted revenge to the tune of a 10-point home win.

At San Diego State, the duo combined to make only 3 of 22 shots in a disjointed game that featured 29 percent field goal shooting by the Titans and 48 percent free-throw shooting by the Aztecs. Against the Pioneers, the duo made 23 of 32 shots in a game where both teams shot better than 60 percent from the floor and combined to make 74 percent from the foul line in a classic offensive shootout.

Antonio Porch once again was the Titans' nemesis. He followed up his 21-point, 13-rebound game in Denver with 30 points and 6 boards. But it wasn't enough to offset the addition of J. Brown and Holmes to the Titans' attack as they combined for 54 points.

The Titans led for all but the first minute and held a 17-point lead at 79-62 with about 10 minutes to play. Denver made a run and got as close as 88-83 at 3:50. But Bobby Brown made a 3-point bomb and a beautiful spinning fast-break layup to stretch the lead to 10 and Fullerton hit 7 of 8 free throws to stymie any Denver rally.

Fullerton opened Big West Conference play with a demanding assignment -- on the road at the site of the two finalists in last year's Big West Conference post-season tournament.

The first stop was Cal State Northridge, where both teams showed the effects of the holiday schedule. Unofficially, each team committed 13 turnovers in the first 12 minutes as CSF staggered to a 17-10 lead. The Matadors turned up their defense a notch and appeared to take control of the game. A 22-7 run left them with a 32-24 halftime edge.

Ian Boylan scored CSUN's first eight points of the second half as it moved out to double-digit leads, the last at 59-48 with 5:40 to play.

The Titans, who were having trouble running their set plays, began improvising. With Yaphett King leading the way with dribble drives into the paint, Fullerton scored on seven consecutive possessions, tying the game at both 62 and 64 all, the latter with 9 seconds to play.

Northridge took an early 3-point lead in overtime but King scored again and Bobby Brown made a difficult layup for a 68-67 Titan lead. Davin White's only 3-pointer of the night put CSUN up, 70-68. A Ralph Holmes free throw made it 70-69 but he missed the second shot. White missed a shot, King made one, again at the 9-second mark, and White missed at the buzzer and the Titans had won a conference opener for the first time in 10 years.

The Titans came oh-so-close to a phenomenal road trip. Not since the 1986-87 season had a Titan team gone 2-0 on the road in the same week in Big West Conference play, yet here was Fullerton trailing by a point with less than a minute to play against the defending co-champions.

Tyler Newton drove around Jamaal Brown for a layup and an 89-86 Tigers' lead with 39 seconds to play. Ralphie Holmes missed a 3-point shot and Pacific turned the rebound into a fast-break dunk by Jasko Korajkic and a 5-point lead. When Bobby Brown missed a 3-point try with 18 seconds left, the Titans' upset attempt was done.

For awhile, it looked like it wouldn't be a close game. The surprise was that it was the Titans dominating the early action. Fullerton made its first four shots to jump out to a 9-4 lead and by playing aggressive and at times tenacious defense, the Titans stretched the advantage to as many as 11 points, the latest at 37-26 with 6 minutes to go in the first half.

But Pacific's big front line began asserting itself. Christian Maraker scored 9 points and Guillaume Yango added 7 as UoP outscored the Titans, 17-6, to forge a halftime tie at 43.

Pacific gained an 11-point lead with 6:53 to play before the Titans surged closer behind Jermaine Harper, who scored 8 points in less than 2 minutes. Later, his 3-pointer made the score 87-84 and Jamaal Brown's steal set up a Holmes layup that made it 87-86 and set the stage for Newton.

The Big West home opener found the Titans hosting UC Riverside in a battle of road travel partners.

Fullerton seemed to have the game under control on several occasions but the Titans couldn't put the Highlanders away. And when UCR center Vili Morton got hot late in the game, the outcome was up for grabs.

Riverside led only once in the game but it came with 1:10 to play when Morton scored inside to cap an 8-0 UCR run which erased a 67-60 Fullerton lead.

Bobby Brown missed an ensuing jumper but Hardy Asprilla got the rebound and threw the ball up in the air as he was being fouled only to see it graze off the glass and drop through the net. His subsequent free throw gave the Titans the lead for good at 70-68 with 51 seconds left.

Bobby Brown made two clutch free throws to make it 72-68 with 13 seconds left only to see Justin Bell toss in a 3-pointer to cut the lead to a point. Jamaal Brown then faced a pressure-packed one-and-one with 4 seconds to go. He made both ends and the Titans celebrated when Bell's attempt at a tie missed badly.

Fullerton had jumped out to a 9-0 lead and led by 10 with 3 minutes to go in the first half only to see UCR score the final 6 points before intermission.

The Highlanders caught up in the opening minutes of the second half at 36 but Fullerton would gradually pull away to lead by as many as 9 points.

Fullerton and UC Davis met on the basketball court for the first time in 43 years in a preview of the Aggies' eventual membership in the Big West Conference, which will commence with the 2007-08 season.

The Aggies had a hot hand early, making 7 of their first 9 shots, and they took a 15-14 lead in less than six minutes. They stretched it to 4 points on two occasions but the shots quit falling with the same regularity. And, between Fowzi Abdelsamad's jumper that made it 20-16 at 11:58 and Thomas Juillerat's jumper at 2:17, they got only two free throws and they had fallen behind, 28-24.

The Titans stretched a 35-28 half-time lead out to 47-34 and then they used a 13-0 run to put this one away at 60-37 with 11:42 remaining.

After making only 3 of 18 3-point field goals two nights earlier against UC Riverside, the Titans got hot in the second half. They made 7 of 9 to finish 10 for 18 for the night for their best showing to date.

Yaphett King scored 15 of his 17 points in the second half. Ralphie Holmes scored 13 after intermission as he approached a triple-double with 25 points, 8 rebounds and 8 assists to go along with 4 steals. He would get the triple-double later in the season.

The Titans were about 7 minutes away from a perfect evening despite squandering most of a double-digit first-half lead over Long Beach State. They had presented their baseball team with their NCAA championship rings at intermission and they had rebuilt the lead to 14. Soon they would boast a 3-1 Big West Conference record and an overall mark of 8-4, their best start since the 1996-97 season.

But then senior forward Hardy Asprilla collapsed after trying to grab his 10th rebound of the night. The sound of the injury and his screams of pain indicated that something serious had happened and the worst was confirmed the next day -- a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee would require surgery and sideline him for the rest of the season.

The Titans scored nine of the game's next 10 points to cement the win, but their thoughts were with their inspirational leader who was among the Big West leaders in rebounding and typically guarded the opponents' top frontline scorer. Sending Long Beach State to its fifth consecutive loss was of little consolation.

Once again Yaphett King was the sparkplug against the 49ers. He had 43 points in two games against them last year and this night he poured in 16 in the second half alone, hitting 4 of 7 3-pointers.

Jibril Hodges hit the first basket of the second half for the 49ers but the Titans then went on a 15-4 run to build a 55-42 lead at 14:10 and the lead would grow to as many as 20 points.

Life without Hardy Asprilla got off to a poor start for the Titans, who might have lost their first decision of a four-game homestand even with their leading rebounder present.

UC Irvine was coming off a loss at UCR. The Anteaters cancelled their Friday practice and had a 90-minute team meeting that brought them into Titan Gym in a focused state, trying to snap a 4-game losing streak.

It didn't hurt that they brought their "A" shooting game as well. After Fullerton jumped out to a 10-2 lead, UCI took over. Hitting 7 of 10 3-pointers and 59 percent overall, the Anteaters won the balance of the half, 46-20.

Usually, a team gets back into a game with defensive stops. The Titans had some of those, but it was more of a "blitzkrieg" offense that brought Titan Gym alive. Hitting their first seven 3-point tries, the Titans opened the second half with a 36-19 run that brought them within a point at 67-66 with 10:22 to play -- 17 of those points had come in the first 4 minutes.

The Titans had one chance to take the lead. Justin Burns missed an awkward shot and UCI retaliated with an Aaron Fitzgerald jump shot. He would score 6 more points and Jeff Gloger would add a jumper before the Titans scored again. By that time the lead was up to 77-68 at 6:19 to play.

UCI also shot 59 percent in the second half to offset Fullerton's 10 for 15 effort behind the 3-point line. The total of 14 treys tied the CSF record.

Good riddance. Cal State Fullerton was willing to stick around and help Utah State pack to make sure the Aggies were really moving on to the Western Athletic Conference after the Titans lost for the 21st consecutive time and the 24th time in 26 games in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

It wasn't like the Titans were the only visitors treated badly in Logan. The win gave the Aggies a 91-8 home record under seventh-year Coach Stew Morrill. Fullerton's last win here came in the 1981-82 season, which was the last time USU had a losing home record.

For about 16 minutes, it appeared the inevitable might be put off. With Justin Burns blocking three shots in his first Titan start, Fullerton disrupted the Aggies' efficient attack and led, 12-9. Fullerton still was within a point of the lead at 28-27 at the final media timeout of the half.

But the Aggies scored the last 11 points on the half, five of them in the final six seconds as Nelson hit a spinning jumper in the lane and Carroll stole the inbounds pass and then fired in a 35-footer at the buzzer.

Utah State scored the first two buckets of the second half and then put the game away with a 10-2 burst.

Utah State shot the identical percentage -- .571 -- from the floor, the 3-point line and the foul line.

The Titans couldn't have asked for more in their final game at Cowan Spectrum. The travel and weather were fine, Idaho couldn't make a free throw and the Titans' defense was playing its best in several games.

Still, it didn't add up to a win. For the first time all season, Fullerton squandered a halftime lead and Idaho rallied behind Dandick Jones and Tanoris Shepard for its 7th win in 11 games.

The Titans should have been ahead by more than 30 points at intermission. They held Idaho to 33 percent shooting in the first half, Idaho made only 3 of 8 free throws and the Titans had the edge in rebounds and turnovers and made 4 of 9 3-point field goal tries. After overcoming an early 8-2 deficit, they did build a lead as large as 10 points at 23-13 at the 5:57 mark.

The Titans again did not finish the half well. They were blanked in the final five minutes and Idaho scored twice in the final 35 seconds.

The second half saw 4 ties and 7 lead changes. The defining possession came between 4:36 and 3:33. After Bobby Brown's runner gave CSF a 52-51 lead, the Vandals got four chances to take the lead and they finally did so on a Jones jumper. Two offensive rebounds and a steal allowed Idaho to take the lead for good. Brown missed a shot and Shepard hit a trey at 3:04 and the Titans were forced to play catch up.

Because Idaho missed its last three free throws, the Titans had chances to tie but missed a pair of 3-pointers.

The Titans finally found the recipe to win a game without Hardy Asprilla. They took one part home game, an 8-game losing streak by visiting Cal Poly, a red-hot Yaphett King and tossed that around with the best field goal defensive effort to date.

All five starters tallied double figures and all five substitutes hit the scoring column as the Titans let up after building a lead as large as 36 points at 86-50 with 8:15 to play.

The first 10 minutes gave little hint of the rout to come. With Dawin Whiten scoring 12 points, Cal Poly had a 19-16 lead with 10:31 to play in the first half. But then the Titans started firing. Two 3-pointers by Jermaine Harper, one by Bobby Brown and a deuce by Ralph Holmes produced an 11-0 Titan run and a 27-19 lead. After Mike Titchenal made a 3-point play, the Titans went on a 15-4 surge for a 42-26 lead on the way to a 19-point halftime lead. King had hit 7 of 8 shots and had 19 points and the other four starters each had at least 7.

After Glenn Jones opened the second half with a trey for Cal Poly, the Titans scored the next eight points for a 24-point lead and the outcome was no longer in doubt. It had been a 46-19 run for Fullerton over less than a 14-minute span.

With the 3-game losing streak terminated by the easy victory over Cal Poly, the Titans focused on a more difficult assignment - beating UC Santa Barbara in Titan Gym.

Gauchos' Coach Bob Williams was 6-0 in the building and UCSB had won seven in a row. Particularly galling for Fullerton were the last four losses - by 3, 3, 2 and 3 points, the latter in double overtime.

A FOX Sports Net West 2 audience saw Fullerton put an end to that string of frustration despite a subpar offensive performance. Bobby Brown scored a career next-to-low of 3 points and the Titans shot only 36 percent from the floor. Yet they won by staying out of foul trouble and winning the battle of the boards and turnovers.

Alex Harris scored 12 first-half points to help UCSB overcome an early 10-point Titan lead and the Gauchos were ahead, 26-25, with 2:35 to go in the period. But a 3-pointer by Jermaine Harper and a bucket and free throw from Ralph Holmes sent Fullerton to the locker room ahead by 5.

The game swung five minutes into the second half. After UCSB drew to 40-38, the Titans went on a methodical 15-0 run for a 55-38 lead with 8:57 remaining. Holmes (6 points), Jamaal Brown (5) and Yaphett King (4) fueled the surge that was snapped by a Joe See 3-pointer. See would hit two more treys down the stretch but the Gauchos never got closer than the final 9 point margin.

The Titans actually won the game at the foul line of all places.

Winning without Hardy Asprilla had been proven doable in Titan Gym. Now the Titans had to find out if they could pull out a victory on the road. The schedule took them to UC Riverside, which was having its own problems adjusting to life without Vili Morton, who also was out for the season after a serious knee injury.

Fullerton had won only once in the Student Recreation Center, two years earlier, and the Titans used the same formula. They jumped out to a big, early lead. But unlike two years ago, when the Highlanders got within a basket and challenged until the end, this time the Titans pulled away and coasted to a 21-point victory.

A flurry of 3-pointers got the Titans off and running. Bobby Brown made his first two attempts and Jamaal Brown added one for a quick 9-2 advantage. Then Yaphett King took over. He scored the next 11 Titan points on his way to a 17-point half. UCR got as close as 4 points at 31-27 with 5:27 remaining but the Titans scored 12 of the final 19 points of the half for a 9-point lead at intermission.

Fullerton never let UCR mount a rally. A 14-0 run that turned a 50-40 lead into a 64-40 advantage with 10:43 to play was the decisive blow. When King hit a jumper with 7 minutes remaining it gave the Titans a 28-point lead at 72-44.

The Titans made their inaugural trip to UC Davis in a unique role - as a heavy favorite on the road. By virtue of their 28-point win at home over Davis and recent comparative scores - Fullerton by 21 over UCR, which beat Davis - this was a game the Titans were supposed to win.

But with Fullerton ice cold from the perimeter and Yaphett King picking up two quick fouls, Davis bolted to early leads of 9-2 and 24-14, the latter with 7:07 to go. But from that point on, it was all Titans. CSF used an 11-4 run to close out the half and get within 3 points despite finishing the period 0-for-9 from 3-point range.

While their defense kept them in the game in the first half, it was the Titans' offense that erupted in the second half. Bobby Brown hit Fullerton's first 3-pointer for a 30-30 tie and another one after a King layup for a 35-31 lead. Jermaine Harper got into the act for a 40-33 lead and the start of a 27-7 run capped by four free throws by Bobby Brown when Aggies' coach Gary Stewart received two technical fouls and was ejected at 8:21.

The win gave Fullerton its longest winning streak (4 games) in five years and consecutive victories on the road for the first time in more than eight years. It surpassed the previous season's total of 11 wins and allowed the Titans to fly home after a win for the third time this season.

The Bren Center historically had been one of the most successful road venues for Fullerton. But in the past four seasons the Anteaters had prevailed to even the log at 9-9. That streak and revenge for their only home loss to date motivated the Titans along with the presence of KVMD TV cameras, which would prove most critical.

The Titans jumped out to an early lead, using a 21-8 run over about 9 minutes to build a 23-14 advantage. UCI got within 6 points at the half but Fullerton opened the second period with a 14-6 surge for a 50-36 lead that eventually grew to 16 points at 56-40 with 11 minutes remaining.

But the Titans turned the ball over six times in a row and UCI got back in the game with an 11-0 run. A 3-pointer by Bobby Brown stopped the streak and Fullerton edged away again to a 65-55 lead with 5:18 left only to see UCI come back again.

Greg Ethington scored 6 unanswered points in another 11-0 run that left UCI ahead, 66-65, at 3:00. Jamaal Brown put CSF ahead, 67-66, and again at 69-68 with 25 seconds left. He converted a bonus situation for a 71-68 lead with about 6 seconds to go.

Enter KVMD. Officials originally awarded Ross Schraeder three free throws when he was fouled at the 3-point line. But Coach Bob Burton protested and got the crew to review the TV replay. On the third angle, it was determined that Schraeder's foot was on the line so he only got two.

The Titans had a chance to do what no other Div. I Cal State Fullerton men's basketball team had accomplished -- win four consecutive road games (with no home games to interrupt the streak). Alas, they were not quite up to the challenge.

Playing their third game of the week, the Titans seemed half a step slow on offense and a split second behind on their defensive assignments. A quick start -- a 14-2 lead -- may have lulled them into complacency and first-half foul trouble also contributed to the loss of momentum. The Titans made only one field goal in the final 11 minutes of the half and that allowed Long Beach State to stay close.

The 49ers used a 12-7 run to open the second half to forge a tie at 36-36. The Titans seemed to regain control with an 8-0 run but then they allowed Long Beach to score the next 10 points.

CSF's last lead came at 60-59 with 1:50 to go on a 4-point play by Jermaine Harper. The 49ers scored the next 7 points yet the Titans still had a chance in the final 20 seconds. A trey by Yaphett King was followed by a Vershan Cottrell steal. His shot was blocked and the Titans had to foul.

The 49ers missed their last three free throws and Fullerton was still alive. But Bobby Brown's 3-pointer rimmed out. King had a bonus situation with one second to go but missed the first and the Titans' 5-game win streak was over.

With six games remaining in the regular season, the Titans still needed two more victories to clinch their first winning season since 1992-93. Hosting a slumping Idaho team which struggled to beat the Titans in Moscow seemed like a good opportunity and it got better when student support arrived in force for the first home game of the season to be played with classes in session.

A boisterous crowd of 2,076 showed up making it the largest home gathering since March 6, 1993, when 4,128 saw a win over UNLV. They were not disappointed, although there were some nervous moments in the final few minutes.

With Ralph Holmes (13 points) and Yaphett King (11 points) leading the way, the Titans overcame an early Vandals' lead to open a 9-point advantage midway through the first half. When Idaho pulled even at 34-34, the Titans finished the half with a 10-1 run.

The lead grew to as many as 13 points as late as the 6-minute mark at 73-60. Dandrick Jones, who needed 20 shots to match his conference-leading scoring average of 16 points, hit a 3-pointer to cap a 7-0 run and it was 75-69 with 2:44 to play.

Bobby Brown took over, hitting an open Holmes for a layup on an inbounds play and then he dished to Jermaine Harper for a fast-break 3-pointer to boost the lead to 80-69 with less than 2 minutes to play. Fullerton

Western Athletic Conference-bound Utah State rolled in for its final Big West Conference road game. The Aggies had won their last five road games by an average of 27 points. Considering also that they had won seven in a row over Fullerton and 21 of the last 23 meetings, it was understandable that more than a dozen fans ran onto the court at the buzzer of Fullerton's 4-point victory which clinched a winning season.

The game tipped off at 2 p.m. to avoid a conflict with a home night baseball game against USC (which was rained out) and to allow Utah State one less night in a hotel. Only the Aggies found the early start to their liking as they shot 61 percent in the first half to 32 percent by the Titans, who fell behind by as many as 11 points.

The second half was another story. Yaphett King hit his first three shots and Ralph Holmes hit another and the result was an almost instant tie at 32-32. From there it was a classic dogfight with five more ties and six more lead changes with neither team ahead by more than 4 points.

The pivotal play came with 1:31 to go when Bobby Brown made a circus-like shot and a subsequent free throw for a 59-57 lead. Jaycee Carroll made only one of two free throws and King applied the dagger with a 3-pointer with 39 seconds left. Nate Harris scored on inbounds play but Brown hit another free throw and Spencer Nelson lost the ball before he could attempt a tying 3-pointer.

The final trip of the year offered the Titans one more milestone -- a winning conference road record, something never before accomplished by the program. They also had the added incentive of trying to sweep UC Santa Barbara for the first time since 1993-94 plus atoning for a 9-point first half in their last visit to the Thunderdome.

For awhile, those 9 points looked like a template. Five minutes into the game the Titans had a 3-2 lead. It wasn't until the 12-minute mark that they reached double digits on a Jamaal Brown layup. They led by as many as 6 points but settled for a 4-point half-time lead after the game's eighth tie at 25-25.

The Gauchos briefly took the lead in the second half but played catch up most of the way, forging the last tie at 47-47 with 11:21 to play. From that point they would make only one more field goal -- a Derek Rasp 3-pointer at 4:22 -- until the closing seconds, by which time Fullerton had a comfortable lead. An 11-0 CSF run that left the score 58-47 at the 7-minute mark was the critical blow.

The win clinched fourth place for the Titans and the resulting bye into the quarterfinals of the post-season Big West Tournament.

Coach Bob Burton was able to give his wife Toni a welcomed but cost-free birthday present and he evened his record against good friend Bob Williams at 2-2.

Cal Poly still had something to play for after keeping its post-season tournament hopes alive with a win over UC Riverside two nights earlier. And, it was Senior Night, so the Titans expected a stronger effort than the Mustangs mustered in a 23-point loss in Fullerton that wasn't that close back on Jan. 27.

For 30 minutes, that resistance did not materialize. The Titans jumped out to a 12-1 lead and then pulled away again after the Mustangs caught up at 15-15. The lead was as large as 17 points at 41-24 even though the Titans had four players pick up two first-half fouls.

The second half rolled along with Fullerton maintaining a double-digit advantage that got as large as 68-50 at 9:46 and was still 73-64 after a Jamaal Brown bucket at 4:06. But the Titans would not score in the next three minutes and the Mustangs went on a 12-0 run capped by two Davin Whiten free throws at 1:10 for a 76-73 lead.

As he had done vs. Colgate and at Cal State Northridge, Yaphett King took over. He backed his man in for a layup at 0:57 and then, after Glenn Jones missed a 3-point try, King converted a 3-point play with 9 seconds left. When Jones stepped on the sidelines to turn the ball over to the Titans, they had posted a winning road conference record and lifted their record away from Titan Gym to 8-7.

For his pair of double-doubles in the two road wins, Ralph Holmes was tabbed Big West Player of the Week.

The buildup began on Monday when Pacific moved up a notch in the national rankings to No. 17. The Thursday night visit by the Tigers would be the first appearance in Titan Gym by a nationally ranked team since No. 4 Utah arrived on Nov. 30, 1996.

The Tigers were trying to complete an unbeaten conference season and continue a 19-game winning streak, second longest in the nation. Fullerton still had visions of a No. 2 seeding and a bye into the semifinals of the post-season tournament so the interest was high. The "Vegas" seats, the northern balcony bleachers, were rolled out and a crowd of 3,576 almost filled them.

The game lived up to the hype.

The crowd was roaring as Fullerton jumped out to a 13-2 lead. There was oohing and ahhh as Mike Webb came off the bench to hit three consecutive 3-pointers as the Tigers fought back and led by as many as 6, only for Fullerton to catch up at the half.

There were 10 more ties in the second half. Fullerton took the biggest lead at 84-79 at 3:11 after a 9-0 run but Pacific countered with its own 9-0 run to lead, 88-84, at 1:14. Tyler Newton's putback to make it 90-86 at 0:13 seemed the clincher but wait. Justin Burns scored and the Tigers fumbled the inbounds pass out of bounds.

That gave Bobby Brown an uncontested NBA 3-pointer for the lead but it bounced off the rim with less than 2 seconds remaining and UoP had survived. Close but no cigar for CSF.

The regular season finale was anything but anticlimactic. The No. 3 seed in the post-season tournament was up for grabs and the Titans had another chance for win No. 18, which would be the most since the 1982-83 season. They also had a chance for the best home record since that season and it was the final Titan Gym appearance for Ralph Holmes and Yaphett King.

There appeared to be no letdown from Thursday's close call. Again the Titans jumped out to a 13-2 lead and Cal State Northridge, playing its third game of the week, could not respond as Pacific had. Only a 6-0 run by the Matadors to close out the half gave a hint of what was to come.

After CSUN caught up at 46-46, the Titans pulled away again and appeared in control when Jermaine Harper was fouled at 4:54 with an 11-point lead. But a technical foul was called on Bobby Brown for hanging on the rim and the momentum suddenly changed.

The Matadors got 7 quick points from Ian Boylan to get close and Northridge got even at 70-70 when Davin White made a 3-pointer with 26 seconds remaining.

Holmes already had the Titans' first triple-double ever on the night (14 points, 13 boards and 10 assists), so he was the logical guy to take the last shot. His fallaway jumper from the right side skipped long but there was Jamaal Brown to tip it in at the buzzer.

The No. 3-seeded Titans opened the Big West Conference Tournament looking for their first win since the 1998 event in Reno, when they beat Boise State before losing in the second round to Utah State. The Titans had a 5-game tourney losing streak and had won only the one game in their last 13 tries. The fact that they were the lower-seeded team in 11 of those tilts speaks volumes.

They drew No. 7-seeded UC Santa Barbara, which came in 11-17 in an injury plagued season. The Titans and Gauchos had never met in the tourney, so it was the first time the Titans could seek a 3-game season sweep.

After a tentative start as Derek Rasp hit a couple of 3-pointers and Josh Davis hit another for UCSB, the Titans pulled away late in the first half, moving from a 15-11 deficit at 10:52 to an 11-point halftime lead. Fullerton outscored UCSB 11-4 in the final 4 minutes capped by a spinning Ralph Holmes bank shot to beat the buzzer on an inbounds play triggered with 2.4 seconds remaining. Joe See, who had scored 19 points in UCSB's first-round, come-from-behind win over Long Beach State, was held scoreless from the floor.

The Titans never could quite put the Gauchos away after intermission, but they never let them get closer than 6 points, either. The lead remained in double figures in the final 7 minutes although Fullerton failed to execute well once it went to a run-down-the-shot-clock mode. The 19th victory gave Fullerton its third best Div. I total.

The semifinals found the Titans facing No. 2-seeded Utah State, with whom they split the season series but a team that held a 3-1 advantage over them in Big West tourney play, a 4-0 edge on the Convention Center floor and a 21-3 edge in the last 24 head-to-head meetings.

Offensively, the Titans got off to a great start. With Jamaal Brown and Yaphett King scoring putbacks and Bobby Brown hitting two 3-pointers, the Titans jumped out to a 15-7 lead in less than 5 minutes. But defensively they were in trouble when Jamaal picked up his second foul at 16:27 and had to sit out the rest of the half.

Brazilian Cass Matheus, normally a reserve, started at center and kept the Aggies close, hitting his first five shots plus a couple of free throws. Still, the Titans opened up a 10-point lead at 27-17 on the first of what would be a career-high seven 3-point-field goals by Jermaine Harper.

But Utah State scored the next 8 points and soon caught up at 29-29 on two Spencer Nelson free throws at 5:29. Matheus added two charities to close out first-half scoring at the 2:14 mark and put Utah State up by one.

Utah State broke from a tie at 36 with a 19-8 run for the biggest lead of the game at 55-44 with 12:39 to go.

Fullerton stayed within striking range and twice got within 2 points down the stretch. A Nate Harris tip-in at 0:53 for a 77-73 lead was the key play as the Aggies got key offensive rebounds and free throws to hold on.

The final shot was right out of a Disney movie script. Score tied, clock running out, senior hero takes fallaway jump shot with defender in his face. Close up on ball bouncing on the rim -- once... twice... a third time... before gently falling into the net as the red light signals game over.

It was no Fullerton fantasy, only an Oregon State nightmare. Ralph Holmes' shot in the 45th minute gave the Titans their first post-season win since the 1978 NCAA Tournament. It was only their third win over a Pac-10 opponent in 22 tries and gave them 20 wins for only the third time in the program's Div. I history.

After a 51-35 Fullerton first half, last-second heroics seemed unlikely. But the thin Titans -- sliced even further when John Clemmons broke a bone in his right foot the night before -- were forced to play more than 40 minutes each. So when the Beavers made their second-half rush, it was a tired opponent they had on the ropes.

Oregon State gained a 2-point lead in the final minute of regulation but Bobby Brown tied it with two free throws at 0:49. OSU led by three and was at the foul line at 1:51 of overtime. But David Lucas missed the one-and-one and Holmes tied it with the first Titan trey since the first half. Lucas missed, Jamaal Brown tipped in a Yaphett King miss and Lamar Hurd tipped in a missed 3-pointer by Nick DeWitz at 0:18 to set the stage for Holmes, who took over the Big West scoring lead with his 26th and 27th points of the night.

When the final horn sounded on the Titans' second win in the NIT, the celebration was muted compared to the outburst two nights earlier in Corvallis. For one, it was a 16-point victory and not a buzzer beater. But more pertinent was the knowledge that the victory had come at a high price as Ralph Holmes, who kept the Titans in the game in the first half with almost a double-double of 16 points and 9 rebounds, had injured his left knee so badly he would not be available for the next game at Georgetown.

Besides Holmes, the Titans got only 6 points each from Yaphett King and Bobby Brown before intermission. But the Titans were down by only 2 points because they had held USF's top guns John Cox and Tyrone Riley to 6 and 2 points, respectively.

Jamaal Brown led the second-half explosion as the Titans would match their most productive half of the season with 57 points. King's steal and subsequent free throws and layups by Jamaal and Bobby Brown gave Fullerton 6 points in 80 seconds and a 34-30 lead they would not relinquish. Jamaal scored all 18 of his points as the Titans turned a halftime 27-19 rebound deficit into a 44-39 edge by game's end. The lead got as large as 22 points with 1:19 to play.

The Titans set season highs on free throws made and attempted as they logged a 21st victory for the third time in school history.

Advancing two rounds into the post-season NIT was easier for the Titans than getting to Georgetown for the third contest. Fullerton arrived in Orange County about noon on Saturday after its win at USF and found Spring Break travelers fouling the airline schedules. The first flight considered was at 6 a.m. on Sunday morning out of Los Angeles with a six-hour layover in Oakland. More searching produced a two-pronged plan: half the team would fly out of LAX on Monday morning and the other half would leave around noon, both via Phoenix to Baltimore for a 45-minute bus ride to Washington, D.C. Of course, that eliminated a Monday practice.

With an overflow crowd in tiny McDonough Gym and a national ESPN TV audience, the Titans appeared fresh at the outset of their first meeting with the Hoyas. After 9 minutes the Titans were ahead, 18-15.

However, the Hoyas went on a 12-0 run over the next 5 minutes capped by a thunderous fast-break dunk by Brandon Bowman and Georgetown was ahead, 27-18, with 6:24 left in the half. When Jonathan Wallace hit a 3-pointer to beat the buzzer, the Hoyas had a double-digit lead -- for good.

The Hoyas blocked 11 Titan shots and held them to a season-low .288 shooting percentage and .231 from 3-point range. The 57-point output matched the Fullerton season low.

Cal State Fullerton's Titan Gymnasium has served as the home court advantage for the Titans' men's basketball team since the 1964-65 season. Historically one of the most difficult places to play because of the proximity of the bleachers to the playing floor, Titan Gym has been upgraded over the past few years to make it more fan friendly while still intimate.

Chairback seats have replaced most of the bleachers, portable basket supports have replaced the fold-down backboards, new paint and banners have been applied to the walls and the floor has been redesigned and resurfaced.

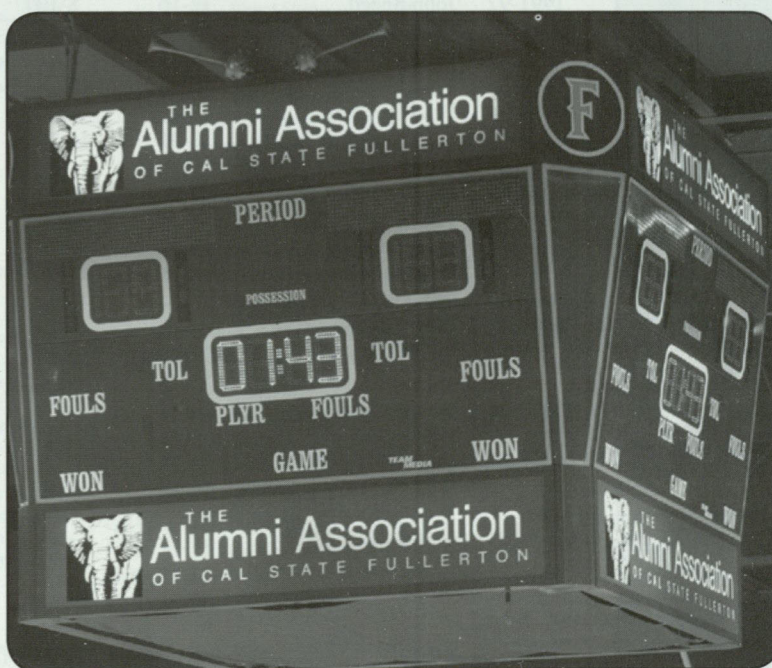

For 2003-04, the court gained a new look as a "drop-down" scoreboard was installed along with new auxiliary scoreboards behind each basket. Last year's addition was balcony seating on the south side. Seating capacity has moved up to around 4,000 and there is a much needed practice floor behind them.

Construction restricted seating on the south side the past few years but now the gymnasium is part of an expanded physical education/kinesiology complex, featuring numerous classrooms and physical testing laboratories. The facility also houses practice rooms for the Titan wrestling, gymnastics and fencing programs.

The record crowd for Titan Gym is 5,015 on Feb. 24, 1983, when the Titans beat unbeaten and No. 1-ranked UNLV with extra chairs behind the baskets and standing room everywhere.

The gym was featured in the recent feature film "Evolution" and was the site of team handball competition in the 1984 Olympic Games.

DIV. I TITANS' HOME-COURT RECORD

The longest home-court winning streak in Titan Gym is 26 games, stretching from Jan. 23, 1982, through Jan. 21, 1984. A streak of 12 in a row was snapped Feb. 10, 1993, by Houston.

The most recent streak of length was an 8-gamer -- the last three contests of the 1996-97 schedule and the first five of the 1997-98 slate. It was ended by Idaho on Jan. 15.

The Titans entered the 1999-2000 season with a streak of 14 consecutive non-conference home victories, lost to USD, but then won the next four to make it 18 out of the last 19.

Cal State Fullerton has been well represented at the professional level despite the relative youth of the intercollegiate basketball program. Eight Titans have been drafted in the past two decades and several more players have signed as free agents with the National Basketball Association.

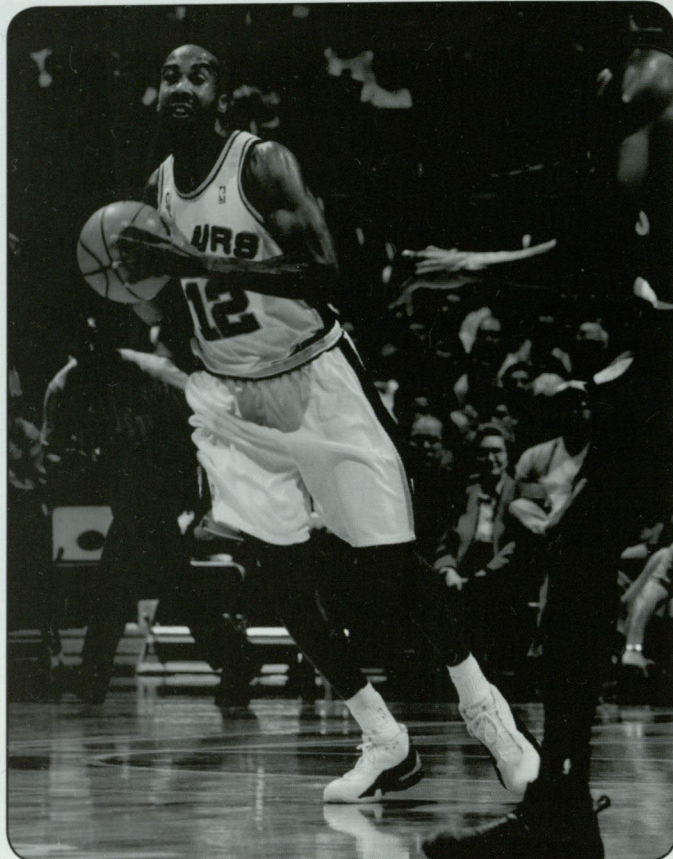

Cedric Ceballos starred for the L.A. Lakers agent by Cleveland in 1995, he spent a couple of years in Europe, (Evreux, France, where he averaged 29 points per game) played in the CBA and has been waived and resigned numerous times by several teams while crossing paths with numerous legendary coaches. He first captured the attention of Pat Riley with the Miami Heat in 1996-97, where he played in only one game before moving on to Boston. There he appeared in 91 games during the 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons for Rick Pitino, serving primarily as a defensive specialist and playing less than 10 minutes per game. He was well traveled during the 1999-2000 season -- signed by Philadelphia, traded to Chicago, waived two days later and signed by Miami again where he was reunited with Riley. He became a starter during the 2000-01 season and averaged 7.2 points in 82 games before signing a free-agent contract for 2001-02 with the San Antonio Spurs. That year he started every game (59) except for the seven weeks he missed with a broken finger on his right hand. Not coincidentally, the Spurs went only 11-12 in his absence.

"You really don't know how good Bruce is until he isn't around," said captain David Robinson.

Pape Sow is the newest former Titan to be taking home an NBA paycheck. Drafted in June of 2004 by Miami in the second round, he was traded the same day to Toronto and made the Raptors' opening roster for the 2004-05 season. He played in 27 games and earned a 2-year contract through the 2006-07 season.

The most prominent former Titan is late bloomer Bruce Bowen, whose professional career has been a model for perseverance and determination. Signed originally as a free

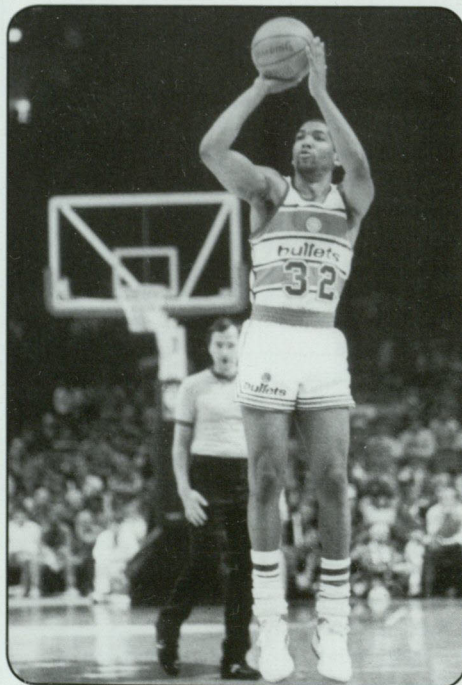

Bruce Bowen has earned two NBA Championship rings with the Spurs.

The Spurs got knocked out of the playoffs by the Los Angeles Lakers but then returned the favor a year later with Bowen leading the Spurs' charge to the NBA title. He ended up leading the league in 3-point field goal percentage while usually guarding the opponent's top perimeter threat -- the Kobe Bryants of the world.

Last year he earned another championship ring and his fifth berth on the NBA All-Defensive team.

Prior to Bowen's emergence, the most recognizable former Titan was Cedric Ceballos, who became one of the league's top scorers for the Los Angeles Lakers and made the NBA All-Star team in 1994-95, but was unable to play due to an injury. He began his career in Phoenix, returned to the Suns and then also played for the Mavericks, the Pistons and the Heat before getting cut by Denver and retiring. Last year he was coaching in the WNBA and he recently signed to play again with the ABA.

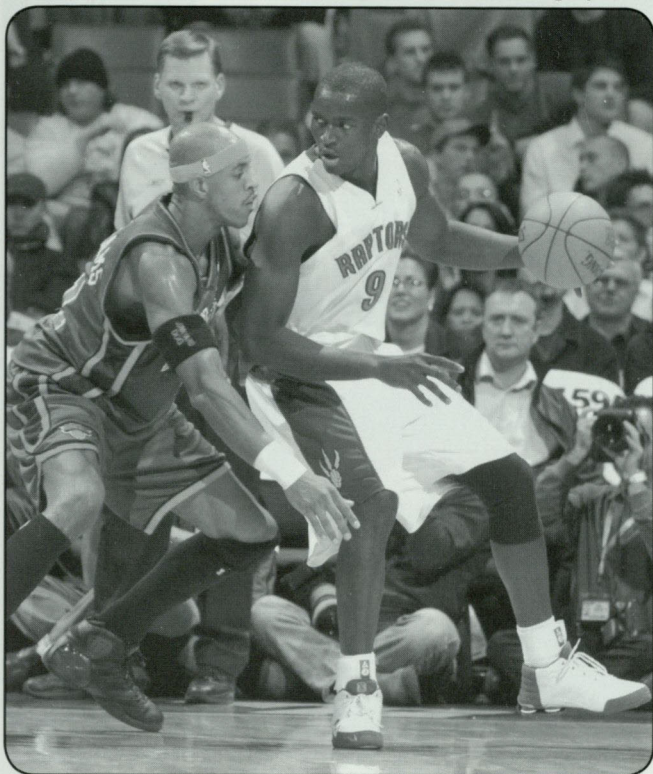

During his first four years with the Suns, he was known primarily for two things: winning the NBA slam-dunk contest in 1992 with his blind-folded "hocus pocus" act and scoring a phenomenal number of points when Charles Barkley was injured. Ceballos' absence due to another injury may have swung the tide toward Chicago in the 1994 playoffs.

Guard Leon Wood with Baltimore.

Bowen and Ceballos played together as Titans during the 1989-90 season, when Cedric was a senior and Bruce was a freshman.

Success has seemed to come in pairs for Fullerton players in Pape Sow made his professional debut on Nov. 14, 2004, becoming the tenth former Titan to play in the National Basketball Association.

the pros. The Titans hit it big in 1984 when two players made NBA rosters -- guard Leon Wood with Philadelphia and center Ozell Jones with San Antonio. Wood completed a 6-year NBA career with Sacramento on Christmas Eve, 1990. He played last in the CBA and in France and toured with Magic Johnson's All-Stars. He has spent the last seven seasons as an NBA referee, only the second former NBA player to make that transition. Wood began his post-Titan career as the point guard on the United States' gold-medal 1984 Olympic team under Coach Bob Knight.

Other former Titans in and out of the NBA and CBA during recent years were 1988 graduates Richard Morton and Henry Turner. Morton started the 1988-89 season with Indiana. Turner, who was a teammate of Morton's in the CBA, spent much of the 1989-90 season with Sacramento. Morton was one of the top scorers in the CBA in recent seasons and has made the league's all-star team.

Guard Aaron Sunderland, a 1993 product, did well in the CBA and 1994-95 products Winston Peterson and David Frigout have played in Europe. J. D. Green (1990-92) became a star in Australia and former center Dirk Rassloff was summoned four summers ago to join a team in Milan, Italy. Ralph Holmes is trying out in Spain.

Other Titans to play in the NBA include guard Kevin Henderson, who played with Golden State and Cleveland; forward Mike Niles with Phoenix; and forward Greg Bunch with the New York Knicks. Foreign leagues have featured center Herman (Demone) Webster, forward Kerry Boagni and sharpshooter Kevin Heenan to name a few. Other players drafted in the 1980s were Ricky Mixon (Lakers), Tony Neal (Lakers) and Boagni (Utah Jazz).

Sean Williams gained fame first as an actor ("Blue Chips") and later as a member of the Harlem Globetrotters, for whom he entered the Guinness Book of World Records by dunking on a basket 11 feet, 8 inches tall.

Record Crowd

Probably the most memorable game in the history of Titan Gym came on Feb. 24, 1983, when Fullerton defeated unbeaten and No. 1-ranked UNLV, 86-78, before a record overflow crowd of 5,015 (capacity 4,200) that stormed the floor at the buzzer. Leon Wood, Ricky Mixon and Tony Neal led the way over Jerry Tarkanian's Runnin' Rebels featuring Sidney Green and Larry Anderson.

Titans Back on Radio

After a one-year hiatus, Cal State Fullerton men's basketball returns to the AM radio waves with a 9-game schedule of road contests to be aired on KSPA 1510 AM.

Justin Alderson, who did a majority of the play-by-play on the internet last year of Titans' men's and women's basketball and baseball, produces the package and again will be at the microphone along with Todd Reeves for selected games.

KSPA is based in Anaheim and also carries USC football and Angels baseball.

The broadcast schedule:

Dec. 21 ... at San Jose State

Jan. 7 at Cal State Northridge

Jan. 9 at Pacific

Jan. 14 at UC Riverside

Jan. 25 at UC Irvine

Jan. 28 at UC Davis

Feb. 15.... at Long Beach State

Feb. 23.... at UC Santa Barbara

Feb. 25.... at Cal Poly

Big West Conference Television Schedule

Twenty-two games, including six from the post-season tournament at the Anaheim Convention Center, will be featured in the 2006 Big West Conference basketball television package, which tips off in early January. Included are eight Saturday games on Fox Sports Net West 2 and one regular season contest on both College Sports Television (CSTV) and ESPN2 -- both involving Fullerton and Pacific. It also will showcase seven regular season mid-week games on over-the-air station KVMD in the Southern California market.

"With our television partners, we have fashioned a comprehensive schedule that will showcase the best of Big West men's and women's basketball this coming season," said Big West Conference Commissioner Dennis Farrell. "The games that are a part of this package not only represent a good cross-section of the conference, but also reflect what promises to be some extremely interesting match-ups."

A new element being utilized for the first time this season is a flexible schedule the final week of the season that will allow the conference and its partners to select the most compelling contests only a few weeks in advance.

"It's nearly impossible six months out to predict what games late in the season will be the best to showcase on television," added Farrell. "Working with both KVMD and FSN West we have been able to identify a pool of games from which we can select the one to be televised on the final Thursday and Saturday of the regular season. This selection will be made as late in the season as possible, perhaps only two weeks in advance."

Lyle Parks, Jr., Titan Hustle Award

The Titan Hustle Award was established during the 1989-1990 season by a group of Cal State Fullerton basketball boosters then known as the Playmakers. The trophy traditionally has been presented to the Titan, who, in the opinion of the boosters, has displayed the greatest amount of "hustle" on offense, defense and during practices.

In 2002, the Titan Hoop Club board of directors unanimously voted to rename the trophy the Lyle Parks, Jr., Titan Hustle Award, in honor of the long-time president of the Executive Playmakers, whose perseverance kept the basketball booster group going throughout the mid-to-late 1990's. The Executive Playmakers were responsible for successfully raising funds that were used for physical improvements to the basketball locker room and the coaches' offices.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

DR. MILTON A. GORDON

University President

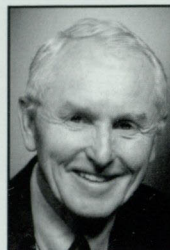

Dr. Milton A. Gordon was selected the fourth president of Cal State Fullerton by The California State University Board of Trustees and assumed his duties on Aug. 9, 1990.

His university leadership includes serving as vice president for academic affairs at Sonoma State University for four years, as dean of the College of the Arts and Sciences for Chicago State University for more than eight years and as director of the Afro-American Studies Program at Loyola University of Chicago for six years.

President Gordon also taught at the Illinois Institute of Technology and in the Chicago public schools and served as mathematician at the University of Chicago's Laboratories of Applied Sciences.

He is the vice chairman of the NCAA Presidents Commission and has been appointed to the committee to name a successor to outgoing NCAA President Cedric Dempsey. He also is the California state representative to the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and serves on the governing boards of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, California Coalition for Mathematics, Orange County Chamber of Commerce, Orange County Community Foundation, United Way of Orange County, YMCA of Orange County and Fullerton Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is on the advisory boards of St. Jude Medical Center and The California State University's Institute for Teaching and Learning.

The President has a Ph.D. in mathematics from the Illinois Institute of Technology, an M.A. in mathematics from the University of Detroit and a B.A. in mathematics and secondary education from Xavier University of Louisiana.

BRIAN QUINN

Athletics Director

Brian Quinn assumed the post of Director of Athletics at Cal State Fullerton on January 14, 2002.

Under Quinn's leadership, the Titans are successfully weathering a state and systemwide fiscal crisis with minimal impact on student-athletes.

Academic performances have improved dramatically and Titan Gym has undergone a dramatic makeover. Over the course of the last three years, the Titans have outperformed the rest of the Big West Conference in the NACDA Cup Standings, topped by consecutive appearances by the baseball team at the College World Series, where the Titans placed third for the fourth time in 2003 and then won their fourth national title in 2004.

Quinn, 64, was the athletic director at Loyola Marymount University from 1985 through 1998. He then dedicated his time towards completing the Burns Recreation Center and Aquatics Center at LMU. He also directed the athletic fundraising efforts as executive director of athletic development.

During his years as director of athletics at LMU the Lions won nine West Coast Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA men's basketball tournament three times and once to the NIT. The basketball team advanced to the Final Eight and led the nation in scoring. The baseball team advanced to the College World Series where it defeated the No. 1 seed, LSU. Women's volleyball won numerous conference championships as well and the women's crew team won the national championship.

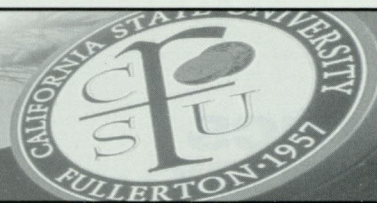

Quinn graduated from Loyola (1963) with a degree in business administration and received his masters degree from Long Beach State. He was a long-time coach and athletic administrator at the high school level in the Irvine Unified School District and taught volleyball classes for Irvine Valley College for six years.

He was the chair of the athletic directors for many years in the West Coast Conference and was the chair of the NCAA men's volleyball committee, as well as serving on the board of directors for USA volleyball. He recently began a four-year term on the NCAA Division I baseball committee.

Quinn was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame both at his high school (Serra HS) and university (LMU). He was the captain of the basketball team and MVP and three-year starter on the baseball team. The basketball team was the WCC champion and defeated USC in the NCAA tournament. He also was a member of the Balboa Bay Club national champion volleyball team. He continues to be an avid beach volleyball player.

Quinn and his wife of 42 years, Collette, live in Manhattan Beach. They have four adult children: Andrew, a teacher in Atlanta; Janet, who lives in Rye, NY; Suzanne, a teacher in Inglewood; and Maureen, who recently married. The Quinns have six grandchildren, Brendan, Ryan, Owen Kiernan, Dylan, Colin Brian, and Mary Frances. Quinn is a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

University Vice President for Student Affairs

Dr. Robert L. Palmer joined the Administrative Team at California State University, Fullerton in 1997. As the university's chief student affairs officer, he provides leadership for a complex set of student services and student development units. These units include the Dean of Students/Student Life, Academic Support Services, University Learning Center, Career Center, Disabled Student Services, Financial Aid, Housing and Residence Life, International Education and Exchange, Women's Center and Adult Re-entry, the Student Health and Counseling Center, School-Based Assistant Deans, and Federal TRIO programs. He is also responsible for Intercollegiate Athletics.

Dr. Palmer came to his current position from the State University of New York (SUNY) at Buffalo. During his 20-year tenure at SUNY he held various administrative positions including Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost, and Vice President for Student Affairs.

Dr. Palmer earned a bachelor's degree in Education and Masters of Science degree in College Personnel Administration from Indiana University. He also holds a Ph.D. in Higher Education from the State University of New York at Buffalo.

DR. ALLISON RICH

*Sr. Associate Athletics Director/
Senior Woman's Administrator*

Dr. Allison Rich began her duties as Senior Associate Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator at Cal State Fullerton on Jan. 3, 2005.

Dr. Rich most recently was associate director of athletics at University of the Pacific in Stockton, California, where she was in charge of virtually all internal affairs.

The Fullerton position had been vacant since Dr. June Kearney retired from an interim assignment on July 23, 2004. Dr. Maryalce Jeremiah resigned the position on Apr. 29, 2003, to return as head women's basketball coach.

Dr. Rich had been at Pacific since April of 1998. She previously was a membership services representative for the NCAA for two years. She obtained her bachelors degree from Princeton in 1991. She earned a law degree from Chicago-Illinois College of Law in 1995 and her doctorate in educational administration from Pacific in 2002.

DR. STEPHAN WALK

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Stephan Walk was appointed Faculty Athletics Representative in 2004, succeeding Dr. Lee Gilbert, who served in the role for 12 years. An associate professor in the kinesiology department, Dr. Walk joined the faculty at Cal State Fullerton in 1994 after graduating from Michigan State with a dual doctoral degree in Kinesiology and Sociology.

Dr. Walk is a sport sociologist whose research focuses on risk-taking, pain, and injury among athletes. He is the author of three publications in the past year, including two contributions to the Berkshire Encyclopedia of World Sport.

In 2004, he was elected President of the North America

Society for the Sociology of Sport. He has also served as Chair of the University Curriculum Committee, the Athletics Advisory Council, and a number of athletics search committees.

Steve's responsibilities are to function as the representative of Cal State Fullerton and its faculty in its relationship with the NCAA and the Big West Conference, with particular attention to academic integrity, governance and rules compliance, and student-athlete welfare.

STEVE DITOLLA

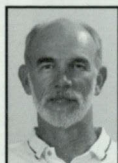

Associate Athletics Director/Marketing

Steve DiTolla is in the fifth year of his second tenure in the Titans' athletic department. Overall, he has been a Titan for about 12 years.

The 1979 graduate of the University of Arizona and former Wildcats baseball player began his professional career as assistant ticket manager with the Denver Nuggets of the NBA. He then spent five years as athletics accountant and director of promotions and marketing at the University of Colorado.

DiTolla first served the CSF campus from 1985 to 1992 as associate athletics director/business affairs. He also had a short term as interim athletics director. He left intercollegiate athletics to become vice president of Jammin sports apparel in Anaheim for eight years.

The Denver native and his wife, Gail, live in Placentia. He has two sons — Justin and Brandon, the latter a baseball player at Loyola Marymount.

MEL FRANKS

*Associate Athletics Director/
Media Relations Director*

Mel Franks has completed a quarter of a century in the Titans' athletic department directing the media relations effort. He is second in seniority among California Div. I sports information directors (San Jose State's Lawrence Fan preceded him by a few months).

The 1970 graduate of Arizona State began his professional career as a sportswriter for the defunct Daily News Tribune in Fullerton. He then spent six years in the public relations department of the California Angels and served as the official scorer in Anaheim for the 1980 season.

The Chicago native and his wife, Nancy, live in Norco. They have two adult children — Jason and Traci — and a young grandson, Owen. Springer spaniels Norm and Woody (yes, Cheers' influence) are the resident "children."

ROBERT SCIALDONE

Assistant Athletics Director/Business Affairs

Rob Scialdone is in his fifth year as the chief financial officer for Titan athletics. He is in charge of accounting for all of the income and expenses as they are processed through Associated Students, the California State Fullerton Philanthropic Foundation, and the State of California.

Scialdone attended Claremont McKenna College until 1995 and graduated in 1996 with a B.A. in Economics from Cal

State Fullerton. Scialdone returned to Claremont and received a master's degree in finance in 2000 from Claremont Graduate University. Prior to coming to Fullerton he worked as a corporate strategy and financial advisor to start-up companies and as a senior financial analyst for a mortgage REIT.

He and his wife, Krista, and infant son, Sawyer, live in Brea.

JULIE BOWSE

Assistant Athletics Director/Compliance

Julie Bowse is in her first year as full-time compliance officer for the Titans after stepping away from a seven-year stint as head women's gymnastics coach and 15 years with the gymnastics program.

As Julie Knight, she competed for the inaugural Titan gymnastics team in 1976 and won three All-American awards on vault, floor exercise and all-around.

Her coaching career began at SCATS in Huntington Beach and continued with a tour at the Clovis Academy of Gymnastics and Dance in her native Central California. She returned to her college roots in 1994 as an assistant to Coach Lynn Rogers, eventually serving as associate head coach in 1999 when she was selected Big West Conference coach of the year.

Knight has chaired three national organizations and served on the committee for the 2003 World Championships held in Anaheim. She has brevet status as an international gymnastics judge. She and her husband, Scott, live in Fullerton.

AARON TAPPER

Assistant Athletics Director/Facilities

University of the Pacific product Aaron Tapper has been appointed assistant athletics director for facilities at Cal State Fullerton.

Tapper served in a similar capacity for the past year at Pacific, where he had assisted with facilities and operations for the previous two years. He graduated from UoP in December, 2002, with a degree in sports pedagogy.

Two special events boosted Tapper's career development. He was assistant director of the San Francisco 49ers Summer Training Camp in Stockton in 2002 and he assisted in the media operations of the NCAA men's basketball tournament in Arco Arena in nearby Sacramento the same year. He also served an internship in athletics marketing and promotions.

PAMELA JONES-TINTLE

Director of Development, Athletics

Pamela Jones-Tintle is in her third year as the director of development for athletics. She is in charge of fundraising and volunteer programs for all 17 intercollegiate sports.

Jones-Tintle obtained her bachelors degree in political science from Loyola Marymount in 1992 and earned a masters in education from the University of Redlands in 1997. She also has certificates in fundraising and non-profit management from UC Irvine.

Jones-Tintle has been working in higher education fundraising for the past 11 years including her alma mater and Redlands. Her most recent position was at Santa Clara, where she served as the director of annual and special gifts.

Pamela and her husband, Jeff, live in Pomona.

The "Titan House," formerly known as the Hettebrink House, was built in 1886 and is reportedly the oldest brick home and third oldest overall in the city of Fullerton. Currently serving as the home of the administrative offices for the Cal State Fullerton department of athletics, the house was built by Henry T. Hettebrink for his family and underwent major renovations and earthquake retrofitting in the late 1990s.

WELCOME TO CAMPUS

Cal State Fullerton is a major regional university in a vital, flourishing area that includes Orange County, metropolitan Los Angeles and the expanding Inland Empire. The beautiful, 236-acre campus is set in a quiet urban community in north Orange County, about 25 miles from downtown Los Angeles and about 21 miles from nearby beaches.

The university offers an affordable, high quality education with an exceptional learning environment. Students flourish in close mentoring relationships with outstanding professors and have numerous opportunities for undergraduate research, professional internships, and prestigious competitions. Students experience the dynamic environment of a metropolitan university, but can enjoy a comfortable atmosphere that feels like a small college campus. It's a place where they can easily find networks of friends, interact with faculty on a personal level, and find the support and encouragement they need to be successful.

With full accreditation for its overall program, many of Cal State Fullerton's academic programs have achieved national prominence because of a distinguished faculty and the achievements of alumni. Students can choose from 105 degree programs, including 50 at the graduate level, offered by eight colleges: the Arts, Business and Economics, Communications, Education, Engineering and Computer Science, Health and Human Development, Humanities and Social Sciences, and Natural Sciences and Mathematics. Credential and certificate programs also are offered.

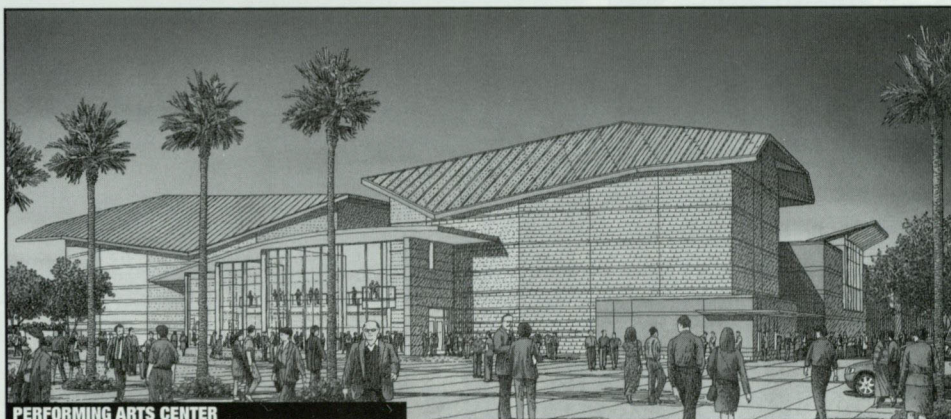

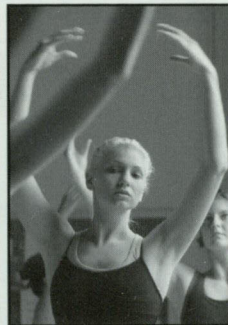

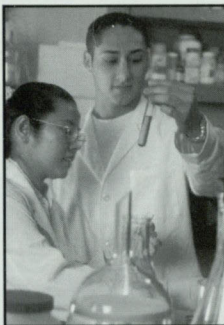

A vibrant university community, which includes more than 33,000 students and nearly 2,000 full- and part-time faculty members, reflects the rich multicultural diversity of Southern California. In fact, Cal State Fullerton is ranked sixth in the nation in terms of bachelor's degrees awarded to minority students, and more than half of the students are people of color.

The main campus consists of 21 permanent buildings, plus a picturesque 26-acre Arboretum and student residence halls. In January 2006, a new Performing Arts Center will open. The $48 million complex will provide state-of-the-art facilities for audiences and performers alike, as well as instructional facilities for students. Opening of the $87.5 million Steven G. Mihaylo Hall, new home to the College of Business and Economics, is anticipated in fall 2008. Construction is currently underway on a new parking structure, which is scheduled for completion before the fall 2006 semester.

The university's El Toro Campus offers upper-division and graduate-level courses and provides a convenient location for students who live and work in south Orange County. Other campus satellites include the Grand Central Art Center in Santa Ana, CSUF Garden Grove Center and facilities at the Irvine Spectrum.

An extended education program, which includes open enrollment, expands the university's resources to the surrounding communities. These include academic credit courses, certificate programs for professional development, English classes for non-native speakers of English, a learning-in-retirement program, classes for children and teens, summer camps, international programs and distance education classes.

One of 23 campuses in the California State University System, Cal State Fullerton has shaped a vital role in the growth and prosperity of Southern California. In less than 50 years, the university has awarded degrees to more than 153,000 graduates. Many are leaders in business, government, education and the arts. In addition, the university has an enormous economic impact on the Los Angeles region. As noted in the CSU 2004 study "Working for California: The Impact of the California State University," Cal State Fullerton generates $851 million in economic activity annually, which sustains more than 12,500 jobs in the region and generates more than $45 million per year in state tax revenue.

NATIONAL RANKINGS & HIGHLIGHTS

» U.S. News & World Report lists Cal State Fullerton among its "Top Public Universities," ranking it among the top 10 of the nation's Top Public Universities-Master's institutions in the West.

» According to Black Issues in Higher Education, Cal State Fullerton is sixth in the nation for the overall number of bachelor's degrees awarded to minority students and is the highest ranked among the California State University campuses in this category (June 2005). In addition to the overall standing, the university was recognized as fifth in the nation and first in California for awarding undergraduate degrees in all categories to Hispanics, and 11th for undergraduate degrees awarded to Asian-Americans. The data supplied by the U.S. Department of Education reflects degrees awarded during the 2003-04 academic year.

» Hispanic Outlook in Higher Education (May 2005) ranks Cal State Fullerton fifth in a listing of the top 100 colleges and universities conferring bachelor's degrees on Hispanics. CSUF is the top California institution of higher education in this category.

» The Performing Arts Major's College Guide lists Cal State Fullerton among its "Most Highly Recommended Undergraduate Programs" for drama and musical theater, and among "Noteworthy Programs" for dance.

» The Templeton Guide: Colleges That Encourage Character Development: A Resource for Parents, Students and Educators lists CSUF's Student Leadership Institute among the guide's "Exemplary Programs" in the student leadership category.

ATHLETIC TRADITIONS

Titan Athletics... A Proud History

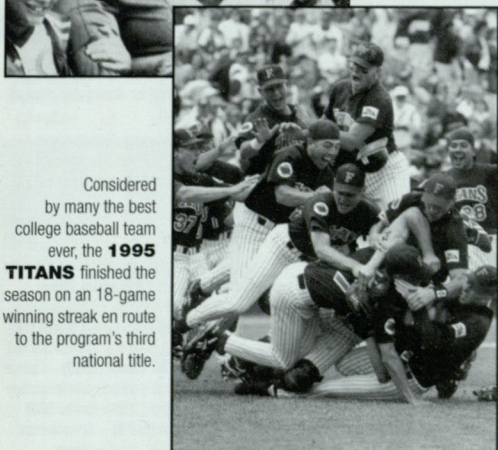

HEAD COACH LYNN ROGERS led the 1979 women's gymnastics squad to the AIAW national title just four years after launching the program.

LEON WOOD, who later played in the NBA for six years, led the celebration after the Titans upset No. 1 UNLV in Titan Gym in 1983.

HEAD COACH JUDI GARMAN, who eventually retired as the winningest collegiate softball coach, led the Titans to the NCAA title in 1986.

Considered by many the best college baseball team ever, the 1995 TITANS finished the season on an 18-game winning streak en route to the program's third national title.

Behind the stellar pitching of College World Series Most Outstanding Player Jason Windsor, the 2004 Cal State Fullerton baseball team clinched it's fourth NCAA title and became the first team to win the national title in each of the last four decades.

From modest beginnings and never with abundant resources, the Cal State Fullerton Titans have achieved successes that are the envy of many older and larger institutions across the country. "Titan Pride" has been the rallying cry for 12 national team championships in seven different sports, hundreds of individual All-Americans, dozens of eventual professional athletes, numerous national coach of the year award winners, Olympic basketball players, a Miss America candidate and the subject matter of a Walt Disney film.

The tenor was set by the first intercollegiate team - men's basketball. In only his second season, Coach Alex Ormalev advanced the Titans five rounds into the NAIA playoffs in 1961-62. Sixteen seasons later, the nation watched another "Cinderella" Titan Five advance to within one victory of the "Final Four" as Bobby Dye's 1977-78 team won the Pacific Coast Athletic Association postseason tournament and then beat nationally ranked New Mexico and USF to gain the finals of the NCAA Western Regional.

The basketball tradition began even stronger on the women's side. Recent Naismith and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductee Billie Moore coached the Titans to the national championship in 1970 and star forward Nancy Dunkle was one of her players on the women's 1976 silver-medal winning Olympic team. The most recent Titan All-American was center Genia Miller-Rycraw in 1991.

The Titans earned gold in 1984 when point guard Leon Wood directed the men's Olympic team to victory in Los Angeles. The first-round draft pick of the Philadelphia 76ers went on to a 6-year National Basketball Association career and is now a veteran NBA referee, only the second former NBA player to make that career switch.

Future NBA performers Richard Morton, Henry Turner, Cedric Ceballos and Bruce Bowen (a starting forward on the 2003 and 2005 NBA champion San Antonio Spurs) were some of the stars of the 1980s and 1990s, when the Titans made NIT appearances on both the men's and women's sides. Ceballos gained notoriety for winning the NBA Slam-Dunk contest one year while the women can point with pride to Autumn Hollyfield, the nation's top 3-point field goal shooter in 1993-94, and Koki Lahanas, the nation's scoring leader in 1994-95. Rycraw still holds NCAA records and came back from a career in Japan to earn a spot with the Los Angeles Sparks before returning to Fullerton as an assistant coach.

Gymnastics has brought Fullerton considerable fame. Former men's Coach Dick Wolfe won three college division NCAA titles (1971, 1972 and 1974) and had subsequent teams in the Top Ten at the Division I level while winning 10 PCAA titles in a row. His 1987 squad was ranked No. 1 in the nation. Coach Lynn Rogers began the women's program in 1976 and the Titans have finished sixth or better in the nation 12 times and won the national title in 1979. One-armed Carol Johnston was an All-American and star of the Disney film, "Lefty," while Tami Elliott (1984-86) won 10 All-American awards before becoming Miss Virginia and competing in the Miss America pageant.

Baseball exploded onto the national scene behind former Coach Augie Garrido by breaking the USC monopoly in the NCAA western regionals in Fullerton's first Div. I season in 1975. The Titans have gone on to win four national championships and establish a remarkable winning tradition over four decades. The Titans captured their first NCAA title in 1979 behind Tim

ATHLETIC TRADITIONS

Vallach, who would go on to play 17 major league seasons. They won again in 1984 behind College World Series MVP John Fishel, in 1995 behind national player of the year Mark Kotsay and again in 2004 behind All-American pitcher Jason Windsor, who won two games and saved a third in Omaha to cap a two-year, 8-0 post-season record. Coach George Horton has won national coach of the year honors in two of the past three seasons.

Women also have sparkled on Fullerton diamonds. Hall of Fame Coach Judi Garman founded the softball program in 1980 and won more games (913) than any previous coach. The Titans have made eight trips to the College World Series and 22 regional appearances. They brought home an NCAA Championship in 1986 and boast three national players of the year in pitchers Kathy Van Wyk, Susan LeFebvre and Connie Clark.

The now-defunct football program made great strides in Division I-A after its humble Div. II beginnings in 1970. Coach Gene Murphy guided the Titans to two conference championships and four runner-up finishes between 1983 and 1989. Titan products included Super Bowl rookies Bobby Kemp (Cincinnati in 1982) and Mark Collins (New York Giants in 1987). Titans have had remarkable success in the Canadian Football League. Allen Pitts was the CFL's all-time leading receiver and Damon Allen, who was still active this season, is the all-time leading passer, and Mike Pringle is the all-time leading rusher.

With the loss of football, Head Coach Al Mistri's soccer program filled the void in Titan Stadium. A women's squad was launched in 1993 and it coincided with a memorable men's season that saw the Titans climb as high as No. 3 in the national rankings. They were led by All-American forward Eddie Soto and competed at the NCAA Final Four, placing third. There have been three subsequent trips to the playoffs and a No. 2 national ranking in 1996. On the international level, former Titan Brian Dunseth captained the U.S. Olympic team in the 2000 Sydney Olympics.

There have been national titles in men's cross country (1971) and women's fencing (1974) and individual standouts such as golfers Martha Wilkerson and Paul Wise, runner Mark Covert and wrestler Laszlo Molnar, who finished second in the nation in 1994 at 167 pounds. Heather Killeen became the Titans' first Div. I cross country All-American in 1994, won three events at the 1995 Big West Conference track championships and was one of 10 finalists for 1995 NCAA Woman of the Year Award. Brandon Campbell was the Big West track and field male athlete of the year in 2001 after starring in the high jump, long jump and quarter mile. He also was a starter on the basketball team.

Several current and recent Titans have garnered international attention including appearances in the 2004 Olympics in Athens. Catcher Jenny Topping played for the gold medal-winning U.S. Softball team while outfielder Lindsey Bashor was on the Greek team. Competing for Mexico were pole vaulter Giovanni Lanaro and soccer player Marlene Sandoval.

On the diamond, 15 Titan baseball players have donned the Red, White, and Blue with Team USA, including shortstop Blake Davis in 2005.

What about the nickname?

What exactly is a Titan?
"Why do you have an elephant for your mascot?"
Those are two of the first questions that arise when a Cal State Fullerton athletic team makes its inaugural visit to an area. While the relatively young institution carved out of the Orange County citrus groves may be too new for many traditions, there are some recognized legends.

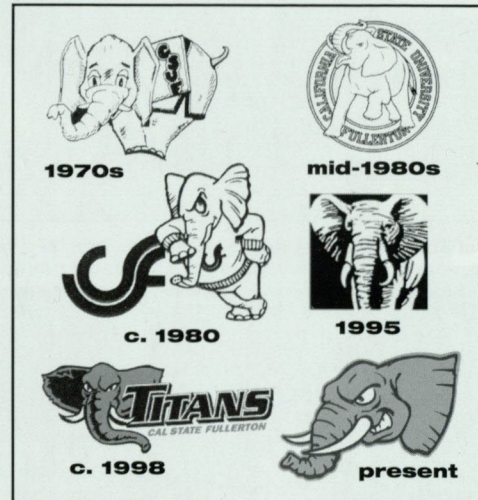

"It was the students' decision in a vote," explained Dr. Ernest Becker, founding Dean of Students, of the nickname "Titans." "More than a hundred names were suggested, and the Student Council took on the job of narrowing the list down to a few for the purposes of an election. The vote was close, with Titans narrowly prevailing over Aardvarks and Rebels."

It was a unique student body, all upper division students until 1963. There were 453 of them, mostly female, in 1959, the first year of classes at what was then known as Orange County State College.

"Even when it was decided that 'Titans' would be the nickname, there was confusion as to what it represented," said Becker. "I was thinking of a large mythological figure from Greek history, not unlike Tommy Trojan, but with perhaps straighter, more modern lines. In the same vein, the original dormitories were named Othrys Hall. There were others, however, who related the name to the Titan missile then in prominence."

Nothing official was done but then along came the "First Intercollegiate Elephant Race in Human History."

What began as a practical joke attracted elephants from universities around the nation and even Oxford from England. A crowd estimated at more than 10,000 people turned out on "Dumbo Downs" as the hastily graded field became known that spring afternoon in 1962.

To publicize the event, a circus-like elephant called Tuffy the Titan was used and it began appearing on sweaters and notebook covers around the campus. With no other mascot, the elephant was unofficially adopted. Several revisions of the caricature have been made to create a more tenacious Tuffy, or Titus as he also was called in an attempt to make him Greek. The costume that brings the mascot to life also has changed. Tuffy even attracted a female Tuffy in 1992.

The origin of the school colors also bears discussion. The students voted for royal blue and white, but the athletic equipment manager at the time thought orange was appropriate on uniforms for a school known as Orange County State College. The unofficial color was "adopted" and finally was formally acknowledged by the Athletics Council in 1987. A change to a navy blue was initiated in 1992 with a de-emphasis of the orange.

TITAN SCHOLARS

Mike Miles
Academic Counselor

Cal State Fullerton student-athletes can utilize state-of-the-art computers with high-speed Internet access in the spacious study hall in Langsdorf Hall, conveniently located next door to the Academic Services center.

The academic services staff takes a proactive role by coordinating study plans, study skills workshops, tutoring sessions, study halls, faculty and peer mentoring and campus services referrals.

Cal State Fullerton recognizes the priority of the student athlete's academic success. Athletic Academic Services works closely with other student support departments, faculty, and coaches to ensure the academic progress and promote general well being of the student athlete.

The services have been created to assist student-athletes with a number of issues ranging from the development of personal responsibility and educational goals to addressing personal and social problems that are unique for our students.

The staff takes a proactive role by coordinating academic plans, study skills workshops, tutoring sessions, study hall, mentoring, and advisement. Student athletes are also monitored on their academic progress towards graduation provided personalized, priority advisement and registration, and alerted when their academic progress may be considered at-risk.

In addition to the academic services, Cal State Fullerton participates in the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills program which is aimed at enhancing the quality of the student athletes experience within the university setting. University 100-Life Skills is a one unit mandatory class for all incoming first-time freshman student athletes. Monthly workshops around the five primary areas – academics, athletics, personal development, career development and community service – are coordinated specifically for student athletes. Additional activities by students wishing to serve in a leadership role advocating on behalf of student-athletes or coordinating community-service projects can be met by participating with the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

ATHLETIC TRAINING

The athletic training program at Cal State Fullerton plays a major role in maintaining the health of Titan student-athletes. Team physicians, three full-time certified athletic trainers, two certified graduate assistants and more than 20 student assistants comprise a program that is generally regarded as one of the very best in the country.

Titan athletic training personnel specialize in preventive medicine, recognition of injuries and rehabilitation. Student athletic trainers who are admitted into the highly selective ATEP (Athletic Training Educational Program), which is administered through the Department of Kinesiology and Health Promotion, must meet demanding requirements. In addition to taking 100 units of kinesiology and athletic training courses, they must serve five semesters and 1,500 clinical supervised hours.

Before becoming certified, candidates must pass the National Athletic Trainers' Association Board of Certification examination. Since 1997, nearly 80 percent of Cal State Fullerton graduates have passed on their first attempt, compared to the national rate of about 30 percent. Since the inception of the program, dozens of alumni have moved into coveted positions across the country (see below).

Julie Max, MeD, ATC
Head Athletic Trainer

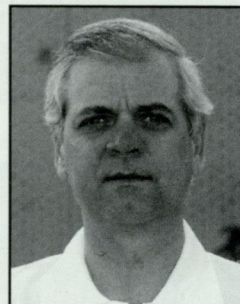

JULIE MAX, Cal State Fullerton's Head Athletic Trainer, has been the driving force behind the development of an athletic training program that has received national acclaim. Max is in her 26th year at her alma mater since replacing her mentor, the late Jerry Lloyd. Recently, Max completed a second two-year term as president of the 25,000-member National Association of Athletic Trainers (NATA). Max, the first female president in the organization's history, previously served a six-year stint on the organization's board of directors and a one-year term as its vice president. In 1997, Max was honored with the NATA Service Award, which recognizes out-standing service to the athletic training profession at the state and district level.

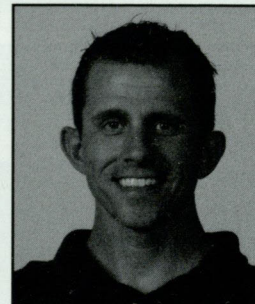

Athletic Training Personnel handle all the needs for all 17 of Cal State Fullerton's varsity athletic teams.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

TITAN GYMNASIUM

TITAN GYMNASIUM

Titan Gym continues to undergo major renovations. In the past few years, chairback seats have replaced most of the bleachers, portable basket supports have replaced the fold down backboards, new paint and banners have been applied to the walls and the playing surface has been redone. Recently completed was an expansion that features numerous classrooms, physical testing laboratories, a new upstairs practice facility, as well as additional seating. A new "drop down" scoreboard over center court was installed in the spring of 2003. The facility also features practice and match rooms for the wrestling, gymnastics and fencing programs.

GOODWIN FIELD

Goodwin Field has played host to five NCAA Regionals and four Super Regionals in the past six years. A $3 million expansion project, spearheaded by a $1 million gift from Jerry and Marilyn Goodwin, has transformed the field into one of the premier collegiate facilities on the West Coast. The field now features the Wilson Clubhouse — which includes lockerrooms, a reception area and offices for the coaches — and the Doubek VIP Room. In 2005, Goodwin Field also became home of the Fullerton Flyers of the independent Golden Baseball League.

TITAN SOFTBALL COMPLEX

TITAN SOFTBALL COMPLEX

Having received a complete makeover since the 2000 season, the Titan Softball Complex boasts one of the top facilities in the nation. Utilizing the adjacent Wilson Clubhouse and Doubek VIP Room, the two-diamond complex can now adequately serve as a host site for postseason competition (it was the site of an eight-team NCAA Regional in 2003) in addition to the annual Kia Klassic, the top regular-season tournament in the nation.

TITAN STADIUM

Titan Stadium is considered among the finest soccer facilities in the nation and regularly hosts professional and international soccer matches in addition to the Titan men's and women's programs. The facility, completed in 1992, was home to the Titan football program for one year before the sport was dropped after the 1992 season. The stadium is also a hot-spot for the entertainment industry and is regularly featured in television commercials and programs. UCLA also utilized the facility in 2003 for its fall football camp. The playing surface was totally renovated in July of 2005.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

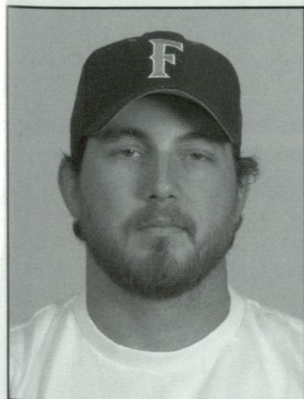

The 6,000 square-foot weight room inside Titan Stadium features eight platforms, eight squat racks, plyometric devices and nearly 8,000 pounds in free weights.

Cal State Fullerton student-athletes have year-round access to the services offered by the Strength and Conditioning Program, under the direction of Andy Williams. Aimed at developing speed, power, strength and endurance in Cal State Fullerton's student-athletes, the program plays a key role in the success of Titan teams.

Individual workouts are designed, implemented and regularly adjusted by Williams to help each student-athlete develop the stamina needed to maintain the rigorous year-round workouts associated with Division I sports.

Located inside Titan Stadium is a 6,000 square-foot weight room facility featuring eight platforms, eight squat racks, plyometric devices and nearly 8,000 pounds in free weights. The facility will service more than 300 student-athletes over the course of the year.

Andy Williams
Strength & Conditioning Coach

ANDY WILLIAMS was named Cal State Fullerton's second full-time strength and conditioning coach on Oct. 11, 2004. Williams came to Fullerton after spending the previous 20 months as the director of human performance at Somerset Sports and Rehabilitation in New Jersey.

Armed with a wide range of experience, Williams spent two years as the head strength & conditioning coach at Tennessee State, working with football and women's basketball, and a year each at Middle Tennessee State (assistant strength and conditioning coach) and Connecticut (grad asst.).

In 1999, Williams was the head strength and conditioning coach for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe during their World Bowl Championship season and also served as the assistant special teams coach. He also served a two-year internship with the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs from 1996-98 and was an intern with Major League Baseball's Kansas City Royals during spring training in 1997.

Williams earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Missouri Western State College in 1997, where he also played three seasons at outside linebacker, and completed his coursework for a master's degree in education at Middle Tennessee State in 2002.

PRESS ROOM: Room 170 in the southeastern wing of the gymnasium serves as the press room for Titan basketball. Five telephone lines are available -- two at all times and three more after the conclusion of radio post-game shows.

PRESS TABLES: Primary beat reporters, scouts and broadcasters will be located on the north side of the playing floor opposite the scorer's table.

GAME SUMMARY PACKETS: Booklets consisting of computer generated halftime and final boxes and computer generated play-by-play summaries will be distributed in Room 170.

PRESS/PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Will be issued on a per game basis only. Requests should be made as far in advance as possible. "Visiting" media may make their requests through their respective "home" SIDs. Photo credentials must be worn in plain sight at all times. Photographers may shoot only from the designated areas behind both baselines.

PARKING: Parking is available by:

- a) Using Lot A at State College and Yorba Linda Blvd. or Lot B off State College Blvd. and paying $5 (Monday thru Thursday 7 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. and Friday 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., year round) upon entry for a daily permit (no charge after 5 p.m. or on weekends)
- or:
- b) Obtaining a complimentary pass upon presentation of news credential to the Visitors Information Booth located on the south side of campus, northwest of the corner of Commonwealth and Nutwood Avenues.

BROADCAST SPACE: One "table" is allocated to each team's designated commercial radio station. Each position handles three persons comfortably. Two complimentary lines are available in most cases.

TELEPHONES: There is one telephone at the press table -- (714) 278-5700-- which must be kept free for messages, out-of-town scores, etc. Additional telephones CANNOT be installed at the press table due to the physical limitations of the building. Please call if you have special telephone needs.

LOCKER ROOMS: Are located off the hallway on the north side of the playing floor. Coach Bob Burton will conduct his post-game interviews in the equipment manager's office just outside the Fullerton players' locker room, which is CLOSED to the media. Players will be brought to the office area upon request after a reasonable cooling-off period.

WEBSITE: Cal State Fullerton maintains its own athletics web site with the goal of providing event coverage as soon as it happens. Please check it out at www.FullertonTitans.com.
