JANE TOLMACH FILES FOR ASSEMBLY SEAT

Oxnard City Councilwoman Jane Tolmach officially files with the County Clerk's office today to run for the 36th Assembly District seat being vacated by Assemblyman J. K. "Ken" MacDonald.

Mrs. Tolmach, who was the first candidate to announce her intention to run for the Assembly seat, made the following statement at the time of filing.

"The most critical issue in the election has to do with effective representation in Sacramento for the people of VENTURA County. The voters of this district have always been able to spot hollow campaign rhetoric and grandiose promises and to choose candidates who instead offer a demonstrated record of competency, effectiveness, and courage."

Mrs. Tolmach, a former mayor of Oxnard and a former trustee of the Oxnard High School District, stated, "One of the key responsibilities of a state legislator will be to insure that Ventura County gets its fair share of state revenues for such desperately needed public services as road and highway maintenance, transit systems, parks and recreation, mental health services, and education. The people of Ventura County pay their fair share of state taxes and they have a right to expect a fair return for their tax dollars."

Mrs. Tolmach said that the issue of a four year college for Ventura County is a perfect example of one of the unmet needs of the County. "Ventura County is now one of the most populous counties in the state. Yet, our young people, if they wish to continue their education must
