

STUDENT AFFAIRS

22505 of the California Education Code, which appear later in this section, delineate the types of conduct that are unacceptable. In addition, local rules and policies have been developed to cover certain situations such as the residence halls. The faculty have developed policies with regard to academic sanctions for cases of cheating and plagiarism. University, Trustee, and State regulations governing student conduct are described in the Handbook for Student Organizations, and the Student Rights and Responsibilities Manual. Copies of these, as well as faculty policy statements relating to cheating and plagiarism, are available in the Student Activities Office or the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs.

STUDENT DISCIPLINE

Inappropriate conduct by students or by applicants for admission is subject to discipline as provided in Sections 41301 through 41304 of Title 5, California Administrative Code. These sections are as follows:

Article 1.1, Title 5, California Administrative Code

41301. Expulsion, Suspension and Probation of Students. Following procedures consonant with due process established pursuant to Section 41304, any student of a campus may be expelled, suspended, placed on probation or given a lesser sanction for one or more of the following causes which must be campus related:

- (a) Cheating or plagiarism in connection with an academic program at a campus.
