Dear Miss Morgan | Please
prevent Mr. Humrichs men from over touching antiques. I think the lower door of B had its fine old nails
completely ruined by being ~~completely~~ wholly over gilded. Again
the tiles alongside the front doors in C

were not improved
by shellac but that
of course can be removed. Furthermore the window frames
in the north east
bed room of B departed
too much from the model
— the model itself being completely over painted and gilded.
