

March 29, 1926.

Mr. William Randolph Hearst,
New York American,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Hearst:

Mr. Byne writes he can and will get the roof tile. I am very glad. We did a house some years ago for one of Mr. H. E. Huntington's daughters, Mrs. Perkins, above Saratoga, and left off the tile until she found old ones in Rome last fall. They have come and are lovely and soft making a roof incomparably more beautiful than anything I have seen in this country.

As always

Yours very truly,

JM-dem