

Heat on for trustees meet

By LEONARD ANDERSON

The Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges, with Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke in attendance, will open a two-day meeting in San Francisco tomorrow in the midst of a heated dispute over who should control California's 18 state colleges—Dumke and the Trustees or the individual colleges?

This is the question that was instigated with the recent resignation of Robert R. Smith, dean of the School of Education at this college.

Smith, in his resignation letter, blasted Dumke and the Trustees for their attempt at "centralized control" of the state colleges and resultant loss of the individual college's identity.

Over 400 SF State faculty members promptly signed a petition in support of Smith's action.

The petition, directed to Governor Edmund G. Brown,

Lieutenant Governor Glenn Anderson, and State Congressmen Hugh Burns and Jesse Unruh, calls for an investigation of the Trustees and Dumke before "irreparable harm" is inflicted on the colleges.

Dumke and the Trustees have answered the petition plea by claiming the faculty signers are ignoring the Master Plan for Higher Education which created the single governing board for the colleges.

However, the SF State faculty is not alone in its fight with Dumke and the Trustees.

State Senator J. Eugene McAteer (Dem-S.F.) introduced a resolution in Sacramento asking the Senate Rules Committee to examine the charges against the Trustees and Dumke.

In addition, three major faculty organizations have endorsed the protest petition. These groups are: the Association of California State College Professors (ACSCP), the California College and University Faculty Association (CCUFA), and the California Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO).

SF State President Paul Dodd issued a statement on March 19, the date the petition was published, supporting the signers and their "concern" for the future of the state colleges system.

Then on March 24, the most interesting and perhaps most significant development in the faculty-Trustees dispute occurred.

Following a meeting of the state college presidents with Dumke at his Ingleside offices, Dodd released a second statement in which he "did not agree that a petition was necessary or the proper approach" to the problem.

He stated the "differences" between SF State and the Trustees should be worked out through normal channels within the system itself.

Dodd also said the situation should not be a matter of legislative concern.

"The Faculty Senate at San Francisco State took the proper action through normal channels when in a formal statement it requested the Trustees, Chancellor Dumke and the Statewide Academic Senate for clarification of matters concerning local campus autonomy," Dodd said.

Dodd declined to comment on the nature of the presidents' meeting with Dumke when asked by the Gater yesterday.

Bob Reardon, public information officer for the Chancellor, told the Gater that a resolution was adopted at the meeting but would not disclose its content.

This resolution is reportedly being sent to the state college faculties.

The Statewide Faculty Senate refused to discuss the matter when asked by Dumke and Charles Luckman, president of the Trustees, for support against the petition.

A vulgar minuet?

"The dance is so vulgar in its movements that decent people are inflamed."

It wasn't the Bossa Nova, twist or swim that prompted this quote from an 18th century dance critic. It was a graceful, baroque minuet.

According to Professor Isolde Ahlgrimm, world famous harpsichordist, dancers who violated bans on certain 18th century dances were banished or executed. In modern dances people often lose their heads, but not in this way.

"Nowadays," Miss Ahlgrimm said, "we push each other all over the floor."

Speaking on "Dances in the Baroque Suite," the Viennese music instructor also demonstrated many minuet and gigue (jig) steps in her lecture in the Main Auditorium yesterday.

Minuet, taken from the French words meaning "little steps," was the popular dance of the 18th century but was largely diversified between the social classes. It was a necessity for the aristocracy in order for them to be well versed in the social graces, Miss Ahlgrimm said.

The speaker, who knows all the harpsichord works of J. S. Bach by memory (the equivalent of 20 concerts), said she studied baroque dances in order to be able to play them with a better sense of timing and understanding.

But because the dances required elaborate gestures with the hands, deep reverences (bowing), quick leaps and little steps plus unique balance, Miss Ahlgrimm said her study was limited in her active participation.

(A colleague of hers once called her "provincial" because the palms of her hands weren't exposed enough in a certain movement.)

Before dancers attempted minuet steps, they were given

ISOLDE AHLGRIMM

... nowadays we push each other all over the floor!

close instruction on carriage, social customs and manners, Miss Ahlgrimm added. Only then could they begin to learn dances.

Some of the dances involve leaps, jumps and difficult turns and skips, while others more sedate require that the male partner have his shoulders back with back straight and his lady look dutifully to the ground.

One particular movement required partners to link four arms in a lattice work like a window.

Miss Ahlgrimm will perform harpsichord works of Bach and others Tuesday, March 31, at 8:30 p.m. in the Main Auditorium.

New deadline for legislative rep candidates

AS Elections Committee Chairman Terry Wogan has set a new petition deadline for candidates seeking six legislative posts.

Persons can take out petitions for the legislature seats as life science, psychology, education, creative arts, physical education and graduate representative.

According to Wogan all petitions for these six positions must be turned in to Hut T-1 by noon Friday.

The primaries will be held April 8.

Prof explains withdrawal from state, local senates

(Editor's Note: Theodore Treutlein, professor of history at SF State, resigned from both the State-wide Senate and the SF State Academic Senate March 20 in protest to the faculty petition calling for a legislative investigation of the state colleges.)

The following statement by Treutlein is the complete text that was read to the Statewide Senate. Treutlein left the meeting immediately after making his statement.)

This is to inform members of the State Academic Senate that I am, as of now, resigning as a member both of the State Senate and the local Senate of SF State, and that my act of resignation is a specific protest at the action of my colleagues on the State Senate and of some other colleagues who are members of our local Senate, in having signed the petition which appeals to the government of the state of California (through the Office of the Governor) for a public investigation of the administration of the State Colleges.

I do not regard my resignation as a dramatic personal gesture, but rather as a forthright act to terminate what for me is an intolerable situation. I feel I can no longer usefully serve a faculty as a member of its Senate when a large proportion of that faculty and including members of its Senate have, in effect, by-passed their own faculty organization to seek a redress of grievance through public appeal.

In my opinion, the constitutional structure of the faculty organization provides opportunity for the solution of problems which may arise within the state college system. I am concerned that the appeal by petition here referred to violates the spirit that motivated the formation of the statewide faculty organization which we know as the Academic Senate of the California State Colleges.

Action looms over senate tape dispute

The Academic Senate may take action this afternoon denying anyone but Senate members and voting faculty, the right to listen to the tape recordings of their meetings.

According to Leo McClatchy, chairman of the Senate, tape recordings are made of all the meetings in case a question about the minutes arises.

However, McClatchy said that he has had several requests from both senate members and non-senate members to listen to the tapes. McClatchy requested that a policy be made on this by the Senate.

He said that none of the requests have come from off campus.

Therefore, since this may be a concern for us all and not merely a local and personal question, I have asked your indulgence in the hearing of my statement of resignation which I make without animosity and with some considerable regret.

Theodore E. Treutlein.

Letters to the Editor

A swinger

Editor:

Mr. Ashfield — you did it. Your letter in the Gater (3/13) was a swinger. It went over real well!—but wait. I did understand you right? You didn't mean it seriously, did you? We both know, don't we, that there are no free Americans (other than the dead ones and they don't count much, do they)? We both know that we can talk and act freely, only subject to government approval. We know that we may travel freely all over the world, subject to approval. We both know that we are all equal, subject to certain color restrictions, don't we? Our freedom of faith has some minor limitations too, but they can be easily ignored, can't they? So, in fact, we understand each other.

We both know that your letter was outrageously (sic) funny, that the whole thing was utter nonsense. But don't do it again. It is too subtle. People might start believing you and that would not be funny at all. Then we shall certainly be in trouble.

Never mind about the "forces" outside which are supposedly endangering our freedom. Let's eliminate the restrictions which we have within the country before we turn to any possible "dangers" from outside.

Health and Impetus

Editor:

The Health and Safety Committee appreciates the cooperation given by the Golden Gater and wishes to sincerely thank those concerned for the excellent news coverage on the many traffic hazards which exist at 19th and Holl-way. As a result of the above mentioned news media, city officials have promised to improve certain traffic hazards immediately and to survey the whole traffic problem surrounding the college.

The Health and Safety Committee and college officials have met with city representatives on such problems in the past. Some of the safety devices which are now installed are the results of their meetings. Budget and priority is the chief concern facing city officials in the future development of traffic safety in this area.

The recent impetus on this matter given by the Golden Gater has, we believe, resulted in an action program. We shall wait and see if our hopes are realized.

Thank you again and we may ask for your cooperation in the near future if the promised improvements are somehow lost in official red tape. Richard Boyle, Chairman Health and Safety Committee

Another Cuba trip planned

Calling for 500 new recruits, the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba (SCTC) is launching a second offensive against the State Department.

Last summer the SCTC sponsored 59 students, 11 of them from SF State, on a trip to Cuba.

This summer there is room for 500 on the month-long venture beginning in July.

Roger Taus, a member of the SCTC executive board in New York, responded to a Gater inquiry and provided details on the trip.

Cost to students is $100—to cover travel costs to New York. The Federation of University Students of Cuba (which one student, who went last year, said was "not a government agency") picks up the rest of the tab.

The purpose of the trip is, according to Taus, "to see what revolutionary Cuba is about."

It is also "a determination to exercise our right to travel," Taus said.

"If the State Department or any other government agency attempts to interfere with our travel, they can be assured of a hard fight—one they will ultimately lose," Taus warned.

Taus expects interference such as "attempts to confiscate passports, refusal to issue them in some instances, pressure on other countries regarding our transportation, congressional investigations and criminal indictments."

The passports of all the students who took the trip last year have been "withdrawn and are temporarily invalid pending a court ruling," Taus said.

Three SCTC leaders, including Levi Laub who was here last year recruiting for the first trip, have been charged with "conspiracy to violate travel regulations and violations of sections of the Mc-Carran-Walter Act" (which covers exit and entry into the US without a valid passport), Taus said.

They face a maximum penalty of 15 years in prison and/or $15,000 each.

The American Civil Liberties Union is defending the students.

Taus does not expect 500 travelers, but he plans on a larger group than last time—most of them students.

Local recruiters for the trip are Chris Raisner, 23 year-old SF State art major; and Wayne Combash, 21, former Oakland City College sociology major.

They both went on the trip last year and feel "morally obliged" to help with the forthcoming excursion, Combash said.

Applications and a mandatory $10 deposit are due April 1. Applications must be filled out in front of the recruiter because mailing is not "good security," Combash said.

Acceptance is based on an interview with SCTC members.

"The main criterion for acceptance is a personal honesty of purpose," Taus said.

"We want a cross-section of the American public — from Birchites to Trotskyites — to take the trip," Combash said.

"People from many areas of study who just want to go and see Cuba will be objective.

"We don't want people who will try to make money selling anti-Fidel stories to the newspapers," Combash added.

Peace Corps here in April

Thomas Dugan, Inspector General of the Peace Corps phoned the Gater from Washington, D.C. to announce that they would return to the SF State campus the beginning of next month.

Dugan said that he would be accompanied this semester by Miss Nan Evoy, Special Assistant to the Director. They will arrive with several volunteers, Thursday, April 2, and maintain a booth, as last semester, April 6 through 10.

"It's Not Too Late" is the theme given to this visit. According to Dugan, the Corps test would be given again, but no classes would be offered.

Gator nine whumps NSU, Gaels; loses to Spartans

SF State placed the bets and picked up the money at Las Vegas Saturday when it swept a double-header from Nevada Southern University, 4-1 and 15-3.

Combined with an 11-2 victory over St. Mary's and a 4-1 loss to San Jose State, the Gators take a 9-6 record into their first league games Saturday.

In the first game, pitchers Wes Greenwood and John Walker gave up five hits. Greenwood worked the first four innings for his second win of the season, striking out four. Walker finished the game.

The Gators broke the game open in the third inning with three runs on two hits.

With one out, center fielder Don Meroff singled and took second on a passed ball. Shortstop Bob Cavalli walked and Meroff scored on two wild pitches.

After second baseman Rich Jefferies was hit by a pitch, Gator left fielder Jim Loustalot drove in Cavalli with a long fly to center. Right fielder Terry Christman then scored Jefferies with his second single of the game.

State put away the second game with an eight-run second inning. The Gators got only three hits, but the Rebels committed four errors, a wild pitch and a passed ball.

They added runs in the third, fourth and sixth innings as coach Bob Rodrigo emptied the bench. He also did some experimenting.

Cavalli, who usually plays shortstop, was the starting pitcher. But the slender shortstop was bothered by wildness, allowing a run on two walks, a wild pitch and a hit batsman in the first.

Mike Campas relieved Cavalli in the second and worked three innings for his third win of the season. Campas was relieved by Christman, who mopped up the mess.

On Thursday, the Gators took advantage of their old friends at Moraga, pounding the Gaels 11-2. Greenwood and Walker again had the winning combination, giving up five hits.

Greenwood pitched the first six innings for his first win of the season, fanning two and walking one. Walker struck out two and walked one.

San Jose State gave SF State its sixth loss of the season on Friday, thanks to Spartan pitcher Don Schmidt and right fielder Bob Smith.

Schmidt scattered nine hits while allowing one run. He struck out six and walked one. Smith collected two hits, the second a home run in the seventh.

Schneider leads racketeers to win

In pre-Easter conference matches, the Gator tennis squad defeated the University of Santa Clara, 9-0, then lost to the University of San Francisco, 8-1, and Nevada State, 5-2.

This gives SF State a 2-2 record for the season.

It was a clean sweep for the Gator netmen against Santa Clara. In six singles and three doubles matches, the Broncos failed to take a single set.

The three combined wins for the Gators against USF and Nevada were taken by Mike Schneider and Jim Gordon. Schneider defeated Dean Volheim (USF), 6-0, 6-4, and Jack Raycraft (N) 6-0, 6-2.

Gordon downed Nevada netman Glen Loughton, 6-2, 6-4.

To date, freshman Schneider has won seven out of eight matches and has kept his opponents down to an average two games per set.

Schneider wins by unnerving his opponents with unorthodox tennis form, keeping a constant conversation going during play—either with his opponent or himself—and returning shots that appear impossible to reach.

JV nine sinks Swabs, 11-3

The SF State junior varsity baseball team clobbered the Concord Naval Weapons Station, 11-3, at Concord just before Easter Week.

The win was the Gators' third straight and brought their season record to 3-3.

The second inning resembled a walkathon as Gators Johnny Welton, Tito Torres, Hiroshi Sakamoto and John Devos walked for a run.

Bub Bresnahan then hit a sharp single to score Torres and Sakamoto and give the Gators a comfortable 4-0 lead.

SF State added two more runs in the third frame and one in the sixth before a four-run ninth capped the day's scoring.

Coach Bob Mansfield's young fledglings belted Concord pitchers for 10 hits. Winning pitcher Tito Torres struck out 11 batters in six innings while Dean Hamilton recorded five strikeouts in the last three frames.

On the offensive side, Bresnahan collected three hits while Sakamoto, Devos and Colfer each got two.

Birdie-shuttle intra signups

Sign-ups are now being taken for all students wishing to play either badminton or speedball.

The last day for sign-up for speedball is April 17 and the tournament will start on April 21. It will be a double elimination tournament with awards to the winning team of nine members.

Competition for badminton will be both in singles and doubles. Sign-ups conclude on April 9 and awards will be presented for first place and second place in both tournaments.

Sign-ups will be taken for both speedball and badminton in the Gym.

THE CROWDED ROAD TO HELL

Every Christian shares Christ's compassion for the lost, those who are living apart from God and who choose to follow their own ways instead of seeking God's plan for their lives. Perhaps you are among the many who are going along with this crowd. The fact that 80 per cent to 90 per cent of your friends will end up in Hell, too, will hardly ease your own eternal, conscious torment! In Hell there will be little consolation in numbers.

Hell is a place where God's love and light do not shine, and the Bible tells us that there is no way out. In Luke 16 we see a vivid picture of what Hell is like, and how many men choose to ignore God's repeated warnings about a place of eternal punishment.

"And it came to pass that the beggar (Lazarus) died and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: The rich man also died, and was buried; and in Hell he lifted up his eyes being in torment, and seeth Abraham afar off and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus that he may dip his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, remember that thou in thy life time receivedest good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things, but now he is comfortable and Thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us that would come from thence. Then he (the rich man) said, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldst send him (Lazarus) to my father's house: For I have five brethren, that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, they have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay Father Abraham; but if one went to them from the dead they will repent. And he (Abraham) said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead." Luke 16:23-31.

God does not "send a person to hell." The entire world is condemned and man is totally depraved by nature. Hell is the road we are all on unless we seek God's help and intervention on an individual basis. Sin has condemned man, and every last one of us has sinned. (Rom. 3:23. John 3:16-21. Rom. 3:10-20).

In this wonderful age of grace God has provided for man so that none need spend eternity apart from Him. Escaping hell forever is so simple; all one need do is humbly seek God's mercy and invite Jesus Christ into heart and life. God does all the work of salvation, and waits only for your decision to accept His eternal Son.

"... But now in the end of the world (age) hath he (Christ) appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment, so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many and unto them that look for him shall he appear a second time without sin unto salvation." Heb. 9:26-28.

The religions of the world which are man's attempt to reach God do not bring a person one step closer to salvation nor insure anyone against eternity in hell. Christianity is different, since it is God who takes the initiative in saving lost man. Jesus Christ, who knew no sin was made sin for us. He died for the sins of the entire world to bridge the gap between a holy and just God and a sinful race of humans.

"But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all of them that believe. For there is no difference. For all have sinned and come short of the glory (perfection) of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God." Rom. 3:21-25.

You will not escape hell by taking up "religion," nor by shaping up and putting on good behaviour. God wants to make a new creation out of you and to implant the immortal Spirit of Christ in your heart, so that you will be fit to stand in his presence, forever justified and perfected in Christ. "You must be born-again." (John 3:3).

We urge you to heed this warning of Jesus: "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat." Matt. 7:13.

Jesus said, "I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved." John 10:9.

If you today invite Jesus Christ into your heart as Lord and Saviour, God will make you forever secure from the eternal torment of hell. God's response to your decision to accept Christ will be real and positive, and you will not be left wondering about the reality of the Hell you have escaped nor the heaven you will thenceforth be bound for. Our sincere desire is to help you in any way possible by answering your questions. The Bible is our sole authority and we represent no particular denomination or religious group. No matter who you are and what your sins may be, we know that Jesus can save you!
