114 Hawthorne St.
New Bedford - Mass.

Dear Ludu:-

Your Sunday letter had to be passed again - We were visiting at the Mastricks - intending to move down town to a hotel Sunday in the afternoon - but on Saturday Hart received a telegram ordering him back to Washington throwing out our Montreal trip and the New York stay as well - Ship came to the rescue in bringing me here - for - for Mama's sake - I did not want to go home without having been here - Aunt says now for me to send you stacks of love and Nina said similar statement - Tomorrow we go up to Boston and from there I am to be shifted back to Washington - & be there Thursday and probably start home the same day -

Washington - Friday Nov. 22d -

Capic took me riding through the woods back of this town - accompanied by three dogs - One had to grant need to the cousins again - but a day make them seem quite familiar - There was a fair snowd storm during the night which froze before morning - They had to walk the cab horses to the station - but they slip on the ice - Aut went up to Boston with us - We left Chip at Back Bay Station - then took in the library (more of a disappointment even than I had thought.) - the Art Gallery - shopping - the common - the State House and Shaw Monument - then perused Parm - went to lunch at the Parker House - left Aut - then went with Chip to Faneuil Hall - the old State House - the Monument - Paul Revere's Church in the Jewish quarter - and remet Aunt at the depot - buying various rugs out of the windows - and upholsteries as we walked - The stores in these large cities certainly have prettier furnishings than S. F. Now Allie had to come down to the station and have dinner with the three of us - He must love to have visiting cousins - yet it was interesting to see him grown - We pushed Aunt to her train - the boys skipped me - then they went to the theatre and Chip was to take a midnight train back to New York - I was very glad to be with him so much again - Going up on the steamer - we had a long talk - It is too bad there is not a short business man in the S. F. office - I am going home tonight - filled with the intention of enthusing Mama to come on and go over to you - & stay here a while first - I will write up back days on the train if you will excuse any unintentional repetitions - My Cousin Lucy & Aunt both really want Ella - & so do you - and I will work for it -

That a great view of New York from the steamer as it rounds the battery and goes up under the bridge - by night - I mean -
With much love to you - Emma -