

[May 1934?]

Mr. Willicombe telephoned - said Mr. Hearst didn't want to urge you, but if you cared to go down to see him, he would very much like to have you. Plane is at Monterey awaiting word, should you care to fly down today.

Mr. Hearst didn't even know you were at San Simeon and was disappointed that he hadn't seen you. "just had a cold" Mr. Willicombe said.

May 7
3 30

F

5:10 PM

Mr. Willicombe phoned again and said the plane was still at Monterey. Told him did not think you would care to take the plane, so he said he would not hold it any longer.

Said he did not wish to urge you, but the plane had gone up to Monterey and thought you could use it if you wished. Told him
<OVER>

you would phone
him tonight or

tomorrow, that was

OK with him

Mr. Hearst didn't even know you were at San Simon and was disappointed that he hadn't seen you. "Just had a gold"
Mr. Willcombe said.

P

May 7
3 30

2:10 PM

Mr. Willcombe placed again and said the plane was still at Monterey. Gold said
was that you would call
to take the plane, so he said
he would not hold it any longer.
Gold he did not want to leave you, but the plane
had gone up to Monterey though you could not
if you wished. Gold said
(OVER)