

	Units
Hlth. Ed. 48, First Aid	2
Hlth. Ed. 90, Principles of Healthful Living	2
Hlth. Ed. 105, Safety Education	2
Hlth. Ed. 123, School Health	3
Hlth. Ed. 148, Teaching First Aid	1
Hlth. Ed. 155, Prevention and Control of Disease	3
Hlth. Ed. 156, Source Materials	2
Hlth. Ed. 157, Community Health	2
Hlth. Ed. 170, Driver Education and Training	3
Hlth. Ed. 210, Administration of School Health Program, or 280, Problems	2-3
Home Ec. 40, Elementary Nutrition	2
Home Ec. 131, Marriage and the Family	2
Physiol. 1, Human Physiology	4
Psych. 111, Mental Hygiene	3
Sociol. 127, Community Welfare Organization	3
	36

For further information and additional recommended courses, see credential adviser.

	Units
Credential Minor in Health Education
Hlth. Ed. 90, Principles of Healthful Living	2
Hlth. Ed. 105, Safety Education	2
Hlth. Ed. 123, School Health	3
Hlth. Ed. 155, Prevention and Control of Disease	3
Hlth. Ed. 156, Source Materials	2
Hlth. Ed. 157, Community Health	2
Hlth. Ed. 170, Driver Education and Training	3
Elect from: Home Ec. 40, 131; Psych. 111	4-5
	21

Additional requirement: Physiol. 1.

SPECIAL SECONDARY CREDENTIAL IN PUBLIC SAFETY AND ACCIDENT PREVENTION

Including Driver Education and Driver Training

This credential authorizes the holder to teach public safety and accident prevention, including driver education and driver training, in elementary and secondary schools. Candidates for this credential, on the basis of college recommendation, must have a valid regular day school California teaching credential, other than a provisional credential; have approval by the Committee on Admission to Credential Programs (page 148) and have completed the following requirements:

	Units
Hlth. Ed. 105, Safety Education	2
Hlth. Ed. 170, Driver Education and Training	3
	5

For further information, consult credential adviser.

HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENT CREDENTIAL

The health and development credential authorizes the holder to serve in the capacity of school nurse in the elementary and secondary schools. Candidates for this credential must possess a valid California State Registered Nurse's license; have approval from the Committee on Admission to Credential Programs (page 148); have possession of a bachelor's degree; and complete the following requirements:

	Units
Educ. 111, Mental Hygiene	3
Educ. 171, Elementary Education	2
Educ. 173, Secondary Education	2
Educ. 174, Principles and Techniques in Guidance	3
Educ. 185, Development and Learning	4
Hlth. Ed. 123, School Health	3
Hlth. Ed. 153, Public Health Nursing	3
Hlth. Ed. 154, School Nursing	3
Hlth. Ed. 155, Prevention and Control of Disease	3
Hlth. Ed. 156, Source Materials	2
Hlth. Ed. 161, Observation or Field Experience in School Nursing	8
Hlth. Ed. 210, Administration of the School Health Program	3
	39

For further information, consult credential adviser.

Courses

HEALTH EDUCATION

48. First Aid (2)

Fricke

Standard and Advanced Red Cross First Aid courses; safety factors in daily living; civil defense programs. Certificates issued when requirements are met.

90. Principles of Healthful Living (2) F and S

Staff

Meets general education requirements. Significance of basic health problems applicable to the young adult and to society.

91. Health Information (1) F and S

Meets general education requirements. Not open to students with credit in Hlth. Ed. 90. A synthesis of scientific knowledge from the contributing disciplines which relate to an understanding of health problems.

105. Safety Education (2) F

Fricke

Prevention of accidents in the home, school, industry, traffic, and community; fire prevention.

110. Alcohol and Narcotics Education (2) Summer only

Problems of alcohol and narcotics education; scientific data on effects of overuse of alcohol and narcotics on adolescents and adults. Teachers, nurses, and social workers develop material appropriate to their work.

123. School Health (3) F and S

Staff

Prerequisite: Educ. 185. The health program in elementary and secondary schools; administration of eye screening tests.

148. Teaching First Aid (1)

Fricke

Prerequisites: Current Standard and Advanced Red Cross First Aid Certificates. Preparation for Red Cross Standard and Advanced First Aid Instructor's certificates. Certificates issued when requirements are met.