VOLUME I NO. 25
APRIL 19, 1971

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Audio Visual Center will be open in the evenings and on Saturday. Students and faculty are invited to extend assignments on the IRS (Information Retrieval System) and utilize the facilities during the Open Library Hours. Service calls for media or equipment can be made to 833-2121 or extension 2121 on the campus. Mr. Roy Byers will be in charge of the center during these hours.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

SENIOR MEETING

SENIORS, don't forget that caps and gowns for commencement must be ordered through the Bookstore no later than April 23. The next Senior Meeting will be Wednesday, April 21 at 1:00 p.m. in CB 101.

GRADUATION ANNOUNCEMENTS will be available for purchase in the Bookstore the first part of May.

INTRAMURALS

The first session of Cal State Bakersfield Intramurals was successfully begun last week. Enthusiasm for the intramural sports is growing and if anyone is still interested in signing up for either a baseball or volleyball team, please come into Student Services Building, Room 111. The intramural baseball teams play Mondays and Wednesdays while the volleyball teams play Tuesdays and Thursdays. For further information on the times, places, and teams, check the bulletin board outside the Student Services Building.

WEDNESDAY LECTURE SERIES

This week the lecture will be given by Professor William H. Wake, Associate Professor of Geography, on "The Changing Matrix of Time and Space." The lecture begins at 11:00 a.m. in LB 100.

FINANCIAL AIDS

The Office of Financial Aids administers a number of different types of programs to enable students without adequate financial resources to attend the College. Interested students are encouraged to visit the Office of Financial Aids for further information regarding scholarships and other forms of assistance. It should be noted that the initial deadline for scholarships and/or financial aid applications is May 1, 1971. In order to insure that their applications will receive consideration in the initial grouping, students should make every effort to have the required documents submitted to the Office of Financial Aids prior to May 1, 1971.

CAMPUS PLACEMENT VISIT

The following organizations will interview seniors and graduate students on the indicated dates for prospective career positions. Interested students should sign up for an interview time by contacting the Counseling and Placement Office, Student Services Building, Room 112.

Capistrano Unified School District	April 20, 1971
San Luis Coastal Unified School	April 21, 1971
Sherwin Williams Company	April 27, 1971
Monterey Peninsula Unified	April 29, 1971

CAMPUS TOUR GUIDES

There will be a meeting Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. in the Cafeteria. It is important that all Tour Guides attend as plans for the party will be made.

SENIORS AND GRADUATE STUDENTS

Seniors and Graduate Students who wish to secure jobs for the coming year should contact the Placement Center as soon as possible. Students doing their student teaching this quarter should file their professional papers now and should have their confidential recommendations sent in from all persons, except their college supervisor and cooperating teachers. Each person submitting a letter of reference should submit only one recommendation form for each student and forms for this purpose are available in the Placement Center.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Drs. David and Jeffry Spencer have been invited to attend a seminar on April 17 in Los Angeles at the William Andrews Clark Memorial Library. The subject of the seminar will be "Changing Tastes in Art and Literature in Eighteenth-Century England."

Dr. John Coash, Dr. James Horton and Dr. Daniel Jones will appear on the Sunny Scofield show on Channel 23 for Earth Day, April 22, 1971.

Jack Behrens, Associate Professor of Music, spoke to the Literature Section of the Women's Club of Bakersfield on April 5. He discussed the Eighteenth Century Venitian playwright Carlo Gozzi's contention that there can be but 36 dramatic situations (as "rediscovered" by Georges Polti) with particular reference to the several versions of Turandot and The Love of Three Oranges.
