M-A CIVIC COUNCIL ENDORSES

A total of 32 candidates seeking political office endorsements presented their platforms and programs to an overflow crowd attending the Mexican-American Civic Council's candidate endorsement meeting held at Sambo's Restaurant on Tuesday night, Mar. 29, 1966. In addition to those seeking endorsement, letters and telegrams from incumbents and candidates who were unable to be present were read by Dr. John de Heras, President and presiding officer.

In order to insure a true vote, all balloting was done by secret vote by the attending members. Because of the many speakers and questions asked, the meeting lasted over four hours, all candidates staying except when an opponent for the same seat was present and in each case all candidates for the particular office were asked to leave the room in order to permit speaking office seekers more freedom of expression.

The following were endorsed as a result of the ballots cast by the Mexican-American Civic Council members:

Much interest was in apparent notice due to the many questions asked by members, the following been of primary interest and concern: taxes and reforms, cost of living, welfare, farm labor disputes and their settlement, Coyote Creek Park, participation by elected representatives from State and County levels in activities other than they were elected for such as anti-Viet Nam demonstrations and at Berkeley, schools and teaching programs, the present accrual system used at Sacramento and other related fields.

The Council was complimented by the incumbents as well as the candidates for office for its service in presenting such type of meeting and thusly encouraging the American citizens of Mexican descent to participate in government. Also expressed was the value of its non-partisan policy, thus assuring a more sincere expression in the voting for the endorsement of men or women for political office.

FAREWELL PARTY

On March 22nd a farewell party was given for Carolina Mills by Irene Motoya, Martha Torres, Margie Dominguez and other friends of Carolina. Here is a photo of some of the people that attended.

Lovely Carolina left on March 24th for Wichita Falls, Texas, where upon her arrival she became Mrs. Art Cuellar. To Art and Carolina our heartiest congratulations and may they have an eternal honeymoon.

MARRIED

UNA MOVIDA CHUECA (Maybe)

The Santa Clara GI Forum gave several clubs bids for their representatives to the Black and White Ball. Connie Garza represented Club Zanzaree and by rights she should have gotten the bid, but nay, Raul Chapa, her escort, had to bounce with the loot. So that means that someone pulled a fast one. Raul is not crying, I just want you girls to know that we are aware of the situation. You are my pals, pero

THE POOR

The EOC has semi-professionals trying to help the poor. Fine, but the semi-professionals wages are such that they can't put on their best efforts while doing their job because they are in the same predicament. Mr. Commissioners, let's raise their wages.

UN POQUITO DE TODO

Dave Sierra is losing so much weight that soon you won't be able to recognize him.

Art Alaska Lopez and I are getting ready to open a dancing school and we are going to call it ALASKA'S DANCING SCHOOL FOR THE ESKIMOS.

Mr. Adolfo Villarreal celebrated his birthday on April 10th. May he have many many more.

Jerry, thanks a lot for the goodies. Mucho good.

Without any doubt Ray Martel and the girl with the looks Sandy Vallejos are the best dancing couple in town. Furthermore, they have never spent a dime on dancing lessons.

If its furniture you need, come to the Furniture Discount House on 82 E. Santa Clara Street. We have the best.

SPORTS

Club San Felipe elected Joe Ruiz, 1966 softball manager. Good luck, Joe!

THE GRAPES OF DELANO

Grape picking and survival in Delano. This was the subject all over Sacramento and the State of California in the last month. Why the pilgrimage to Sacramento and why the fight to unionize the farm workers? For years, the farm workers have no say as to what they are to get paid. No person would get up and lead. But one did get up and lead. Cesar Chavez, a sixth grade education and with a family of nine, decided it was about time to move and move he did.

The road has been hard and rough and the goal is beginning to be reached. The Governor of this great state sympathizes with the farmer and cares little of the little man. He says that the farmer has had hard times. How about the worker??

The demand was made of him to meet the pilgrimage after marching 300 miles in 25 days from Delano to Sacramento. He turned it down!!! Big Deal. I wish he had been at the Capitol Grounds and seen the emotional expression on the marchers as they stepped onto the concrete sidewalk and headed for the rostrum where thousands of people awaited their arrival.

Order was held and with the help of members of the GI Forum from San Jose, Santa Clara, Merced, Union City, Pittsburg, Richmond and Oakland, a path was made for the 55 pilgrims who made the march, all the way. Their place of honor was on the shadows of the domed Capitol Building. Assemblyman Phil Soto of La Puente arranged the setting that was covered by TV cameras from near and far.

Among the thousands of persons there were some that came from as far as New York. At present, it seems that the fight that the National Farm Workers Association headed by Cesar, their Director, is starting to get recognition with the farmers. But Brown, who stated he would not be in Sacramento on Easter was at the Frank Sinatra home in Palm Springs. Another actor for Governor?

Seems that Sinatra was denied entry into Mexico last week. What gives?

The people are upset at Brown's refusal to meet the farm workers in Sacramento on Easter shall have their day when elections come around in June. Will you show him how you feel, or will you go against the feelings of the Mexican American, who is in the depths of poverty doing farm work for a living.

NEW FORUM GROUP IN GILROY

And on the brighter side, Gilroy, where problems are a common thing among the Mexican-American, has been organized into a GI Forum Chapter. They will be a great help to the community as the other chapters throughout the United States have done.

Any person in that area who wants to join in, give Ray Barragan a call at 842-3090 or write to him at 186 S. Rosanna St. in Gilroy. The Ladies Auxiliary is also being formed, so you ladies can also join in. And if you read the newspapers last week, the Ladies Auxiliary picketed Brown when he made an appearance in Santa Clara. He had a nice Easter, did YOU?

LA HUELGA

Much has been written about the recent pilgrimage from Delano to Sacramento led by Cesar Chavez's NFWA (National Farm Workers Association), and the strikers' demands for social and economic justice. Therefore, rather than be repetitious, I shall describe a few events that occurred the three weekends I took part.

The night before the trek from Fresno to Madera, John Castro tricked his two sons into going along by saying it was to be a mountain hike; little did he guess they were to wake him at 3 AM eager to leave. We attended, with members of the Catholic Council for the Spanish Speaking, a special 5 AM mass at Our Lady of Guadalupe given by Father Soto. Immediately afterwards, we were all fed a large breakfast. Caramba, we were to need it for we walked 9 long hours! Midway in the march, the new water blisters under the balls of my feet started to squish every time I took a step.

Dan Campos, Pat Vasquez, and I represented the GI Forum of San Jose on the Manteca to Stockton march. We were under the impression that only a rally was to be held that Sunday. Bernie Peña of Union City, our information source, neglected to say that we had to walk 16 miles to get there! As if they had been trained, the cattle harrassed us by kicking up a dust storm everytime we passed the cow pastures that day.

Easter Sunday, again resorting to deeds rather than mere words, the GI Forum backed its approval of the Huelga by participating in the pilgrimage from West Sacramento to the Capitol steps. Most of its northern California chapters showed up, and incidentally, even a Forumeer who traveled all the way from Michigan. I aided the color guard from Richmond. Earlier, they were giving us a bad time because they were the only chapter to bring along their flags and banner, but I notice they had to call on San Jose to help them carry their banners.

Seen On The Pilgrimage

- Cesar Chavez limping along with the use of a cane.
- Father Anthony Soto, wilting under his straw hat, and Father Carlos of Our Lady of Guadalupe Church.
- Ann McKay eating lunch by the railroad tracks.
- Manuel Macias, Oscar Gonzales, Rudy Coronado, and Joe Gonzales keeping spirits up with their singing.
- Dan Campos arriving unprepared for a long march in his dancing shoes.
- Bob and Liz Barron carrying strike signs.
- Pat "El Maje" Vasquez ordering 2 glasses of tomato juice after leaving a party at 4 AM and getting up at 6:30 AM to join the Huelga.
- Jack Ybarra helping coordinate activities from an office inside a VW bus.
- Monico Amador and Si Gonzales helping to direct traffic.
- Pete Arballo gloating from the comfort of his wheelchair at our foot problems.
- Ramiro Perez with his guitar waiting for the procession to start.
- Lino Lopez eating his breakfast standing up at the rear of the school in West Sacramento.
- Father Thomas Fry carrying a NFWA banner in front of the Capitol dome.
- Al Piñon waiting to speak before the TV cameras.

MAPA

I just couldn't let it pass by, but in the last issue Bill Ellis wrote that the vote of confidence at the March 18th meeting for the local president was 54 (eleven anglos) against 11 (six anglos). A more realistic figure would be 54 (eleven Mexican Americans against 11 (six anglos).

Where was the local MAPA delegation during the farm workers' pilgrimage? All the other M-A groups participated with open support for the Huelgistas, as well as other state MAPA chapters, but SJ's MAPA was conspicuously absent.

FIESTAS PATRIAS DEL 5 DE MAYO DE 1966

Como todos los años al aproximarse la fecha gloriosa del 5 de Mayo, que marca una de los hechos sobresalientes de la historia de la gran Madre Patria Mexicana, la Comision Honorifica Mexicana de San Jose, auxiliada eficazmente por su Comite de Festejos, que preside el dinamico locutor y Maestro de Ceremonias Carlos Gomez, se aprestan a trabajar, en la preparacion de los festejos que conmemoren en toda la honorable colonia latina del norte de California, y principalmente en la del Condado de Santa Clara, el CIV aniversario de la mil y mil veces recordada epopeya de la heroica Puebla de Los Angeles: La BATALLA del 5 de Mayo de 1862, en la que segun las celebres palabras del invicto General D. Ignacio Zaragoza, heroe maximo de la misma, "LAS ARMAS MEXICANAS SE CUBRIERON DE GLORIA", hermosas palabras con las cuales empieza el parte oficial del memorable heroe rindiera al entonces presidente de la Republica, D. Benito Juarez.

El sentimiento de honor y de patriotismo que siempre ha caracterizado a los mexicanos, no tiene porque permanecer oculto en los hijos de Mexico que acatando un secreto designio de la Divina Providencia vivimos fuera del territorio nacional, y es por esto, que pesa sobre la conciencia ciudadana de todos los que amamos a nuestra Patria y nos enorgullecemos de nuestra honrosa mexicanidad, el celebrar lo mas dignamente posible las fechas cumbres de nuestra historia: el 16 de Septiembre y Aniversario de nuestra Independencia, y el 5 de Mayo, Aniversario de la historica Batalla de Puebla. De aqui se desprende tambien la obligacion mora que tienen los mexicanos de cooperar con la Comision Honorifica Mexi-cana de San Jose, y con su Comite de Festejos, que por laborar bajo los auspicios del Consulado General de Mexico de San Francisco, y bajo los del Consulado Honorario de Mexico en San Jose, son los oficialmente autorizados para llevar a cabo estas celebraciones, esta cooperacion puede ser material apoyando a las Sritas candidatos que estan realizando la campana para elegir la reina de las Fiestas Patrias, respetandolas y comprandoles votos, y moral respaldando a la Comision y al Comite de Festejos asistiendo a los diversos eventos que se estan preparando para esta celebracion, que tendra verificativo el domingo 8 de mayo segun programas especiales que oportunamente se daran a conocer.

Por este año, por coincidir las Fiestas Patrias con la celebracion universal del Dia de la Madre, se ha decidido aunar ambas festividades. Se honara a la Patria gran madre de la ciudadania mexicana y a la madre que se encarga de convertir en una her-

THE POLITICAL SCENE

William T. Ellis

BUNNY OF THE MONTH

Chalk up another after the fact "Pat on the head" for the Sacramento Easter Bunny. In true Brown fashion his relatives came first, but that's not news to anyone. All the maneuvering and promises that are integral Brown politics will undoubtedly be forthcoming, but they too will reflect afterthought rather than forethought. He could well admit his basic political motivations and meet in above-board disagreement; at least he could command respect.

The Delano March involved citizens from practically every community in the state. The basic issues, which has only begun, will affect the lives and freedoms of agricultural workers throughout the nation. Its course northward to our state capital received daily press coverage yet in Sacramento it received empty chambers. This issue, as controversial as it has been, vigorously fought and staunchly opposed, should have received priority attention by our chief executive regardless of his personal opinions or political commitments.

Historically Brown has a consistent record: The San Jose Judgeship promises, the 1965 appointment to meet with the Mexican American organizations and now the Bunny Hop.

The latest word is that Pat's campaign manager is worried - It seems that all of the Governor's friends and relatives are covered by the Hatch Act.

Martha Saldana, 17 year old daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Eduardo Saldana, was elected Queen of the Fiesta de La Virgen de Nuestra Sra. de Guadalupe of St. Mary's Church in Gilroy on December 12, 1965.

A birthday party for Tony Montes and Josie Dominguez on March 13 turned out to be a lot of fun for many people. There was lots of good food and cold refreshments.

Tony is the popular owner of El Paseo de Las Flores on 12th & Keyes in San Jose and he sure knows how to have a good time. Happy birthday to both of you!!

In the photo are members of the Wildcats baseball team which competes in the tough Mayfair Little League. Good luck in the 1966 season, Wildcats!!

Segun cuenta la leyenda, Tezcatlipoca por medio de ardidessaco a Quetzalcoatl de Tula y este se dirigió a Atchollollam, que quiere decir "lugar donde brota el agua" y que actualmente se llama Cholula y esta a pocos kilometros de Puebla.

En este lugar permanecio por espacio de veinte años Quetzalcoatl dedicado a instruir a las gentes en las ciencias y en las artes y antes de dirigirse al Golfo, para encontrar a los mensajeros especiales que le transportarian a la tierra del Sol, dejo a cuatro de sus discipulos debidamente preparados para que mantuvieran encendida la antorcha del saber.

Un gran templo fue erigido en honor del dios del viento, nombre que tambien le daban a Quetzalcoatl, y Cholula se convirtio en una ciudad poderosa, refugio de la cultura. Los oficiales y las artes renacieron a pesar de la ascendencia politica de los aztecas y a la llegada de los españoles su hermosa ceramica ya justificaba su fama de diestros alfareros y su renombre universal de artistas. Cholula no tuvo poderio militar y cuando el poderio azteca se extendio hacia el este, no pudo evitar su avance. Sin embargo aunque politicamente sucumbio y tuvo que pagar tributos y suministrar los guerreros que se le pedian sus sacerdotes conservaron su independencia.

Muy a su pesar, los aztecas tuvieron que conceder a Quetzalcoatl a cuyo templo acudian peregrinos de toda el Imperio, un lugar preferente, puesto que representaba la cultura base de su civilizacion.

Cuando Quetzalcoatl se dirigió a la tierra del Sol prometio volver y revivir las glorias de la antigua Tula. La llegada de los españoles por el este, cuya tez era blanca como la de Quetzalcoatl convencio a Moctezuma de que la promesa se habia cumplido y que Cortes era el dios que habia regresado de ahí de indecision de combatirlo y arrojarlo al mar como le hubiera sido facil hacerlo, concentrando sus fuerzas y actuando con decision. Cuando Moctezuma ideo destruir a los españoles a su paso por Cholula, Cortes conocio con anticipacion el complot, dando lugar como resultado de esto a una de las mas grandes matanzas colectivas de indigenas.

Antiguamente habia nueve edificios publicos en Cholula. El Tlaxiltencan, lugar donde se administraba la justicia; tenia siete gradass por el lado sur y en ellas tomaban asiento los sacerdotes por orden de dignidades y categorias. El Tlaxelolco era el lugar que ocupaba la fuerza publica. El Chialinco servia de antesala a las personas que tenian negocios pendientes con la justicia o solicitaban algun asunto por primera vez. El Tlatolanque o Palacio era el sitio que ocupaban los Jueces. El Tipactitla estaba al norte del edificio anterior y era una especie de casa de salud donde se hacia curaciones y se daban medicamentos. La Telpilolla, que significa "Amarrarlo en la piedra del Castigo" era donde se aplicaba castigo de orden gubernativo.

La fabrica de armas y objetos de obsidiana se llamaba Ixtenenetitla y su produccion no era solo para el Ejercito cholulteca sino que tambien servia para el mercado de las demas tribus.

Xihxihntla era el sitio donde se guardaban los estudios cientificos, los anuarios, las notas cronologicas y las resoluciones juridicas. El Palacio de Xayacatzin, Procurador general de la Nacion, primer autoridad civil, sirvio de alojamiento a Hernan Cortes.

De las cinco piramides originales, actualmente solo esta a la vista una, la de Tepanapa y hay sobre ella una iglesia dedicada a la Virgen de los Remedios. En el presente año el gobierno federal dedica algunos millones a efecto de proseguir los trabajos de excavacion y devolver un poco de la grandeza que en otro tiempo tuvieron estas piramides.

HAROLD MARTINEZ

HAPPY APRIL 15

Have you paid your income tax? The US government needs the money to keep the war on poverty going. I understand the war is going very well. I believe it, if the taxes go any higher the poor people will be defeated in no time.

There's good news however for those of you who had to go into hock to pay your taxes. A new law goes into effect May 1st which allows for a higher rate of withholding during the year. This simple equation will show you how it works:

Axb-(321L-XO) -- W - 13.50x20% (w-5000)
1/2 -- X (Y-Z) * -- withholding rate.

If you can understand that equation you should not have any trouble understanding the new law.

RUMOR

A rumor has it that a certain club was given a free bid for their representative at a recent black and white ball and the club sold the bid and kept the money. The truth is no free bid was given and one club member was stuck for the bill after none was received. So that certain individual should stop spreading rumors about a rival club.

SPORTS BEAT

Club Riviera's softball team appears ready to take the UCC championship after finishing second in the last two years. The team manager, Hillard Payer, has added depth to the pitching staff and the infield. Riviera now has four top pitchers on its roster and picked up a top first baseman. The names are being withheld until the league rosters are official for this year.

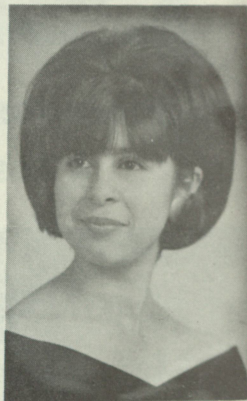

Our sponsors for this year will be Las Cuatro Milpas, owned by Riviera member Ruben De La Cerda, and Furniture Discount House owned by the popular Hank Coca. Las Cuatro Milpas is located on the Old Oakland Highway just a few steps from the Ford Plant in Milpitas.

Furniture Discount House is located at 82 E. Santa Clara Street in San Jose.

HAIL TO THE QUEEN

Presenting Maria Christina Lucero who is a candidate for Queen in the Cinco de Mayo Festival sponsored by La Comision Honorifica Mexicana. Miss Lucero was born in Los Angeles 16 years ago and now resides in San Jose. If you would like to vote for her the method is to purchase vote type tickets at 10¢ each. Each ticket is worth 10 votes and they can be obtained from the candidate, from any Club Riviera member or from her sponsor, The Esquire Theater in San Jose.

GREEK GODDESS APHRODITE

Would you believe, Angie Medina in living color? The picture was taken in living color at the recent SC GI Forum Black and White Dance. Miss Medina represented our club (wow) and very well I must say.

COMING EVENTS

The UCC League has set May 8th as the date for their Annual Awards Banquet. The event will be held at Lou's Village and will begin at 7:30 PM. Trophies will be awarded for last year's softball and basketball winners and the cost will be only $3.75 per plate.
