NEW YORK AMERICAN

January 23, 1922.

Dear Miss Morgan :

Two large tapestries and a set of four somewhat smaller tapestries were sent from the Hacienda to the Ranch.

They are in the Ranch House in a case and probably being sufficiently well cared for; but I have a feeling they would be safer in the storehouse at the Hacienda. We have now made that a fireproof building.

Will you kindly have Mr. Kinkaid go down to the Ranch and pick out these tapestries and bring them back to the Hacienda and store them there?

Sincerely,

W R Hearst
