Graduate Education Program in the Kremen School of Education and Human Development are focused on providing leadership in central California's diverse society by preparing education leaders for a new millennium. Postbaccalaureate advanced credential and master's degree programs are primarily focused on (1) preparation and enhancement of teachers and other educational leaders and (2) preparation of human service leaders who function in a variety of human development roles in both public and private sectors.

Master's Degree Programs

The KSOEHD offers four master's degree programs in separate areas of professional emphasis. These degree programs include the following:

1. M.A. in Education, Options:
  - Administration and Supervision.
  - Curriculum and Instruction.
  - Early Childhood Education.
  - Reading/Language Arts.
2. M.A. in Teaching
3. M.A. in Special Education
4. M.S. in Counseling, Options:
  - Marriage and Family Therapy.
  - Counseling and Student Services (specialization in K-12 or higher education).
5. M.S. in Rehabilitation Counseling.

Some master's degree programs can be pursued concurrently with a specialist credential or services credential program.

Advanced Credential Programs

Advanced Credential Programs are categorized as (1) specialist credentials and (2) services credentials. These credentials require professional preparation at the postbaccalaureate level. Most specialist and services credentials require successful completion of a basic Multiple Subject or Single Subject credential. Exceptions to this are in Pupil Personnel Services, Education Specialist, and in some cases Administrative Services.

5. Pupil Personnel - School Psychology. (See Department of Psychology, Coordinator of School Psychology Program.)

6. Pupil Personnel - School Social Work and Child Welfare and Attendance. (See Department of Social Work Education.)

Specialist and services credential programs can be pursued concurrently with a master's degree.

Graduate Education Program

Admission Requirements. Enrollment in a KSOEHD master's degree or advanced credential program requires that separate applications for admission be completed for the university and the KSOEHD.

Students may not enroll in 200-level courses until they have been admitted to the appropriate program.

University Admission Requirements. Applicants are required to complete the California State University Application for Graduate Admission. In addition to this form, and among other requirements, the applicant is expected to provide evidence of an appropriate four-year B.A. or B.S., scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT), and a minimum GPA of 2.5 on the last 60 (90 quarter) units attempted. University applications are available online at www.csumentor.edu.

KSOEHD Admission Requirements

In addition to making application for admission to the university Admissions Office, consult the Certification and Graduate Programs Office in ED 151 and read information online at <http://education.csufresno.edu> for the following:

1. Program information.
2. KSOEHD graduate programs admission packet (available online at <http://education.csufresno.edu>).

All students applying for admission to a master's degree or advanced credential program in the KSOEHD must meet the minimum admission requirements listed in the copy that follows and be approved for admission by a program Faculty Review Committee. Evidence of completion of these requirements is to be submitted along with required forms in one complete packet to
