

Student Concerns Table

Issue or Concern:	Recommended course of action:	Relevant policy:
Perception of unfair grading	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Speak with faculty member 2. Speak with department chair 3. Appeal to Student Academic Petitions Committee through the University Advising Center 4. Depending on type of issue, could submit a Record Adjustment Petition to Registrar Office 	APM 242
Academic Dishonesty	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Speak with faculty member 2. Speak with department chair 3. Appeal to Student Academic Petitions Committee through the University Advising Center 4. Proceed through Student Conduct 	APM 235; EO 1098
Academic probation or disqualification	Contact your Major/College Advising Center or University Advising Center	Office of Student Success
Academic Petitions	Contact University Advising Center	APM 243 and 242
Student records (registration, transcripts, verifications, etc.)	Contact Registrar's Office	APM 405
Related to Discrimination, Harassment, Retaliation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Speak with concerning party and/or their supervisor -Contact DHR Administrator to discuss possibility of Early Resolution and/or filing a complaint 	EO 1096, 1097
Related to Title IX	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Contact Title IX Coordinator to discuss possibility of Early Resolution and/or filing a complaint 	EO 1096, 1097

Disruptive Classroom Behavior	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Instructor will speak with student and ask them to stop the behavior 2. Instructor will ask the student to leave the class period 3. Instructor will submit report to Office of Student Conduct 	APM 419
Concern regarding faculty teaching or behavior	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Speak with faculty member 2. Speak with department chair 3. Contact College Dean's Office 	Collective Bargaining Agreement and Faculty Handbook