

CULTURAL HERITAGE BOARD
County Office Building
Ventura, California 93001 (805) 648-6131

April 6, 1973

Oxnard City Council
City Hall
Oxnard, California 93030

Members of the Council:

As you are aware, in 1971 the Ventura County Cultural Heritage Board, acting as the Heritage Board for the City of Oxnard, designated two structures owned by the City as Ventura County Cultural Landmarks. These two structures are the Oxnard Chamber of Commerce Building (formerly Carnegie Library) and the Pagoda in Plaza Park.

To commemorate these designations the Heritage Board would like to present certificates to you. Could you arrange to have a representative at the Board's next meeting for the presentation? This meeting will be held on Monday, May 7, at 1:30 p.m. in the Community Room, Avco Savings, 250 South Mills Road, Ventura. I would appreciate your letting me know if this date is convenient. You can reach me at 643-3340, or the Heritage Board secretary, Mrs. Loretta Jeffryes, at 648-6131, Ext. 2887.

Sincerely,

Patricia C. Ellison

Mrs. Patricia C. Ellison, Chairman
Cultural Heritage Board

PCE:laj

cc: Oxnard Chamber of Commerce