

on every question that came to mind. The directives and Operational Manual covered every phase of the Assembly Center operation and spelled out procedures and regulations for all situations. ~~Without asking a single question I discovered that~~

Under-taking and Internment Facilities
The U.S. Army would contract for undertaking services required in connection with deceased evacuees. Services furnished would allow $85.00 for undertaking services, and in case of necessity an additional $50.00 to the family or administrators of the deceased to provide cemeterial services.

The U.S. Army would also provide, on request of the family of the deceased or on request of the Center Manager for evacuees having no family or other administrators, a plot for burial or facilities for cremation as indicated by the circumstances or requested by the deceased or his family or administrators, if it can be definitely proved that resources of the individual or his family or administrators are not sufficient to provide such facilities (A.C.C.A. Oper. Man. Par. VII)

Religious Activities

- A. Evacuees would be permitted to promote religious services within the Assembly Centers, and to request such Caucasian assistance for co-ordinating religious activities as may be necessary.
- B. It will be the responsibility of the Center Manager to arrange with the religious orders for such service; to provide such facilities as are available for the conduct of such services, and to insure that such services are conducted properly and are not used as a vehicle to propagandize or incite the members of the Center.
