MRS. LOUISE RALPH

In Memoriam

IN TIMES like these a dedication such as this is applicable to one and many. But it is with sincerest feelings that we proudly dedicate this 1944 La Torre to Mrs. Louise Ralph. No one has won the respect and admiration of the Spartan family as she has, especially that of the men and women in service, many of whom are pictured in this book.

President's Message

IT HAS been a fine, successful year. We have also put up a good fight. Community and War Chest, bond drives, Red Cross—every one of them over the top. College programs, exhibits, entertainments, student activities, the Daily and La Torre—all have carried on. Now we're making plans for the future. More campus, new buildings, new courses.

We'll be ready for our boys

when they come home.

SPARTAN DAILY

Hold the Press—here comes some copy!

Jeanette Owen

Gerry Reynolds

Lorraine Glos

Peggy Scruggs

Here they are! Yes, those Spartan Daily "long hairs" took time out from putting out a paper to pose for the La Torre camerman, or should we say woman?

With adviser Mrs. Dolores Spurgeon lending a hand, some members of Washington Square's favorite newspaper are seen busy at work. Reading clockwise are: Sebastian "Scrappy" Squatrito, Mrs. Spurgeon, Ora Lee Sample, Eleanor Frates, Barbara Healy, and Marion Felich.

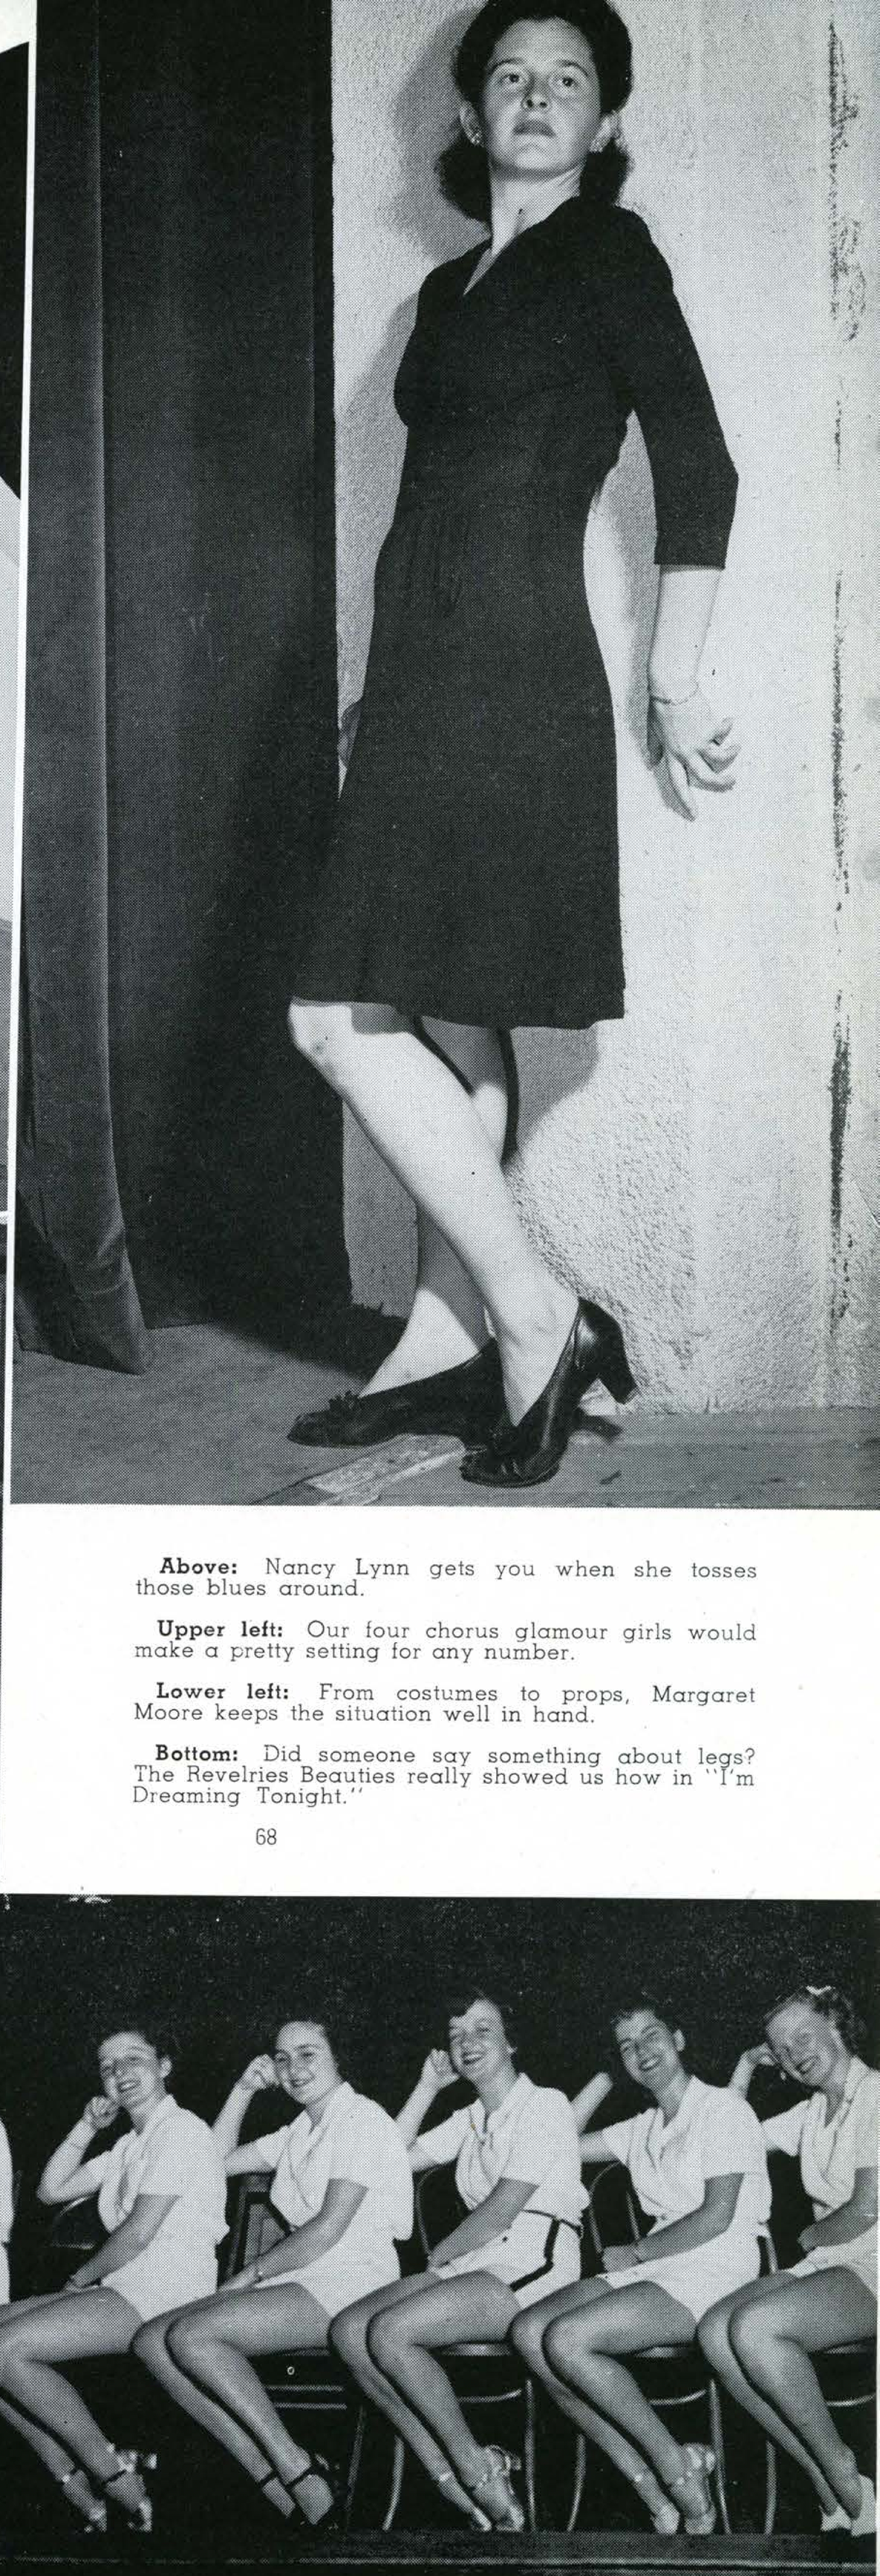
SPARTAN



Above: Nancy Lynn gets you when she tosses those blues around.

Upper left: Our four chorus glamour girls would make a pretty setting for any number.

Lower left: From costumes to props, Margaret Moore keeps the situation well in hand.

Bottom: Did someone say something about legs? The Revelries Beauties really showed us how in "I'm Dreaming Tonight."

REVELRIES

Above: Virginia Sherwood. Just time for a few publicity shots before Virginia gets aboard the "Chatanooga Choo Choo."

Upper right: Er Duo—Lovely Jo Ann Sweeney and Danna Trimble playing Danna's own creation, "Shades of Evening."

Lower right: Lois Mendenhall struts into her tap routine.

Above: Costume director, head director and script writer meet for a little script cuttin'. B. Doyle must be drecming up some gor-g-e-ous costumes.

Upper left: Louise Saso looks worried here, and well she might be. She was the comedian of the chorus who just couldn't seem to learn the steps.

Right: Helen Pianto, featured singer in "Moments I've Spent With You", is one little girl you'll long remember.

SPARDI GRAS

Below: Revelry reaches its height in the Quad.
Right: Hugh Johnston, chairman of Spardi Gras.

The males were fewer than ever, the concessions were not as many as before, but the 1944 Spardi Gras can go down in history with the best of them. Starting with the traditional breakfast dance at six in the morning and ending up with the big dance in the gym at night, all participants had a whale of a time.

Two outstanding features were the faculty chorus pictured at the left and a sensational newcomer to Sparton shows, Ken "just call me versatile" McGill, pictured just above.

Other pictures show scenes at the breakfast dance, and the pie eating contest, being watched very closely by judge Dr. Robert Rhodes.

The smiling gent up in the left hand corner isn't a Hindu but our own Vance Snyder sporting the crop of whiskers which won him the best "Bearded Man" title and award.

Those "kids" at the top right hand corner are partaking in the milk contest.

With cowboy, or farmer (we can't tell which) Milt Lanyon judging, we see part of the tug-o'-war contest which found the seniors and freshmen winning over the sophs and juniors.

Queen Mary Lou Montgomery and King Jerry Evans await "crowning" by traditional Chief Crowner, Dr. William "Wild Bill" Poytress.

Worn out, but still carrying on here, are some of the Spartans who wound the day up right by attending the dance held in the Men's gym.

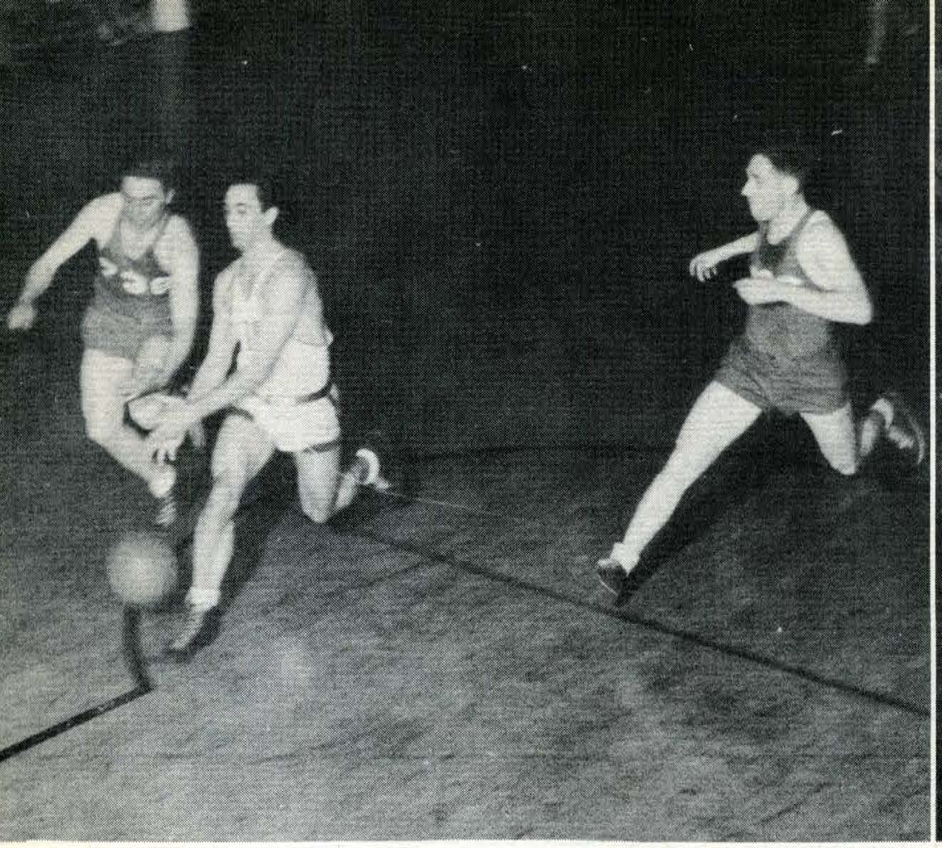
SPORTS



Don Lopes, the lad who came out of nowhere to spark the Spartans in their last six basketball games, dribbles in for a shot with two Fort Ord men in pursuit.

The beginning of the Ford Ord game finds Jack Maughmer of the Spartans in at the jump for Coach Bill Hubbard's men.

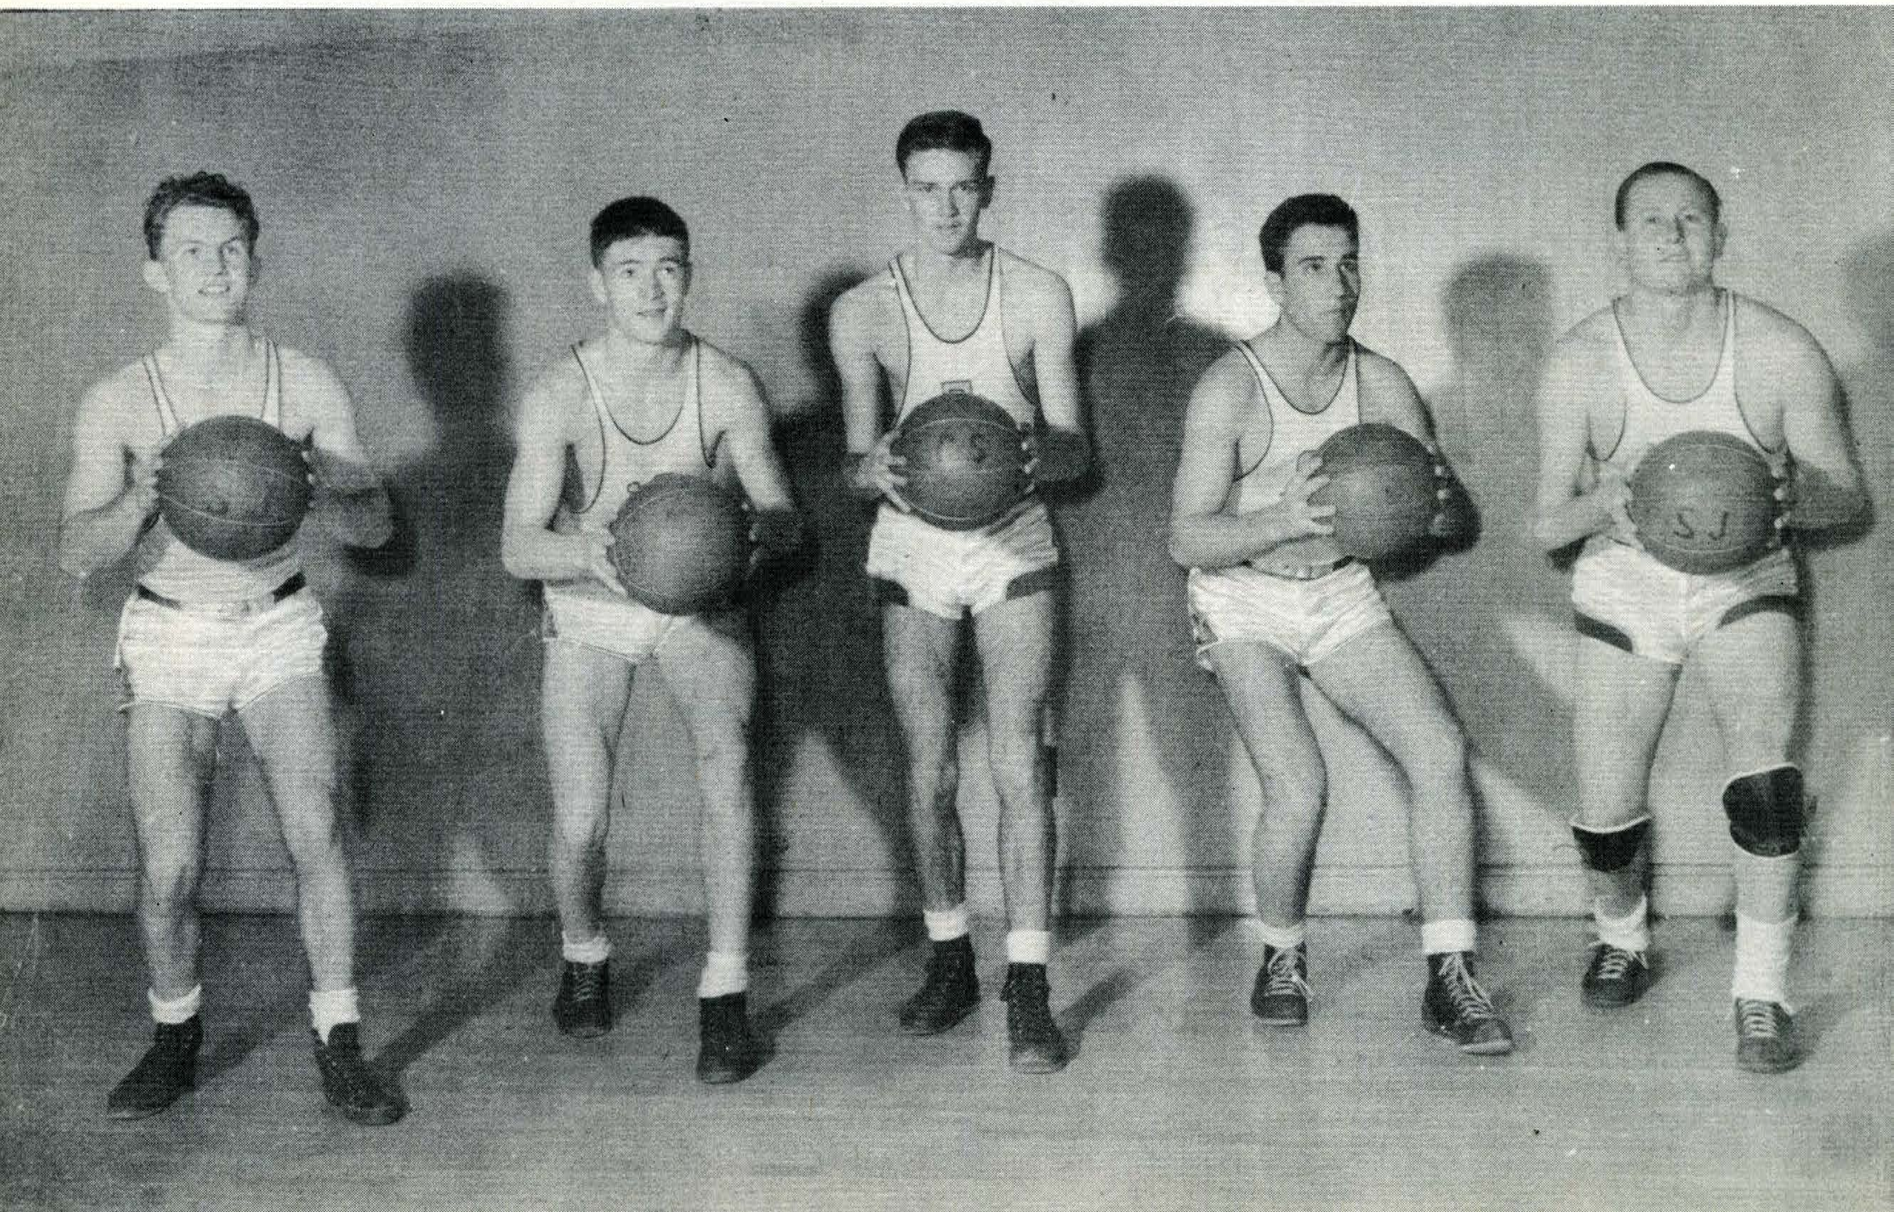
Here is the team which, although drubbed by the powerful service teams, did all right with teams in their class. Pictured left to right are Jack Maughmer, Alexander "Mal" Sinclair, Kerlin Morgan, Dick Wehner and Ed Loudon.



Pictured is the Spartan Varsity squad for the 1943-1944 season. In normal times it would have been regarded as an average freshman team as all members with the exception of Ed Loudon were freshmen.

Top row: Joe Murrillo, (mgr.) Dick Freeman, Alex Sinclair, Kerlin Morgan, Norman Crowell, Louie Bini, Ed Loudon, and Coach Wilbur "Bill" Hubbard.

BASEBALL

Winning four, losing four and tying one, this bunch of freshmen did all right for themselves and for Sparta on the diamond this past season. Outstanding batters were: First Sacker Jim Cassingham and Catcher Mal Sinclair. Phil Clark and Jack Maughmer lead the pitching department.

Seen in action (left) is chucker Phil Clark, the only member of the squad who saw college competition before this year. On the right Mal Sinclair is behind the bird cage waiting for the pitch, while Third Sacker Bob Huck waits for a "fat" one. Both men did noble work, with Sinclair doing more than was expected of him after being converted to a backstop from an infielder by Coach Hartranft.
