My dear Friend:

Congratulations on your selection as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention. I look forward to seeing you in Los Angeles, if not earlier.

After talking with Democratic leaders around the country, I believe we are in better shape for the coming election than we have been in for some time. And I hope this enthusiasm continues.

Many of us feel we must unite Our Party and mobilize our full strength behind a winning ticket. We feel Senator Stuart Symington is the man who can pull Our Party together and lead us to victory.

We want you to know more about Senator Symington -- his remarkable success in business management, his career in the Executive branch of the government, his voting record in the Senate.

He is a top-flight manager with years of experience in both administrative and legislative government -- a big man for the Big Job.

In the weeks ahead we will be sending you some material on this outstanding Democrat, and I would like to have your comments after you have read it.

Please drop me a line when you have time. I want to hear what is going on where you are; and in return I will pass along what I hear.

Yours for victory,

Charles Brown
Campaign Chairman
