

MINORS

The following minor requirements are in addition to the general education requirement in social science.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

	Units
PI Si 3, 110 or 111	6
Political science electives (ud), excluding PI Si 101, 102, 130, 187	9
Electives (ud) in Anthropology, Economics, English, Geography, History, Philosophy, Psychology, or Sociology	6
	<hr/> 21

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Elect from PI Si 3, 181, 182, 188T	12-13
Elect from PI Si 110, 111, 114, 150, 151, 170	3-4
Elect from PI Si 160, 163, 183, 189T	3
Electives (upper division) in Anthropology, Economics, English, Geography, History, Philosophy, Psychology or Sociology	3
	<hr/> 21-23

CERTIFICATE IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

A certificate program in public administration is offered for persons interested in training for public service who are not in a position to meet the requirements for a degree. This certificate will be offered to public service personnel and others without reference to previous academic experience. Candidacy will be established with the approval of the Political Science Department. The candidate must complete a minimum of 23 units with a grade point average of 2.5 (20 units, if the candidate has completed an acceptable course in American government on the college or university level).

All candidates for the certificate must complete a core requirement of 12-15 units of political science and public administration in Group A and 8 units in Group B. With the approval of the Political Science Department substitutions may be made for courses already completed. Prerequisite requirements to advanced courses must be met.

Group A. Political Science and Public Administration: PI Si 101, 160, 163, 181, 182.

Group B. Related Courses: Psych 10, 176, PI Si 188T, Econ 131, Ind R 150, Jour 113.

CREDENTIAL PROGRAM

For information on the public school single subject teaching credential, consult the Social Science credential coordinator.

MASTER OF ARTS DEGREE

The graduate program for the master of arts degree in political science provides concentrations in government and public administration. For prerequisites and specific requirements consult the department chairman; for general requirements see School of Graduate Studies. For detailed information about the graduate program, see the Graduate Bulletin, available in the Office of the School of Graduate Studies.

Foreign Language Requirement

Advancement to candidacy for the master of arts degree with a major in political science (government concentration) requires competence in a foreign language.

COURSESPOLITICAL SCIENCE (PI Si)*1. Modern Politics (3)

An introduction to modern politics through the study of subjects such as political interests, parties, and movements; democracy, communism, and nationalism; the individual and the state; power and government.