Homeowners choose 3 new Board members

The Leisure Village Board of Directors has two new faces and three familiar ones as a result of the annual election held on June 27.

Bob Riveles, Lin Grant and Rita Linsey were the top three vote-getters from a ballot of eight candidates. Riveles and Linsey are newcomers to the Board; Lin Grant previously served four years. They join Ted Lansing and John Mayer, who each have one year remaining in their terms.

The official count came from 1,159 ballots, 88 more than the quorum required by Village rules, said Chuck Donnel, chief election inspector.

Three vacancies were to be filled because Don Marquardt and Jerry Rosen were termed out, and Bob Ellis chose not to run again.

Nearly three dozen Villagers tabulated the votes under the watchful eye of a security officer. The results are:

- Bob Riveles, 710
- Lin Grant, 675
- Rita Linsey, 667
- Peter Dellera, 353
- Jeanne White, 345
- Patrick Price, 222
- Sharon Loney, 179
- Robert Kulick, 66
- Ted Lansing, 1 write-in vote
- Joseph Benti, 1 write-in vote

The three newly elected Board members spoke about

If two people ever represented a "can-do" attitude, it's Annie and Bill Robinson.

As residents of Leisure Village, they have been busy with, performed in, attended regularly, supported, and sometimes actually created the clubs and events that define the phrase "active senior community." Schuster shares his D-Day story

In the early morning hours of June 6, 1944, future Villager Bigg Al Schuster prepared to be part of what General Ike Eisenhower labeled as the Great Crusade: the massive undertaking to free Europe from Nazi control. The first part of that operation was the Normandy invasion, the largest seaborne invasion the world had ever experienced. Schuster was to go on and fight as part of Operation Market Garden (of "A Bridge Too Far" fame) and Bastogne (Battle of the Bulge) before

NEWS TO KNOW

2-day AARP Safety Driver program set for July 17, 19

By Claudia Roberts

The next two-day AARP Driver Safety Program class for Leisure Village residents is scheduled for Wednesday, July 17, and Friday, July 19, from 1 to 5 p.m. in the MPR. If it has been more than three years since you have taken this class, or if you have never taken it before, then you need this class.

If you want to improve defensive driving habits and learn to adjust to age-related changes in vision, hearing and reaction time, this class is for you.

Each successful attendee will receive a certificate which, when presented to your insurance agency, will provide you with a discount good for three years.

The cost is $12 for members of AARP and $14 for non-members.

Class is limited, so you must pre-register.

Contact Claudia at 482-9904 for more information or to register.

Exiting board member says thanks

Dear Neighbors:

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for the privilege of serving on our Board of Directors for the last five-plus years. As I reflect back, I remember the day when Ted Lansing called me and asked me to fill the remaining term of a sick retiring board member. For years I had resisted serving on the Board, being satisfied with working on several committees. Ted would not take no for an answer. I want to thank Ted for his perseverance. Saying yes was one of the most rewarding things I have ever done.

The people on the Boards I have served with have been terrific and I owe all of them a debt of gratitude for putting up with me.

It was easy to follow the positive example of Bob McQuivey as I became your president. Bob deserves all of our thanks for putting our house in order.

I could and probably should thank each individual I have worked with over the last five-plus years for their help along the way. However, I will not attempt to name them all as I surely would skip someone. All of the Board members, committee chairs and administrative staff have been a pure pleasure to work with.

A special thanks to John Mayer, Don Marquardt and the Ad-Hoc Planning Committee for their work on the Master Plan, a much needed first step for our future.

I would be remiss if I failed to single out Bob Scheaffer, our general manager. His team is well organized and performing at a very high level of excellence. I challenge the new Board to let him manage the daily activities of the Association, remembering that the Board sets the direction and the General Manager makes it happen. Do not micromanage!

I want to encourage all of you who read this to volunteer for committees, join clubs and fully enjoy the benefits of living in our piece of paradise.

Jerry Rosen

Thanks to you all.

— Jerry Rosen

CERT graduates to meet July 9

Graduates of the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) program at Leisure Village are invited to a reorganizational meeting Tuesday, July 9, at 7 p.m. in the MPR. CERT's role in Leisure Village emergencies, refresher workshops and future trainings are on the agenda.

Should the Village have a dog park?

Should the Village have a dog park?

It's a question that has aroused a wide variety of energetic responses, from "Absolutely" to "Absolutely Not." And that's why the members of the Pet Club are focused on taking down the rhetoric and creating a reasonable discussion.

Pet Club President Mary Ann Robnett explains why.

"Our mission statement says that the club will promote responsible pet ownership. We believe we need a discussion open to all residents to examine the pros and cons," she says.

The issue came up at the very first meeting of the Pet Club nearly three years ago. Now 70 members strong, the group took a close look at a proposal for an off-leash, fenced pet area for dogs a few months ago.

"We talked to the general manager. We did a phone survey of nearly 40 percent of the Village. We scoped out a proposed area," recalls Mary Ann.

The results were interesting; the club's response was cautious.

General Manager Bob Scheaffer "raised some important factors to us," says Mary Ann. "For example, he said having space for parking was as important as space for the dogs."

Club members had suggested an area near the Annex. When the homeowners closest to it were polled, they all objected.

The phone survey by the Pet Club rang up 509 homes in 14 Villages. Results approximated that nearly 350 dogs live here (24 percent of households, averaging nine per village). Some 77 percent of pet owners said they would use a pet activity area here because it promotes healthy pets by providing a safe area for exercise and socialization.

But the club will not go forward alone.

"We want a general forum, not just our members. Something like LV's Master Plan Committee would be a perfect place for this issue," says Mary Ann.

She reminds us that pet owner responsibility is the centerpiece of the club. Look at the current PUP campaign: posters and signs reminding owners to Pick Up Poop. That's an issue we all agree on.

Stability Matters.

Camera Club tours library

The college students are gone for the summer, but the architecturally unique John Spoor Broome Library at the center of the campus of California State University Channel Islands is open for public tours.

The Leisure Village Camera Club enjoyed a docent tour on June 7 and took advantage of many photo opportunities, including the reflection pool and the 193 flags of the United Nations.

Docent Mitch Okui was very informative about the architectural details and history of the library.

The imposing John Spoor Broome Library, completed in 2008, offers an inside look at the work of one of the world's most highly acclaimed architects, Lord Norman Foster. The 137,000-square-foot structure combines glass, steel and concrete into a fascinating repository for books, archives, technology and unusual displays, as the LV Camera Club discovered during its tour.

The university's Summer Architectural Tours showcase the library as well as other works by Lord Foster, who has won nearly every major architectural award, including the Pritzker Prize. His portfolio contains such designs as the Millennium Bridge in London, the Reichstag in Berlin, the Hong Kong Airport and the Hearst Tower in New York.

Foster was an early proponent of sustainability, and the Broome Library is a good example of his emphasis on natural light and venting plus the use of building materials like concrete. More than 40,000 square feet of glass was used in the construction, which cost $56 million.

The tours led by university docents will be held on July 26 and August 23. For more information, go to <http://go.csuci.edu/librarytours>.

their dual objectives to “listen” and keep Leisure Village on its current positive track. As people crowded around with congratulations, Lin Grant said, “I want to keep the Village running exactly as it has.”

And Rita Linsey echoed that when asked if she planned to suggest any major changes.

“No,” she said emphatically, adding, “I want to bring back the ad hoc Master Plan Committee that we had several years ago to evaluate what we’ll need in the future.”

Bob Riveles said he will begin his tenure by learning the inner workings of some of the new responsibilities he’s not familiar with.

“I am ready to listen to other points of view,” he said.

“Board members should be objective.”

The first order of business for the new Board was selection of its officers. By unanimous vote, Lin Grant was chosen president and Bob Riveles, vice president. John Mayer continues as secretary, Ted Lansing as treasurer and Rita Linsey as director at large.

Incumbent John Mayer congratulated all candidates on their hard work during the campaign. He said that the election made him aware of voices he hadn’t heard before. He pledged the Board would “have our ears open to discover new ways to do things.”

The first Open Board meeting of the new term will be held on Monday, July 1, at 10 a.m. in the AR.

A forum was held June 17 on the pros and cons of the Conejo Creek development project.

Forum tackles proposed project

Proponents and opponents of the proposal to convert 740 acres of farmland on the south side of the Conejo Grade into a residential, commercial and recreational development faced off at a Leisure Village forum on June 17.

The Conejo Creek Specific Plan was first proposed to the City of Camarillo in 2007 and has been slowly working its way through state and local reviews ever since. The plan calls for 2,500 housing units, 1.3 million square feet of business and industrial area, and 240 acres of open and recreational space.

The Camarillo City Council will make the final decision on this land use.

The development plan has met opposition, mostly from citizen groups who argue that to turn the verdant open space visible from the top of the 101 Freeway into housing and commercial buildings will increase traffic congestion, eliminate productive agricultural space, change the aesthetics and reduce the number of tourists drawn to the green vistas of Camarillo.

Because the project could have an impact on Leisure Village, the Ed and Rec Committee agreed to host a forum on the issue. More than 200 LV residents attended the presentation, which was first suggested by Villager Marge Lorraine.

"We moved here from the San Fernando Valley. I know that growth occurs wherever communities exist," she says. "But it should be measured and deliberate. I wanted residents to hear both sides of this issue."

Dennis Hardgrave represented the developers, five farm families who joined together to convert their land into the Conejo Creek project. He emphasized that a proposed flood bypass channel included in the plans could remove Leisure Village homes from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) flood zone. He said the trails and parks would be available for public use. Because of the complexity of the project, Hargrave estimated it could be several years before construction would begin.

Representing the opposition to the Conejo Creek Plan were Louise Roberts and Merrill Buerge, both Camarillo homeowners who lead groups opposed to the project. They listed the "significant and unavoidable impacts" identified in the draft environmental impact report (DEIR), including an estimated 41,000 additional car trips daily on the freeway, plus 4,000 more on Santa Rosa Road.

LV residents asked more than a dozen questions about traffic impact, if the city needs 2,500 more homes, and how Leisure Village could benefit from the bypass channel.

A video of the forum will be presented on LTV in July.

The next official step — when the city Planning Commission makes a decision on the DEIR — is expected in the next few months at a public meeting in City Hall.

Meat marinade economical

By Susan Amerikaner

As you walk through Leisure Village in the evening, do you detect delicious scents of barbecue? Nothing beats meat on the grill!

I love flank steak, but it can be pricey. My new favorite is London Broil, a great buy. If it's over two pounds, I cut it in half and put one in the freezer. One pound is perfect for me and my husband.

To make it tender, I "stab" both sides repeatedly with a fork. Next I add my marinade. I never buy bottled anymore. This Magical Meat Marinade is fabulous and economical. You can cook the meat inside in the broiler, too. This marinade is magic!

Ingredients

- 1/2 cup olive oil
- 1/3 cup soy sauce

- 1/3 cup fresh lemon juice
- 1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tablespoon garlic powder
- 3 tablespoons dried basil*
- 1 tablespoon dried parsley *
- 1 teaspoon black pepper*

*Use whatever dried herbs you have on hand. To give it a "kick," you can even add a dash of Tabasco.

Directions

Be sure you have pricked the meat with a fork to allow the marinade to soak in. You can whisk all the ingredients or put them in a blender and mix for 30 seconds. Pour over the meat. Cover and refrigerate for 8 hours or overnight.

Cook meat however you like. Slice thinly on diagonal.

Realtors Corner: Insurance important

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate Inc.

Most of us know that there have been two recent fires in Leisure Village, one in Village 6 and another in Village 29. Because of this, I am again writing about the importance of having appropriate insurance on our homes.

Policies and coverage can be confusing! Our Leisure Village Association has a master policy which covers the perimeter, structural walls and roof. It is sometimes referred to as a "bare bones policy." If a homeowner has a fire in their unit and has to make a claim, there could be a $5,000 deductible assessed to the homeowner.

Not covered in the master policy are cabinets, vanities, countertops, sinks, toilets, stove, dishwasher, refrigerator, washer, dryer, garbage disposal, water heater, flooring, lighting, bathroom fixtures, shower, tub, etc.

Personal property contents in one's home is not covered at all on the master policy, but is included on your HO6 policy, commonly known as a condo-owner policy. There are sub-limits for jewelry and other target items, so you may want to add a floater (endorsement) to insure those specific items, and that requires a recent appraisal. Be sure to include "Contents Replacement Cost" to your policy so that your insurance will pay you "new for old" on your contents should you have a loss.

When talking with your insurance agent, you may want to ask about earthquake and flood insurance, if relevant, for your home.

Please be sure to have the correct coverage. Once a loss occurs, it is too late!

Longest Day event raises Alzheimer's awareness

By William Lamar

The first annual Alzheimer's Longest Day event at Leisure Village held on June 21 proved to be a great success.

Activities started zero dark thirty, 5:30 a.m., and continued on until 8:30 p.m. These activities included:

- Swimming, 17 persons, four hours, with several swimming more than one mile.
 - Shuffleboard, 20 participants over a four-hour period.
 - Bowling, with 22 persons from 9 a.m. to noon.
 - Water Aerobics, with 20 persons for an hour.
 - Paddle Tennis, with more than 15 participants contributing over $132.
- Chess, Wii Bowling, Billiards, Golf and the Exercise Group also participated.

In the AR, the Lapidary participants allowed visitors to make jewelry while enjoying cookies and going into Austria to liberate Berchtesgaden at war's end. This is the conclusion of Bigg Al's D-Day experience.

By Bob Cohen

"The 101st, joined by the 82nd and some Brits and (free) Poles, were going in before the actual invasion," Schuster remembers. "Our job was to secure critical locations, destroy bridges that the Germans could use to move reinforcements, and to take the town of Carentan.

"Within the 501st, the 1st and 2nd battalions were on point. Our battalion (the 3d battalion) was in reserve. That meant we were to drop into the area, form up and wait to be assigned to wherever help was needed.

"The night of June 5, we moved to our airfields. The 3rd battalion flew out of Welford; the others left from Merryfield airport. We were all supposed to leave at 10:45 that night and drop into France about five hours before the actual invasion started at daybreak.

"Well, things didn't go exactly to plan. We got off a little late and the flack over the drop zones was really bad. A lot of the planes were hit before they got to the drop zone. Other pilots tried to zig zag to make themselves harder targets, but that only got them off course. Some actually turned back to England without dropping any of their parachutists or releasing their gliders. Boy, were those pilots in trouble! Our pilot actually slowed down to make it easier for us to jump, but of course, that just made him a better target. Bottom line: We were scattered all over the place.

"We were supposed to drop north and east of Carentan, but I really don't know where we landed. As confused as things were for us, the Germans were even more confused. We were so scattered that they thought that many more units had dropped.

"As I said, Toby and I were on the same plane. I landed on a German soldier; to this day I don't know if he was already dead or if I knocked him out. I was scared. The adrenalin was really flowing. People were shooting at us! My buddy Toby was hung up on a roof steeple. We were trained to cut ourselves out of the harness should that happen—or better yet, to steer the chute so that we landed in an open area. But there was Toby, hung high and dry — and a perfect target for the Germans who were all around us. Before I could get to him, one of our officers and a sergeant got to him and cut him down.

"We were loaded down with equipment. Besides my M-1 and bayonet, I had a full band of ammunition (40 rounds) and four grenades. We also carried a few days worth of K-rations. Among other things we had was a clicker — just like in the TV series. We were supposed to use it to identify ourselves in the dark. Like a dumb kid, I put mine in the bottom of my (very deep) pocket, where I couldn't find it after we dropped. Shortly after we landed, I was challenged by one of our guys. I couldn't find the clicker and I panicked. 'Hey it's me, Al' I called out. Again, the response was only a single click. I thought I'd had it. I called out again and after a few seconds, Sgt. Reggie Owens appeared out of the dark telling me that I'd damn near got shot. I found my clicker."

The members of both airborne divisions were now scattered across the Carentan peninsula. Many units were forming up as troops gathered around whatever officers and non-coms they found. Many did not know exactly where they were and, equally important, where their objectives were. The French resistance came to their rescue, showing their locations and objectives on the maps.

"They did something else for us," Schuster recalled, "they broadcast to the Germans that 'Roosevelt's killers' had come. That scared a lot of the inexperienced Germans in the area. Every little edge helps in combat.

"Confusion or not, we took our objectives, including the town of Carentan, and held them until we were relieved by the 83rd Infantry on June 27. However, they didn't send us back to England. On the 29th, we were sent to Cherbourg to relieve the 4th Infantry Division. But that was OK, because Cherbourg was to be our R & R location. It had beautiful beaches and everything else a tired soldier could want."

Robinsons make things happen in Village

plays and musicals, to the “Neat Tricks Computer Class” that Bill created and taught for 11 years, this couple has been active and involved in countless ways since they moved here in 1997.

Annie and Bill would be quick to say that lots of other residents have been equally active. But what makes them unique is that Annie has been nearly blind since childhood, and Bill was the victim of a serious stroke two years ago.

“Everything is so easy here,” explains Annie. “And that’s what we liked when we chose Leisure Village.”

Bill is a retired aerospace engineer who was a member of the Space Shuttle Orbiter Design Team. When he arrived in Camarillo, he brought that technological enthusiasm with him.

The very first LV website (www.

leisurevillage.us) was his creation. His “Neat Tricks” class — two two-hour groups every Monday — brought computing to hundreds of Villagers before being a computer geek was fashionable. Bill joined the Camera Club well before digital photos were universal, and each month, he helped members prepare their photos for competition. And he was the first to automate the Village’s emergency response system.

The stroke slowed him down. But his technology skills still get a workout.

Annie says Leisure Village continues to be a good fit for them.

“It’s ideal for walking, swimming, and I love performing with the Players Guild,” she says. Musicals, comedy, skits, she’s there and ready.

“I memorize my lines with Bill. He reads the script to me over and over again. And I keep repeating lines until I’ve got it.”

A Players Guild colleague adds that the audience generally has no idea Annie is blind.

She began to lose vision in grade school, the result of scarring on the optic nerve. She learned medical transcription skills as a young widow with three children to support and had a successful career from then on.

“She was a cracker jack typist; she could do 90 words a minute,” Bill reports proudly.

Now Annie is computer savvy, using a device created by her husband that combines voice and font magnification.

The Robinsons would say they moved from Paradise to Paradise 16 years ago. They mean they left Paradise, Calif., for Leisure Village.

“People are so friendly; there are so many activities. I’m much more independent here than I would be in a normal house,” Annie says, smiling about their most important “Neat Trick” of all.

Holding the bag

Here’s an exercise for people over 50.

Begin by standing on a comfortable surface, where you have plenty of room at each side.

With a 5-pound potato bag in each hand, extend your arms straight out from your sides and hold them there as long as you can. Try to reach a full minute, then relax.

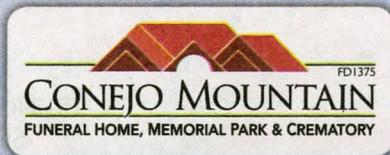

Each day you’ll find that you can hold this position just a bit longer. After a couple of weeks, move up to 10-pound bags.

Then try 50-pound potato bags and then eventually try to get to where you can lift a 100-pound bag in each hand and hold your arms straight for a full minute. (I’m at this level.)

After you feel confident at that level, put a potato in each bag.

The Boosters

By Lin Grant

The Boosters are looking for a few good projects in the Village. Does your club have a wish list? Our club is willing to create, develop and implement an event for which most of the proceeds can go to your organization. Your club would help with set-up and clean-up and sell the tickets. Our past events have been sold out and have generated funds for many Village needs, such as the space heaters on the patio, the carpet mats in the Rec Center, the shuttered doors in the library and bus shelters. Let us help you help your club.

The Boosters meet the third Monday of every month, except July, in the MPR at 7 p.m. Please join us and help improve this beautiful place we call home.

LV New York Club

Our all-you-can-eat buffet dinner was enjoyed by all who attended our June meeting. We were entertained by singer Jerry Weisbecker, singing the songs we love to hear.

We will be dark in July because of Independence Day. At our Aug. 1 meeting we will have a husband-and-wife variety show featuring Stu and Lori Stillman. Their show is coming to television shortly.

Remember, you don't have to be a New Yorker to join the New York Club. Our dues are only $7 a year, and we have great entertainment every month. Our meetings are the first Thursday of the month at 7:30 p.m. in the AR. For questions, call Florence Sklarz at 482-5001.

Women's Club Fashion Show is fit for a queen

Editor's note: The Women's Club Fashion Show, an annual fundraiser, took place June 13 in the AR. Here is an account of the event.

By Marion Green

What a show it was! The behind-the-scenes coordination of this event is a story unto itself.

Some numbers: 28 servers; eight models; 33 volunteers. Hours and hours of meetings. Food to be purchased. Some 240 guests to be served salad with chicken, finger sandwiches, scones with clotted cream and strawberries. Beverages on each table to be replenished often. There were: 36 pounds of chicken to be cooked and chopped, 26 pounds of lettuce, 220 ounces of cream cheese, 500 tea bags, 25 cucumbers and more. A total of 275 salads were made and 600 scones baked.

Gentlemen servers stood at each table, eager to be of service. Shearon Millar was the refreshments' coordinator and worked for days with a staff of helpers to create the day's splendid food. She even put her teenage grandchildren to work!

Programs and posters to write, edit and print. Winona Rocha handled the tickets being printed, numbered, sold and distributed. Models made several trips to Bob Kildee and Draper's and Damon's to choose outfits and to be fitted. Volunteers arrived at 8 a.m. that morning to transform the AR into the magnificent room it became.

Chi Chun coordinated the ladies who greeted the guests and led them to their numbered tables. This year in honor of the Brits, guests were invited to bring their own teacup and saucer. Many heirloom pieces of china graced the tables. Many wore wonderful hats and fancy attire. Once all were seated, Betty Dean, president of the club, thanked everyone for coming and for all the hard work the volunteers had done. Sharron Parker, as mistress of ceremonies, announced that she had a surprise guest. Out walked a petite and elegant looking lady who introduced herself as Queen Elizabeth II. In recognition of Shearon Millar's outstanding service for this event, the Queen Mum presented a special gift to her from "across the pond." Psst.... It's been rumored that Lin Grant was the queen in disguise.

The fashion show began with great rock and roll background music. Each model came to center stage, posed with great swagger, while the moderator described the clothing being worn. Six elegant women and two handsome fellows strutted their stuff. While models changed clothes, tickets were drawn and prizes, generously donated by local merchants, were given out.

The show ended with Lin Grant stating that the Fashion Show was the Women's Club's biggest yearly fundraiser. Some more amazing figures: The total amount the club has donated from 1979 to 2012 is $365,055. Of that, $190,654 was contributed to outside community charities and services. Leisure Village has been the recipient of $175,301 in a myriad of items purchased or services performed to improve and enhance the Leisure Village experience. As an example, the four sensor doors in the lobby were bought by the club. Many other village clubs also generously donate from their treasuries.

Lin Grant closed by thanking everyone and posing the question, "If you don't belong to the Women's Club, why not?"

P.S.: I found out that the special gift from "across the pond" for Shearon Millar was a lovely Royal Prince Albert bone china teacup, saucer and dessert plate.

Lin Grant channels the queen of England during the fashion show.

Woodshop

By Chuck Russell

The Woodshop is another of the great recreation facilities in Leisure Village and is a popular place. Fifty-seven key holders have used the shop this year. Ten committee members, with occasional help by a few key holders, volunteered their expertise and time to repair items for residents and do some projects for the village; more than 130 projects have been completed this year.

Leisure Village residents are welcome to bring items to the Woodshop in the Recreation Center Tuesday and Wednesday mornings between 10 a.m. and noon. There is no guarantee that all damaged items can be fixed, only that the volunteers will try to restore them to the best of their ability. There is no charge for this service. Donations are accepted for materials and supplies. For more information, contact Sid Alweiss at 482-5341 or Chuck Russell at 383-3043.

The woodshop is available to Leisure Village residents with woodworking experience, provided that they can demonstrate the ability to operate power equipment safely. Those interested in having key access to the shop should contact a Woodshop Committee member for an appointment to be checked out on the equipment.

Dues for next season are $15, which includes a ticket to our awards luncheon. Bowling fees for next season are $10 for three games, including prize money. For more information, contact Art or Bob.

Exercise Group

By Sue-Ellen Colp

The 10-week Summer Strength Training Class started Tuesday, July 2, and will continue through Sept. 3. It is held in the AR from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. Cost is only $30. Where can you get a deal like that?

The class consists of strength training with weights, spri, resistance bands, chair for core, balance, range of motion and coordination. Come join the fun and great socialization.

There is a free low-impact aerobics class held on Thursday from 10 to 11 a.m. in the Annex. Bring a mat or use a chair. We work on cardio and lots of core. For more information, call Sue-Ellen at 805-312-1991.

Friday Night Country Dance

By Sue-Ellen Colp

Our next dance will be July 5 from 7 to 10 p.m. Cost is still $5. Judy will be teaching and it will be a fun dance, knowing Judy. Thanks to Jim for teaching last month. Our DJ, Marshall, is trying to get as many requests in as he can so keep on coming and giving him tunes to spin.

Last month was a good crowd, lots of energy and a fun night of dancing. There are so many new dances out there that it is hard to get all of the dances in. But we do try. It is so good to see so many new faces. Spread the word and tell your friends.

Bring a snack to share, BYOB. Coffee, water and punch will be provided. See you there Friday, July 5, at 7 p.m.

Village Arts

By Harvey S. Brosler

The general meeting of the Village Arts members is held on the first Wednesday of the month at 1 p.m. in the MPR. Guests are welcome to attend. There will be no general meeting in July.

On July 10, Village Arts will hold a Summer Picnic Potluck at the Pavilion for members and guests only.

Village Arts is comprised of members who paint using different mediums, such as acrylics, watercolor, oil, graphite, pastels and pen and ink. Some members make collages using these mediums. Experience can range from the beginner to the very knowledgeable.

The painting class meets on Monday and Tuesday in the Lanai Room from 1 to 3 p.m.

have a great day filled with adventure and exploration. The price of $110 per person includes roundtrip deluxe motor coach transportation and roundtrip boat transportation to Catalina Island. Curt Tucker will be your guide. Glenn Whitlock will be your escort.

"Lights! Camera! Action!" The Pageant of the Masters will celebrate its 80th birthday of living pictures—the original freeze frame — at the Festival of Arts. Curt Tucker will be our guide for this adventure, which begins with a drive along the California Coast as we travel to the Dana Point Marina Inn & Harbor. This will be our overnight home with an opportunity to enjoy a fantastic lunch at one of the many local restaurants or visit the snack shops surrounding the Harbor. You will have a chance to relax before our magical evening begins, including an opportunity to dine at one of the two restaurants located on the Festival grounds. After the show, we will return to our hotel. Day two begins with a complimentary breakfast at the hotel before departing for San Juan Capistrano Mission. So, come join us Aug. 27-28 for an exciting summer getaway. The price is $188 per person for a double, and a single is $225. Mary Jane Porter will be the escort. The tickets are non-refundable.

Future trips are currently being planned for Broadway Tunes,

LV Musicians

By Anne Wolfson

The LV Musicians, a group of Villagers who play musical instruments, will be playing in the AR from 7 to 9 p.m. on Thursday, July 11.

In June, we had a delightful evening with the following players: Richard Weiss playing "rag time" on piano; Joe Arronson on clarinet accompanied by Stan Vansant on piano; Jim Best on guitar; Stan Vansant on flugel horn and sax; Libby Pierce on piano; Sam Arouesty on harmonica accompanied by Stan Vansant on piano; and David Singer on clarinet accompanied by Richard Weiss on piano. Ending the evening was Richard Weiss playing songs by Gershwin on the piano.

Join us in July for another fun evening with coffee, cookies and wine.

Men's Golf

By Rob Sollett

In the fictional world there is Rocky Balboa, champion of the people. In the real world, there is John Baumgardner, an everyman with the desire and will to bring home another Niner's Cup championship. After his initial top win in 2009, medical issues sidelined him for several months.

"I was playing much better when I first won the cup four years ago. Age and health issues had an effect on my mental outlook on golf," Baumgardner admitted.

Nonetheless, John fought back to regain the championship in 2013.

Lee Trevino once said: "It takes a hell of a man to win two." I agree, Lee.

First Place President Cup winners include: John Beiner, A Flight; John Hislar, B Flight, who scored a historic low net score of 94; Sidney Necowitz, C Flight.

First Place Village Cup winners include: Bob Michna for the 18ers and Geoff Millar for the Nine Hole Golfers, who, by the way, won for the second straight year. Atta boy, Geoff.

Congrats go out to Bruce Hochstadter, A Flight; Bill Crome, B Flight; and Bob Amantia, C Flight for their first place wins in the Tournament of Champions in the Regulation Golf Tournament played at Buenaventure Golf Course on May 30.

A Hole in One congrats to Bob Zakas who scored his Ace on June 4 on #15. This brings his total to five on the LV Course.

The Annual Installation of Officers

& Awards Luncheon was held on June 19 in the AR. 2013-2014 Club Officers include: Pat Gunning, president; John Hislar, first vice president; Paul Coffman, second vice president; Joseph Benti, secretary; and Jim Mainland, treasurer.

Outgoing President John Wirtz thanked all for their service, which he said made his job an "easygoing pleasure."

Incoming President Pat Gunning presented Wirtz with a plaque for his dedication to Leisure Village golfers. Gunning added, "his friendship is a blessing to me."

Most Improved Golfer Awards were presented to Jim Mainland, 18er; Nine Hole Golfer Art Thomson; and Mark Betterman, Regulation Golfer.

We welcome new member Casimir Feleyn to the club and wish him great success.

So, as this season ends, a new one begins. Come join us and enjoy the pleasure of grass under your feet as you play golf.

Sing Along Group

By Anne Wolfson

The Sing Along Group will be singing in the AR from 7 to 8:30 p.m. on Monday, July 8, and Monday, July 29. All Villagers and their friends and neighbors are invited to come and join in. It's not necessary to carry a tune, just come and have some fun. We have songbooks and piano accompaniment with Irene Olson or Stan Vansant.

SAS Dinner Out

By Zelda Greentree

LV's Single Active Seniors invites all singles to join us on the second Tuesday of each month for our "Dinner Out" at Ottavio's Italian Restaurant. We all enjoy the food, the excellent service and meeting new and old friends. We have a private room, but space is limited. Please call Lee Edwards at 484-3289 for reservations. Love to see you at our next dinner on July 9. Remember to call Lee!

Racquet Club

By Trish Zakas

July is a busy month for the Racquet Club. Saturday, July 13, the club will host a paddle tennis tournament with the nice players from Casta Del Sol. Sign-ups are now closed for this event, but everyone is invited to watch the matches and cheer on the home team. Reuben Ruiz, 889-5544, is the tournament director and the person to call if you need more info.

If you have not paid your $6 for the tournament day lunch, you have until Tuesday, July 9, to give your money to Arlene Bergman, Diane Carroll or Reuben Ruiz. You may invite guests to the luncheon at the rate of $6 per person. In addition to the tournament on July 13, DropShot Sports will be sending us their newest paddles for all to try. One of the tennis courts will be designated as a hitting lane so that any and all who are interested can try the new models.

Saturday afternoon, July 27, is the Racquet Club annual picnic, which will be held in our picnic area. This is always a fun-filled event so everyone please save the date. Tickets will soon be on sale for this catered event and can be purchased from Sunshine Peterson at 388-1230. Watch the court bulletin board for more details. Diane Carroll at 419-4325 is chairing this event, so direct questions to her.

With the weather getting hotter, we're all looking for cooler activities. If you haven't given the Monday ping pong games a try, this might be the time to do so. Players meet every Monday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. in the air-conditioned Paddle Palace, which is in the Annex. Play for an hour or for the entire afternoon; your choice.

Participation is open to all — you do not have to be a Racquet Club member to enjoy the exercise and cool environment this sport supplies. Questions? Call John Peterson at 388-1230.

Camera Club

place, Laura Greffley. Honorable Mentions were won by Jerry Spector and Doug Demers.

In the Creative category, winners were: first place, Jerry Spector; second place, Marlene Votion; and third place, Frank DeSimone. There were no Honorable Mentions in this category in June.

We were pleased that a new member — Greg Gillmar — won this month.

The club participated in an architectural tour of the John Spoor Broome Library at California State University, Channel Islands.

The Assigned category for July is "Water."

The club will have its annual potluck on Aug. 7 prior to the evening's judging.

The members are busy preparing their pictures for the Ventura County Fair photo exhibit. There will not be a meeting on the third Wednesday in July or August. Everyone is welcome; no cameras are necessary. Contact Judy Spector at 384-9039 for more information.

LV Pet Club

By Susan Amerikaner

Our June meeting was a B.Y.O.D. (Bring Your Own Dog) event! It was held outdoors at the Pool Pavilion. Canine behavioral expert Judy Arnold taught how to "read" canine signals and body language. Using LV dogs to demonstrate, Arnold showed how dogs communicate feelings when approaching other dogs and/or people. She explained that dogs signal various mental states — such as submission, aggression, or anxiety — by subtle changes. Tail down and relaxed generally means the dog is comfortable. Stiff tail pointing up and ears forward may mean a dog is not relaxed, so the owner needs to be alert for anxiety or aggression.

Our next meeting is on Monday, July 8, at 7 p.m. in the MPR. Dr. Andy Miller, DVM, will speak about pet allergies and heat-related pet problems. Dr. Miller practices at Mission Oaks Veterinary Clinic, right outside LV. It's already getting hot, and our pets need help to stay happy and healthy. This is an indoor meeting, so leave your pets at home.

Computer Club

By Barbara Michaels

The Computer Club is having a very important member meeting on Friday, July 12, at 10 a.m. in the MPR. The future of the club will be discussed and decided upon. Please be sure to attend and add your voice to the discussion. As always, the best homemade cookies in the Village will be served!

The Mavericks

By Margo Secia

The Mavericks will host their only "live band" dinner-dance of the season on Friday, July 26, in the AR at 6 p.m. We've lined up a very lively, very talented local band with an awesome vocalist that several of the Mavericks board members ran across in Old Town Camarillo — "Honor Among Thieves." They have a "rock on" attitude you'll love to dance to. Our buffet style dinner will be the always-fresh "Presto Pasta" Rigatoni pasta with Marinara sauce topped with Parmesan cheese with your choice of Caesar or garden salad and garlic bread. A cookie or candy bar, coffee, tea, punch and water will be included, and beer and wine will be available for a suggested donation of $1. As always, you may BYOB.

Join us for dinner at 6 p.m. and dancing at 7 p.m. Tickets are only $12 per member or $15 per non-member and can be purchased by calling Jeanne White at 207-9869, Merle Ruiz at 444-5225 or "Mr. Ticketman," Howard Koehn, at 389-1066.

RV Club

By Fred Sass

The RV Club has no meetings during the July-August months. The next meeting is Tuesday, Sept. 17 at 6:30 p.m. There are no dine-outs planned, but if someone gets one organized we will use the phone-tree phone system to notify everyone. The only camp-out planned at this time is the Oct. 17-20 at Buellton trip. You may be able to still sign up for that. Call Mary Beil at 987-7901 to check it out. Have a great summer and vacation. See you all in September.

The Big Band

By Anne Wolfson

The Big Band will be playing in the

AR on Tuesdays, July 9, 16, 23 and 30 from 7 to 9 p.m.

The band is made up of 17 professional musicians who come to Leisure Village to entertain our Villagers and their guests. Only two of the band members are LV residents; all others come from all over and play in other bands.

If you've had a hard day, come and relax to beautiful music, and, if you like to dance, just do your thing! We have coffee and cookies, and all Villagers and friends are invited to come.

Shuffleboard Club

By Diane Hawrylo

High scores for an eight frame game were: May 22, Milt Krapes, 175; May 29, Milt Krapes, 146; June 5, Milt Krapes, 151; June 12, Al Sarnelle, 142; June 19, Milt Krapes, 170. We have 30 players competing for a high score at this time. Everyone is doing very well and enjoying shuffleboard at the same time. There is a lot of enthusiasm and interest in shuffleboard.

Shuffleboard is fun and challenging. The object of the game is to propel discs by means of a cue onto the scoring diagram at the opposite end of the court to score, to prevent your opponent from scoring, or both. It is a healthy, outdoor activity.

We play shuffleboard on Wednesdays at 9:30 a.m. Villagers are invited to join. There are no dues. You can practice at any time. Come and join the fun.

Beginner Line Dance Class

By Tina Nunnally

The Beginner Line Dance Class meets on Tuesdays from 2:30 to 4 p.m. in the AR. Extra help is available from 2:30 to 3 p.m. The class begins at 3 p.m.

Sharon O'Conner is the dance instructor. Regular attendance is recommended in order to learn basic steps and dances. We dance to various styles of dance. Come join the fun. This is an activity that is great for mind, body and spirit.

Contact Sharon at 910-9428 if you have any questions regarding this class. Looking forward to seeing you.

Billiard Club

By Jack Quinn

The picnic in the park on June 2 was a great success. The games were enjoyed by many participants. Thanks to the club's Board of Directors for their professional planning and the volunteers that cooked, set up and cleaned up.

There will not be any meetings in July and August. The next meeting is scheduled for Sept. 24. This is a good time to practice 9-ball for the tournament that is scheduled for July 29.

Have a fun-filled summer.
