

Los Angeles Examiner
OFFICE OF THE PUBLISHER
BROADWAY AT ELEVENTH ST., LOS ANGELES

February 2, 1933.

Miss Julia Morgan,
Merchants Exchange Bldg.,
San Francisco, California.

My dear Miss Morgan:

I am delighted to hear from you and delighted to know that you are improving.

Add a little Christian Science to the efforts of the surgeons and I am sure everything will be perfect.

I know how you feel about the necessity of doing something. Unfortunately I felt the same way.

The most important thing to do however is to get yourself into perfect condition.

Do not worry. Occupy yourself with anything that keeps you quiet, - jig-saw puzzles or something of that kind.

Furthermore there is no architecting on the Hill. We are lazily fixing up the two unfinished duplexes.

I personally am down in Los Angeles,
thinking of pictures and not of buildings.

You can take a good month or more to rest up. In a month or six weeks, we will be through the picture, and I hope to be back on the Hill then.

We can thereupon plan the new Great Hall,
etcetera, etcetera.

Marion joins me in sincerest good wishes.

Very truly yours,

W R Hearst