

Senator Omer Rains
Campaign Committee

Dear Dan and Jane:

I am, of course, very pleased with the election results, but I fully realize that my victory was not exclusively a personal one. Rather, my re-election was the result of the collective effort of numerous people, such as yourself, who made important contributions in many different ways.

Over a year ago, when I first learned that there would be a concerted effort to target the 18th Senatorial District, I asked you for help - and you responded. In retrospect, it's increasingly evident that such help was eventually instrumental in convincing the opposition that this district was not for sale.

My opponent's Proposition 9 disclosure statements graphically illustrate that the outside power brokers "cut him off" financially around the first of October and decided at the last minute to divert most of the money to two other Senate races (in Northern California) where their chances of success looked better than here.

In any event, I am truly grateful for your support. I know that your expectations of me are high, and I will do my utmost to see that you are not disappointed. Again, thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Warmest personal regards,

Omer
