FOR YOUR INFORMATION
MEMO TO EDITORS

Members of the selection committee of the California Democratic Presidential Delegation Committee headed by Attorney General Thomas C. Lynch will meet this weekend in Los Angeles to make the selection of the slate's membership to represent California at the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

The selection committee will meet in two days of closed sessions on Saturday and Sunday (February 17 and 18) at the Airport Marine Hotel, 8601 Lincoln Blvd., Los Angeles 90045, to select the 172 member delegation. Assemblyman Charles Warren, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of California, will chair the selection meetings.

On Sunday afternoon (February 18th) at 1:30 o'clock, Attorney General Lynch and Assemblyman Warren will be available to give you the latest briefing on the progress of the delegate selection. This briefing will be held in the Kent Room of the Airport Marine Hotel.
